Chief of Police ROBERT L. PEARCHE, Baytown, Texas, Police Department, on December 3, 1963, advised SA FRANK K. IVEY as follows:

He was introduced to JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club, Dallas, about March, 1962 by MARY HARTFORD. He stated HARTFORD is possibly "mistress" of RUBY, in that he is confident that RUBY and HARTFORD were closely associated until he last had contact with HARTFORD about March, 1962. HARTFORD was formerly secretary to Captain PAT GANNAWAY, Officer in Charge, Special Service Bureau, over narcotics, vice and criminal intelligence, Dallas Police Department, but HARTFORD has since transferred to City of Dallas Tax Department.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs EDMOND C. HARDIN and ROBERT J. WILKISON at Dallas, Texas:

MARY ELIZABETH HARTFORD, 3512½ Cragmont, Dallas, Texas, on December 9, 1963, advised as follows:

She is currently employed as secretary in the City of Dallas Tax Department and was promoted from position of stenographer in the office of Captain W. P. GANNAWAY, Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department, approximately July, 1962.

She has casually known JACK RUBY since approximately 1956 in connection with her employment in Captain

GANNAWAY's office. She only knew RUBY through his appearances at the Special Service Bureau in connection with RUBY obtaining city licenses for the night clubs he operated. She has been in RUBY's night clubs but absolutely never personally associated with RUBY at any time, although she has seen him at various places around Dallas.

Her acquaintance with RUBY has been casual and only someone she knew and talked to when she saw him on the street or elsewhere; however, she never had any social or business engagements with RUBY. She has no information concerning RUBY's personal life.

She did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She never heard of any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY.

Mrs. JOE GARCIA, also known as SHERRI LINN, 1938 Las Cruces, Dallas, Texas, advised she has known JACK RUBY for approximately 15 years. Mrs. GARCIA is an exotic dancer and uses the stage name SHERRI LINN. She said she first became acquainted with RUBY when he was frequenting the old Sky Club in Dallas, which was later known as the Sky View Club. She said this club was formerly operated by a Dallas character by the name of JOE BONDS. She pointed out another Dallas police character by the name of CECIL GREEN, whom she described as a Dallas-Fort Worth gambler, who was killed on the front steps of the Sky Club by other hoodlums. She stated JACK RUBY, JOE BONDS and CECIL GREEN were good friends at that time. She believed BONDS is presently serving a sentence in the Texas State Penitentiary at Huntsville, Texas, on a sodomy charge involving a 15-year old girl. He is also serving time on two other violations at the same time.

Mrs. GARCIA described RUBY as being a person who liked to use his fists to gain his way. She stated he is hot tempered and would fight for no reason at all. She recalled on one occasion RUBY jumped on her brother and was about to kill her brother before someone stopped the fight. She said RUBY hit her brother with a blow from behind with his hand which knocked her brother to the ground after which RUBY kicked him in the face. She continued in her opinion GEORGE SENATOR and RALPH PAUL are perhaps RUBY's closest associates at the present time. She said RUBY is an individual who would like to know a lot of people and for that reason he does on occasions do nice things for people after which he will make a complete change and do something mean to them because of his hot temper. As a result of this temper, RUBY has alienated all of his so called friends.

Mrs. GARCIA advised she has never known RUBY to show any interest in politics or political figures. At first she had the opinion that RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD for publicity purposes; however, based on information she has obtained through radio and newspapers she now believes RUBY may possibly be involved in the assassination of President KENNEDY along with OSWALD. Mrs. GARCIA stated she was basing the latter opinion strictly on what she had heard on the radio and seen in the newspapers regarding the assassination. She said a dollar means everything to JACK RUBY and he is the type of person who would do anything for money. Mrs. GARCIA said she worked for RUBY at times during the past 15 years and she had also worked for JOE BONDS when he was operating a night club in Dallas. She stated she knew RUBY was in possession of and was carrying a gun when she first met him several years ago. She did not know the particular reason why he carried the weapon but presumed that he carried same for his own personal protection or because he carried considerable money in his pockets at times from his night club receipts. She said RUBY has never shown any intense hatred for a particular individual over a long period of time and he has never exhibited a dislike for President KENNEDY or any of President KENNEDY's policies. She stated RUBY has never married and the only thing he can talk about is money and his night clubs. She advised he is a real publicity "hound" and he would do anything for publicity. He has never expressed any particular interest in religious matters and she has never engaged him in a discussion of politics. She said to the best of her knowledge he has no apparent interest in anything except his night clubs.

With regard to his background prior to coming to Dallas, she advised she knew he came from Chicago and there is nothing more she knows regarding his background. She stated she did know RUBY was friendly with quite a few Dallas police detectives and policemen and he continually invited these persons to visit his night clubs. She recalled RUBY formerly dated an exotic dancer by the name of "JADA", one KATHY KAY and one MILLIE PERELL (phonetic). She said KAY and PERELL are both exotic dancers.

Dr. M.L. GLICKFELD, 1001 Montgomery, Office 103, advised he has residence phone number ED 6-3265.

1700 Pennsylvania Ave
Fort Worth, Texas

Dr. GLICKFELD stated that he had been to Dallas, Texas on a number of occasions in the past and had about three months ago gone to the Carousel Club operated by JACK RUBY. Dr. GLICKFELD stated that he was with a friend of his, BERT NELSON, owner of Chez Femme Wig Salon, 4328 Lovers Lane, Dallas, Texas and this friend introduced Dr. GLICKFELD to one of the entertainers who was performing at the Carousel. This girl's name is JADA, one of the strippers that worked at the Carousel. Dr. GLICKFELD stated that he had several dates with JADA and that she had his home telephone number.

Dr. GLICKFELD said that JACK RUBY never did call him at his residence and that he believed that JADA made all of the telephone calls to him from the Carousel. Dr. GLICKFELD stated that he only met JACK RUBY once at the Carousel and believed that this was on an occasion when JADA was sitting at his table with him and NELSON and RUBY came up and was introduced to him. He stated that RUBY did not sit down and he did not carry on any conversation with him. Dr. GLICKFELD said that he got the impression from JADA that RUBY was trying to date her and he did not like the idea.

Dr. GLICKFELD stated further that on nearly every occasion that he was at the Carousel Club, RUBY was always screaming at someone and nearly every time RUBY threw someone out of the club. Dr. GLICKFELD added that JADA told him that RUBY cut the lights off on her act on at least one occasion.

Dr. GLICKFELD also stated that he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel and never did see RUBY talking with anyone even resembling OSWALD.

JOSEPH A. GLOWACKI [illegible] Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, he was in the downtown area of Dallas with KRYSTIAN BARCZ, a Polish National who was visiting the U. S. on a State Department study grant. During the afternoon of November 22, 1963, they stopped at the Ritz Delicatessen for lunch and while there he observed JACK RUBY walking around in the delicatessen. He introduced him to Mr. BARCZ and invited him to sit at their table. He declined with the comment that he was just walking around. He was still at the delicatessen when they left.

Mr. GLOWACKI advised that at that time JACK RUBY did not appear to him to be any more agitated or upset than the average citizen. In fact, he asked Mr. GLOWACKI, "JOE, what is this going to do to our business? We're going to lose all of the conventions". It appeared to Mr. GLOWACKI that he was more concerned with the result on business than he was by the actual assassination of the President. Mr. GLOWACKI advised that he has probably known Mr. RUBY since about 1957. He considers him a casual acquaintance and not a friend but has seen him quite often at the B & B Cafe, which is near the Vegas Club, or in the Vegas Club or the Carousel Club.

He estimated that he has been in the Carousel Club on five or six occasions and was last there about six to eight months ago. On the occasions he was in the Carousel Club, he noted that RUBY apparently was acquainted with a large number of people and would move from table to table greeting the patrons. He recalls no instances in which photographers were taking pictures of the patrons of the Carousel Club. He recalls having seen no officers of the Dallas Police Department in the Carousel Club but does recall having seen officers in the Vegas Club on numerous occasions.

He advised that in those instances in which he observed officers at the Vegas Club, they usually came into the club during the late hours, stood around for a few minutes and then left. He saw no instances in which they were obviously being treated at no cost by the management of the Vegas Club. Mr. GLOWACKI advised that he is not well enough acquainted with RUBY to have information

AKA TEZMAN

EDWARD HUGH GODDARD was interviewed this date at his residence which is a house trailer located behind an abandoned house numbered 472 Jefferson Boulevard, Pittman, Nevada. He was questioned concerning his knowledge of, and/or, his association with, JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas.

GODDARD recalled that he knew RUBY well about ten years ago in Dallas, Texas, at which time RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club in Dallas. He advised that he knew RUBY for about one year at that time, and that he has seen RUBY only once in the past nine or ten years when he and his wife passed through Dallas about five years ago. He added He added that he has never seen RUBY in the Las Vegas, Nevada, area nor has he ever known RUBY to have been in Nevada.

GODDARD related that during his one year association with RUBY he acted as sort of a "bouncer" at RUBY's Silver Spur Club. He said he knew RUBY to be a "shady type" character, a sharp operator and a con man.

He recalled that RUBY had a girl friend at that Texas time whom he knew as ALICE. He said RUBY liked show girls and characterized RUBY as one who had a lust for "strip tease." GODDARD stated that during his association with RUBY, he, GODDARD, wrestled professionally under the name "TEZMAN." He related that for a brief period during this time, RUBY and he roomed together at the local YMCA in Dallas and that RUBY frequently worked out in the gym.

GODDARD advised that he was surprised when he heard over television and radio that JACK RUBY had been charged with the killing of LEE OSWALD. He attributed his surprise to the fact that he could not believe RUBY could kill anyone on the spur of the moment. He added that he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that he never knew RUBY to be associated with any political organization.

MEYER GOLDFARB, also known as "MIKE", owner, National Banner Company, 825 Trunk Drive, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed concerning his acquaintanceship with JACK RUBY.

He met JACK RUBY through a business associate, MAX UNTERBERG about four or five years ago. UNTERBERG is a batchelor who operated a carpet business, who on occasion, made the rounds of night clubs and other places of entertainment. When GOLDFARB met RUBY, he was with UNTERBERG in the Vegas Club where during the evening, RUBY was introduced to him as the operator of the club. There appeared to be no personal feelings on UNTERBERG's part when he introduced RUBY and it appeared to GOLDFARB that the introduction was very general in that RUBY was just the manager.

GOLDFARB stated he had been to the Vegas Club after this meeting for entertainment, had seen RUBY and had spoke to RUBY as RUBY passed tables speaking to the various customers there. GOLDFARB stated he did not consider RUBY a personal friend in any stage of the word but merely an acquaintance. GOLDFARB continued he has not seen RUBY in several years and knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life, business dealings, close associates, or any possible connections RUBY might have with the Dallas Police Department. GOLDFARB also stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he had no idea whether or not RUBY and OSWALD were associated in any manner.

GOLDFARB described RUBY as a "back slapper, good mixer" type of fellow, that everyone "knows" after he, RUBY, has been in a place for a few minutes. RUBY impressed GOLDFARB as "not being too intelligent" and a "big talker". GOLDFARB stated he is very active in Dallas Jewish community activities and the local Democratic party activities, in the Dallas area and he has never known of RUBY taking any part in the Jewish community activities or the Democratic party activities.

GOLDFARB stated that MAX UNTERBERG left Dallas a year or so ago and personally operates a motel which he believes is called The Palms which is located on Wilshire Boulevard between Beverly Hills and Santa Monica, California. UNTERBERG is also known at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel Drug Store, Beverly Hills.

ROBERT L. GURLEY, 1260 Stevens Ridge Drive, Dallas, Texas, employed as manager at Gene's Music Bar for the past four years, advised that he has known JACK RUBY for about ten years but has never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised RUBY operated the Carousel Lounge on Commerce Street which lounge was backed financially by RALPH PAUL. RUBY in his estimation was the outgoing type in appearance, by that he meant he slapped people on the back, gave them a handshake and always appeared to be in a good humor. He advised, however, that RUBY was impulsive, violent, emotional and erratic and would fight anyone with the slighest provocation. He advised RUBY never came into the Music Bar that he knew of, and he never knew anyone who lived with RUBY although he recalled about a year and a half to two years ago an episode occurred that might indicate RUBY had been living with someone. He said in this regard, RUBY had chased a fellow out of the Carousel Lounge through the Adolphus Garage to the Lasso Bar. He said this male tried to call the police on the telephone, but RUBY got to him first and beat him up. He said RUBY apologized to him for beating up the individual in the Lasso Bar and made the comment that this was gratitude for setting a fellow up with a place to live or words to that effect. He said he did not bother to call police officers, and he did not know the individual's name. He said that there were rumors going around before the assassination of President KENNEDY to the effect that JACK RUBY was playing around with various males and that the rumors increased after the shooting of the President, however, he said there were no homosexual overtones. He said he heard RUBY used to put younger men up in apartments, but he did not know any of these individuals or the reason for RUBY's actions.

GURLEY advised that he did make a statement that RUBY might have killed OSWALD because they may have been "playing around together" and that RUBY might have been embarrassed if his name had been mentioned by OSWALD. He said, however, that this was merely speculation on his part, and he further advised that he had speculated that possibly JACK RUBY was known to a number of police officers since he thought a few of them had visited the Carousel

Lounge on and off. He added that possibly when the police officers saw RUBY in the police headquarters during the transportation of OSWALD that they did not pay any attention to RUBY. He stated that possibly if police officers had not known RUBY they would have asked him to move on as they probably did others.

GURLEY advised when he learned RUBY had shot OSWALD, he was a little surprised but knowing RUBY's violent nature he could understand same.

He stated he had talked to HENRY HENSON, a reporter for the Chicago Daily News, Sunday or Monday night about some background information concerning RUBY. Ill. Texas

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

2 Date December 10, 1963

CECIL HAMLIN, 3227 San Paula, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

HAMLIN is presently union representative of Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO, Dallas, Texas.

HAMLIN met JACK RUBY in the latter part of 1948. At that time RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay Street, Dallas, and HAMLIN was residing at the old Abbott Hotel located nearby. He began frequenting the Silver Spur Club and was on very friendly terms with RUBY until about 1950. Most of his contacts with RUBY were at the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay Street. In 1950, HAMLIN remarried and he visited the club less frequently but has been a good friend of RUBY since. At times while RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club, HAMLIN would help out at the club. Subsequently, when RUBY operated the Vegas Club, HAMLIN and his wife would assist RUBY at this club on infrequent occasions. HAMLIN and his wife assisted RUBY on the night RUBY opened the Carousel Club on Commerce Street in downtown Dallas.

HAMLIN knew that RUBY was originally from Chicago but RUBY seldom discussed his background except to mention that he had some pretty hard times when he was young in Chicago.

HAMLIN recalled that while RUBY was operating the Silver Spur and Vegas Clubs in Dallas, he discovered a young Negro boy called "Little Daddy" about four years of age who played drums and danced. RUBY used this boy on shows at his clubs and on one occasion, took the boy to Chicago where RUBY obtained bookings at various clubs. HAMLIN does not recall when this was except probably in early 1950's and he was gone several weeks.

HAMLIN and his wife have attended shows and gone out to dinner with RUBY on a number of occasions since they have known him and he has always acted as a gentleman on these occasions and they never knew him to mistreat or be abusive toward anyone.

RUBY was impulsive and quick tempered and on occasion

by Special Agents PAUL L. SCOTT & JAMES S. WEIR/jn Date dictated 12/10/63 would argue with and berate employees at his clubs, however, he would get over this quickly and would be sorry for his actions. RUBY also acted as his own bouncer and would occasionally have to throw some unruly customer out of his club.

Since about 1950, RUBY has visited in the HAMLIN home a number of times and has called him frequently at his home. He had not seen RUBY for approximately two months prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. On Friday night, November 22, 1963, RUBY called HAMLIN and mentioned what terrible thing that had happened. He seemed very emotional at the time of the call and said something to the effect "things are all messed up." He said he was closing his clubs until Monday since he thought people would not feel like going to the clubs. He also mentioned how sorry he felt for President KENNEDY's "kids". He was very fond of HAMLIN's small child and inquired about her. HAMLIN received the impression from this phone call that RUBY was considerably "broken up" over the shooting of the President. HAMLIN does not recall that RUBY even mentioned LEE HARVEY OSWALD during this call. He had never previously heard RUBY mention OSWALD and to his knowledge, RUBY did not even know OSWALD. HAMLIN was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never saw OSWALD or anyone resembling OSWALD at RUBY's club.

HAMLIN and his wife were deeply shocked when they heard of the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY and could not believe it for some time thinking there must have been some mistake.

Subsequently on Monday, November 25, 1963, RUBY called HAMLIN from the Dallas County Jail. He said he was feeling very "low" and seemed to want to know how HAMLIN and his wife felt toward him. He said he guessed he had ruined his life in just a few minutes and that if he had it to do over again, he sure wouldn't do it. He asked HAMLIN to visit him if he could. He mentioned during this call that he had just parked his car before going to the police building prior to shooting OSWALD and had left the dog in the car. HAMLIN gathered from this remark that RUBY had planned to return to the car in a few minutes and that if he had actually planned the shooting of OSWALD, he would not have taken the dog with him.

HAMLIN does not know of any connections RUBY had in Chicago or elsewhere except other members of his family. He does not know of any extensive travel by RUBY except occasional trips to Chicago. He never mentioned any trips out of the United States. In early November, 1963, RUBY talked about going to New York to contact the AGVA about bookings for shows and he later mentioned that he had gone to New York. HAMLIN believes that some years ago, RUBY may have taken a brief trip to Nevada but he is not certain of this.

HAMLIN has never been an employee of RUBY, except to help out occasionally at his club and has never had any financial interest in any of RUBY's business enterprises.

RUBY is widely acquainted in the Dallas area and knows a number of policemen but HAMLIN does not know of any particular policemen RUBY was friendly with. He would occasionally have policemen at his club but these would be from the "dance hall detail". HAMLIN does not know any of the policemen who worked on this detail.

Although RUBY seemed to be well known in Dallas, he had few close associates. HAMLIN recalled RALPH PAUL and BRECK WALL as associates of RUBY. He does not know the nature of their association.

After RUBY was placed in the Dallas County Jail, HAMLIN requested permission to visit him, however, he was denied permission until Saturday, November 29, 1963, when he received a call from Sheriff BILL DECKER who told him RUBY was feeling "low" and that he could visit with him.

HAMLIN stated he expected to be called as a character witness for RUBY when he is brought to trial for the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HAMLIN advised that he visited RUBY again at the County Jail on about November 31, 1963 and at that time RUBY asked him to handle telegrams, messages and funds relating to the defense of RUBY. HAMLIN at first agreed to do this for RUBY but later after talking to his, HAMLIN's supervisor, he decided that he could not handle this matter for RUBY. He then told RUBY and RUBY's attorney, TOM HOWARD, that he could not handle the messages and defense funds for RUBY. HAMLIN said that in view of his employment he does not intend to become further involved in this matter.

HAMLIN advised he could furnish no additional information.

WILLIAM J. HARRIS, President, Dallas Federation of Muscians, Local 147, Room 505-B, 1416 Commerce Street Building, telephone RI 2-3077, furnished the following information:

He first met JACK RUBY in 1947 or 1948 when RUBY and his sister opened the Silver Spur Club in Dallas. The club remained opened for only 6 or 8 weeks when the club closed. RUBY did not pay the band then playing at the club. HARRIS called on RUBY in an effort to obtain the money for the band. RUBY advised he would pay the band when he sold his beer stock at the club. Shortly thereafter, RUBY did pay the band.

HARRIS only spoke with RUBY about a half dozen times in the course of the past 15 years and has never had any social relations with RUBY. He has never played poker with RUBY, although HARRIS used to play cards in the early evening at the Artists of Dallas Club, 418½ North St. Paul, which is now the American Legion Club. HARRIS understands RUBY used to drop in late at the club to play poker.

NORMAN SMITH, Texas Calif. Mass. N.J. a former member of the Local 147, also played cards at the Artists of Dallas Club. SMITH graduated from Southern Methodist University (SMU) 7 or 8 years ago, and during his last year at SMU, produced a large musical variety show. HARRIS was cosignor on a $500.00 note for SMITH several years ago and when SMITH "skipped" town, HARRIS had to repay the note. HARRIS has heard SMITH, after leaving Dallas, went to Hollywood, California, where he worked in the T.V. show "The Deputy" with ALLEN CHASE, Texas who was a classmate of SMITH's at SMU. SMITH was originally from Massachusetts and HARRIS has heard recently SMITH ran for a constable office somewhere in the East, possibly in New Jersey. To HARRIS's knowledge, SMITH has not been in Dallas for over four years.

HARRIS recalls RUSTY BROWN, 2300 Avalon, Fort Worth, Texas, telephone numbers JE 4-5381 and ED 6-2801,

JOHNNIE HAYDEN, Business Representative, American Federation of Musicians, Local 47, 817 North Vine, Hollywood, California, residence 6610 Fulton Avenue, Van Nuys, California, advised the following:

HAYDEN knew JACK RUBY, owner of the Carousel nightclub and Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas, for approximately five months beginning in March, 1961, professionally, and semi-socially when HAYDEN was then business manager of the Dallas area of the American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA). RUBY in the opinion of HAYDEN talked and dressed like a Chicago hoodlum, but had no known hoodlum connections. No gambling was observed in the clubs operated by RUBY and the latter was not known to be engaged in any gambling, prostitution, or other rackets. HAYDEN had no knowledge of any use of liquor, narcotics, possession of homosexual tendancies, or of any sexual deviations on the part of RUBY. The latter was not known to have been engaged in any grafts or pay-offs to the police or public officials. RUBY obtained a license to operate the Carousel Club shortly after HAYDEN met him and there was no indication that the license was obtained in other than a normal manner.

HAYDEN through AGVA furnished variety acts which did not go to well, which resulted in RUBY introducing "strip" girls at the Carousel Club, which acts were not handled by AGVA. No acts were furnished at the Vegas Club which was a "rock and roll" dance club in a rough part of town, and which catered to what RUBY described as a rough clientel.

Vice Officers from the Dallas Police Department checked out the Carousel Club frequently. RUBY appeared to be friendly with both uniform and plain clothes Dallas policemen. He solicited their business but was not known to admit them gratuishly to the club, but uniform policemen on occasion were observed in the back of the Carousel Club drinking coffee with RUBY. The latter spoke of visiting the Dallas Police Headquarters from time to time where he passed out advertising cards. He was also observed several times waving and speaking to police when driving around Dallas as though he knew them personally.

RUBY also appeared to be friendly with the press in Dallas in the promotion of his nightclubs, particularly nightclub columnist TONY ZOPPE.

RUBY was residing with a sister whose first name HAYDEN recalled was EVA, at the time HAYDEN met RUBY. EVA appeared to have the business sense and handled the bookkeeping work. RUBY was not to literate and did not display any good business knowledge. This was evident in HAYDEN's contract negotiations with RUBY. The latter spoke of a brother, name not recalled, who operated a laundramat business in Dallas. HAYDEN never met this brother and had no knowledge of any of the other members of RUBY's family.

HAYDEN questioned RUBY on one occasion as to why he did not get married whereupon RUBY informed him that he was once engaged to a Dallas girl, but her identity was not further furnished. RUBY had not been married to HAYDEN's knowledge. RUBY appeared to like women, particularly the entertainers, but he was not known to go out with any particular woman.

Based on HAYDEN's business contacts and occasional coffee visits and breakfast with RUBY, HAYDEN formed the opinion that RUBY was extremely emotional and moody, and was an individual who in a short period of an hour would flare up, calm down, yell at people, and calm down again. He was almost fanatical in this respect. Whenever anybody opposed him or furnished a point of view with which RUBY was not in agreement, he would be almost fanatical. RUBY appeared to have a sense of humor except when the humor applied to him at which time he would become upset. It appeared that RUBY had a persecution complex thinking that anyone who disagreed with him or opposed him was against him.

RUBY was extremely sensitive to his personal appearance. He would frequently ask HAYDEN whether RUBY looked allright, how his suit fit, and he appeared interested in whether he, RUBY, gave evidence of any offensive body odors.

RUBY never engaged HAYDEN in any political, religious, or similar type of discussions and did not express any "extremist type of viewpoint". He never discussed any subversive organizations and had specifically never mentioned the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. RUBY had no foreign connections or had never visited in a foreign country to HAYDEN's knowledge.

RUBY never mentioned President KENNEDY or any other government officials to HAYDEN. He appeared to be interested primarily in Dallas, show business people, and the welfare of his club. He claimed that he wanted to develop the Carousel Club to the point where it would be the best club in Dallas, which would make him a lot of money and he could afford to get married.

RUBY displayed a keen interest in dogs and kept several in the apartment in which he lived in the rear of the Carousel Club. RUBY drove an old blue Oldsmobile, beat up appearance, about a 1954 model. HAYDEN observed RUBY take a hand gun, out of the trunk of the Oldsmobile on one occasion and place it on the seat of the Oldsmobile at the time RUBY was carrying funds from the nightclub and got the impression that this was a normal practice for RUBY whenever transporting funds.

HAYDEN had no knowledge of any threats on the part of RUBY against anyone and had no knowledge of any physical attacks or fights on the part of RUBY during HAYDEN's acquaintance with him.

HAYDEN stated that he felt sorry for RUBY and felt the latter would eventually have an emotional break down. When HAYDEN did not see RUBY for several days the latter would accuse HAYDEN of not liking him and would get upset to the point that when HAYDEN left Dallas he did not even tell RUBY goodby as he felt that there would be a scene. RUBY had a habit of making a scene when a master of ceremonies or other entertainers left the Carousel Club, RUBY taking the position that these persons leaving did not like him. HAYDEN was unable to furnish any specific details in this respect.

Most of the mutual acquaintances of HAYDEN and RUBY appeared to regard RUBY as a sort of a "kook" which in the opinion of HAYDEN was based on RUBY's emotional outbursts from time to time. RUBY was well known to entertainers and people in the entertainment industry in the Dallas area although RUBY did not have any name personalities work at his clubs to HAYDEN's knowledge.

Texas

B. Approx. 1925-1930

HAYDEN recalled one man whose first name he recalled to be DAVID, a male white, age in his 60s, small stature, 5'7", 135 pounds, who used to come to the Carousel Club and claimed to have been a friend of RUBY's of long standing. This DAVID claimed to own a barbeque stand or restaurant in Fort Worth, Texas, and to have formerly owned the nightclub in a hotel which HAYDEN believed was called the Blue Bonnet Hotel, located near the Carousel Club, but which hotel has now been demolished. DAVID remarked that he considered RUBY a highly emotional person, but DAVID knew him and understood him. DAVID was observed driving about a 1959 or 1960 four door Pontiac automobile on one occasion in the vicinity of the Carousel Club.

HAYDEN said that he had some recollection, exact source of information not recalled, possibly from a newscast, either radio or television, and possibly a television interview by the press with RUBY's sister EVA, to the effect that RUBY had visited Los Angeles four or five weeks prior to November 23, 1963. HAYDEN, however, had no knowledge of any such visit by RUBY to Los Angeles.

HAYDEN stated he has no knowledge whatsoever of any acquaintance between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and RUBY.

Mrs. JOHNNIE HAYDEN, aka MAY HAYDEN, Professional name MAY WILLIAMS, a concert signer and currently employed by the American Guild of Variety Artist, in Hollywood, California, residence 6610 Fulton Avemue, Van Nuys, California, advised the following:

Mrs. HAYDEN visited her husband JOHNNIE HAYDEN in Dallas, Texas in June of 1961, at the time he was there about June 5, 1961, when she was appearing as a concert singer at the Fair Park Auditorium in Dallas. During this visit she met JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club and she had conversations with him at his office at the rear of this club. Her knowledge of JACK RUBY was that he was a highly emotional individual who seemed to be over sensitive to his dress and his appearance. He claimed to love dogs and had several, which he kept at the rear of the Carousel Club. She recalled observing a picture of FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, the late United States President, in what she believed was the office of JACK RUBY and she mentioned to RUBY that she thought ROOSEVELT was a great man and that RUBY had stated that he "loved Roosevelt". She did not recall RUBY mentioning the late President KENNEDY or engaging in any political discussions or mention any organizations or anything which would cause her to question his loyalty to the United States Government.

She had no knowledge of any association whatsoever between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and RUBY.

Mrs. HAYDEN said that she was not acquainted with any other phases of RUBY's life and that the above was in substance the extent of her knowledge of him.

WILLIAM EDWARD HOWARD, age 61, operator, Stork Club, 3118 Oak Lawn Avenue, residence 4029 N. Central Expressway, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

HOWARD has known JACK RUBY for about 12 years and first met him when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club. He has been with RUBY many times socially and both have visited at each others homes. He last saw RUBY on about November 12 or 13, 1963, when RUBY stopped by the Stork Club in the afternoon to tell HOWARD the trouble he had had recently with a stripper named "Jada", and how he, RUBY, had out smarted her.

HOWARD was not surprised when he heard RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as RUBY is capable of anything, because he is a head strong and impulsive individual. RUBY always carried a gun, a black, snub-nosed revolver, believed to be a .32 caliber in a .38 frame.

RUBY spoke highly of JOHN F. KENNEDY and his family and expressed a great deal of personal admiration for the late President. RUBY also admired FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, as a great image. RUBY was not active in politics and was not a politically minded individual.

RUBY is a "one man operation" and a real "lone wolf" type of individual. HOWARD is certain RUBY had no assistance of any kind in the slaying of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as RUBY would not trust anyone. HOWARD is sure RUBY committed the slaying of OSWALD on the spur of the moment and made no elaborate plans, if he made any plans at all. HOWARD believes RUBY "lived for the moment" and was a real Damon Runyon character. RUBY did not smoke or drink and had alot of color and "moxie" with girls, since RUBY was an extreme extrovert. RUBY never had a steady girl friend, but instead played the field.

RUBY was a "physical cultural nut" and the YMCA is the only club or group RUBY belonged to. RUBY was a real quick tempered, "rough and tumbling scraper" and it always amazed HOWARD that RUBY was not killed in one of his numerous brawls. RUBY received many threats to his life because of his constant conflict with other people. When HOWARD and RUBY were together, HOWARD frequently remarked to RUBY that someone was going to take a shot at RUBY and hit HOWARD. RUBY always found this to be extremely humorous.

HOWARD has never known OSWALD and the stories about OSWALD and RUBY being connected is ridiculous. HOWARD would stake his life on this and feels that in his own strange way, RUBY is very patriotic toward the United States. In his opinion, RUBY could not possibly be associated with any type of subverse organizations.

RUBY never made any trips, and the only one that comes to mind in about 1958 or 1959, just about the time FIDEL CASTRO took over Cuba. HOWARD was associated with the Tropicana Club, Miami, Florida, and RUBY traveled to Havana, Cuba, to visit (FNU) McKINNEY, who operated the Tropicana Club in Havana. This trip by RUBY was just a social visit to McKINNEY, who is an acquaintance of RUBY's.

RUBY had few friends who were close to him because of RUBY's belligerent attitude. One RALPH PAUL, who runs the barbecue place called the "Bull Pen" in Dallas was about as close a friend as RUBY has. HOWARD does not know RUBY's roommate.

RUBY never discussed any Chicago connections and the only acquaintance from Chicago HOWARD ever met was MARTY GIMPLE, who before his death frequently was in Dallas on social trips.

JEFF LEROY HULSEY, 2515 Maple, Apartment 101, Dallas, Texas furnished the following information:

Mr. HULSEY, during the period 1947 to November, 1953, was a police officer for the Dallas Police Department. During the above period he was assigned to the dance hall detail and worked only at dance halls. While on the dance hall detail, in approximately 1950, HULSEY received an assignment at the Silver Spur Club, which was operated by JACK RUBY. To the best of his recollection, HULSEY worked the assignment for about three days and during this assignment met JACK RUBY. HULSEY, subsequent to this initial assignment at the Silver Spur, may have received another one-day assignment offer at the Silver Spur prior to the termination of his employment as a police officer in November, 1953.

HULSEY, since leaving the Dallas Police Department, has not been in the employ of JACK RUBY. He has seen RUBY on the street in downtown Dallas subsequent to his employment as a police officer; and, on several occasions, RUBY has asked HULSEY and his wife to be his guests at the Vegas Club. On one occasion they did go to the Vegas Club, however, they felt the patrons much younger than they, and the music was not to their liking, and they decided to leave the club.

In the fall of 1961, Mr. and Mrs. HULSEY were managing the Breakers Apartments, 1728 North Fitzhugh. One of their tenants was a night club entertainer, with the professional name JADA, who was then working the RUBY club. While residing at 1728 North Fitzhugh, JADA, who was working a seven-day week, became ill, could not perform, and remained at her apartment. During her period of illness, JACK RUBY came to see her at 1728 Fitzhugh.

HULSEY advised that RUBY did not know OSWALD and he had no information which would indicate that RUBY was acquainted with OSWALD.

J. D. "Dude" Kahn

Mr. JULIAN EDGAR KAHN, II, also known as DUDE KAHN, was contacted at his place of residence, Apartment 35F4H, Lincolnwood Apartments, located on Inwood Road, Dallas, Texas, telephone AL 6-5013, at which time he advised that he is the roommate of SIDNEY SIMS. He stated that SIDNEY SIMS was not at home at that time but expected him sometime the following day. Mr. KAHN further advised that SIDNEY SIMS had mentioned to him that the FBI had contacted his mother, name unknown, in relation to the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He related that he was not aware if SIDNEY SIMS had been a close friend of JACK RUBY nor could he give any information regarding SIMS association with either RUBY or OSWALD. He stated that SIDNEY SIMS would be home the following day and that he would have him contact the FBI Office, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. KAHN continued on to say that although he knew of no association between SIDNEY SIMS and RUBY, he personally has been acquainted with JACK RUBY for approximately nine years. He stated that he could not recall the exact circumstances surrounding the meeting of RUBY; however, he could recall that he was introduced to RUBY by an individual known to him as JOE JOHNSON, a local musician. KAHN stated that he was attempting to work his way up in the musical business and for this reason had become quite friendly with several of the night club owners around Dallas. He was aware that JACK RUBY was the owner of the Carousel and the VEgas Club and in connection with this felt that RUBY would be an excellent contact for musical business.

Mr. KAHN stated that "one thing lead to another" and finally sometime around 1956 he began working in the band that was employed at the Vegas Club. He went on to say that his employment at RUBY's club lasted approximately three months and was terminated around 1956 when KAHN decided to travel the country. KAHN advised that he could not recall any specific incidents that took place during his employment with RUBY and stated that it was just another musical job. He stated that RUBY at one time had written an article in the "Dallas After Dark" column of the "Dallas Morning News" concerning KAHN and what a good musician he was. After the article had appeared RUBY made it a point to advise KAHN that the article cost him approximately $50.00. Shortly after this writeup in the paper, KAHN gave RUBY a picture of himself; but could not recall if RUBY had actually asked for the picture or if he had given it to him for a gift. KAHN went on to say that he has not worked for RUBY since 1956 and has only stopped by the clubs to pass the time of day.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to

In regards to any information he possessed concerning RUBY's background, Mr. KAHN advised that he has drawn several opinions concerning RUBY's character, but could not substantiate his opinions for any particular facts. He described RUBY as being a highly emotional and tense individual who continually gave the impression that he was "keyed up". Whenever he observed RUBY, either working at his place of business or in a social crowd, KAHN noticed that RUBY was continually excited and nervous. He went on to say that a few years ago he saw RUBY at the Cotton Bowling Palace and during the conversation RUBY began to rub a napkin between his fists as if he was trying to ask a question that might embarrass him. KAHN's first impression was that RUBY was "making eyes at him", but stated that he was never approached by RUBY in any manner. KAHN went on to say that RUBY never seemed to date many girls and for some reason he gained the impression that RUBY was a little on the "gay side", explaining that a "gay person" is one who is attracted to the same sex. Although he had no personal knowledge concerning any of RUBY's desires, KAHN advised that he often heard remarks indicating that RUBY had displayed feminine actions and was often referred to as a "sissy". KAHN stated that sometime ago he met RUBY in the parking lot of the Cotton Bowling Palace and noticed that a young attractive girl was accompanying RUBY. He went on to say that he, KAHN, smiled at the girl and started to engage in a conversation when all of a sudden RUBY butted in and stated something to the effect that "you ought to quit playing with yourself" or "you ought to go home and play with yourself". KAHN thought that it was a very unusual statement to make under the circumstances and could not help believing that RUBY was a little "nutty". Other than seeing RUBY with a girl on this one occasion, KAHN could not recall any other time that RUBY may have been accompanied by a female. In addition, KAHN stated that he had never heard of RUBY dating any of the strippers that had worked for him but did know that a very close friend of RUBY by the name of ABE WEINSTEIN who is the owner and manager of Abe's Colony Club, had dated several of the strippers that were employed both at the Carousel and the Vegas Club. In regards to any association of RUBY, KAHN advised that an individual by the name of JOHNNY BACHEMIN (PH), a promoter for night club entertainment, was a very close friend of RUBY. He added that BACHEMIN was "a little weird" and gave him the impression of being a little feminine. KAHN went on to say that a local musician by the name of JOE JOHNSON has been a close friend of RUBY during the past years and could recall overhearing a remark to the effect that RUBY had taken up the house payments on JOHNSON's home. He added that JOHNSON has his own band and was of the opinion that JOHNSON had worked for RUBY for approximately seven years. Other individuals identified as being in JOHNSON's band at the time that they were employed by RUBY were FELIX CROSS and HAROLD ROBINSON.

In regards to any type of relationship between RUBY and OSWALD, Mr. KAHN stated that he is not acquainted with OSWALD and for this reason would not be aware if there was any relationship. He added that RUBY to the best of his knowledge had never mentioned the name of OSWALD and had heard nothing since the shooting of OSWALD that would connect RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that he did not have any information that would be pertinent to the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and if he did hear of anything of importance he would immediately contact the FBI.

VAUGHN stated that in connection with this job, he had been in personal contact with GIMPLE on a number of occasions, however, had only conversed by telephone with the other partner, whom he believed to be identical with RUBY. GIMPLE lived in Chicago where he was believed to own either a night club or restaurant, and he traveled frequently to Dallas to handle his business interests. He recalled that GIMPLE, while visiting in Dallas, stayed at the apartment of his partner and both men were single at that time.

Mr. WARNER said that he did not recall who introduced him to RUBY. WARNER advised that he resided in Dallas from about April 1958 for a short time during that year until he left for about six months returning to Dallas in July or August of 1959. He stated that during 1958 he saw RUBY on three or four occasions and found him to be a very personable, friendly type individual. WARNER said that when he returned to Dallas in July or August 1959 RUBY was the first man he informed that he, WARNER, was opening with his band at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas. He said RUBY was very happy to hear this and remarked what a wonderful opportunity it was for WARNER. WARNER commented that RUBY is such a personable individual that everybody in Dallas knows him and that RUBY makes it his business to know what is going on in Dallas. WARNER said that he remained in Dallas, Texas, until May 1961 at which time he left and has not returned to Dallas, since that time. He said that he therefore has had no contact of any kind with RUBY since May of 1961.

WARNER said that he never considered his contacts with RUBY to be more than just a casual acquaintance as RUBY was an easy individual to get to know on that basis. He said that he was never at RUBY's home and that RUBY never visited at his residence. WARNER said that he believed that he had been to the night clubs operated by RUBY on one or two occasions for a very brief period. He recalled that on one instance he stopped in at the Vegas Club to hear a Negro band known as Joe Johnson's Group. WARNER informed that he met RUBY's sister on three or four occasions but never really became acquainted with her. He said that this was the extent of his association with RUBY.

WARNER stated he never heard RUBY mentioned the Dallas Police Department and he advised that he knew nothing whatsoever about any contacts RUBY might have had with the Dallas Police Department. He said that he knew little about RUBY's background and he commented that RUBY was the type who tried to obtain all the information he could about WARNER, but also on the other hand close mouthed about himself. He said that RUBY was an individual with a very inquiring nature. WARNER recalled that RUBY was from Chicago and that RUBY's father had died. He said that RUBY appeared to be a religious man because after his father's death RUBY visited the Jewish Synagogue every morning for a long time thereafter. WARNER said he knew this because RUBY had told him and WARNER stated that he recalled having seen RUBY at the Jewish Synagogue on one of the Jewish holidays. WARNER said that he was of the opinion that RUBY was a rather religious man.

WARNER stated he knew nothing whatsoever about any hoodlum, gambling or subversive connections of any kind which RUBY might have. In addition, he knew nothing about any radical or extreme views RUBY might have inasmuch as RUBY never expressed any interest in any organization of any kind to him. WARNER said that the only relative of RUBY's whom he had met was his sister and furthermore, he knew nothing about any close associates of RUBY. He said that it was his impression that RUBY was a lone operator and he could not recall RUBY ever introducing him to anyone. Concerning girl friends of RUBY, Mr. WARNER said that RUBY seemed to like to be in the company of women but that he never knew him to have any actual girl friends. He also informed that he had never met RUBY's parents and he could not recall RUBY ever discussing his parents other than to indicate that he visited the Synagogue after his father's death.

Mr. WARNER commented that he had been watching on television at the time RUBY shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that he was shocked when he learned that the identity of the man who had shot OSWALD was RUBY. He said that in speaking about the man he came to the conclusion that RUBY who prided himself on being a self-made man possibly felt that his whole world was shattered by the assassination of President KENNEDY. WARNER explained that RUBY may have felt that everything he had worked for and accomplished in Dallas would be wiped out as a result of the assassination of President KENNEDY. He further explained that since Dallas is a rather small town whose permanent residents do not frequent night clubs, a great deal, he would suffer from the publicity resulting from the assassination. He added that this in turn would have the effect of keeping visitors and conventions away from Dallas thereby hurting business in general and particularly businesses of the type operated by RUBY. WARNER said that this was pure speculation on his part.

In addition, WARNER described RUBY as an aggressive type individual who was somewhat demanding and also one with very strong feelings. WARNER said that he had the impression that RUBY was one who was always ready to come to the aid and assistance of someone who was taking abuse of one kind or another. He stated that RUBY felt strongly about religious abuse. He further described him as an individual with a very inquiring nature but who was rather close-mouthed about himself. Mr. WARNER said that in retrospect he considered that RUBY was possibly an individual with a split personality. He said that he recalled that a person could talk to RUBY but that RUBY at times appeared to be thinking about things other than what the conversation was about. Mr. WARNER said that he could furnish no further information.

WILLIAM A. WEIDENBENNER, 513 Robin Hood, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. WEIDENBENNER, an executive of Arenco, Inc., 4439 Greenville Avenue, Dallas, Texas, in January, 1963, placed an ad in the Dallas Times Herald Newspaper, a daily Dallas newspaper, listing his personal automobile, a 1960 two-door automobile, for sale by owner. On approximately January 24, 1963, WEIDENBENNER received a telephone call from a person named JACK RUBY, who claimed to be a used car dealer. RUBY asked WEIDENBENNER if he, WEIDENBENNER, would take a price of $1,500 for the Oldsmobile he had listed for sale. WEIDENBENNER advised RUBY that he would take any price under consideration.

RUBY, accompanied by WALLY WESTON, an entertainer in RUBY's employ, and another male, who WEIDENBENNER did not know, that same day appeared at 4439 Greenville Avenue to inspect the automobile that he had for sale. RUBY and WEIDENBENNER agreed on a price of $1,450 for the Oldsmobile and RUBY gave WEIDENBENNER $200 in cash at that time. RUBY financed the remaining $1,250 through the Mercantile State Bank, Dallas, Texas, because, to the best of WEIDENBENNER's recollection, on January 25, 1963, WEIDENBENNER received a cashier's check in the amount of $1,250, drawn on the Mercantile State Bank, which finalized the sale of the Oldsmobile to JACK RUBY.

WEIDENBENNER recalled that during the transaction RUBY invited him, WEIDENBENNER, to come to the Carousel Club. WEIDENBENNER accepted the invitation and a short time subsequent to the sale of the car did take in a show at the Carousel Club, where he did see and have a casual conversation with RUBY.

WEIDENBENNER was shown a photograph of JACK LEON RUBY, which he instantly identified as that of JACK RUBY, to whom he sold his automobile.

WEIDENBENNER could furnish no information regarding any other friends, associates or personal matters concerning JACK RUBY. WEIDENBENNER advised he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and, thus, had no knowledge of association between RUBY and OSWALD.

RE: JACK RUBY - ASSOCIATES

LEE SHARON, North Wind Apartments, Apartment # 11, 310 Robert Lee Street, advised as follows:

She met JACK RUBY through JOE BONDS and has known RUBY about ten years. She had known RUBY casually until the last two years when she worked for him and got to know him much better. Her home was in Dallas, and she knew RUBY when he owned the Silver Spur. The last time she saw RUBY was about three months ago, September 28, 1963, when she and her husband moved to Houston. She advised that RUBY, CINDY EMBERS, and she and her husband on occasion went to the Cotton Bowling Palace where a hoodlum element hung out. As far as she knew, RUBY had no connection with the underworld or communist group. RUBY disliked extremists in general.

JACK RUBY was described as friendly with everyone, hot tempered, unpredictable, enjoyed publicity, and a man who wanted to be ahead of everyone else.

She never heard JACK talk politics, and she does not feel he could be connected with any communist group.

RUBY knew the police and they dropped in to check out the club; but he did not get overly friendly with them.

RUBY was hot tempered and on occasion had hot verbal battles on the floor with WALLY WESSON.

RUBY talked for almost 30 minutes but did not furnish any different information regarding his shooting OSWALD. ZOPPI advised the entire conversation indicated RUBY shot OSWALD to show the world the Jews had a love for KENNEDY. RUBY said that he did not believe any other Jew in the world would have the nerve to go to bat for President KENNEDY and that he should take the responsibility.

ZOPPI asked RUBY what his thoughts were prior to and immediately after shooting OSWALD and RUBY stated he would have to talk to the attorney before he could answer these questions. RUBY requested ZOPPI not to publish any of the conversation or to divulge it to anyone. ZOPPI asked RUBY if he and a reporter could get permission from Sheriff BILL DECKER to interview RUBY, would, RUBY, talk. RUBY advised he would.

WALTER EUGENE "GENE" LAWRENCE, Texas Gene's Music Bar, 307 S. Akard, Dallas, furnished the following information:

LAWRENCE has known JACK RUBY for about 15 years. RUBY's sister, EVA, contacted LAWRENCE and asked if he could recommend someone to help her run the Silver Spur. LAWRENCE recommended PAT PADGETT, who at that time was a recently retired enlisted man from the service. Shortly thereafter, JACK RUBY came to Dallas and ran PADGETT off from the club. In fact, LAWRENCE saw PADGETT with a banged up head and learned RUBY had allegedly attacked PADGETT with as black jack for no reason. Texas

LAWRENCE usually ran into RUBY whenever LAWRENCE went to the courthouse or police department on business. LAWRENCE last saw RUBY as he recalls in December, 1962, when LAWRENCE went to the Police Department to renew his dance license.

LAWRENCE, a little over a year ago, would frequently give RUBY a ride home when both would be leaving their night clubs in the early morning. At that time, RUBY lived in a house in back of the Holiday Inn Motel.

LAWRENCE never seen RUBY with a gun, but has heard he always carried one and was quick to pull it when he had trouble with a customer at his club.

RUBY and LAWRENCE always got along and the only difficulty which ever came up was when RUBY opened his Carousel Club and came to LAWRENCE's Lasso Bar and was passing out free passes for his Carousel Club opening. LAWRENCE asked RUBY not to give passes to his customers while in the Lasso Bar and RUBY slapped him on the back, saying he could not blame RUBY for trying.

Mrs. FRANCES [Warlick (nee) Mrs. James Leak] EAKE, 5417 Martel, Dallas, Texas, voluntarily furnished the following information:

She formerly resided at 4812 Alcott, having moved from that address approximately 2½ years ago. While residing at this address, she was living with SHERRIE BENNER, PAT DeLONG, and NANCY RITTS, all of whom were employed as stewardesses for Braniff Airlines.

Approximately three years ago one SHERRIE BENNER brought home a stray dog. About one week later, a JACK RUBY appeared and advised that the dog belonged to him. He told them that they could keep the dog if they wished but he would just like to know that the dog was all right.

She saw JACK RUBY around the swimming pool at this address on numerous occasions after this. She noted that when he swam he wore a bathing cap and she considered him a "sissy." She actually never had any conversations with RUBY and to the best of her recollection, SHERRIE BENNER was more friendly with him than the other girls.

The only time she ever saw RUBY outside of the swimming pool and in the neighborhood of the apartment was about 2½ years ago her husband and a small party went to the Sovreign Club and RUBY chatted briefly with the group.

She knew nothing of RUBY's political thoughts or any further details concerning him.

She is employed as a waitress at the Cotton Bowling Palace, located at Lemmon and Inwood Streets, Dallas, Texas. She has been employed at the Cotton Bowling Palace for the past 16 months. She has been waiting on JACK RUBY every since she has been employed. She knew him only as JACK and did not know his last name until she heard it on the radio. She knew he owned a Dallas night club but she did not know which one. RUBY used to come in the Cotton Bowling Palace about two or three times a week, and it was always between 1:00 and 3:00 a.m. in the morning. He would usually eat breakfast which may have consisted of steak and eggs and he usually drank a lot of coffee. He also wanted sherbet for dessert but always settled for ice cream.

He usually came in with another man, name not known, who she described as being about 50 years of age, 5'8", medium build, graying hair, red faced and dressed in flashy sport clothes. RUBY occasionally came in with a girl but not the same one. She got the impression that these girls were business acquaintances and not personal friends. RUBY was always very polite and quiet and never talked to her except when giving her his order. RUBY seemed to her to be a business man and always strictly business. RUBY would usually eat and maybe have a second cup of coffee and then leave. RUBY was a very good tipper. She does not believe that any of the other waitresses in the Cotton Bowling Palace would have any information concerning RUBY as she waited on him every time he came in. She last saw RUBY about a month before the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She did not know any customer of the Cotton Bowling Palace that would know RUBY. She stated that VICK DOMINIO, owner of the Cotton Bowling Palace knew him. She could not furnish any further information regarding RUBY.

HARRY LEFOWITZ, also known as "RED" LEFOWITZ, owner and manager of Volume Sales, Merchandise Mart Building, 500 South Ervay, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

He first met JACK LEON RUBY at RUBY's Vegas Club, Dallas, about ten years ago. Since that time he has frequently seen RUBY at RUBY's night clubs or on the streets of Dallas. The only social contact he has had with RUBY was on one occasion a few years ago when LEFOWITZ invited RUBY to attend a party at the home of LEFOWITZ. He said RUBY was well behaved at the party. He added he knows little about RUBY's personal life.

LEFOWITZ stated from his contacts with RUBY he can describe him as "a big hearted fish" to the people he liked, and he did a lot for the "little man". As an example, LEFOWITZ said that RUBY called him several years ago and asked LEFOWITZ if he had any available temporary employment for a young man who had been doing odd jobs for RUBY. LEFOWITZ said based on RUBY's recommendation, he employed the young man for several weeks. While this young man was working for LEFOWITZ he informed LEFOWITZ that RUBY give him employment "just to help him out of a rut".

LEFOWITZ stated that to the best of his knowledge RUBY has always operated a "clean" business and has never had any dealings with prostitution, gambling or narcotics. He recalls that on one occasion a man approached RUBY at his club and asked RUBY to get him a girl. LEFOWITZ said RUBY lost his temper and almost threw the man out of his place. LEFOWITZ opined that RUBY knew many Dallas police officers and called them by their first names. He did not know if any Dallas police officers were close friends of RUBY's, and he knew of none employed by RUBY. He added that RUBY has always been very fond of the Dallas police and has respect for all law enforcement officials.

LEFOWITZ further stated that it is his opinion that RUBY shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD "on the spur of the moment" and without premeditation. He does not believe RUBY was paid or encouraged by anyone and that the act was committed entirely on his own. Since RUBY was fond of the Dallas Police, LEFOWITZ believes that RUBY killed OSWALD because he was very disturbed

JOHN HENRY BRANCH, 3722 Greenleaf, business address Branch Agency, 1710 Hall Street, Dallas, on December 9, 1963, advised as follows:

He is a member of the American Federation of Musicians, Manager of the Empire Room Dancehall and owner of the Branch Agency, booking agent for Negro musicians and entertainers in Dallas.

He has known JACK RUBY for approximately the past 14 years in connection with entertainment business. RUBY has contacted him on many occasions over the past years in connection with BRANCH obtaining Negro musicians and entertainers for clubs operated by RUBY.

He last saw RUBY for about ten minutes about 9:00 or 10:00 P.M., November 23, 1963, in front of the Hall Diner located down the street from the Branch Agency. He had not seen RUBY for about the previous six or eight weeks as he (BRANCH) had been in the hospital. On November 23, 1963, RUBY was alone and had his car parked along the street. RUBY talked to BRANCH about getting a Negro piano player for the Vegas Club.

He did not believe RUBY mentioned the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. RUBY was calm and appeared perfectly normal. He said RUBY is a very temperamental person who is apt to get mad on the spur of the moment.

He said that he did not see or hear of RUBY being in the Empire Room Dancehall or any other Negro night club passing out $5 bills on November 23, 1963 or on any other occasion. He did not know of RUBY being in any Negro night clubs on the night of November 23, 1963.

He said he had no information concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had no information indicating that RUBY had any relationship with OSWALD.

He was advised that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He then furnished the following information:

MARTIN has been acquainted with JACK RUBY for the past six to seven months and met RUBY through GEORGE SENATOR, roommate of RUBY, and was brought to the jail the day RUBY was incarcerated on November 24, 1963. He then advised that although he was one of the counsels retained by RUBY, he would be willing to cooperate with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in any manner as long as it did not violate the attorney-client relationship.

MARTIN then volunteered that he has known GEORGE SENATOR for a year or two and that he has extensively interviewed SENATOR and is convinced that RUBY did not confide anything to SENATOR prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He volunteered that he has interviewed employees of RUBY at the Carousel Club and was told that RUBY, before closing the club the day of President KENNEDY's assassination, sat and brooded in the club and was reportedly crying. He stated he feels very deeply about the killing of the President and stated he would not represent RUBY if he thought there was any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

GEORGE MOORE, Public Relations Director, Texas Consumer Finance Company, 6100 Camp Bowie Boulevard, advised his home telephone number is PE 8-0058. Mr. MOORE stated that he had received three or four telephone calls from JACK RUBY sometime around September or October, 1963. These calls were in regard to a sign Texas Consumer Finance Company was going to erect in their office on Commerce Street in Dallas, Texas just below the Carousel Club owned by RUBY. MOORE stated that, at first, RUBY thought the company was encroaching on his property but after Texas Consumer Finance checked with their attorneys and it was proven to RUBY that the sign could be erected legally, RUBY did not object. MOORE stated that this was the extent of his conversations with RUBY and that he had never met RUBY personally nor had he visited his clubs.

Mrs. MARIANNE McCONKEY, 2511 Turtle Creek, Dallas, Texas, telephone number LA 1-3059, voluntarily furnished the following information:

She has been employed at the Bachelor Club, 1404½ Main Street, Dallas, Texas for the past 12 years, more or less as manager, but she does not carry the title of such. She is sometimes called MARY ANN MAC and is known by no other name. She first saw JACK RUBY about five or six years ago in the Bachelor Club. She does not recall if she was introduced to him or not, but she knew him to be a night club owner in Dallas. She has never had any conversations with RUBY to the best of her knowledge. She has heard RUBY was "pushie" and so she did not want anything to do with him. She explained that by "pushie" she meant he would push himself on people.

She received a telephone call from JOHN LEVIA, a Texas club member, shortly after RUBY had killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, exact date not recalled, and LEVIA asked her if she knew how RUBY had gotten into the police station when OSWALD was killed and also what the people of Dallas thought about RUBY killing OSWALD. LEVIA further asked if RUBY had paid off the Dallas Police Department. She told him she did not know JACK RUBY got into the Police Department and she did not know what the people of Dallas thought about RUBY killing OSWALD. She further told him that she did not know anything about RUBY paying off Dallas police officers. As she recalled, LEVIA wanted this information for a Washington, D. C. newspaperman who was associated with the "Washington Post". This newspaperman was supposedly writing a feature article on the OSWALD killing. She added that LEVIA had asked the club owner, DON NEWELL, for her home phone number in order to call her. Texas

RUBY was not a member of the Bachelor Club but had been in the club two or three times to the best of her knowledge. She did not recall the member that had brought RUBY into the club. She had heard, source not recalled, that RUBY was a "hood from Chicago". RUBY rents the Carousel Club from J. B. NICHOLS, a club member, and NICHOLS told her after OSWALD was killed that he had wanted her boss, NEWELL, to rent the building where the Carousel Club is located before RUBY had rented it. NICHOLS also told her that when RUBY first rented the building, he became behind in his rent for a while.

She does not know any of RUBY's friends or associates or anything further regarding him. She does not know nor has she heard of any association between RUBY and OSWALD. She has no idea why RUBY killed OSWALD but from what she has read in the newspapers and heard and seen on television, she would think he just wanted publicity. She could not understand why a "nut" like RUBY was down in the Police Department basement in the first place. She added that she had not heard anything of importance concerning the killing of OSWALD. She stated that if she learned of any information concerning the killing of OSWALD, she would call the Dallas Federal Bureau of Investigation Office.

He has never patronized RUBY's establishment, then or later.

He has had no contact with RUBY since about 1956. He has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

The Phoenix Office has advised as follows:

KEN MC DERMITT, B. [illegible] 1924, State Supervisor of the Arizona State Bureau of Identification, Florence Arizona, advised that he was acquainted with JACK RUBY in the latter part of 1963 until the first part of 1955. MC DERMITT now lives at 543 West Raymond, Coolidge, Arizona. He is 35 years of age.

MC DERMITT stated that in 1953 he had automobile trouble and was without funds and through the Salvation Army in Dallas, he was able to obtain a job at a photo studio. While working in this photo studio, he frequented the Club Vegas at 2500 Oaklawn Avenue. The manager and partner was an individual by the name of IRVING (Last Name Unknown). IRVING offered him a job as assistant manager. JACK RUBY was the co-partner in the Club Vegas, but only stopped by the Club Vegas two or three times a week. RUBY at that time was running a strip show or nightclub on the other side of town.

MC DERMITT stated that in the latter part of 1954 IRVING had financial trouble and sold the Club Vegas and RUBY became sole owner. He stated that the Club Vegas was not a strip show or after hour club. MC DERMITT recalled that RUBY had a quick temper and would flare up over small things but would then cool off. He recalled one time that one of the waitresses failed to show up and RUBY blew his top.

MC DERMITT stated that he never associated with RUBY and did not know his friends or associates. He did not know if RUBY was married or single. He did not know anything as to his moral conduct. He advised that RUBY made no derogatory remarks against the Government and, to his knowledge, RUBY belonged to no group or organization which could be considered subversive. He advised that RUBY had no physical or mental illness and did not drink to excess.

MC DERMITT stated that in 1953 to 1955, he was living in a boarding house several blocks from the Club Vegas and is now unable to recall that address.

On November 29, 1963, Mrs. BARBARA MESSINA, 2604 Forsythe Avenue, was interviewed at Monroe, Louisiana, and advised she visited relatives, WYLIE B. ERDWURM and his wife, BARBARA, in Dallas, Texas, four times between November, 1962, and July, 1963, and while there, visited the Carousel Club where they met JACK RUBY.

On December 9, 1963, Mrs. BARBARA ERDWURM, 729 Devonshire Street, Richardson, Texas, advised Special Agents ALLEN H. SMITH and TOM E. CHAPOTON that she and her husband, WYLIE B. ERDWURM were visited by BARBARA MESSINA, her husband's cousin from Monroe, Louisiana, several times during the latter part of 1962 and the early part of 1963.

On several occasions, they "went out on the town" and stopped at the Carousel Club. They had never been to the Carousel Club before and met JACK RUBY for the first time. RUBY was at the club greeting patrons as they arrived and he, RUBY, appeared to be attracted to MESSINA. In that RUBY was interested in MESSINA, RUBY appeared to show them special attention and he invited them to his apartment after the club closed, where they remained for a short period of time.

MESSINA saw RUBY again on other visits, however, their association was strictly social.

Mrs. ERDWURM stated that she considered MESSINA naive and feels that MESSINA was overly impressed with RUBY because of his, RUBY's, ownership of a night club and being a "big spender."

Mrs. ERDWURM stated she has no knowledge of RUBY's associates, business connections or of any of his activities.

Mr. LEE METKER, 308 North Delaware, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

In the winter of 1951, exact month and date not recalled, BILL CAMPBELL, a friend of METKER and a member of the Furniture Workers Union at that time, requested METKER and JIM WARD, another friend, to go with him as he was expecting trouble from JACK RUBY. METKER, CAMPBELL and WARD went to the Eatwell Cafe, 1404 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, and were seated at a table with a sandwich when JACK RUBY and three other individuals, identities unknown, came to the Eatwell Cafe. RUBY and two of his friends came in the cafe and one of the group with RUBY stayed outside.

RUBY proceeded to the table where METKER, CAMPBELL and WARD were seated and attacked CAMPBELL stating in effect, "I'll teach you to call anyone a kike Jew." One of the men with RUBY then became involved in a fight with JIM WARD. METKER stayed out of the fight until the third man with RUBY and the second man with RUBY jumped on JIM WARD and he then entered the fight long enough to pull one of the men off WARD. The fight lasted several minutes and BILL CAMPBELL was severely beaten before the Dallas police officers arrived.

During the fight and before the police arrived, BILL CAMPBELL and JIM WARD told METKER that they had seen a German Luger pistol drop out of JACK RUBY's pocket while he was fighting; however, when the police arrived there was no pistol in sight and METKER told the policemen that RUBY had a gun in his pocket. METKER did not observe that the police searched RUBY for a pistol at that time and to his knowledge, RUBY was never checked to determine if he was carrying a concealed weapon. RUBY and BILL CAMPBELL were taken to the police station and WARD and METKER followed in METKER's car. It is METKER's recollection that BILL CAMPBELL had to post bond; however, he does not recall what disposition was made concerning RUBY at that time or the final disposition in this case.

METKER had never seen JACK RUBY prior to that time and has not seen him since that time. METKER said he believes JIM WARD presently resides in Houston, street address unknown, and he does not know the present residence of BILL CAMPBELL although he has moved from the Dallas area.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs KENNETH P. HUGHES and EDWARD J. MABEY:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

On 12/5/63, M. L. MILLER, 610 Main Street, Dallas, Texas Attorney, furnished the following information:

MILLER stated that he would cooperate to the fullest extent to the federal authorities inasmuch as he was a personal friend of former President JOHN F. KENNEDY and of the current President LYNDON B. JOHNSON.

MILLER stated he met JACK RUBY on one occasion during the years 1954-55. MILLER described his meeting with RUBY as follows:

One MEYER AVLON, believed to reside at 3064 Walnut Hills, Dallas, Texas, a partner in the night club business with JACK RUBY, contacted a Mr. WILLIAM SOLTES, Dallas, Texas, a professional bondsman, whose offices are located in the same building with Attorney MILLER. AVLON and RUBY wanted an attorney to represent them in their night club business. RUBY came to Attorney MILLER's office, and although MILLER cannot recall RUBY's exact words, MILLER stated that from what RUBY told him and from the conclusion that he, MILLER, drew, it was obvious RUBY wanted an attorney who could reach and pay off public officials. From MILLER's observations, he described RUBY as an individual whose theory was that there was no man who could not be bought. No names of individuals to be bought or "fixed" were mentioned. MILLER advised RUBY that he was not the man or was not in the least interested in what RUBY wanted. He recalls stating to RUBY that "You don't want a lawyer, you want a fixer." MILLER stated he invited RUBY to leave his office.

MILLER stated he later told SOLTES that "That RUBY was a crazy SOB" who was dangerous. MILLER emphatically stated, however, that by this comment he, in no way, intended to remark on the mental capacity of RUBY and did not want to be placed in the position as being called as a witness for the defense in the upcoming JACK RUBY trial regarding his statements that RUBY was crazy. MILLER furnished the following background information on RUBY, some of which he described as hearsay, the other factual. He stated that one VIVIEN ARNOLD, prostitute of 4937 Worth Street, Dallas, Texas, ran a house of prostitution on N. Ervay or Akard Street. ARNOLD was married to "Pig Red" and had two daughters but MILLER did not know if "Pig Red" was the father of these daughters. TOM HOWARD was having relations with VIVIEN ARNOLD. JACK RUBY formerly owned the Plantation, a night club across from the sport auditorium in Dallas, Texas. RUBY sold this club to an individual by the name of S. J. CARPENTER, 4020 Dinley Drive, who, in turn, sold the club to TOM HOWARD. VIVIEN ARNOLD ran this club. The club later burned to the ground, and MILLER stated there was some question of arson involved. MILLER stated HOWARD later was indicted and convicted for failure to make income tax returns. He was fined for this offense and his license to practice law was suspended for one year.

It is to be noted that RUBY's attorney in the forthcoming murder trial is an individual by the name of TOM HOWARD.

On November 30, 1963, Houston adivsed as follows:

On November 30, 1963, ROBERT MILLER, Chief Deputy Sheriff, Jim Wells County, Texas, stated he was informed that JACK RUBY was a member of a hunting party shortly after the opening of the season, November 16, 1963, at the ranch of BUCK SHEARER, well known Texas rancher.

Texas

On November 30, 1963, San Antonio advised as follows:

LEE SHEARER, Oak Grove Ranch, Mason County, Texas, advised Special Agent JOSEPH C. WEBB, JR., that JACK LEON RUBY was not known to have been a member of a hunting party at his ranch this year. He stated that the San Saba Ranch, five miles north of Pontotoc, Texas, is owned by SHEARER and leased for hunting to W. H. COOPER, 3017 Valwood, Dallas, Texas, for six members. The members include GORDON OGEE, 1552 Eastus Drive, ROLAND WRIGHT, 2438 Southwood and W. G. WRIGHT, 1731 Timber Grove, all of Dallas. The other two members of the lease were unknown to SHEARER. SHEARER stated that ROLAND WRIGHT had indicated to him that he knew RUBY and considered RUBY to have a poor reputation and to associate with prostitutes in Dallas.

Roland Wright, Texas
AT DALLAS, TEXAS;

On December 6, 1963, W. H. COOPER, 3017 Valwood Parkway, operator of Ship's Lounge, Dallas, advised Special Agents EDMOND C. HARDIN and ROBERT J. WILKISON as follows:

He and the other members of his hunting lease have never hunted with JACK RUBY and JACK RUBY has never hunted on this lease during the current season or at any other time to his knowledge. COOPER identified the other two members of his hunting lease as RICHARD L. KOSTER, Ft. Worth Avenue, Dallas, and JACK H. EASON, street address unknown, Dallas. } Texas

COOPER stated that he met RUBY about three months ago at the Carousel Club where he was a customer. RUBY introduced himself and inquired as to whether COOPER was enjoying himself. COOPER added that he did not engage RUBY in any further conversation and has not seen him since.

COOPER advised that he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning any possbile relationship which may have existed between RUBY and OSWALD. He stated that during a recent conversation with LEE SHEARER and others on about November 24, 1963, he mentioned that he had met RUBY and thus may have given the impression that he was familiar with RUBY's background and activities. COOPER stated that he has no additional information concerning this case.

On December 7, 1963, ROLAND O. WRIGHT, 2438 Southwood, who is owner of the Day and Night Automotive Motor Company, 505 West Commerce Street, Dallas, advised Special Agents EDMOND C. HARDIN and ROBERT J. WILKISON as follows:

He has never met JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no personal knowledge of either individual or of any relationship which may have existed between them. He stated that on November 24, 1963, he recalls discussing RUBY and OSWALD with LEE SHEARER and others and did not indicate that he was acquainted with RUBY but may have volunteered the information that W. H. COOPER, also present, had stated to him that he had met RUBY. Mr. WRIGHT stated that he has no information concerning this case.

While working at the Colony Club he met JACK RUBY who owned a dance hall and was getting ready to open the Carousel Club. MITCHELL talked to RUBY three or four times at the Colony Club about entertainment field as RUBY was interested in lining up girls to work in the Carousel Club. MITCHELL has no information on RUBY's personal life or political associations. MITCHELL has no information to indicate that RUBY was a homosexual. The piano man at the Colony Club, name unrecalled, once told MITCHELL that RUBY was a great admirer of President ROOSEVELT.

MITCHELL has worked at Lil's Jockey Club, Danville, Illinois, several times, the last time being about 15 months ago. MITCHELL does not recall mentioning RUBY to LIL ELDRIDGE and stated the only reason he would have mentioned RUBY would have been to state that RUBY was opening a new strip club in Dallas, referring to the Carousel Club.

Date 12/5/63

WILLIAM JAMES PADGETT, Texas, inmate, Dallas County Jail, advised he became acquainted with JACK RUBY in about 1947 or 1948 when RUBY began operating a night club on the 1700 Block of South Ervay in Dallas. He could not recall the name of this night club, but recalled that shortly after RUBY began operating this club, the name was changed to the Silver Spur. It was his impression that JACK RUBY and JACK's sister came from Chicago, Illinois, together at the time they began operating this club. Business was not too good and a few months after RUBY took over the operation, he offered PADGETT a half interest in the club if PADGETT could come up with $250 to continue its operation. PADGETT did not enter into this business relationship.

RUBY managed to continue operation of the club first with financial help from several women whose names he did not recall, and then later with the financial help of a "gambler," whose name he did not recall.

PADGETT only patronized the Silver Spur for about a year or so. During this time he had several conflicts with RUBY. The first was on an occasion when he had heard that RUBY was making derogatory remarks about a woman PADGETT was going with. PADGETT confronted RUBY, threatening to "knock his teeth out," but RUBY denied making the remarks and was not belligerent. Sometime later, PADGETT and his wife, together with some other guests, paid the cover charge and went into the club after first securing approval from RUBY for them to "sneak in a bottle" to drink after midnight. Shortly after they got in the club, an officer confronted them and made them leave. RUBY was reluctant to refund the cover charge, but PADGETT finally got his money and left. As a result of these situations, he quit patronizing the Silver Spur.

Since that time he has only seen RUBY on two or three occasions downtown and spoken to him briefly.

He has not had any personal dealings with RUBY since the late 1940s. He never was acquainted with OSWALD and has heard of no rumored relationship between OSWALD and RUBY.

PADGETT explained that during the period in the late 1940s, that he was acquainted with RUBY, it appeared to him that RUBY's sexual habits were peculiar. He explained that on several occasions in the Silver Spur, he heard women who patronized this tavern talking about RUBY having invited them to his apartment, which they refused to do. The women made remarks in explaining why they refused to accompany him to his apartment which would indicate that RUBY's purpose in attempting to get them into his apartment was for him to perform oral copulation with them with him being the active, rather than the passive, participant. PADGETT could not recall the names or identities of any of these women, indicating that they were just women who appeared to frequent the Silver Spur at that time.

EDWARD ROZELLE, Bellman at the Ramada Inn, Las Vegas, Nevada, was interviewed at his place of employment by SAs THOMAS H. ALT and LOTE KINNEY, Jr. He was advised he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to an attorney.

ROZELLE advised he has been in Las Vegas since the first of September, 1963. Prior to that he stated he was employed as a Bellman at the Ramada Inn in Dallas, Texas, and worked part-time as a cab driver. He said it was through this part-time employment that he first met JACK RUBY. He said he received a call to pick up a fare who was RUBY. Upon arriving at the address he stated RUBY invited him into the apartment to watch a television fight and to leave the meter running. He said he saw RUBY several times after this at the Ramada Inn and also at RUBY's club where his check was picked up by RUBY. He stated he was acquainted with RUBY for two years but knew very little about him except that he was a nice guy. He said he never saw RUBY without a smile on his face.

ROZELLE said that when he left Dallas, RUBY did not know where he was going and in fact he did not know himself. He said he has not seen RUBY since coming to Las Vegas.

ROZELLE volunteered that the only reason he can think of for RUBY killing OSWALD was because of concern for the family of the slain policeman. He said that RUBY was very friendly with the Dallas Police and knew a large number of policemen there and considered them his friends.

HARMON SCHEPPS, President, Schepps Dairy, Inc., 4935 Dolphin Road, residence 7015 Currin, Dallas, Texas, was contacted at his place of business and voluntarily furnished the following information:

STANLEY KAUFMAN, his attorney, introduced him to JACK RUBY about eight years ago in RUBY's night club, which he believed was called "Cell Block 7". He believed that this was later called the Vegas Club. As he recalled, RUBY talked about getting a divorce or just having obtained a divorce.

The next time he saw RUBY was in late 1955 or early 1956 in the Congregation Shearith Israel and at this time he talked with RUBY briefly. He saw RUBY on numerous occasions after this at the Synagogue but no one ever accompanied RUBY to church to his knowledge. He has seen him numerous times on the streets of Dallas and their conversation has always been of a general nature and nothing in particular has ever been discussed. As far as he knows, RUBY has never been in any kind of trouble and has always seemed to be of very even temperament. Everyone he knows has always had kind words to say about RUBY. RUBY is a very friendly person but is a strong competitor in business. RUBY has never carried any type of firearm and to his knowledge did not have a violent nature.

He knows nothing of RUBY's background, in fact, he did not know RUBY had a sister in Dallas until he read it in the newspaper. He knew him only as the owner of the Carousel Club and the Vegas Club. About one year ago RUBY asked him if he would put a sign outside of the Carousel Club. He told RUBY the sign would cost $900.00 and he would have to pay $300.00 down, $300.00 when the sign was half completed and $300.00 when the sign was completed. This sign was installed and RUBY paid as agreed. Shortly after this sign was installed he was accompanied by DAVE, NATE and SIDNEY WEINBERG, owners of the Dallas Transit System, and they went to the Carousel Club. RUBY greeted them and was his usual friendly self. About one week after this visit, he met RUBY on the street and asked him if one of his girls was available. RUBY replied he was not in that type of business.

He stated about a year ago, he asked RUBY if he knew Mr. PAUL, first name not known, who owns the "Bull Pen" in Arlington, Texas. RUBY told him he did and he asked RUBY if he would contact PAUL and attempt to obtain a contract to furnish milk products to the "Bull Pen". RUBY made a sincere effort to do this but he never obtained any milk business from PAUL. He never talked any politics with RUBY but did not believe he was a "red or even pink" in his political beliefs, as he went to church and apparently believed in God. If he ever had believed RUBY was a Communist or had any feelings along those lines, he would have had nothing to do with RUBY.

On about November 21, 1963, STANLEY KAUFMAN told him that RUBY brought a stripper, name not known, in from New Orleans to work in his Carousel Club, but someone in authority had told RUBY that he should not do this as this girl was a trouble maker. RUBY brought this girl in to work in his club but fired her after about two days. The stripper then went to Judge RICHBERG, a local justice of the peace, and made false statements against RUBY. The judge brought RUBY before him and it ended up that RUBY paid the stripper her full week's salary. He did not know any further details regarding this.

He has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor does he know of any association between OSWALD and RUBY. He stated the last time he saw RUBY was about eight weeks ago and this was on the downtown streets of Dallas. At this time, he asked RUBY if he would like to have a cup of coffee and RUBY declined.

He has informed STANLEY KAUFMAN that if RUBY needs financial assistance in this matter, he is willing to help in any way he can.

W. D. TYRA, Superintendent of Front Services, Adolphus Hotel, 1321 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that two or three months ago, a young man, he now believes was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, came up to him seeking employment as a luggage porter. TYRA said his interview with that person was brief, but he recalls that the young man indicated he would work mornings or evenings and he wanted to go to school.

TYRA said he had this young man place his name and address on a 3x5 card, which TYRA destroyed about a month ago, and he seems to recall that the name "LEE OSWALD" appeared on the card with an unrecalled street address in Irving, Texas. TYRA remembers the young man listed his address as Irving, Texas, because he asked him how he would get to work. He replied by stating he could get a ride to Dallas each day.

TYRA informed the young man that if he was interested in employment at the Adolphus Hotel he would have to execute an application for employment in the personnel office, take a physical examination and a Truth Verification Test (polygraph). TYRA added that all Adolphus Hotel employees have to take the Truth Verification Test.

TYRA believes he directed the young man to the hotel's personnel office.

He related that in view of the fact LEE HARVEY OSWALD was accused of assassinating President KENNEDY and subsequently shot and killed by JACK RUBY, owner of the Carousel Club which is located across the street from the Adolphus Hotel, he was most curious if the young man who sought employment at this hotel was the same LEE HARVEY OSWALD accused of assassinating President KENNEDY. He checked the hotel's personnel office but could locate no application executed by OSWALD.

TYRA believes the young man he briefly interviewed two or three months ago for employment was the LEE HARVEY OSWALD who was accused of assassinating President KENNEDY.

TYRA also mentioned that JACK RUBY is frequently seen at the Adolphus Hotel but he knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

MARVIN C. SCHWIFF, attorney, 706 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, was immediately advised of the official identity of the interviewing Agents, the fact that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement made by him could be used against him in court and of his right to counsel.

SCHWIFF furnished the following information concerning his association with JACK RUBY:

Sometime shortly after 1956, exact date not recalled, SAM RUBENSTEIN, brother of JACK RUBY, retained SCHWIFF to draw up the necessary papers to form a corporation. This corporation was to be a manufacturing company, making plastic novelty items, and located somewhere in Fair Park in Dallas near the Cotton Bowl. SCHWIFF does not recall details of the corporation, but that during this time SAM RUBENSTEIN wanted him to collect money from JACK RUBY, which consisted of approximately $1,000.00. STANLEY KAUFMAN represented JACK RUBY in this case, and SCHWIFF states SAM RUBENSTEIN left town shortly after and does not believe anything ever came of SAM's case concerning the collection of the $1,000.00.

During the time SCHWIFF represented SAM RUBENSTEIN, JACK RUBY came to SCHWIFF's to talk to him about the $1,000.00 that SCHWIFF was attempting to collect for SAM RUBENSTEIN. RUBY remained in SCHWIFF's office approximately ten minutes and spent most of this time yelling curse words at SCHWIFF. After RUBY departed, SCHWIFF's associate, NEIL B. WHEELER, entered the office and advised SCHWIFF that RUBY was on the sidewalk outside the office still cursing him.

SCHWIFF stated that he has had no other personal or business contacts with JACK RUBY since that time and does not know anything about him other than the fact RUBY operates several night clubs in Dallas.

MICHAEL V. SCRIMA, also known as Mickey Scrima, 3551 Fontana Drive, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as a musician at the King's Club, Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, advised as follows:

He met JACK RUBY about five years ago in Dallas when RUBY was operating the Club Vegas. Since that time SCRIMA has seen and talked with RUBY frequently. He added, however, he does not know RUBY socially and knows little about his personal life. He added that on most every contact with RUBY their conversations pertained to "show business." He said he has never worked for RUBY.

He described RUBY as a very friendly person who wanted everyone to like him. He is somewhat nervous and although SCRIMA has seen RUBY "get hot under the collar" a few times he has never seen him violent and he has never seen him strike anyone.

SCRIMA recalls that during the last presidential election, he (SCRIMA), was wearing a KENNEDY button on his coat lapel. RUBY noticed the KENNEDY button on SCRIMA's coat lapel and patted him on the back, saying, "I think our boy is going to win." SCRIMA said that other than the above, RUBY has never mentioned KENNEDY to him nor has he ever "talked politics." SCRIMA had no reason to question RUBY's loyalty to the United States.

SCRIMA opined that RUBY felt LEE HARVEY OSWALD was without a doubt guilty of assassinating President KENNEDY and committing such a terrible act it gave Dallas a bad name, consequently hurting his business as the owner of a night club in Dallas. SCRIMA felt that RUBY killed OSWALD "on the spur of the moment" when a split second opportunity arose.

SCRIMA knew none of RUBY's close associates and he did not know if RUBY was acquainted with any member of the Dallas Police Department.

SCRIMA did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

SCRIMA said he heard from unrecalled sources that OSWALD had applied for a job at the Adolphus Hotel 2-3 months ago, but he could furnish no other information in this regard.

Mr. JAMES LYLE SMITH, 9024 Forest Hills Boulevard, Dallas, was interviewed at his place of employment, Yellow Freight Lines, located on Irving Road, Dallas, at which time he furnished the following information:

Approximately one and one-half years ago, exact date he could not recall, he was in the Vegas Club and had learned during the course of the evening that an individual by the name of JACK RUBY was the owner of this club. He stated that he had heard the name JACK RUBY prior to his seeing RUBY at the club that night, but that he was only aware of the name. He could not recall associating the name of RUBY with both the Carousel and the Vegas Clubs. He was under the impression that RUBY was the owner of both these night clubs. SMITH stated that he originally visited the Club Vegas because he had heard rumors to the effect it was an "after hours place". He explained this saying that the club stayed opened after most of the other clubs around Dallas had closed.

Although he has seen RUBY on occasions, SMITH stated that he never actually engaged in any type of conversation with RUBY concerning any matter whatsoever. He continued to say that he did not consider RUBY as either a friend or close associate, but described him as being an individual he had seen on a few occasions.

In regard to any information he possessed concerning RUBY's background, SMITH stated that he knew of nothing concerning RUBY's character, political convictions or anything else pertaining to RUBY. He added that he once heard someone say something to the effect that RUBY was "a tough guy" and "pretty nervous". SMITH advised that this information was only based on rumors and could offer no other information concerning RUBY or his background.

In regard to ever seeing RUBY in the Nite Owl Beer Joint, located in Chat Community, West, Texas, SMITH stated he has never seen RUBY at any time or at any place in Chat Community. SMITH added that he used to frequent several of the buyers clubs in the Chat Community area, but could never recall hearing the name JACK RUBY.

SMITH further advised that he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that the first time he had heard this name was shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. SMITH stated that he could offer no pertinent information concerning either the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that the only information he possessed was that which he had either read or heard in the local newspapers and television broadcasts.

1. Date 12/8/63

NORMAN SMITH, Gardiner's Neck Road, Swansea, Massachusetts, age 33, an insurance salesman, advised as follows:

He is a native of Swansea, Massachusetts. After completing service in the U.S. Air Force in 1953, he continued his education at Southern Methodist University (SMU), graduating in 1955. Thereafter he went into the theater acting business, specializing in jazz poetry and opened up the Dallas Little Theater on Oaklawn Avenue in Dallas, Texas. This closed on June 15, 1957. In the fall of 1958, he opened a coffee house called "The Poet" on Mc Kinney Avenue in Dallas. In the spring of 1959 he closed this and opened another coffee house called "The Eighth Day", and this was followed in the fall of 1959 with still another coffee house venture called "The Fat Man", all in the same general location in Dallas. In the spring of 1960, realizing that this was not his business, he left Dallas and returned to Swansea, Massachusetts where he has resided since.

During the approximate period 1957 - 1960, he knew JACK RUBY as the owner of "The Vegas", a stripper club in Dallas. He met RUBY in the "Artist's Club" in Dallas, which was an after hours club catering to musicians, actors and club owners. On occasions he played $1 limit poker with RUBY and others, although he did not consider RUBY a gambling addict. He also met RUBY in "The Vegas" on occasions when RUBY booked a band from SMU called the "Cell Block Seven", which was a favorite of SMITH.

On one occasion, while in the "Artist's Club", RUBY became involved in a drunken brawl with someone and was kicking his adversary while the latter was on the floor. SMITH interceded and took a punch at RUBY to stop the melee.

In all, he had been in RUBY's company about 20 times during this period of time, but he would not consider himself anything more than a casual, social acquaintance of RUBY, based on their allied types of business. He had never been to RUBY's apartment, or had RUBY ever been to his home. He had never met any of RUBY's relatives, and RUBY had never met any of SMITH's family.

On 12/7/63 at Swansea, Mass. File # Dallas 44-1639 BS 44-337

He had only one business dealing with RUBY, and that involved the purchase of 20 or 30 chairs from RUBY to outfit one of SMITH's coffee houses.

He knows little of RUBY's background, other than the fact that RUBY came from Chicago. He had heard that RUBY attempted unsuccessfully to get a union started of waitors and club personnel in the mid 1950's. RUBY was also supposed to be interested in some pizza making machine around 1960 when SMITH left Dallas. Prior to running "The Vegas", RUBY was rumored to have had a hillbilly joint in the south end of Dallas where an irate customer was supposed to have bitten off the end of RUBY's finger.

RUBY, like other club owners, carried a gun in his money bag containing the club's money. However, he never knew RUBY to have carried a gun on his person or to have threatened anyone with it.

SMITH knew nothing inparticular concerning RUBY's relationship with Dallas Police.

RUBY was a very friendly type, an extrovert and generally well liked. He was a brawler and a bully in the sense that he only picked a fight with those he could physically beat up. He was a publicity hound always looking for publicity for his business, and he was reputed to be a successful club operator by competitors. He did not suspect RUBY of being a homosexual.

He is confident that RUBY had no connection with any secret organization either subversive or criminal, and he believes this due to the fact that RUBY was an intellectual moron, was irresponsible, had an unpredictable temper and consequently would be an untrustworthy member of any such organization.

RUBY was not overly patriotic, but seemed to have an inordinate respect for people in high places.

SMITH has no personal knowledge of OSWALD. SMITH was shocked of hearing that RUBY shot OSWALD and he has no explanation as to why RUBY would do such a thing.

ELMER RAY SOLOMON, 3603 S. Versailles, Dallas, Texas, owner and operator, Turf Bar, 1515 Commerce Street, Dallas, furnished the following information:

SOLOMON has known JACK RUBY as a club operator in Dallas for about 12 years. He has had no close associatin with RUBY during this period. RUBY is well known in the Dallas area and frequently came to the Turf Bar for a sandwich or to hand out passes to the Carousel Club, the most recent club operated by RUBY. RUBY seemed to be always looking for a partner in his club operations. SOLOMON has no knowledge of any other activities of RUBY.

A number of years ago, RUBY had a very close associate known to SOLOMON only as "MARTY." His most recent close associate was GEORGE SENATOR, who was his roommate.

On November 23, 1963, at about 1:30 p.m., RUBY came in to the Turf Bar. It was SOLOMON's impression that he actually came in to the bar to give out passes to the Carousel Club. However, he seemed very much up set over the assassination of President KENNEDY. SOLOMON was sitting at a table with FRANK BELLOCHIO, a Mr. APPEL, from American Air Lines, ABE KLEINMAN, and a Mr. SEYMOUR, a dress salesman. RUBY came up to the table and displayed a copy of an article which had appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963, critical of President KENNEDY. He also had two photos which appeared to be photos of a bill board calling for impreachment of EARL WARREN. RUBY wondered who was putting up this bill board and also mentioned that he had gone to the "Dallas Morning News" to check concerning the article which had appeared in that paper.

SOLOMON has observed during the time he has known RUBY that RUBY appears to be of an excitable nature and SOLOMON has always looked on him as "half crazy." He did not seem to SOLOMON to be the type of individual who would plan action such as the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

SOLOMON has no knowledge of associates or any other activities of JACK RUBY and can furnish no additional pertinent information.

ROBERT STUART, aka Buddy King, Veterans Hospital, advised he worked for JACK RUBY at Dallas, Texas, for three or four months in the late summer and fall of 1961, as manager and Master of Ceremonies of the Carrousel Club. When he first went to work for RUBY, the club was known as the Sovereign Club and was a private club. RUBY obtained a liquor license and the name was changed to the Carrousel Club and became an open night club.

STUART said he knew of no criminal associates of RUBY. He said there was an individual, name unknown, who was from Chicago and dropped in to the club on occasions. He thought this individual was on the "shady side" because on one occasion this man tried to sell STUART a diamond ring for $200, and STUART believed the ring to be in excess of $500. Also, this man tried to sell STUART a watch on another occasion for a very low price. STUART described this individual as white male, age 52 to 55, height 5'6", weight 175 pounds, hair gray, receding on both sides of forehead. He said he had the impression RUBY had known this man in Chicago.

STUART knew of no communist sympathies on the part of RUBY, and said in fact RUBY hated the communists and in conversations bitterly denounced them.

He also advised he knew of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVY OSWALD.

LEE, 2711 East 17th Street, and Mrs. BEUNA SEAY, L & H Drug Store, all Odessa, stayed at the Cabana Motel located near the Trade Mart in Dallas in September, 1963. At about 11:00 P.M., September 4, 1963, they were all at a table in the dining room of the Cabana when Mrs. SUMMERS noticed some people at two tables near them. One of the men was addressed as Mr. OSIE. This individual was at one table, while at a nearby table there were two men and a woman. All of these people were talking about a meeting they were to have. Mrs. SUMMERS stated that she now believes that one of the men at the table of three customers resembles JACK RUBY. Also at this table, according to Mrs. SUMMERS, was a gray haired man with a flat top hair cut wearing heavy glasses. He was about 50 years of age, was dark-complexioned, and was wearing a gray sport coat.

Mrs. SUMMERS stated that the person who resembled RUBY was wearing a dark brown suit, was heavy set, and had dark, heavy course hair, thining slightly in the front. She advised that she could not estimate his age or weight. She further advised that the woman at the table was heavy set and had light brown hair.

Mrs. SUMMERS stated that working in the dining room and conversing with the people at both of these tables indicating that he was well known to them, [illegible] was a dark haired man, described as 6', 30 to 35, nice looking and wearing a gray suit. This man appeared to be in charge of the dining room. Mrs. SUMMERS advised that five Negroes, dressed in tuxedos, came out of the kitchen of the Cabana and talked with the man working in the dining room and with the people at both tables.

They continued to talk about having a meeting. Mrs. SUMMERS stated that at that time she thought the meeting was concerning Mr. JAMES HOFFA as HOFFA owns the Cabana.

CHARLES TISH was interviewed at the Prime Rib Restaurant, 4636 Paradise Road, Las Vegas. He gave his residence as 231 Lana Street, Apartment 2A, Las Vegas, Nevada. TISH advised that he resided and worked in Dallas, Texas, from November, 1948, through September, 1961, at which time he moved to Las Vegas.

He described his present employment as a waiter at above restaurant. He stated that while in Texas, he managed the bar at the Adolphus Hotel along with other jobs in the restaurant and night club field.

He advised that JACK RUBY operated the old Silver Spur Club in Dallas, in 1954 and 1955, and that he was well acquainted with RUBY at that time. He recalled that RUBY's place was a beer and wine establishment with no hard liquor sold. He stated he last saw RUBY about two and one half years ago in Dallas, at the Gas Light or the Carousel Club operated by RUBY at that time. He mentioned that RUBY had three "belly dancers" employed at one of these clubs at that time.

He recalled that RUBY was usually on a health kick and frequented the YMCA and "worked out" there. He added that RUBY had a reputation as a "tough guy." He said that RUBY was prone to "dropping" the names of police officers as acquaintances during conversations. He believed that RUBY did this in an effort to impress his listeners. TISH was of the opinion that RUBY constantly wanted to be noticed by others and as a result he feels that RUBY believed he could make his greatest impression on people by killing such a well known person as LEE OSWALD. He said that RUBY never showed any interest in politics. He added that LEE OSWALD is unknown to him.

TISH advised that he has no information that RUBY had been in Las Vegas, Nevada, since he, TISH, has been here. He stated that it was his opinion that if RUBY had visited Las Vegas, he would certainly have contacted him, TISH.

TISH advised that RUBY at one time was a close associate of RALPH PAUL and CHRIS SEMOS in the Dallas area. He also stated that RUBY was a good friend of a former show girl at the Tropicana Hotel in Las Vegas. TISH gave her name as either LEE SHARON or SHARON LEE and said she at one time worked for RUBY in the Dallas, Texas area.

FRANK TORTORILLEO, Tanglewood Apartments, Apartment 104, 3909 Inwood, Dallas, Texas, co-owner of the J. C. Adams Construction Company, advised he had known JACK RUBY for the past five or six years, having first known him when he was operating the Vegas Club.

During the past years TORTORILLEO came to know RUBY well by patronizing both the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club. Through his association with RUBY, he came to know JEANNETTE CONFORTO, a stripper who worked under the name of "JADA." During the past several months TORTORILLEO stated that JADA had spent "several nights" with him at his apartment, and on one occasion he had interceded for JADA with JACK RUBY when they had been arguing and fighting. Approximately two or three weeks ago JADA, while spending the night with him, told him of her latest argument with RUBY, which had begun when RUBY turned off the lights while JADA was performing. RUBY complained of JADA's habit of rubbing certain portions of her body while doing her act, which she had previously done in New Orleans, and which was forbidden in Dallas. He also complained about her associating with the customers at the tables when not performing. JADA told TORTORILLEO that on the advice of a friend she had gone to Judge Richburg, Justice of the Peace, when RUBY had threatened to withhold her salary and to destroy her costumes. TORTORILLEO stated that he knew Judge RICHBURG had issued a restraining order on RUBY and had also instructed RUBY to pay JADA, but TORTORILLEO said he did not intercede in this argument because of his friendship with both parties to the argument.

TORTORILLEO stated that JADA had been residing at Holiday Inn where she kept her 1963 Cadillac Convertible with Louisiana license, and stated that on Tuesday or Wednesday, November 26 or 27, JADA had come by his apartment, half crying, picked up her skirt and sweater and told him she was "going to New York and get married"; that she was tired of living alone and tired of working.

by Special Agent JAMES C. KENNEDY and WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN:bnm Date dictated 12/2/63

TORTORILLEO also stated that JADA was "extremely fond" of her young son, age approximately three, who was living with her sister-in-law in New Orleans. TORTORILLEO stated that he knew JADA had previously been married to JUNIOR CONFORTO who was in New Orleans at the present time.

TORTORILLEO stated that he had "expected JADA to call him" and stated that if she did he would furnish her New York address, or wherever she called from.

TORTORILLEO concluded that he did not believe RUBY had any political beliefs one way or the other, but stated he knew RUBY was definitely "American in every way." TORTORILLEO recalled that approximately six months ago when RUBY's master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club had made some joke derogatory to the KENNEDY family, that RUBY had stopped him and instructed the master of ceremonies "in the future don't make any jokes about the KENNEDYs, the Jews, or the Italians."

TORTORILLEO stated that he did not believe RUBY had known OSWALD before and stated that RUBY was impulsive and emotional and was a "class seeker." TORTORILLEO stated on several occasions he had taken four or five couples to RUBY's club and these couples were in a social strata above RUBY and when TORTORILLEO would "kiddingly" call RUBY's attention to someone who was calling out to the girls while they were stripping and tell RUBY "we can't tolerate this trade," that RUBY would face the offending person and hustle him out of the club immediately.

TORTORILLEO also stated that RUBY had approached him to open a private "Key Club" for a higher class clientele on Maple Avenue.

TORTORILLEO concluded that he had never seen LEE OSWALD in JACK RUBY's club and had not seen RUBY since prior to the President's assassination.

TORTORILLEO concluded that RUBY had never attended a party at his apartment and that on November 20, 1963, neither JADA, RUBY, or JOE FREDERICI had been in attendance at his party.

C. E. MANLEY, M.D., 104 1st Street, Kenedy, Texas, advised that in about 1957 one DALLAS HUSKEY, whose parents had been patients of Dr. MANLEY's, died in Kenedy, Texas, and was buried there. Dr. MANLEY was present at the HUSKEY residence in Kenedy prior to the funeral of DALLAS HUSKEY and observed the arrival of a big automobile containing four men and pulling a trailer in which were several bird dogs. The father of DALLAS HUSKEY remarked to Dr. MANLEY at this time that "BOSTON BLACKIE" had arrived but did not indicate to Dr. MANLEY what was meant by that. Dr. MANLEY said the four men came over to Mr. HUSKEY who introduced them to Dr. MANLEY. Texas

Dr. MANLEY could not now remember who any of these four men were but he said it seemed to him that one of the men may have been introduced as JACK RUBY, although he cannot recall that this man resembled photographs of the JACK RUBY who is alleged to have killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Dr. MANLEY said he did remember that "BOSTON BLACKIE" was a very large man and that Mr. HUSKEY said all of these four men were from Fort Worth, Texas.

Dr. MANLEY said that in about 1953 DALLAS HUSKEY reportedly killed a man named DUCHET (phonetic) in Kenedy, Texas, with whom DALLAS HUSKEY had had some trouble and who allegedly had threatened HUSKEY. He said HUSKEY was tried for murder for this killing and found not guilty.

Dr. MANLEY said DALLAS HUSKEY was a large stock trader who did some oil well drilling and who also had the reputation of being quite a gambler.

Dr. MANLEY said DALLAS HUSKEY's father was a veterinarian, now deceased. He said DALLAS HUSKEY's mother is Mrs. HELEN HUSKEY who now lives at 4413 Emerson, Dallas, Texas, and that DALLAS HUSKEY's brother, R. V. HUSKEY, is a pharmacist in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. & Mrs. FRANK GOLDSTEIN, who describes himself as a professional gambler, residing at 640 Teresita Boulevard, San Francisco, California, with his wife, MARY, was interviewed December 4, 1963, at San Francisco by SAs WILLIAM N. KIDWELL, JR., and EDWARD C. SERNETT. GOLDSTEIN stated that he was acquainted with JACK RUBY as JACK RUBENSTEIN or by the nickname SPARKY, having met him in San Francisco in approximately 1933. He stated that he, GOLDSTEIN, was at that time operating a subscription crew for the San Francisco "Call Bulletin," a daily newspaper, and he employed RUBY and his sister, EVA GRANT, in this work from approximately 1933 until 1938 or 1939. He advised that RUBY and EVA both engaged in door-to-door sales of subscriptions to the aforementioned newspaper. EVA may also have done telephone soliciting work for the newspaper. GOLDSTEIN recalled that EVA GRANT and RUBY, together with EVA's son, RONNIE, lived in an apartment located between Eddy and Ellis Streets on Jones Street in San Francisco. He recalled that EVA married FRANK GRANT in San Francisco, whom she later divorced. He stated he believes FRANK GRANT is now somewhere in the Los Angeles, California, area. He has not, however, seen this person for many years. GOLDSTEIN advised that during the period mentioned above he and RUBY were able to make a good living considering the fact that they were so employed during the depression years. He remembers RUBY as a quiet, well-mannered young man. He stated he was honest and completely trustworthy. He was a soft-spoken individual, extremely conscious of his appearance and dress. GOLDSTEIN believes RUBY left San Francisco in late 1939 or early 1940. GOLDSTEIN states he does not know of any other employment RUBY had in San Francisco other than selling newspaper subscriptions.

He was aware that RUBY was in the night club business in Dallas, as EVA GRANT visited with GOLDSTEIN and his wife in San Francisco approximately three years ago. This was a social call, as apparently EVA had not been in San Francisco for many years.

Approximately four weeks ago, during the first part of November, 1963, RUBY telephoned GOLDSTEIN at GOLDSTEIN's unlisted home telephone number JU 7-7674. RUBY could have obtained this number from EVA GRANT, as she was aware of the number, having visited in the GOLDSTEIN home. GOLDSTEIN stated he had not heard from RUBY for over twenty years until the occasion of this telephone call. He was surprised to hear from him and after a short inconsequential conversation asked GOLDSTEIN if he knew anyone in the "AGVA", which GOLDSTEIN concluded was in reference to the American Guild of Variety Artists. RUBY made some reference to the fact that he was having trouble with this organization in Dallas and he asked GOLDSTEIN if he would get in touch with a man named IRVIN MAZZIO or MAZZI who was reportedly AGVA representative somewhere in Los Angeles. RUBY stated the difficulties he was experiencing involved the Carousel Club in Dallas, and he made some reference to a Dallas newspaperman, first name DON, not further described. He furnished GOLDSTEIN with his home telephone number WE 1-5701 and his night club telephone number RI 7-2362. GOLDSTEIN told RUBY that while he knew a lot of people, he doubted that he could help him in connection with this problem. They spoke for a moment or two longer and then ended the call.

GOLDSTEIN advised he has taken no action on this basis of this call because he frankly did not understand what RUBY was requesting of him. He advised that he invited RUBY to visit him should he come to San Francisco.

GOLDSTEIN stated that he recognized RUBY on national television following the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Dallas. He advised that he cannot understand why RUBY killed OSWALD. He remembers RUBY as a patriotic citizen, who has no radical tendencies. He stated he never has known RUBY to engage in any association with any hoodlum or underworld element. He stated he does not remember RUBY as an individual who would do anything against the best interests of the United States.

BEN SHARP, 221 Esplanade, Capitola, California, was interviewed and advised as follows:

He stated he operates Ben's Country Store at 221 Esplanade and also operates a similar establishment at Pacifica, California. During the period 1937 to 1939, SHARP was a crew manager for a group of individuals selling subscriptions for the San Francisco "Call-Bulletin", a daily newspaper. JACK RUBENSTEIN, who was known as SPARKY, was a member of SHARP's crew. EVA GRANT also worked for SHARP for part of this period. Both GRANT and RUBENSTEIN had a good reputation according to SHARP. They occupied most of their time attempting to sell newspaper subscriptions door to door. The group of individuals so employed, including RUBENSTEIN and GRANT, spent considerable time in Foster's Cafeteria then located on the corner of Ellis and Jones Streets in San Francisco. SHARP states that RUBENSTEIN appeared to be an honest forthright person. He did not know him to associate with any hoodlum element although RUBENSTEIN and many of his friends did associate with the sports crowd including those involved in professional fighting. RUBENSTEIN had no radical leanings. He seemed to be completely patriotic. He had a personal liking for law enforcement.

SHARP is of the opinion that had RUBENSTEIN been somewhat larger physically, he would have liked to have been a police officer. SHARP advised that he recognized the photograph of the subject which appeared in daily newspapers and on national television following the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Dallas as being identical with the individual he knew in San Francisco as JACK "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN.

In the summer of either 1957 or 1958 he went from Louisville, Kentucky, to Ellis Park Race Track at Henderson, Kentucky, with the late Lieutenant ELLIS JOSEPH, also known as "Gyp" Joseph, who had been a member of the Louisville Police Department from 1934 until permitted to resign in 1952 as an outgrowth of charges alleging theft.

While at Ellis Park, JOSEPH introduced him to a JACK RUBY, whom he recalled is the same individual whose photograph has recently appeared in newspaper publicity in connection with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. JOSEPH told him that RUBY was a "syndicate man out of Chicago." MALONE did not know where RUBY was living at that time. Lieutenant JOSEPH appeared to be well acquainted with RUBY and both remained together during the races at the track on that particular day.

MALONE advised that JOSEPH told him that RUBY was a "good friend", and had some "hot" horses, that is, tips on winners, allegedly on the horses that were being bet by the "syndicate" on that date. MALONE stated that RUBY had a number of winners that date. RUBY was accompanied by an unrecalled white male, age 45 to 50, of Jewish extraction. This individual remained with RUBY and JOSEPH on that occasion.

MALONE has had no contact with RUBY since that time.

MALONE was unaware of any other contacts or associates of RUBY and had no information indicating membership by RUBY in any group or association whatsoever excepting as previously referred to as the "syndicate."

SIDNEY SIEDBRAND, Apt. 58, 1829 E. Thomas Road, Phoenix, who is employed by the J. RANDY Construction Company, 1015 N. Fifteenth Avenue, Phoenix, telephone 258-4567, was interviewed and furnished the following information:

He advised that during hard times in the depression and when gambling was permitted at Dallas, Texas, he worked as a croupier at a dice table in Dallas. SIEBRAND said he would be known to law enforcement agencies in that area.

SIEDBRAND advised that in 1957 he was at Hot Springs, Arkansas to attend a racing meet for five to seven days. While at Hot Springs a man whose last name he believes was MC QUEEN, introduced him to JACK RUBY, stating that they should know each other as they were both from Dallas. SIEDBRAND described MC QUEEN as a person whom he believed came to Dallas from Memphis, Tennessee. MC QUEEN was a floorman, a position similar to a casino boss, at the Blue Bonnet Motel, Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas. SIEDBRAND described MC QUEEN as about 53 or 54 years of age, gray haired, and with one forefinger missing.

Soon after he introduced RUBY to SIEDBRAND at Hot Springs, MC QUEEN left Dallas and went to Cuba to work in a gambling establishment there, according to SIEDBRAND's understanding and belief. Mr. SIEDBRAND stated, in his opinion, MC QUEEN would be well known to the Dallas Police Department.

SIEDBRAND advised that after meeting JACK RUBY at Hot Springs, Arkansas, he saw RUBY at a pancake house in Dallas on one occasion after their first and only meeting, but he did not try to strike up an acquaintance with RUBY because he had gained the impression that RUBY was not the type of person whose society he would care to cultivate.

As he did not visit RUBY's establishments in Dallas or get to know RUBY well, SIEDBRAND said he would not be able to furnish information regarding RUBY's character, traits, personality, background, associates, beliefs, or any possible membership on the part of RUBY in any organizations, fraternal groups, or clubs.

SIEDBRAND telephoned to advise above name is MC WILLY, ~~not MC QUEEN.~~

Regarding attempts to locate SIDNEY SIEDBAND through relatives in Chicago:

On December 4, 1963, Mrs. ROSEMARY SIEDBAND, widow of HERMAN, 4923 Quincy Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised SA JAMES D. DEWHIRST her husband's brother, SIDNEY, was last in Chicago six years ago, when he attended the wedding of her daughter. Three years ago he telephoned from an unknown location at time of her son's wedding. He was "black sheep" of family and involved in unsavory endeavors since becoming an adult. He has reportedly been married several times, once to a woman in Texas approximately twenty-five years ago and most recently to a woman engaged in the lumber business in Oklahoma. He was employed in the jewelry business with his brother SAMUEL in Chicago several years ago but quit due to dislike for same. He has travelled throughout the country apparently enjoying gambling and associating with the undesirable element.

On December 4, 1963, PAULINE SIEDBAND SALTZMAN, divorced from HARRY SALTZMAN, and BABBETT SIEDBAND, 3101 Sheridan Road, Chicago, furnished SA DEWHIRST similar information regarding their brother, SIDNEY, obtained from Mrs. ROSEMARY SIEDBAND. They also stated they were unable to locate SIDNEY at the time of the death of HARRIS SIEDBAND, their father, two years ago. To their knowledge, he is unaware that his father is deceased. Being the youngest of the family, BABBETT was somewhat closer to SIDNEY, but knows nothing further regarding his whereabouts for the past six years.

On December 5, 1963, SAMUEL SIEDBAND, 4653 North Lawndale Avenue, Chicago, furnished SA DEWHIRST identical information regarding his brother SIDNEY as obtained from Mrs. HERMAN SIEDBAND and his sisters, PAULINE and BABBETT. He knew nothing further regarding SIDNEY's current whereabouts.

SAMUEL SIEDBAND stated that a brother, Master Sergeant LOUIS SIEDBAND, has been in the United States Air Force for the past thirty-nine years and is currently stationed at the San Bernardino, California Air Force Base. AT TAMPA, FLORIDA

The December 6, 1963 issue of "La Gaceta," a weekly newspaper in Tampa, Florida, carried an article by ROLAND MANEIGA. The article stated that JACK RUBY, a Dallas night club operator, had been in Tampa about a year and a half before and took in the shows at several of the strip clubs in Tampa. At that time, RUBY allegedly was on his way to Miami. The article said that several of the dancers who stripped in one of the Tampa clubs had also danced for RUBY in Dallas.

On December 10, 1963 ROLAND MANTEIGA, of "La Gaceta," advised SA LIONEL E. BELANGER that the source of his information concerning the presence of JACK RUBY in Tampa was RICK PAULINE, and he had no objection to the FBI's talking to RICK PAULINE Ela and using his name.

On December 10, 1963 RICK PAULINE, owner, Celebrity Club, Lafayette and Tampa Streets, Tampa, advised SAs ONNIE E. WALKER and LIONEL E. BELANGER that the story concerning the presence of JACK RUBY in Tampa as reported by ROLAND MANTEIGA was in error. He stated that it is true that he told MANTEIGA a story concerning the presence of RUBY in Tampa, but that his information had come from one "JAMAE," a stripper who had last worked in his club about a year and a half ago. PAULINE said that JAMAE had told him that she was quitting and advised him that JACK RUBY, a Dallas night club owner, had come into the Celebrity Club, and that he had told her that if she would work for him in Dallas, he would pay her $150 a week and in addition would pay the cost of her transportation from Tampa to Dallas

PAULINE said that JAMAR quit him and went to Texas, presumably to work for RUBY. He said that the last he heard of JAMAR, she was working for night clubs in Houston, Texas and was booking her engagements through LILLIAN (LNU), the biggest theatrical booking agent in Houston. He said that he had not seen RUBY, and this was the only information he had concerning him. He said also that there were many rumors that many of the dancers in Tampa night clubs had worked for RUBY in the past, but that they were merely rumors, and he had no positive information concerning this whatsoever.

PAULINE described JAMAR as follows:

|---|---|
| Race: | White |
| Sex: | Female |
| Age: | 24-25 |
| Height: | 5'8" |
| Weight: | 120 |
| Hair: | Blond |
| Eyes: | Hazel |
| Build: | Slender |

PAULINE furnished a portion of a photograph of JAMAR which appeared in a Tampa newspaper in 1958.

Date 12/7/63

WILLIAM B. ABADIE, who is employed at Scott Instrument Company, 3734 West Slauson, Los Angeles, California, was interviewed at his residence, 4820 West Slauson, Los Angeles. At the inception of the interview ABADIE advised that he had jumped bond in the amount of $300. at Dallas, Texas; that this bond had been to cover his release on a charge of DWI (Driving While Intoxicated). He advised that he knew the Dallas Police Department would be looking for him and wanted to know if he was going to be arrested by the Agents. The Agents immediately informed him that they wanted to interview him concerning his knowledge and associations with JACK LEON RUBY, of Dallas, Texas. He was further advised that this Office had no warrant for him and no interest at this time in the local violation at Dallas. He was advised that anything that he said would be voluntary, that he did not have to be interviewed by the Agents or furnish any information to them, that if he did it could be used as evidence in a court of law, but that the subject of the interview was entirely concerning his associations with JACK RUBY. Mr. ABADIE then advised that he hardly knew RUBY and was entirely willing to discuss anything concerning RUBY with the Agents.

ABADIE first became acquainted by observation with the man known as JACK LEON RUBY, whom, according to newspaper accounts read by ABADIE, shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the alleged assassin of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. ABADIE had never known RUBY prior to the early part of March, 1963, at which time, after having been on an extended alcoholic binge, ABADIE was hired by RUBY's Shop Foreman as a slot machine and juke box mechanic. This employment continued for a period of about seven weeks, ABADIE leaving at the end of this time to try and locate his estranged wife.

ABADIE stated he had never even spoken to RUBY or been spoken to by him. He advised that he did see RUBY in the warehouse shop where he, ABADIE, was performing his mechanics duties, but that he at no time had any discussions with him socially or because of his employment. For the most part his work was at the aforementioned warehouse. However, on one occasion for a few days he "wrote tickets" as a bookie in one of RUBY's establishments.

On 12/6/63 at Los Angeles, California File Los Angeles 44-895

by SA's WILLIAM N. HEARD and DOUGLAS J. KRAUTER/srb Date dictated 12/7/63

ABADIE advised that he had no knowledge as to RUBY's association with OSWALD. ABADIE was never in RUBY's Carousel Club or in any of his other clubs, pointing out that his social status and income did not incline him to be in places such as this. He stated that the only thing he knew about any background was hearsay to the effect that RUBY had come to Dallas from Detroit, Michigan, in 1934 or 1935; that he was related to the RUBINSTEINs, who were mixed up in the "poker crowd" and a part of the old "Purple Gang" in Detroit. ABADIE stated that he had heard this type information while a bellhop at the Wolverine in Detroit, Michigan, at about this time. ABADIE advised that he did not know who RUBY's parents were, did not know their names, or whether or not JOSEPH and FANNIE RUBINSTEIN were in fact part of the family described just previously by him.

He also stated that he knew of no associates of RUBY amongst the gamblers in Dallas or amongst the other racketeers. He stated that working in his warehouse, however, it was obvious that to operate gambling in the manner that he did, that he must have racketeering connections with other individuals in the City of Dallas, as well as Fort Worth, Texas. He also said that this opinion applied also to police connection with the two cities and that this had to be obvious in order to operate. While he was making book for RUBY's establishment, he did observe police officers in and out of the gambling establishment on occasion. He knew none of these officers and could not identify any.

During his employment with the two enterprises owned by JACK RUBY he observed nothing to indicate that RUBY had any subversive connections, any interest in the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, or any radical or extremist views, either communistic or views of the far right.

Because of his lack of closeness to RUBY, himself, he knew none of RUBY's close relatives, associates, or girl friends. He stated that RUBY's reputation in the working establishment was that he had no close friends, stayed completely to himself, and was interested solely and entirely in his businesses and in gambling.

His particular impressions of RUBY were that he was a quiet, intense racketeer, gambler and hustler. He advised that he never saw him angry or appearing upset during the period of time that he was an employee. He appeared calm, not one to express his emotions; had the reputation amongst the workers of neither drinking nor being addicted to narcotics. His one outstanding characteristic, which was mentioned, was his own personal intense interest in gambling of any kind.

ABADIE advised that he had no gun in his possession; that to the best of his memory, which he said is extremely clouded because of his constant drinking, the last time that he had his 1941 Colt blue, single-action revolver was in February, 1960, when he hocked it in a Birmingham, Alabama, pawn shop, along with his watch. He could not recall the name of the pawn shop but stated that there are only three or four in the city; that they are all in one block and it was one of these. He stated that he had no gun at the time that he was employed by RUBY; that he had not sold him any gun, loaned him any gun, or, along with the previous information mentioned, had not even had any contacts with him of any kind.

As to his wife, Mrs. RUBY ABADIE, whose whereabouts is not known to him, ever having met RUBY in his, ABADIE's company, he maintained that this was absolutely not true. He said his wife was never around either of RUBY's establishments where he was employed and he at no time ever met RUBY out any place socially when his wife was present, or any other time. He further advised that Mrs. SHIRLEY GATLIN was a friend of both him and his wife, but that she had not been in Dallas during the time that he was employed by RUBY, which was the only time that he ever knew who RUBY was or had ever observed him any place. He advised, therefore, that it would have been impossible for the three of them to have ever run into RUBY in Dallas.

He advised that he had other guns as follows:

One was a .38 caliber snub-nose Smith & Wesson revolver, traded to an aircraft surplus dealer in San Antonio, Texas, in 1959. This individual has a wife who runs a motel and can be identified by the Piper Airplane dealers in Houston, CUMMINGS and GROVES, as there was a law suit between the two. In 1957 he had a .38 automatic, which was stolen while he lived at 106 Newhouse Street, Houston, Texas. Earlier than that his previous wife, BARBARA JEAN ABADIE, stole a .32 caliber Police Colt Special and gave it to some girl friend somewhere in the State of California. Mrs. William E. Hladik

ABADIE concluded by saying that he wanted to make it plain that he had never had any close association with RUBY, although RUBY had known his father, ULYSSES G. ABADIE, many years prior to the time of employment. Even this was never mentioned to him by RUBY. He advised that while he was employed by RUBY he received no impressions of extremism any place he worked on RUBY's part or on the part of anyone else, except that everyone in the shop and everyone he worked with were anti-integrationists in their views. He said they did not like Negroes; that he, himself, did not; that they would not allow Negroes to place bets and did not want to associate with them. ABADIE heard no views expressed indicating that anyone he worked with wanted to take any extremist action in support of their views.

The following descriptive data was obtained by personal observation and interview:

| Sex | Male |

ANDREW ARMSTRONG was contacted at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, to ascertain if the Carousel Club had ever employed any female photographers and to further ascertain the policy of the club concerning taking of photographs in the club. ARMSTRONG furnished the following information:

ARMSTRONG has been associated with the Carousel Club during the past year and a half. During that period the club has never employed a photographer. During that period, ARMSTRONG could recall of no instance where a woman photographer had photographed anyone in the club with the exception of one photograph who took a picture subsequent to the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

As a general policy, the club does not allow patrons to bring cameras into the club and take pictures of patrons or performers. On rare occasions, ARMSTRONG takes photographs of patrons with their permission who have gone on the stage to perform with one of the strippers or who has gone on the stage to accept a prize won at the time the club raffles off champagne, dolls, etc. These photographs are in most instances taken by ARMSTRONG himself with a polaroid camera and the photograph is given to the patron photographed.

Approximately three weeks ~~prior~~ Texas to the assassination of President KENNEDY a free-lance photographer from the west coast whose first name is AL (LNU), took a series of photographs in the club with RUBY's permission with the intention of selling them to some national magazine. At the time these photographs were taken, written waivers were obtained from patrons photographed by AL (LNU). ARMSTRONG had heard that AL had sold this series of photographs taken at the Carousel Club to Life magazine.

ARMSTRONG reiterated the Carousel Club during his tenure had never employed a photographer, either male or female.

BRYCE G. BRADY, 4931 East Side Avenue, Apartment 1, Dallas, Texas, telephone TA 4-7488, advised he knew JACK RUBY in 1951 when he worked for him as a bouncer, bartender and handyman for about six or seven months when RUBY owned the Silver Spur Night Club on South Ervay. He said the club is presently called the Patti Club. He advised he never lived with RUBY or knew no one else that RUBY had put up or any of RUBY's close associates. He added, however, that possibly DAVE MONTROSE, a former emcee at the club, might have been considered a close associate of RUBY's. He said MONTROSE had a radio show which was primarily hillbilly in nature which he emceed, and the last he heard, MONTROSE had moved to California, whereabouts unknown, in 1955. He said he has not seen MONTROSE since and advised the last time he saw RUBY was in 1955 at the Vegas Club, which meeting was just a brief greeting.

BRADY advised that RUBY was "the kind of guy that would give you the shirt off of his back if he liked you, and if you said something or did something he didn't like, he'd tear it off of you". He said he treated him very nice since he felt RUBY liked him. He added, however, that he knew RUBY had the habit of helping quite a few people out by giving them money with which to get a start. He advised he heard that many people could not put up with RUBY very long because he had a very bad temper. He said RUBY never held a grudge against anyone but did act very hastily and voiced his opinion at a moment's notice. He said he had the habit of "flipping his lid" and then five minutes later apologizing for same. He advised he knew nothing of RUBY's being a homosexual. In fact, RUBY was living with a woman when he operated the Silver Spur.

BRADY advised RUBY was the last one in the world he would have suspected of shooting anyone and he felt that RUBY had probably been shocked at President KENNEDY's assassination, which caused him to shoot OSWALD. He said that RUBY did not have any political affiliations that he knew of and was always 100 per cent behind the Government and leaders of the country and state, as well as local.

BRYCE G. BRADY, II, 4931 Eastside Avenue, Dallas, Texas, telephone TA 4-7488, who is employed as a fitter for Austin Brothers Steel Company, Dallas, advised he was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on December 4, 1963, concerning his association with JACK LEON RUBY. Additionally, BRADY advised as follows:

BRADY met RUBY in the latter part of 1951 when he went to work for RUBY part-time as a "bouncer", bartender, and handy man at RUBY's Silver Spur Club in Dallas. BRADY said he left this employment about seven months later which was approximately in the Spring of 1952.

In December, 1951, ED (LNU) Texas a bartender at the Silver Spur at that time, suggested to BRADY that the two of them buy RUBY a .38 revolver for a Christmas present. Until that time, according to BRADY, RUBY carried a small caliber pistol at times for protection, since RUBY did handle the club's receipts. He stated he gave ED (LNU) $30.00 for his half, and ED (LNU) purchased a .38 Colt snub-nose he believes from Titche - Goettinger Department Store in Dallas, and they gave it to RUBY for Christmas. BRADY said the gun was wrapped and he saw it only at a glance when RUBY opened it at Christmas.

BRADY said since he left RUBY's employ in 1952, he has seen him around Dallas streets, but has had no actual contact with him. The last time he saw RUBY was about three years ago, when he visited the Vegas Club and as he entered the club RUBY was leaving. He said they greeted each other, but had no conversation.

BRADY stated he has not seen or heard of ED (LNU) mentioned above since he, BRADY, left the Silver Spur and BRADY does not know where ED (LNU) is presently residing or employed.

He related that while employed by RUBY in 1951-1952, he observed that RUBY was a nervous, emotional person, who lost his temper frequently and occasionally RUBY would physically remove a "trouble maker" from his club. BRADY said that to the best of his knowledge RUBY was a law abiding citizen and business man, who operated a "clean" club and had nothing to do with prostitution, gambling or narcotics. BRADY added that he heard from an unrecalled source in recent months, that one could go to RUBY's Vegas Club in Dallas and get any kind of narcotics he wanted.

BRADY advised that although he never heard RUBY discuss politics, he appeared to be a devoted American citizen and nothing ever came to his attention that would cause him to question his loyalty to the United States.

BRADY advised that while he was employed by RUBY, a Dallas police officer, name unknown, was also employed there part-time on weekends as a "bouncer." BRADY said that during the time he was employed at the Silver Spur, Dallas Police Officers, names unknown, frequently came to the club to check on the performances. He added that he saw some of the officers patronize the Silver Spur while they were off duty and they never paid cover charges, but did pay for beer and food served to them. He related that during the Christmas holidays of 1951, he saw RUBY pass out fifths of whiskey to Dallas Police Officers, names unknown, as well as to others, names unknown, as Christmas gifts.

BRADY related that when he was employed by RUBY he had occasions to call RUBY at his apartment regarding business matters and each time a woman, believed by him to be the same woman, would answer the telephone. This woman was unknown to BRADY. He suspected that RUBY was living in common-law relationship with this woman. BRADY added that RUBY never mentioned being married to anyone.

BRADY advised that father, BRYCE BRADY, who resides at 6606 Avondale Drive, Nichols Hills, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, suffered a light heart attack early in November, 1963, and as a result, he left Dallas on November 8, 1963, to be with his father. BRADY returned to Dallas the weekend of November 16 - 17, 1963, to pick up his pay check and exchange his clothing. He then drove back to Oklahoma City to be with his father. BRADY returned to Dallas on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, and to his job on November 23, 1963.

BRADY stated he never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

1 AKA FRANCINE Date 12/8/63

DALLAS, TEXAS NI

Mrs. FANNIE BIRCH, 9100 Metz Drive, was contacted at her residence and immediately advised of the official identity of the interviewing Agents, the fact that she did not have to make any statement; that any statement made by her could be used against her in court and of her right to counsel.

BIRCH furnished the following information concerning her association with JACK RUBY:

The BIRCH family moved from Seabright, New Jersey, to Dallas, Texas, in late 1946 or early 1947 to an address on South Ervay Street, almost directly across from the Silver Spur Night Club. This night club was operated by JACK RUBY and FANNIE BIRCH visited this night club and struck up an acquaintance with RUBY. A year or two later, RUBY sold the Silver Spur and purchased the Vegas Club, which FANNIE BIRCH also visited. The youngest daughter of Mrs. FANNIE BIRCH, who is now Mrs. PATRICIA KOHS, 2232 or 3222 Riverview Apartments, was employed by RUBY as a stripper at the Carousel Club, which RUBY later acquired, and was known by the stage name of PENNY DOLLAR. At the present time, PENNY DOLLAR is in rehearsal for an act to open at Lou Ann's Club, Greenville Avenue, Dallas. AKA Dallas Hill's

During her employment at the Carousel Club, PENNY DOLLAR was forced to complain to the American Guild of Variety Artists in order to collect two weeks' salary from RUBY, and she won her case and received an extra $125.00 from RUBY.

Mrs. FANNIE BIRCH was also employed by RUBY at the Carousel and the Vegas Club as a stripper approximately three years ago for about two months and performed only on Friday evenings. She performed under the name of FRANCINE. Mrs. BIRCH stated she considers JACK RUBY to be highly unstable and irrational due to his actions in and around the Carousel Club which she witnessed while employed there.

RUBY, at various times, has forcibly ejected customers and, apparently, for no sound reason. One evening RUBY knocked down a man inside the club and then knocked him down a flight of approximately twenty stairs and did not even attempt to determine if the man had been injured.

by Special Agent EDWARD J. MABEY and KENNETH T. HUGHES - LAC Date dictated 12/8/63

About two years ago, when the television show "Route 66" came to Dallas to televise scenes, a stunt man employed by the Route 66 Show visited the Carousel Club, and RUBY had his picture taken with this man, evidently for the purpose of some free publicity. RUBY later showed up at a party given by the TV crew at the Marriott Motel in Dallas and spent the entire evening sitting on a couch by himself reading a book.

Several other inconsistencies noted by Mrs. BIRCH were the fact that RUBY was continually adjusting the air conditioning in the clubs and could not seem to be able to leave them alone. It seemed when the temperature became comfortable he would adjust the air conditioner so that the room soon became stuffy; the bartender or the emcee at his clubs would have to count the night's receipts at closing as RUBY evidently did not know how to count the money; RUBY's erratic behavior in that he would sometimes welcome the same guests very warmly and at other times would tell these guests to leave his club, apparently with no reason.

Mrs. BIRCH stated that RUBY also seemed to get frustrated whenever large crowds would occupy one of his clubs and he would go from table to table setting down his hat and then immediately picking it up and going to another location.

Mrs. BIRCH noted that it was reported in a newspaper article that RUBY did not drink but that she has seen RUBY on several occasions completely inebriated. Mrs. BIRCH said that the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY did not surprise her because of her knowledge of RUBY's erratic behavior and the fact that she believes herself to be psychic. Mrs. BIRCH told her family at the time OSWALD was to be transferred to the County Jail that OSWALD would never make it alive, and that she also had this same feeling concerning President KENNEDY at the time she heard of his visit to Dallas.

Mrs. BIRCH stated she did not believe RUBY belonged to any clubs or organizations, but that on several occasions, dates unrecalled, during the time she was employed at the Carousel Club, she noticed a group of six or seven men seated at a table and she also noticed these men to have a tattoo design of what she took to be a dagger, located between their thumb and forefinger. Mrs. BIRCH thought this was what she took to be a pachuco mark. She stated these men never paid for drinks and that RUBY was familiar with these men and talked with them at their table.

Mrs. BIRCH stated she is currently undergoing treatment for a nervous condition under the care of Dr. R. PEARSON, JR., M. D., 1326 Stemmons Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

and that she is required to remain very quiet and does not normally leave her husband except to visit the doctor and an occasional trip to the store.

Mrs. BIRCH advised that during her employment at the Carousel Club, it was common practice for police officers in uniform to visit the club, talk with JACK RUBY and the girls and to come back later in the evening dressed in civilian clothes and apparently accompanied by girl friends. The only officer known by Mrs. BIRCH by name was Officer STAFFORD, and the others, by face only. A former police officer by the name of BOB GURLEY was also a visitor at the club, but she said that he has since been "kicked" off the police force for burglarizing stores, and that the last she heard, he was a security officer at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas.

ASSOCIATES AND EMPLOYEES OF RUBY

JEWEL BROWN was interviewed at the Wellington Hotel, 55th Street and 7th Avenue. She furnished the following information:

JIM DOLAN of the American Guild of Variety Artists, Dallas, Texas, in 1959 contacted her relative to her working in the Club Sovereign, which was owned by JACK RUBY. DOLAN told her RUBY was trying to break the racial barrier, and therefore was interested in employing her as an entertainer at the Club Sovereign.

RUBY contacted her at that time, and arrangements were made between herself and RUBY, whereby she would be the sole performer at the club. She did work for RUBY at the Club Sovereign for about seven months, but quit suddenly as the result of a disagreement with RUBY. She indicated this disagreement resulted from his attempted advances toward her.

At the request of the American Guild of Variety Artists, she returned to the club and worked several more days until her contract expired.

BROWN was then employed by the ~~LOUIS ARMSTRONG~~ Foreign U.S.A band, which went on an overseas tour for the United States State Department. She remained with the band on tour until the band's vacation period August 27 to October 24, 1963.

She worked in the Cabana Club, Dallas, Texas, during the week beginning October 16, 1963.

RUBY was a visitor at the Club Cabana this week on several occasions. This was the first time she had seen or heard from him since she quit working at the Club Sovereign in 1960. Her conversations with him were of a general nature, and at no time did she ever hear him speak of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

WALTER C. BROWN, 4826 Mills Place, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the Castaway Club, 5600 East Mockingbird Lane. BROWN was reported to have previously played at the Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas, for JACK RUBY. Mr. BROWN furnished the following information:

BROWN has been playing with JOE JOHNSON's Band for approximately 3½ years and for over 3 years of this period BROWN played at the Vegas Club in Dallas for JACK RUBY. The band left the Vegas Club on about November 3, 1963, after some disagreement between the band leader, JOE JOHNSON, and JACK RUBY. BROWN did not know RUBY on a close personal basis since his relationship with RUBY was strictly that of an employer-employee. In addition, RUBY spent the majority of his time at the Carousel Club in Dallas as the Vegas Club was managed by RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT. BROWN knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life.

After viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, BROWN indicated that OSWALD was unknown to him. BROWN indicated that although numerous police officers stopped in the Vegas Club from time to time, he knew of no officer who was particularly close to RUBY or EVA GRANT.

IN RE: LEANERO JOSEPH COLEMAN
[illegible] EDGEWARE, [illegible]

KAY HELEN COLEMAN, nee HARVEY, stage name KATHY KAY, 323 North Ewing, Dallas, Texas, currently appearing at the King's Club, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised she had remained at her residence in Dallas, Texas, until December 2, 1963, at which time she was booked at the King's Club in Oklahoma City. She denied departing Dallas, Texas, hurriedly after JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

COLEMAN advised she was employed as an exotic dancer by JACK RUBY approximately two and one-half years ago and has worked for him at the Carousel Club since that time with the exception of a brief period during 1962 when she worked at the Colony Club in Dallas, Texas.

COLEMAN advised RUBY did not date the dancers at the club to her knowledge and that RUBY had never made advances to her at any time. She described RUBY as a person with definite opinions who felt a person who did not agree with him was, therefore, against him. She stated RUBY had never discussed politics with her or in her presence and advised the club business was apparently RUBY's main interest in life.

COLEMAN advised she had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel Club in Dallas and was certain there was no connection whatever between OSWALD and RUBY. She stated on first hearing that RUBY had shot OSWALD she felt he had done it for the publicity but after further thought she had been unable to arrive at any reason RUBY may have had.

COLEMAN advised she has dated HARRY OLSEN, Patrolman, Dallas Police Department, TEXAS presently hospitalized at the Methodist Hospital in Dallas on a regular basis for over a year. She stated she and OLSEN had discussed marriage but due to her occupation no wedding plans had been made. She advised OLSEN's father is a preacher and though she has met OLSEN's family they are not aware of her occupation. COLEMAN stated HARRY OLSEN did not like JACK RUBY and seldom came to the Carousel Club. She pointed out RUBY discouraged boyfriends of the dancers at the club frequenting the club.

On 12/10/63 at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma File # OC 44-430

She advised OLSEN's dislike for RUBY stems from RUBY's refusal to grant her days off.

COLEMAN advised OLSEN was on his "days off" during the weekend of the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of OSWALD. She further advised she and OLSEN were together at the time a playback of the shooting of OSWALD appeared on television and OLSEN had made no comment which would indicate any connection between RUBY and members of the Dallas Police Department. COLEMAN was of the opinion RUBY talked his way into the Police Department on the day he shot OSWALD. She stated RUBY was friendly to members of the Police Department and several Police Department officers attended the club occasionally and that RUBY occasionally picked up their tab.

COLEMAN advised RUBY had mentioned being from Chicago, Illinois, and having had a hard time as a child and young man but he was never specific about his background or activities in the Chicago area and did not discuss his activities away from the Carousel Club with her at any time.

ASSOCIATES AND EMPLOYEES OF JACK L. RUBY

JANET ADAMS CONFORTO, nee MOLE, who dances professionally as a "strip tease" performer under the name, "JADA", was interviewed at the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on December 4, 1963.

She furnished the following information:

She had been associated with her husband, JOSEPH CONFORTO, from whom she is now separated, in the operation of a strip tease club known as "Madame Francine's" at 440 Bourbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. This club closed in June, 1963.

JACK RUBY came to New Orleans by car in June, 1963. RUBY may have heard about CONFORTO through EARL NORMAN, a comedian, whom she believed had worked in some clubs in Dallas, Texas and may have worked for JACK RUBY.

CALIF. LA. TEXAS

While in New Orleans, RUBY went to the French Opera House, a strip tease club on Bourbon Street, operated by HAROLD TANNENBAUM. RUBY had apparently never met TANNENBAUM on any previous occasion. The purpose of RUBY's trip to New Orleans, according to RUBY, was to scout for talent for his club in Dallas, Texas. TANNENBAUM introduced CONFORTO to RUBY at the French Opera House. RUBY offered her $550 per week to perform at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas. CONFORTO wanted to take a vacation at that time and told RUBY she was not interested. A week or so later, RUBY sent a telegram to HAROLD TANNENBAUM requesting CONFORTO to work for him for two or three weeks at the Carousel Club. CONFORTO did not reply to this telegram.

On 12/4/63 New York, New York File # NY 44-974

by SAS JAMES J. ROGERS and ROBERT E. FLANAGAN/pb Date dictated 12/5/63

CONFORTO drove to Dallas, Texas the end of June, 1963 for a vacation. Her recollection is that one, "PAPPY" DOLSON, who is well-known in the Dallas area, took her to the Carousel Club where she again met RUBY.

RUBY again tried to hire her asking her to work for just two weeks. At first she refused, but then consented to work at the Carousel Club and did begin performing there on July 17, 1963 under a two month contract at a salary of $300 a week. Her understanding was that if her act went over well in the club, RUBY would raise her salary to $550 per week.

She later found out that RUBY had penciled in on the contract that it was renewable only at his option and she had no right to cancel the contract on its' expiration, September 17, 1963.

She signed a new contract on September 17, 1963 for $300 per week. This contract was to last until January 1, 1964 and she, at first, thought her weekly salary was to be $350. This contract was signed through theatrical agent, JACK COLE of Dallas, Texas and was to contain a mutual cancellation option at the end of the contract term.

CONFORTO found out later that RUBY had apparently prior to the signing of the contract, changed the terms so that only he had the option to cancel at the end of the contract term.

CONFORTO explained that she would be paid each Monday, by check which she immediately had RUBY cash, and she was never able to understand the amounts deducted from her salary by RUBY. She frequently tried to discuss this matter with him, but he always told her that he was busy and she never did finally settle this matter with him. This was constantly a matter of contention between her and RUBY.

Near the end of October, 1963, CONFORTO was staying at a motel in Dallas, Texas and had her son, now age 3½, with her. She was ill with a bad cold and wanted to take Thursday and Friday off. RUBY was incensed because she wanted to take time off and apparently did not believe that she was ill. She was treated at the motel by a Doctor HESSER, and she did not work on Thursday, which she believed was October 24, 1963. TEXAS

She did work on Friday, October 25, 1963 and she noticed that RUBY seemed very angry with her apparently because she had not worked on the previous day. At the end of her number on Friday, October 25, 1963, RUBY turned off the lights at the end of her act to humiliate her.

She worked on October 26, 1963 and told RUBY that she wanted to take Sunday and Monday off and he became very incensed at this. At about 5:15 p. m. on Tuesday, RUBY sent a telegram to CONFORTO telling her that she was fired and that he intended to sue her for two weeks pay. THOMAS STEWART PALMER

The following day, Wednesday, she went to TOM PALMER of the American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA) in Dallas, Texas and complained to PALMER about her dispute with RUBY. He told her to work until the following Sunday and then pick up all her gowns and leave. She went to work at the Carousel Club on Wednesday. After her first number, RUBY again turned off the lights on her and began screaming at her. He told her that he would not let her go on stage the rest of that evening. She went back to the club on Thursday and RUBY would not let her perform. She was afraid that he might do some damage to her gowns which were in the club and which she indicated were expensive.

On October 31, 1963 she went to see Judge RICHBERG. and signed a warrant against RUBY. She explained that she merely wanted a restraining order against RUBY and did not want him arrested. However, someone at the court informed her that she could not get a restraining order since she worked in the same building with RUBY. She also had explained the purpose of signing this warrant to Judge RICHBERG.

On Friday night, she went to Judge RIENBERG's court and RUBY was there after apparently having been arrested. In a loud voice, RUBY made accusations against her, accused her of being a prostitute and of entertaining men in her motel room where she was residing with her son. She does not know the exact outcome of this court action, however, she did not work at the club again and the following Sunday, she went to the club and picked up her gowns.

While she was employed at the club, she noted that RUBY frequently used obscene language in her presence and in the presence of the other female employees. He had on only one occasion asked her to go on a date with a friend of his who was in Dallas on a visit, but she refused.

On one occasion, RUBY asked her to move into his apartment indicating that their relationship would be a platonic one, but she refused. She described RUBY as emotional, nervous and the type who loved to be the center of attraction. He liked people to consider him a "colorful person and a character."

He was always hustling, trying to build up business for his club and occasionally when people were waiting in line to get into other strip tease clubs, he would talk to people on these lines and try to get them to go to his club.

While she was at the club, someone whose identity she does not know, complained that her act was "too strong". When RUBY heard this, he accused her of trying to ruin him and the club. She telephonically contacted some official, name unknown, in Dallas, Texas and requested that they view her act and she would make any necessary changes. She believed her act was then approved.

RUBY was the type who liked to tell people that the police let him "get away with things at his club", because of his friendship with the police, but she did not believe that this was true.

She had on several occasions, noticed a bulge on RUBY's hip and on at least one occasion he patted his clothing and indicated that he carried a gun. She saw the gun on one occasion and she believed that it was a .38 snub-nose. She saw him throw it in the trunk of his car.

Although she did not consider RUBY as cruel and vicious or the type who would intentionally harm anyone, he was always verbally abusing his employees.

WALLY WESTON, who was the Master of Ceremonies at the club, left RUBY's employ sometime in October and is now believed to be at the Merry-Go-Round in Louisville, Kentucky.

WALLY WESTON left partly because of differences with RUBY and partly because of a family problem.

She did not know of any association he had with members of the underworld, but he did frequently tell people he "knew all the boys", meaning racketeers.

He constantly fought with his sister, whom she believes had a part interest in the club and was reported to have physically abused her with his fists.

CONFORTO indicated that after her dispute with RUBY, RUBY called a number of her friends to "bum-rap her. CONFORTO said she meant he tried to run down her character. He also did the same thing to WALLY WESTON.

She expressed the opinion that the only reason RUBY shot LEE HARVY OSWALD was so he could be a hero to the people of Dallas and the country. He loved publicity and she felt that he did not care if he got 10 or 15 years in jail as long as he succeeded in getting a lot of publicity.

She pointed out that a number of things that happened in October had caused RUBY to be depressed. He had stated at that time that his friends were running out on him and no one was supporting him. He had lost his case with AGVA concerning his dispute with two other Dallas clubs regarding amateur night. Also, WALLY WESTON and CONFORTO had left his club.

CONFORTO, on November 25, 1963 was driving to New Orleans, Louisiana, and was about 100 miles outside of Dallas, Texas when she heard over the radio that RUBY had killed, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She became so upset that she returned to Dallas and then decided to come to New York.

She stated that she has been interviewed in New York by representatives of the New York Daily News and the New World Telegram, and has appeared on local television programs.

She had no knowledge of any association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She had never seen OSWALD in the Carousel Club, or at any place.

She was born February 12, 1936 at New York, New York. She was married at the age of 18, to NICK BONNEY in California. At the age of 19, she married JOSEPH CUFFARI, in Baltimore, Maryland. Her third husband was RALPH SMALLWOOD, whom she married at Bainbridge, Georgia at the age of 22. Her fourth husband is JOSEPH CONFORTO, whom she married 2½ years ago in New Orleans, Louisiana. She has one child JOSEPH JEROME ADAMS PETER CONFORTO, who was born May 14, 1959, New Orleans, Louisiana.

JOSEPH CONFORTO is the father of this child and the child is now with her ex-sister-in-law, JENNIE CANNELLA, 401 Sable Drive, Arabi, Louisiana.

ROBERT L. (BLACKIE) CRAWFORD, Texas announcer, KPEP radio station, advised that in 1948 he was director of a band and played in RUBY's club, the Silver Spur, in Dallas. He got to know RUBY quite well at that time and finally quit RUBY as RUBY would not pay his help. CRAWFORD recalled that on two occasions he had seen RUBY display a small gun which he appears to have carried regularly. He also recalled that RUBY was a "ladies man", and it appeared to him that the theory of RUBY suffering because his club would not make money during the weekend of the President's death was solid.

CRAWFORD stated he had not seen or heard from RUBY in at least ten years and knows nothing about him currently.

ASSOCIATES OF RUBY

ROBERT FAYE, former National Administrative Secretary of the American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA) was contacted on December 5, 1963, at his residence, 96 Fifth Avenue, New York. He furnished the following information:

His connection with the AGVA was terminated on November 19, 1963.

He never had any personal contact with JACK RUBY. He recalled that he had spoken via a long-distance telephone call with RUBY about 6 times during 1963.

All of these calls were made by RUBY to him at the AGVA office in New York, and they concerned the problem that RUBY was having with two other clubs in Dallas involving amateur night.

FAYE had learned that these striptease clubs in Dallas and other cities in Texas were featuring an amateur night. The clubs would allow girls with no experience to try out on the stage as "striptease" performers. When FAYE heard about this, he contacted the regional director of the AGVA, IRVING MAZZEI, and told him that the amateur nights in the striptease clubs would have to stop. MAZZEI in turn contacted TOM PALMER, the AGVA representative in Dallas, and he informed the striptease clubs in Dallas, including the Carousel Club, they would have to stop running amateur night. The AGVA maintained the girls would have to be paid. RUBY then cancelled the amateur night, but the other clubs continued to run amateur night although they paid the performers. RUBY called up AGVA headquarters in New York and told FAYE that the other two clubs in Dallas were indicating to the public that they continued to run amateur night and would have a contest in which the audience would applaud each performer based on their judgment of her act.

FAYE then contacted TOM PALMER, the AGVA representative in Dallas, and told him to have the other clubs cease running the amateur night in the nature of a contest.

FAYE's recollection was the last time RUBY called him was some time about the middle of November. He did recall RUBY compalined that since he was forced to cancel amateur night, his business had fallen off and he had on one occasion sent the register tape from the Carousel Club to prove to FAYE that his business was actually falling off. FAYE returned this tape without examining it. FAYE had no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD and he had never seen or had any contact with OSWALD.

JOSEPH GLASER, President, Associated Booking Corporation, 50 West 57th Street, New York City, advised that approximately five or six weeks ago he was informed by the corporations Dallas representative, namely ANTHONY POPPA, that POPPA had been contacted by JACK RUBY, a night club operator in Dallas, Texas, relative to employing an entertainer named JEWEL BROWN.

GLASER explained that about a year or so ago through the assistance of his corporation, JEWEL BROWN, who had been formerly employed with JACK RUBY, was employed by the LOUIS ARMSTRONG band which was then on and overseas tour for the United States Department of State. When ARMSTRONG returned to the United States for vacation RUBY attempted to rehire JEWEL BROWN, who in turn referred RUBY to ANTHONY POPPA. RUBY thereafter contacted POPPA for the above purpose during which time he claimed to be a personal friend of JOE GLASER having known him when both resided in Chicago, Illinois. POPPA instructed RUBY to contact GLASER concerning his interest in JEWEL BROWN. According to GLASER, RUBY made several telephone calls to him, however, GLASER refused to speak to him.

On August 5, 1963, RUBY personally contacted him at his New York Office along with one Dr. DANTE, a hypnotist performer, and suggested that GLASER sign DANTE to an exclusive contract. GLASER denied this request and later on reprimanded RUBY for telling people in the entertainment field that they were long time personal friends, whereas this was the first time they ever met. As the interview developed RUBY asked two favors, one, to have GLASER contact the American Guild of Variety Artists for the purpose of settling a dispute RUBY was having with night club competitors in Dallas, Texas, and, two, asked permission to rehire JEWEL BROWN. GLASER refused RUBY on both these requests and immediately thereafter terminated the interview. GLASER said he considers RUBY a "mental case" and described him as being a "phony" as well as a "namedropper". He also said RUBY could be

HARVEY LEE HADLEY, Apartment 209, 3500 Meadow, advised that from the fall of 1962 until January or February of 1963, he worked as a bartender and doing general help for EVA GRANT at the Vegas Club. This work was only part-time , on Friday and Saturday nights. In this connection, he became acquainted with JACK RUBY, EVA's brother. Every Friday night JACK RUBY would bring a group of strippers to the Vegas Club, where they would perform.

During this period he was acquainted with ANDREW ARMSTRONG, who worked as a bartender for RUBY at the Carousel Club. On several occasions, he has been at the Carousel Club where he has seen and talked with JACK RUBY. On one occasion, he recalled seeing RUBY counting money, at which time RUBY had a gun on the table near the money. This was the only occasion he had seen RUBY with a gun.

HADLEY advised that he was not personally acquainted with JACK RUBY. He has seen photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television recently and is aware that RUBY is in custody for shooting OSWALD. He is certain he has never seen OSWALD in person and never saw OSWALD around either the Vegas Club or the Carousel with JACK RUBY.

HADLEY advised he is aware that RUBY has a quick temper because he has seen RUBY demonstrate this temper at the Vegas Club on Friday nights and possibly around the Carousel Club. Other than being very quick tempered, he has no personal information indicating RUBY is other than an ordinary man.

Based on information furnished from ANDREW ARMSTRONG, however, it appeared to him that RUBY's sexual behavior was other than normal. He explained that on one occasion, about during the Christmas season of 1962, he and ARMSTRONG were in a tavern drinking. On this occasion, ARMSTRONG told him he had surprized RUBY and a female entertainer in a back room at the Carousel. From what ARMSTRONG described to him, it appeared that ARMSTRONG believed he had caught RUBY performing an act of oral copulation as the active partner with this woman.

KLEINMAN was unable to recall the exact circumstances surrounding their acquaintance, but stated he has been in the Dallas area for a long time and is acquainted with most of the businessmen in this area. He related that his association with RUBY was more or less a business acquaintance rather than a social acquaintance and explained this by saying that he had never been with RUBY on any social excursions; however, has done a certain amount of accounting business for RUBY in connection with RUBY's night clubs, Carousel and Vegas Clubs, both of which he described as being local night spots in Dallas.

KLEINMAN stated RUBY first contacted him back in 1956 and requested some accounting work in connection with the Carousel Club. He could recall doing very little accounting work for RUBY at that particular time and related he has had no other business connections with RUBY until this past year. In connection with this, Mr. KLEINMAN stated he has prepared and filed the tax returns for the Carousel Club but has been unable to prepare the Vegas Club account to present. He went on to say that he had considerable difficulty with the records of the Carousel Club and explained this by saying that RUBY maintained very few records and as a general rule, had carried the business on a cash basis.

He stated the records revealed all employees of both the Crousel and Vegas Clubs, but that the records containing these names were also turned over to the Internal Revenue Service, Dallas.

In regard to RUBY's background, Mr. KLEINMAN stated his acquaintance was a casual one and knew of nothing specific concerning RUBY's political convictions, his personal character or personal desires. He added that the only individual who appeared to be close to RUBY was an individual by the name of RALPH PAUL, who, according to RUBY, was the President of the Vegas Club. He further stated that JACK RUBY had told him that EARL RUBY was the Vice-President and JACK RUBY was the Secretary-Treasurer of the Vegas Club.

Mr. KLEINMAN further added that JACK RUBY appeared to be an emotional person but explained that RUBY was always courteous in connection with their business dealings. He could recall one specific incident concerning the emotional and sensitivity of RUBY which occurred sometime, he believed, on November 23, 1963. Sometime that day, exact time he could not recall, Mr. KLEINMAN saw RUBY for a very brief time in the Sols Turf Bar and could recall RUBY having some report or a pamphlet concerning "Impeachment of Earl Warren." He advised he could not recall the specific conversation that took place between him and RUBY, but he gained the impression that RUBY was pretty much aggravated concerning the pamphlet. He could not recall discussing the assassination of President KENNEDY with RUBY at this time, but stated the conversation may have been associated in some way with the assassination. He was unable to relate any other information pertaining to this particular conversation that had taken place between him and RUBY on that day.

Mr. KLEINMAN further stated he has never discussed any political aspects with RUBY that he could recall and was under the impression that RUBY was not particularly concerned over the political views of the country. He was unable to furnish any information as to why RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963.

In regard to any relationship between JACK RUBY and OSWALD, Mr. KLEINMAN advised he had never heard the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and could not recall ever hearing the name. LANCE stated the woman was very well dressed, in her middle 30's, black hair, stocky build, and spoke with a foreign accent.

He stated she asked them if they knew OSWALD, if he had ever been in the restaurant, or if they had ever seen him on Jefferson Street, or in the area where he last resided which was on Beckley Street.

LANCE stated the woman had a notebook and wrote in the book as she asked questions of them. He stated that he, LANCE, was acquainted with RUBY having met him through his wife. He said RUBY was continually trying to embarrass the girls who worked for him and that was one of the reasons why his wife, REBA, quit working for him. He said that one night while she was in the middle of the act before the large audience at the Carousel Club RUBY hollered out "REBA, do you shave." LANCE stated that he wanted to whip RUBY right then but he contained himself. He said his wife quit shortly thereafter.

LANCE stated he thought RUBY was an "odd character" because he never saw him in the company of girls and always had a bunch of dogs hanging around him. He said on one occasion he saw RUBY walking four "weiner dogs" on a leash and saw him kiss each dog on the nose.

LANCE advised he never saw anyone who looked like the newspaper and television pictures of OSWALD in the Col-Bec Restaurant or in JACK RUBY's clubs.

ROBERT MC EWAN was interviewed at the Galaxie Club, 613 Monmouth Street, Newport, Kentucky. He advised as follows:

AKA

Mr. MC EWAN is an entertainer working as a Master of Ceremonies, comedian and song and dance man. He works under the stage name of BOBBY O'DAY. His current address is the Metropole Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio; however, around the first of December he expects to leave the Cinciannati, Ohio area and go to Nashville, Tennessee, where he will appear in the Rainbow Room.

Little Rock Wire

He has no fixed permanent address, but can be located at any time through his booking agent, MIKE RIEFF, 818 Olive Street, St. Louis, Missouri, telephone number Central 1-4552. He can also be located through his cousin, JAMES WAWATT, 16219 East Seven Mile Road, Detroit, Michigan. He considers this as his permanent address.

During the period of one week before Christmas, 1962, until two weeks in January, 1963, Mr. MC EWAN appeared as an entertainer at the Carousel Club, in Dallas, Texas. He there became acquainted with JACK RUBY, who managed this club. While there, he saw RUBY on a daily basis, but he did not become particularly friendly with RUBY. He pointed out that it was his general policy when working at an establishment to in fact, avoid as much contact as was feasible with the manager of the establishment, inasmuch as he always considered such an individual was very busy and did not have time to take up with the various entertainers unless he had some actual business with them.

He recalled that RUBY lived in a single room behind the Club and also kept in this room two dogs. He said that the room had a very untidy appearance.

MC EWAN's act at the Carousel Club went well for approximately one and one-half weeks. After he had been appearing there approximately one and one-half weeks, one night, he, MC EWAN, told two or three jokes, relative to Jewish people. He said that these jokes in his opinion, were completely "inoffensive". Immediately upon MC EWAN finishing his act, RUBY confronted him. RUBY at this time was excited; had taken offense at the jokes relative to Jewish people; and stated "My people have suffered enough". MC EWAN had previously been telling jokes relative to various nationalities and racial groups to which jokes RUBY had taken no exception. He said that RUBY was easily excited and seemed to be "erratic" and nervous. He could cite no specific statements or instances, however, except the above one which he based this opinion or conclusion.

On New Year's Eve, 1962-1963, Mr. MC EWAN was staying at a motel in Dallas, the name of which he cannot now recall. There were some other entertainers whose names he does not recall also staying at this motel. There was a New Year's party held by the entertainers and RUBY attended this party. He said he recalled RUBY throwing firecrackers and "cherry bombs" fireworks in the swimming pool, but this activity was not out of keeping with the activities of the others at the party. This was not done through any spirit of anger on the part of RUBY, but was done in the spirit of having fun.

Mr. MC EWAN had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. He knows of no association between RUBY and OSWALD, and knows of no connection of RUBY with any organization or group of society.

He said further, he did not know of the connection, if any, of Mr. RUBY with the Dallas Police, or any of the police, other than that it did appear that Mr. RUBY knew some of the police, which Mr. MC EWAN said was common in any town for a night club operator.

Mr. MC EWAN stated that he would have no idea whatsoever why JACK RUBY would kill LEE HARVEY OSWALD, if in fact he had done this as was reported by the press.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

JAMES H. LEVENS, 3428 Clayton Road East, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

He has been in the night club business in Fort Worth for about fifteen years. About ten years ago he first met JACK RUBY in Dallas at a night club, he was operating, believed to be the Silver Spur on South Ervay Street. Ruby later gave up this club and has operated Carousel Club on Commerce Street and Vegas night club on Oak Lawn Street. He believed the sister of RUBY more or less operated The Vegas Club and RUBY devoted most of his time to The Carousel Club. LEVENS talked to RUBY on numerous occasions over this period of ten years about the night club business. LEVENS obtained most of his acts and strippers from clubs in Dallas. He talked to RUBY about various acts and strippers. RUBY never discussed politics or any form of government. He was nearly always in a good mood. LEVENS described him as a great talker and "con man" in the night club business. He never heard RUBY threaten anyone and did not know of him carrying a gun. He had seen a gun in RUBY's office on several occasions. LEVENS did not know any close associates of RUBY and was never a close personal friend of RUBY.

LEVENS opened The Ridglea Paladium Ball Room in Fort Worth in December of 1962. He operated this night club until about April of 1963 when he closed it out due to lack of business. He stated RUBY was never in Ridglea Ball Room talking to him. He did recall that about March of this year, a man named COY POE from Dallas came over to see him at Ridglea Ball Room. POE had another man with him but he does not recall his name. He stated POE looked somewhat like RUBY but was not quite as large.

LEVENS had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never heard RUBY mention anyone by this name. He never saw OSWALD in the night club of RUBY.

He stated that his exact employment dates were from Monday, November 4 through Saturday night, November 9, 1963, at which time "JACK" gave him $175.00 in cash, consisting of twenties, tens and fives. He stated that he never saw him with a gun nor did he ever see a gun at the club. He stated that he was never in "JACK's" office.

MC NAUGHTON stated that he did not make the acquaintance of any of the customers at the Carousel Club and stated that he seldom saw anyone in the audience with the exception of the first row of seats inasmuch as the lights on the stage more or less blinded him. He stated that to the best of his knowledge, he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the club. He also stated that to the best of his knowledge, he had never seen any law enforcement officers at the Carousel Club during his employment. He stated the name TAMI TRUE was familiar to him but that he could not recall where he had heard this name. He also stated that he had never played

After producing and starring in a show for 30 days at the Sovereign Club, RUBY was approached by WALL to draw up a contract. RUBY would not discuss any contract at the time.

One day after the contract discussion, WALL and PETERSON had an offer to produce and star in a one night show at the Century Room at the Adolphus Hotel for a National Nurses Convention. They were to receive $2,500 for this show. RUBY refused to release WALL and PETERSON for the show, but instead, arranged through AGVA for WALL and PETERSON to appear under the sponsorship of JACK RUBY. PRECK WALL, Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, Texas, advised he, and JOE PETERSON, are entertainers and are presently producing and starring in a review, "Bottoms Up" at the Century Room in the Adolphus Hotel. WALL advised he first met JACK RUBY in Dallas approximately four years ago at the Vegas Club in 1960, the exact date not recalled. RUBY approached WALL and PETERSON and made a deal for WALL and PETERSON to produce and appear in a show at the Sovereign Club, Dallas, Texas. The agreement was that WALL and PETERSON would have one-half interest in the club. After producing and starring in a show for 30 days at the Sovereign Club, RUBY was approached by WALL to draw up a contract. RUBY would not discuss any contract at the time.

One day after the contract discussion, WALL and PETERSON had an offer to produce and star in a one night show at the Century Room at the Adolphus Hotel for a National Nurses Convention. They were to receive $2,500 for this show. RUBY refused to release WALL and PETERSON for the show, but instead, arranged through AGVA for WALL and PETERSON to appear under the sponsorship of JACK RUBY. WALL and PETERSON did produce and work in the show and they received information that RUBY and the AGVA split the $2,500 between them and WALL and PETERSON did not receive any money at all.

On the morning after the one night show at the Century Room, WALL went to RUBY's office in the Carousel Club across from the Adolphus Hotel. WALL approached RUBY for payment of the 30 days that they had produced and starred in the show at the Sovereign Club and also for pay for the show produced and starred in at the Century Room. WALL stated that RUBY was very angry because he wanted money and hit him in the mouth, knocking out one tooth. WALL ran down the steps and back to the Adolphus Hotel. Several days later, RUBY appeared at the Adolphus and apologized to WALL and PETERSON and since then, they have all been very good friends but have not been to closely associated. WALL could furnish no information as to close associates of RUBY. WALL advised from what he had learned from newspapers and television, he did not believe that RUBY would associate with a person of OSWALD's character.

1 Date 12/9/63

BRYAN POWELL, Texas owner of Graphic Studios, 1910 Main Street, advised that either on November 1 or November 4, 1963, a young man, name unknown, came into the shop with some material for JACK RUBY from the Carousel Club. The man indicated the work desired and asked that the company secure an estimate for the work and call RUBY. He made up the estimate and thereafter called RUBY at the Carousel Club. RUBY told him to go ahead and make up the merchandise.

Either on the same day that he called RUBY which would have been on November 4, 1963, or shortly thereafter, RUBY came over and personally discussed the work.

At this time, RUBY gave POWELL and POWELL's employee, JOHN LACY, permanent passes for the Carousel Club and indicated he would have plastic membership cards made and mail them to them. POWELL advised he had not gone to the Carousel Club using this pass and has never been in the establishment.

His contact with RUBY was limited to the one time when RUBY came into his shop and their discussion involved only the production of the material RUBY desired. POWELL noticed, however, that during the discussion RUBY at one time took out a large wallet containing cards and money. In getting some material out of this wallet, possibly the Carousel Club membership cards, POWELL noticed that RUBY had a number of $100 bills in his wallet. He was unable to determine the exact number of $100 bills but estimated there could have been any where from five to twenty $100 bills in the wallet. RUBY made some reference to this money indicating that it was not actually his as he "owed it to Uncle Sam".

The work was completed on November 8, 1963, and delivered by LACY to the Carousel Club. The invoice dated November 8, 1963, indicated that this work consisted of the following material: 1,000 pieces of letterhead stationery of the Carousel Club; 1,000 envelopes; 2,000 business cards from the Carousel Club; 2,000 handbills advertising the Carousel Club and 2,000 handbills advertising a product called the "Waistisizer" or some such spelling.

POWELL explained that the Waistisizer handbills by Special Agent JAMES F. GLONEK - gl Date dictated 12/9/63 related to some product that RUBY had and was trying to sell.

POWELL advised he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. POWELL advised that it appeared RUBY had inadvertently furnished an extra sheet of paper in the material he had originally sent over to Graphic Studios in connection with making up the above referred to order. He explained that in the envelope with this material was a piece of paper containing a number of names, addresses and telephone numbers. He furnished this sheet of paper to SA JAMES F. GLONEK. Mrs. NANCY N. POWELL, nee BOWLEN, stage name Tamie True, stated that she resided at 1217 Clarence, Ft. Worth, Texas, and was employed as an exotic dancer working in various clubs throughout the Southwest part of the United States. She said she booked most of her engagements herself, however, had booked before with PAPPY DOLSON whose offices were in the Inter-Urban Building, Dallas, Texas.

She said she knew JACK RUBY in an employer-employee relationship. She said RUBY was not to her knowledge a gambler and to her knowledge never associated with carnival people. She said he formerly went with a woman for a number of years whose name she did not know and believed he had a slight acquaintanceship with an exotic dancer named TAWNY ANGEL about a year previous. She thought TAWNY ANGEL was a member of the American Guild of Variety Artists in Dallas, Texas. She said that in her opinion GAIL RAVEN, real name, BARBARA MURPHY, was never a girl friend of JACK RUBY. She said, however, GAIL was attending a beauty school in Woodsboro, Texas, and was about 19 years old. She said that she believed RUBY formerly had an associate named JOE SLAYTON in a club operation in Dallas about three years ago. She said she did not believe PAT MORGAN to be a very close friend of JACK RUBY, although RUBY knew him because he was in the same business.

Further details were already established by the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on the night of November 24, and 25, 1963, and she stated she had no additional information.

GAIL RAVEN, nee Barbara Hogan, Also known as, Mrs. Don Murphy, Mrs. Don Brown, advised as follows:

She was born Mrs. Mire November 5, 1943, at San Antonio, Texas, and is presently residing at 3138 Lawnview, Corpus Christi, with her maternal uncle, JACK PRUITT, and his wife, JACKIE Pruitt She is attending Stevenson's Gulf Coast Beauty College, 137.. Morgan, Corpus Christi. Her mother is Mrs. JOHN FINCH, wh receives mail at Box 332, Woodboro, Texas.

About two and a half years ago, she entered an amateur contest at Dallas, Texas, and thereafter began working as a strip-tease dancer. She has a contract with JACK COLE, Texas Theatrical Agency, 515 Interurban Building, Dallas, as her agent. She has worked as a stripper in Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Colorado in addition to Texas, but makes her headquarters at Dallas.

In Dallas, she has worked for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club off and on during the past two and a half years. She last worked there about six weeks in Mid-June, 1963, and then stripped Witchita, Kansas, and Hobbs, New Mexico, each place about three weeks; and thereafter, visited her mother at Woodboro approximately one month. She entered beauty school at Corpus Christi on September 30, 1963. She is taking six months off from stripping to obtain a beauty operators license so she may ultimately buy beauty shops as an investment.

She is a close friend of LOIS MEEKS, a waitress at the Waffle Shop at the Southland Hotel, Dallas; however, she never at any time made any statement to LOIS or anyone else to the effect RUBY was a member of the Mafia; further, she has no information indicating this is true nor any reason to believe it is true, although from time to time she has heard rumors to that effect "around the clubs". In Dallas, she lived at Marceilla's (phonetic) Place, an apartment near where RUBY resided, and observed he had very few callers there or at the Carousel Club. The only close associates of his known to her are: RALPH (Last Name Unknown), owner of the Bull Pen, a barbeque place at Arlington, Texas, who she believes backs RUBY financially as a silent partner and who is the boyfriend of her former roommate TAMMY TRUE, the stripper. Another associate of RUBY's is GEORGE (Last Name Unknown) who lives in an apartment near RUBY and who is now running the Carousel Club for him.

She said many Narcotics Officers, Vice Squad Officers and other police officers visited with RUBY at the Carousel Club and were on friendly terms with him.

She emphatically denied having made any statement associating RUBY with the Mafia or having any knowledge of any such connections on his part. She stated she had no further information of any pertinence concerning RUBY.

ROSE SANDRA RENFROE, 2020 Lee Crest, Dallas, Texas, residence phone FR 1-8413, furnished the following information:

She is twenty-one years of age and unemployed. As she recalls, on November 14, 1963, she observed an ad in the Dallas Morning News Newspaper concerning the employment of women at $35.00 a day. The advertisement did not state what type of work was involved and, as she recalled, the number to call had the prefix LA 1. When she called the number, the woman who answered was apparently employed by an answering service, as she told her she would have to take her name, but she did not know who had placed the ad in the paper.

On the same date, she was telephonically contacted by JACK RUBY, who identified himself as owner of the Carousel Club. He advised that he was interested in hiring exotic dancers and, with that, she told him she was not interested and terminated the conversation. She stated RUBY undoubtedly got her number from the answering service and had apparently been the one who placed the ad in the paper.

She recalled meeting JACK RUBY at his Carousel Club during the Winter of 1963, when she visited the club with a girl friend. She stated all she recalled concerning RUBY was that he talked about nothing but his dogs. She knew nothing concerning his background, personal life, or political convictions.

RHODES, 719 Prinier Street, advised he is the subscriber of telephone 885-4323 in Sulphur Springs, Texas, and he remembered a telephone call placed to his residence from JACK RUBY about two months ago. RHODES explained that RUBY has called him numerous times on business since RHODES is a photographer and RUBY occasionally asks him to make photographs of new acts at the Carousel Club.

RHODES stated he was employed by RUBY about two years ago when RUBY first opened the Carousel Club. He advised he worked as a bartender, photographer and booking agent for RUBY and once RUBY got the Carousel Club established, RHODES quit and began working as an independent photographer.

RHODES said RUBY was not liked by his employees due to his "high temper" and sudden outbursts of criticism to employees. RHODES said RUBY has always been a "publicity hound" and would stop at nothing to advertise his business.

RHODES further stated that he had never seen or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until he saw his picture on television and had never observed OSWALD in the Carousel Club. RHODES added RUBY has never expressed his political views or governmental affairs to him.

DANIEL EARL ROWE, 2769 Ann Arbor Street, Dallas, Texas, was contacted at his place of employment, Earl's Barber Shop, 811 Vermont Street, Dallas. He furnished the following information:

He stated he is commonly known as EARL ROWE. During 1950 or 1951, he was a member of the Rowe Brothers Band and was hired to play at the Silver Spur, 1717 Ervay Street, Dallas, by JACK RUBY. His brother, JACK ROWE, was the band leader, and conducted the business arrangements with RUBY at that time. The band played at the Silver Spur for only about two months. Later they had a program on Radio Station KSKY in Dallas which was sponsored by JACK RUBY.

The last time he saw JACK RUBY was five years ago. At that time he was in the Oak Lawn Section of Dallas at a night club run by RUBY, the name of which he cannot recall. While in the club with a group of friends, RUBY recognized him, chatted for a few minutes, and saw to it that the admission fee that he and his friends had paid was returned to them.

He considered RUBY during the short period of time that he was in frequent contact with him, to be a helpful sort of individual and he recalled RUBY had lent him $50 during the time he played at the Silver Spur. He thought he was the type of man who, if he did not like someone, would certainly let them know it but if he did like an individual, he would do almost anything for them.

He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life, or political convictions. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President' assassination and knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and OSWALD.

JACK J. ROWE, 1003 Brook Hollow, Irving, Texas, was contacted at the Jack Rowe Barber Shop, 240 Village Center, Irving, Texas. He furnished the following information:

He advised that he was the leader of the Rowe Brothers Band which played at the Silver Spur Club owned by JACK RUBY for about one month during 1950. He stated as the leader of the band he had more close personal contact with RUBY than the other brothers. As far as he knew, RUBY was the sole owner of the club and his sister, whose name he did not know, apparently operated a supper club somewhere in Dallas at that time. Later the band played intermittently on radio station KSKY in Dallas and RUBY sponsored some of the programs. The last time he saw RUBY was about five years ago when he stopped at a barber shop across the street from RUBY's Vegas Club. He stopped over to see JACK RUBY and had lunch with him.

His only contact with RUBY was in regard to business arrangements and he is not a social friend. He knew nothing of RUBY's background other than that he had come to Dallas from Chicago. He knows nothing concerning his personal life or political convictions. RUBY was the type of individual who became emotionally disturbed when someone caused trouble at the club, more than a number of other club operators that he had worked for would be. He never knew RUBY to carry a gun.

He had heard that a number of years ago that a DUB DICKERSON, a musician, who apparently worked for RUBY, had been involved in a fight with him. He understood that DICKERSON had bitten off one of RUBY's fingers during the fight. The last he heard of DICKERSON he was working at a motel as a bellboy on Highway #183 in Dallas. He believed this was the Baxter Inn at that time but stated that the motel is now part of the Holiday Inn chain. The last time he saw DICKERSON was at this motel about two years ago. He does not know if he still works there or where he lives.

Prior to the assassination he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

During the time he was a member of the Rowe Brothers Band, he played with the band at the Silver Spur Club which was operated by JACK RUBY for a brief period of time during 1950 or 1951. He also recalled that RUBY sponsored some of the band's radio programs for a period of about a year during that time. He was not a personal friend of RUBY but merely became acquainted with him during the course of his employment.

The last time he saw JACK RUBY was three or four years ago at a club operated by RUBY on Oaklawn Street in Dallas, the name of the club he could not recall. He was there on a social visit and chatted with RUBY very briefly at that time.

He knows of no close friends of RUBY but felt that probably every musician in the Dallas area would be slightly acquainted with him. He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background other than that he came from Chicago, Illinois. He knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life, temperament or political convictions.

At about the time the relationship between SHORMAN and RUBY terminated, RUBY attempted to have SHORMAN invest about $6,000 in RUBY's business. RUBY offered to make SHORMAN a partner. SHORMAN stated he wanted no part of this deal as he had heard RUBY had had many partners in the past, but that these individuals had realized no return on their investment. Because of this and because of RUBY's general bad temper, these individuals had gradually broken with RUBY. SHORMAN did not know the names of any of these former partners of RUBY.

SHORMAN advised that on one occasion, date not remembered, he observed RUBY and another individual, not known to SHORMAN, beat a patron at the Carousel with their fists and throw him down the stairs at the Carousel Club. SHORMAN did not observe the patron after his eviction, did not know the extent of the injuries inflicted, if any, or the outcome of this matter.

SHORMAN advised that the patron, who was evicted from the Carousel Club, was a well dressed middle-aged man, possibly a businessman, who had gotten into an argument at the bar in the Carousel. SHORMAN did not know the cause of the argument, but thought it might have concerned an overcharge.

SHORMAN did not know who helped RUBY but assumed him to be an off-duty police officer as he did not know him to be an employee of the Carousel. This individual was in civilian clothes and SHORMAN said he could not imagine another patron coming to RUBY's assistance. SHORMAN stated he also observed that police officers either on duty or off duty did not pay for their drinks. He felt that because of this a police officer would feel obligated to assist RUBY.

Mr. ROBERT SIDNEY SIMS was interviewed at his place of residence, 3584 Inwood, Apartment H, Dallas, telephone number LA 6-5013, at which time he advised that he is a musician and in connection with his profession, he has become acquainted with several people in the field of entertainment. He stated that approximately two months ago, exact date he could not recall, he was temporarily employed by the Gary Leath Band for purposes of playing at the Vegas Club. GARY LEATH, Texas promoter of the band, had advised him that the regular band, Joe Johnson Band, employed by JACK RUBY at the Vegas Club, was off that particular evening and this was the reason that GARY LEATH was booked with the job. To the best of his recollection, a lady by the name of EVA GRANT, who later advised she was JACK RUBY's sister, had actually hired the band for that evening. SIMS stated that he gained the impression that Mrs. GRANT was the manager of the Vegas Club at that time.

SIMS went on to say that during the evening, Mrs. GRANT brought an individual over to their group and introduced him as JACK RUBY, her brother. SIMS stated that they had a brief conversation at that time and could recall nothing specific that was said between he and RUBY. He advised that this was the first time he had met RUBY and has not seen him since that evening.

In regard to any information pertaining to RUBY's background, Mr. SIMS stated that he had met RUBY only once and that he could offer no information whatsoever regarding any of his personal friends or associates. He related that RUBY appeared to be like any other night club owner, meaning that he was friendly and courteous during the brief conversation he had had with him.

Mr. SIMS further advised that he has never personally met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that the only information he possessed concerning OSWALD was what he has obtained through the local news media. He stated that he has never heard anything that would connect JACK RUBY with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

In regard to anyone that would possibly know RUBY, Mr. SIMS stated that his present roommate, DUKE LAHN, who is JOE E. SLATIN, Apartment #801, Dorchester Hotel, 911 St. Joseph, employee at Parker's Drug, 206 South Ervay, Dallas, Texas, advised he has been acquainted with the Commerce Street area of Dallas since about 1946. In the period from 1948 until about 1960 he operated drinking establishments in that area including the Band Box, the Holiday Bar, and the "22" Club.

In the late 1940's or early 1950's he became acquainted with JACK RUBY who at that time came to Dallas from Chicago, Illinois, to help his sister, [illegible], operate the Silver Spur night club. From that time through the 1950's, he became casually acquainted with RUBY as another operator of drinking establishments. He formed the impression that RUBY was an individual who constantly sought publicity and who attempted to become a successful operator of night clubs.

RUBY indicated that he had grown up in a rough area of Chicago and that it was his intention to make a success of himself in the Dallas area. RUBY got the reputation of being a quick tempered individual but a person who was always fair. RUBY kept in good condition and handled whatever trouble developed around the Silver Spur. He developed somewhat of a reputation of being good with his fists and appeared capable of handling any trouble that developed there.

In middle or late 1959, SLATIN got the idea of opening a private membership club on Commerce Street. He knew that this type of drinking club was illegal but at the time it appeared that a number of such clubs were in operation and making money. With the idea of opening such a club he approached JAMES DUNN who agreed to form such a club with him. DUNN put up about $5,000 and SLATIN rented the upstairs property at 1312½ Commerce Street and began redecorating the place and lining up help. This club had every indication of being a success as numerous memberships were being secured but at about that time there were a number of raids on such clubs by Dallas authorities resulting in unfavorable publicity and it appeared that their club would have trouble opening. By this time the money supplied by DUNN had been used up. RUBY had dropped around to see the place and SLATIN approached him regarding further financing.

on 12/10/63 at Dallas, Texas File # Dallas 44-1639

RUBY agreed to put up $5,000 to form the Sovereign Club. RUBY arranged with an attorney for incorporation papers for the S & R, Inc., which was to be the corporation. In connection with raising the $5,000, RUBY made a point to explain to SLATIN that he was securing this money from a brother in Chicago. In actuality, SLATIN suspected that the $5,000 was RUBY's own money and that RUBY mentioned his brother putting up the money to forestall any attempt by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to attach this money. RUBY had indicated to SLATIN prior to this time that he was having difficulties with the IRS.

The club opened in either late January or early February, 1960, but business was not too good. It was obvious to SLATIN that RUBY was attempting to go "too high class" in the operation and that the business as he desired it to be conducted could never be successful. In addition, RUBY exhibited several temper tantrums, and was generally hard to get along with. Their business relationship was deteriorating but it never reached the point where in their arguments they ever came to blows. As a result of this situation and because he knew the business would never be successful, SLATIN voluntarily withdrew. At the time he withdrew he got no money but RUBY had promised him $300 which never has been paid.

Since that time, he has only seen RUBY on about three or four occasions. On these occasions RUBY dropped by the Banker's Drug to talk with him and always invited him over to the Carousel Club which he was operating on the premises of the old Sovereign Club. He never did take up RUBY's invitation to go to the Carousel Club. On one of the occasions when RUBY visited him he borrowed $100 from RUBY. RUBY gave him the money in a manner indicating that it was a loan but SLATIN actually considered it only a part of the $300 he had coming when he withdrew from the Sovereign Club.

On one occasion about six months or more ago, RUBY contacted him at his residence telephonically indicating he was having trouble with his business because he was not being allowed to operate some strip tease acts as his competitors were doing. He appeared to be upset but SLATIN told him there was not much that could be done about the situation. RUBY indicated he was glad to talk to SLATIN and that he had actually called him because SLATIN appeared to be the type of person who could calm him, RUBY, down.

SLATIN advised that the last time he saw RUBY was about three or four months ago when RUBY dropped into the drugstore for a very casual visit.

SLATIN advised that throughout the period he knew RUBY he was aware that RUBY was acquainted with police officers at the Silver Spur, at the Vegas Club, and at the Carousel Club. He advised, however, that this association just appeared to be RUBY's normal desire to know all people. He could not recall the names of any particular police officers RUBY knew. He advised that from the manner in which RUBY talked with the officers at these establishments it did not appear that RUBY was granting these men any special favors.

SLATIN advised that he never knew RUBY to ever carry a gun. It was his impression that RUBY thought he could handle himself well enough with his fists that he did not need a gun.

SLATIN advised that RUBY never exhibited any interest in politics.

Although RUBY was always around downtown and made a special point of meeting people and remembering their names, he did not appear to have many close friends. The only person SLATIN recalled who could be considered a close friend of RUBY, would have been RALPH PAUL. He advised he never saw RUBY out with a woman and considered this just a little peculiar. He has heard rumors that RUBY was a homosexual but he personally never saw anything which would indicate to him that RUBY was a homosexual. SLATIN explained that when he operated the Band Box during the mid 1950's, it was a "queer joint" so that consequently he became familiar with that type of person. It got to the point that he felt he could "spot a queer" by seeing that man around a little bit. In his contacts and associations with RUBY, he never did form the opinion that RUBY was a queer.

SLATIN advised that he has thought about RUBY quite a bit since the Sunday morning when RUBY shot OSWALD in the basement of City Hall. Based on the association he has had with RUBY, in the past, it is his impression that RUBY was merely seeking publicity when he shot OSWALD. RUBY had a strong feeling for the underdog and this probably prompted his actions. He probably had no intention of actually killing OSWALD but probably hoped to just wound him, get a lot of publicity out of the situation and thereby become a "big shot."

SLATIN advised that he was not acquainted with OSWALD and that he doubted very seriously that RUBY would have been acquainted with him. He explained throughout the period he knew RUBY, RUBY made a point of referring to all men quite a bit younger then he was as "punks" whether these individuals were customers in his place or people he came in contact with from some other situation. In view of OSWALD's age, he doubted that RUBY would ever have associated with him.

Mrs. PERNA REYNOLDS, Manager, Tanglewood Apartments, 3909 Inwood, stated that on Wednesday night, November 20, 1963, FRANK T. TORTORIELLO, residing Apartment 104, had held an all-night party in his apartment. Mrs. REYNOLDS stated she had "called him on Texas carpet" after receiving complaints from Mrs. W. B. HUNT, Apartment 101, concerning the noise which persisted throughout the night. Mrs. REYNOLDS stated that on one previous occasion FRANK TORTORIELLO and JOE FREDERICA, of Apartment 110, had hired a "shirt-tail" band on a Sunday P.M. and they had played around the swimming pool of the Tanglewood Apartments, causing quite a bit of consternation to the tenants. TORTORIELLO had invited all of the adjacent tenants to attend this concert and stated they had only played for an hour, but she had cautioned TORTORIELLO about such incidents at the time.

In reference to the party held by TORTORIELLO on November 20, 1963, she stated that she did not know whether or not JADA attended but did know that Mrs. ANN BRYANT, Apartment 108, JOE FREDERICO and his wife, as well as FENTON BAKER, JR., had also attended this party.

Mrs. REYNOLDS concluded that she did know, however, that JADA had at various times been in TORTORIELLO's apartment; # 104.

JOE B. TURNER, Manager of Corrigan Properties, 211 North Ervay, Dallas, Texas, advised that EDWIN B. JORDAN, son-in-law of L. F. CORRIGAN, was formerly associated with Corrigan Properties, but is now an official of Mercantile National Bank, Dallas. TURNER is in possession of all contracts and agreements on properties owned by CORRIGAN.

TURNER has known JACK RUBY for the past six years and has handled the lease contracts concerning the property where JACK RUBY's Vegas Club is located.

TURNER described RUBY as "pushy." On numerous occasions when TURNER was talking on the telephone in his private office on confidential matters, he would look up to see RUBY standing in the middle of his office. Further, RUBY would want to know the details and circumstances concerning the call being made. In event L. F. CORRIGAN was in his office, RUBY would insist that he talk to CORRIGAN for no particular reason other than he just wanted to see "the boss."

TURNER advised his records reflected the property at 3508 Oaklawn was first leased from May 1, 1956 to April 30, 1957, to S. D. RUBY or EVA GRANT. This lease was the only one handled by EDWIN B. JORDAN.

This lease was cancelled and a new lease with the same dates was issued in the name of JACK RUBY alone. This lease was renewed on May 1, 1957, for a one-year period and again on May 1, 1958, at which time this lease was to run to May 31, 1960.

On June 1, 1960, the rent was raised to $600 per month and the term of the lease was for a four-year and nine-month period to expire on the last day of February, 1965.

TURNER stated that on the day before President KENNEDY was assassinated, which was November 21, 1963, RUBY had paid the rent for the month of November, 1963. RUBY has not, to date, paid the monthly rent for the month of December, 1963, which became due on December 1, 1963.

She was employed at the Gay 90's on November 16, 1963. Between 8:00 and 8:30 P.M. on that date, she received a long distance telephone call from a man identifying himself as JACK RUBY of Dallas. RUBY told her that JOY DALE, one of his dancers had recommended SMOKEY to him and he wanted to know if she desired to come to Dallas and work in one of his clubs. She said that she was interested and RUBY asked her to send photographs of her and some publicity material. She said that she did send this and the next thing she heard from RUBY was she saw him on television involved in the LEE OSWALD matter.

She said that she had never met RUBY and knows nothing about him. The only discussion on the telephone had to do with an offer to work in one of his night clubs and the condition of the work.

CHARLES G. WATTERS, Certified Public Accountant, 241 Paseo de las Delicias, Torrance, California, an accountant in the accounting firm of Alexander Grant and Company, 1541 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, advised that he had been convalescing at his residence from a heart attack on the weekend of the assassination of President KENNEDY. On Sunday, November 24, 1963, when he saw the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the television and the assailant was identified as JACK RUBY he suffered another heart attack which hospitalized him until December 5, 1963. He advised that the identity of RUBY in the shooting of OSWALD had particular significance for him because his accounting firm had previously handled RUBY's account in Dallas.

He advised that he had been a partner with W. Boone Good in the firm of W. Boone Good and Company in Dallas, Texas. During the period 1957 or 1958 until late 1959 or early 1960 his firm kept the books for JACK RUBY who then operated the Vegas Club in Dallas. Mrs. RITA SMRAKA, a bookkeeper with the firm, handled the day-by-day paper work on RUBY's account and when she was fired late in 1959 or early 1960 WATTERS believed she took the RUBY account with her as RUBY discontinued his service saying that RUBY's sister EVA GRANT was going to handle the books. However, RUBY never requested his books from the W. Boone Good and Company and WATTERS was of the opinion that SMRAKA had duplicate sets of records for accounts handled by her as she took other accounts with her when she left. WATTERS advised that SMRAKA was closer to RUBY than anyone else in the firm. WATTERS stated that he did not know RUBY socially but only on a business basis.

However, on one occasion he did learn either from RUBY or through SMRAKA that RUBY was dating the secretary of a prominent Dallas man. WATTERS did not remember the name of the secretary or her employer.

WATTERS advised that during the period his firm handled RUBY's account which also included preparing tax returns, RUBY's income was never large and fluctuated between roughly $2000 and $10,000 per year. WATTERS advised that these figures worried him because he could not understand how RUBY could maintain himself on this income. Because of this WATTERS checked RUBY's records very closely and compared the ratios with other night club accounts handled by WATTERS and could find no serious discrepancies. WATTERS advised that to the best of his knowledge RUBY lived in a modest apartment, drove an old model second-hand Buick automobile and apparently had no extravagant habits. WATTERS stated that he continually hammered at RUBY to determine if he had other income as WATTERS was most anxious to protect himself in regards to this matter for tax returns. In this regard RUBY would only say that he was receiving additional financial aid from his brother. The extent of of this aid and name of brother was not revealed to WATTERS by RUBY.

WATTERS advised that RUBY was always neat and well dressed and apparently very sensitive about his personal appearance, almost to the point of being effeminate, but definitely otherwise very hard and tough. WATTERS stated he never knew RUBY to express any political opinions. He found RUBY very pleasant and genial. WATTERS stated that he observed RUBY to be very nervous, jumpy and emotionally high strung. He described RUBY as a "loner" who apparently did not have any close associates or outside interests other than his club. He advised he did not know RUBY's background, family or police connections if any, nor had he heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President.

WATTERS stated that if he had to venture an opinion as to RUBY's reason for shooting OSWALD he would say it was an emotional spur of the moment thing.

WATTERS advised that Mrs. RITA SMRAKA could possibly be located through WATTERS' former secretary, Mrs. CATHY MC FARLAND, a secretary at the Dallas Office of Alexander Grant and Company, 2100 Fidelity Union Tower.

Captain WILL FRITZ, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, stated that he, along with Detective B. L. SHENKLE of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, with a court order in the hands of WILLIAM F. ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County, Texas, examined the safety deposit box of one JACK RUBY in the Merchants State Bank, Dallas, Texas, on December 3, 1963. This box was found to be empty and absolutely nothing in the box. This box was rented in 1958, Box No. 448, by JACK RUBY. FRITZ does not have the exact dates of rental. At the time it was rented, according to FRITZ, it had one MYRTLE CHANCE as a co-signer. CHANCE, according to FRITZ, was a waitress in one of RUBY's clubs.

CHANCE opened the box on July 1, 1959. On June 6, 1960, RUBY canceled CHANCE off as a co-signer of this box. According to FRITZ, RUBY's last visit to this box was March 21, 1961. RUBY paid annual payment March 20, 1963, for this box. FRITZ states RUBY appears to have been in this box approximately ten times.

Mr. JAMES P. LEAVE, 5417 Martel, Dallas, Texas, voluntarily furnished the following information:

He formerly resided at the Continental House Apartments, 4724 Alcott and in 1959, while living at this address, he met JACK RUBY. RUBY also lived in the Continental House Apartments and he believed his address was on Homer Street. His association with RUBY was very casual as well as all conversations he had with RUBY. He usually would see him around the swimming pool where he would swim laps for exercise. RUBY seemed to be "old maidish" and by that he met he had his apartment furnished like a woman might furnish her apartment. He believed that he may have been in RUBY's apartment once or twice but this would have been very brief to the best of his knowledge. He also has been in the Sovereign Club and Vegas Club which RUBY owned. He recalled that once when he was in the Sovereign Club with some friends, RUBY greeted them and all conversation was of a very general nature. Later in the evening, one of his party obtained a chair from another table and RUBY came up with "fire" in his eyes. As he recalled RUBY took the chair and put it back at the table that it had been taken from. All of his meetings and conversations with RUBY were very casual and he never discussed any politics with RUBY. He has never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination nor does he know of any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mrs. WILLIAM C. MC MILLIN, 4612 Fairfax, Dallas, Texas, voluntarily furnished the following information:

Approximately three years ago, she resided at 4812 Alcott, Dallas, Texas. At this time, she resided with SHERRI BENNER, PAT DE LONG and FRANCES WARLICH, all of whom were employed as stewardesses by Braniff Airlines. While residing at this address, which is the Continental Apartments, one of the girls found a small dog and brought it into the apartment. About a week later, a man by the name of JACK RUBY, who resided in the Continental Apartments but she believed his address was on Homer Avenue, told them that the dog belonged to him. RUBY told them that they could keep the dog but that he would just like to know where the dog was at.

She never had any conversation with RUBY as she recalls, and with the exception of SHERRI BENNER, he was just a casual acquaintance of her roommates. She explained that SHERRI BENNER was not closely associated with him but was more friendly than the other girls.

RUBY invited her and her roommates to his club, which was called the Vegas Club, and as she recalls, he seated them in the Club but there was not too much conversation. She stated she had the opinion that RUBY was a "sissy" due to his voice. As far as she knows, none of her roommates ever went out with RUBY or had any association with him other than small talk around the swimming pool.

She advised that SHERRI is now Mrs. DONALD RAMSEY and resides at 2919 Elmwood Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri.

SAM MILKIE, 922 North Marsalis (Oak Cliff Section), Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. MILKIE is the proprietor of the Cliff Sanitary Grocery, 897 Lancaster Avenue, Oak Cliff. The Cliff Sanitary Grocery is located approximately eleven blocks from the residence of JACK RUBY, from the Ewing Street residence of JACK RUBY and is on the route that RUBY could take while commuting to and from his residence in downtown Dallas.

MILKIE has known RUBY for approximately a year as RUBY on the average has made two or three purchases a month at the Cliff Sanitary Grocery. RUBY generally stopped at the Cliff Sanitary Grocery to purchase steaks which MILKIE presumed that RUBY cooked at home since he was a bachelor. On each occasion RUBY always asked MILKIE for bones for his dogs. According to MILKIE, RUBY spoke of his dogs "as though they were human beings." RUBY made purchases in the Cliff Sanitary Grocery on approximately three occasions in November. The last time that RUBY stopped at the Cliff Sanitary Grocery was but a few days prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

MILKIE recalled that in approximately mid-November RUBY while in the store, purchasing meat mentioned to MILKIE that he, RUBY, was on a diet and that he was taking pills. RUBY said that before going on the diet before using the pills, he felt lazy, sluggish and never felt that he wanted to talk to anybody. Upon going on the diet and taking the pills, that had been prescribed to him by a doctor, he has felt energized and full of vigor and enjoys talking to people. RUBY gave MILKIE three of the pills and suggested that MILKIE take them as RUBY felt that MILKIE was also too heavy and should lose some weight. RUBY told MILKIE that he, RUBY, took a pill each day upon awakening in the morning.

MILKIE took one of the pills but he became upset and nervous and did not use the additional two that RUBY had given him. The next time that RUBY came into the store which was the last time that MILKIE has seen RUBY, MILKIE asked RUBY what type of pill it was that RUBY had given him. RUBY told MILKIE that the pill was a preludin pill.

MILKIE advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had also been a customer of his at the Sanitary Grocery from late October and November, 1963. MILKIE stated that OSWALD's residence on Beckley was but a short distance from the Cliff Sanitary Grocery Store. To the best of MILKIE's recollection, OSWALD made purchases at his store on approximately three or four occasions and he feels that the last time that OSWALD was in the store was approximately a week before the assassination of the President. MILKIE said it is possible that it could have been on the 18th or even possibly the 19th of November, which are Monday and Tuesday of the week that the President was shot. He is definite in stating that OSWALD was not in the store as late as the 20th or the 21st of November, 1963.

OSWALD, in making his purchases in the store, generally bought a loaf of bread, lunch meat and milk. He specifically recalls OSWALD from the method in which OSWALD purchased lunch meat from him. He can recall OSWALD methodically thinking the amount of food he would need for a specific period perhaps for a week, and then in selecting the lunch meat OSWALD always asked MILKIE to remove the top slice of the stack as he did not want the top slice. MILKIE stated that OSWALD impressed him as a person who was very conscientious of his money and was living very frugally. MILKIE stated that at no time during the period that OSWALD made purchases at his store were OSWALD and RUBY ever in the store at the same time, and to his knowledge RUBY and OSWALD were not acquainted. MILKIE stated that he had no information pertaining to RUBY's personal life and his only association with RUBY was on those occasions when RUBY stopped at the store.

LENNIE L. BROWN, 208 East Ercoupe, Midwest City, Oklahoma advised he has been employed as a dish washer at the Metropolitan YMCA, Oklahoma City for approximately four months.

BROWN advised a Negro man, ALONZO, LNU, is employed as the cook at the YMCA cafeteria and that ALONZO has become jealous of his ability to wash the dishes so rapidly and do such a good job.

BROWN advised after President KENNEDY was assassinated, ALONZO appeared to be very interested in the details of the assassination in the newspaper and was very angry about the assassination and directed this anger toward the individual who had assassinated the President. BROWN stated that ALONZO made no remarks concerning his anger but BROWN pointed out "actions speak louder than words".

BROWN stated, "I have no outright facts, not even a slim suspicion but furnished information to the Dallas County Attorney only as a tip when RUBY stated, 'I don't know why I did it', it just set me to thinking". BROWN pointed out that ALONZO frequented bars and night clubs in the Oklahoma City area and since JACK RUBY, the killer of OSWALD, was a night club owner, he felt there was possibly a connection between RUBY and ALONZO. BROWN advised he had heard nothing nor had he seen anything to indicate RUBY and ALONZO had any connection or that they were even acquainted. He again stated he felt there was a possibility ALONZO contacted RUBY and urged him to kill OSWALD.

To further substantiate this suspicion, BROWN stated a couple of days after OSWALD had been shot, ALONZO, standing over the cooking table and without any apparent thought, uttered the word "OSWALD".

BROWN advised he could not recall the contents of the letter he had forwarded to the County Attorney in Dallas, Texas because he was confused on November 26, 1963, the date he prepared the letter.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs PAUL L. SCOTT and JAMES S. WEIR:

On December 11, 1963, NORMAN CONWAY, Vice-President, Ernstron's Inc., 4356 Lovers Lane, University Park, Texas, checked records of his company reflecting sales of all Minifon brand recording equipment during the years 1958 through 1962, without locating any purchase under the name JACK RUBY, JACK RUBENSTEIN, Vegas Club, or Carousel Club. CONWAY located a partial list of the sales made by Mrs. VIVIAN CURRY, saleswoman, during the time she was employed with this company, from June, 1959, to May, 1960. The name JACK RUBY, JACK RUBENSTEIN, Vegas Club, or Carousel Club, did not appear on this list.

CONWAY advised he has been connected with Ernstron's, Inc., for the past several years and he personally does not recall any sales of Minifon brand recording equipment made to JACK LEON RUBY.

On December 11, 1963, JIM ADAIR, Adair Sound Engineering Company, 4329 Belmont Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised after checking records of sales during the period 1958 and 1959, that he was unable to locate any record of a sale of Minifon brand recording equipment made to JACK LEON RUBY, JACK RUBENSTEIN, the Vegas Club, or the Carousel Club. ADAIR advised Mrs. VIVIAN CURRY was an outside saleswoman for this company from July, 1958, to about April, 1959, and that during this time she sold recording equipment to some of the clubs in the Dallas area. However, ADAIR has no recollection of having made any sales to JACK LEON RUBY or the Vegas or Carousel Clubs. ADAIR said he had maintained a list of the sales made by Mrs. CURRY for approximately one year after she left the company; however, this list was not presently available, and apparently had been destroyed.

Lieutenant GEORGE BUTLER, Juvenile Section, Dallas, Texas Police Department, was interviewed regarding the attempted bribe of STEVE GUTHERIE in approximately 1946, when GUTHERIE had been elected Sheriff of Dallas County. Particularly the purpose of the interview was to ascertain whether or not JACK RUBY had any connection with this bribery attempt. Lieutenant BUTLER informed that he did considerable investigation on the case that PAUL ROLAND JONES drew a sentence to serve two years or more as a result of.

BUTLER stated, however, that RUBY was not involved in the bribery attempt and in fact he had never heard of RUBY until after the investigation and trial had been completed. He stated that the way RUBY came into the picture was a number of the individuals who were involved in the bribery attempt and in particular PAUL ROLAND JONES began "hanging out" at RUBY's club after the sentence. He pointed out that JONES appealed his conviction and took it to the Supreme Court. BUTLER stated that this took approximately two or more years and during this period of time JONES and other hoodlums were known to frequent RUBY's night club.

During the course of this interview Lieutenant BUTLER advised that he came onto the Dallas Police Department with Chief of Police CURRY. He added that in his opinion, CURRY is too level-headed to have attempted to transfer LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the County Jail with all the news media present and in the way it was handled when OSWALD was shot. Lieutenant BUTLER said that he feels that Chief CURRY was pressured and ordered to bring OSWALD out and transfer him while the news media was there to get a story. BUTLER also said that he does not feel that the present City Manager would have order CURRY to bring OSWALD out under these circumstances but he did not state who he felt was responsible for the transferring of OSWALD under the circumstances at that time.

During his conversation with these men, CLEVELAND allegedly stated that a man came in and stated to these men "we've got to have some money". LUSK stated that he got the impression from CLEVELAND that the man who made that statement was JACK L. RUBY. CLEVELAND also stated that both the employees of the produce company pulled out their billfolds and gave this individual some money, amount not known to CLEVELAND.

On December 9, 1963, HENRY CLEVELAND, owner of the Oaks Manor Motor Hotel, 7015 South Central Freeway, advised SAs EDMOND C. HARDIN and ROBERT J. WILKISON that upon interviewing a photograph of JACK RUBY, he is positive that this is not a photograph of the individual he saw about two or three years ago at the produce company who requested and received some money from the two employees to whom CLEVELAND was talking. Mr. CLEVELAND stated that he gathered that the two men with whom he was talking had previously made personal bets with the third man and when the third man requested the money, he was merely asking that the money the men owed him as a result of these bets be paid him. CLEVELAND stated that the man requesting the money somewhat fit the general description of JACK RUBY but his hair was entirely of a different color and his facial features positively do not resemble those of RUBY.

On December 2, 1963, SA JAMES W. ANDERTON received an anonymous telephone call as follows:

An individual called stating he did not want his identity known and that on November 23, 1963, the night before OSWALD was shot by RUBY, RUBY was in a certain bar in Dallas, along with a TOM APPLE, a co-pilot for American Airlines in Dallas. The anonymous caller refused to identify the bar and stated that he did not know whether RUBY was at the same table with APPLE, or at an adjacent table, but that APPLE overheard RUBY make the remark to the effect that if anyone was interested in excitement, they should watch the newspaper tomorrow.

The anonymous caller then stated that TOM APPLE was due to go out on a flight within 24 hours, and according to rules of American Airlines, was not supposed to have been drinking beer, so he therefore requested that discretion be used in contacting APPLE. The caller refused to divulge any further information and hung up.

NATHAN WYLE, Associate, Travel Inc., 1213-14 Adolphus Towers, Dallas, Texas, advised that he has known JACK RUBY since 1948 but only through business contacts. He explained that in 1948, he, WYLE, was employed as a reporter by the "Dallas Morning News" and for several years as such he regularly made the rounds of the various night clubs and lounges in the city. Thus, he had occasion to see and speak to RUBY from time to time but he never associated with RUBY on a social basis.

Mr. WYLE stated that the last time he saw and spoke to RUBY was on about October 2, 1963, on the street in front of the Baker Hotel. At that time, RUBY mentioned that he was interested in taking a Caribbean cruise at a later date, exact date not mentioned, during his anticipated vacation. Consequently, Mr. WYLE mailed some literature concerning such a cruise to RUBY on the following date, but RUBY never followed through and never contacted Mr. WYLE's office concerning this cruise. WYLE stated that to his knowledge, RUBY did not take such a cruise. Mr. WYLE added that he was in the Orient from November 1 to November 24, 1963, and consequently was more or less out of touch with local news and naturally did not see or talk to RUBY during that time. WYLE advised that he always considered RUBY a friendly talkative individual who appeared to be extremely fond of publicity for himself. He stated that he was shocked to learn that RUBY resorted to violence by killing LEE HARVEY OSWALD and in his own mind he felt that RUBY's love for publicity might have influenced him on the spur of the moment to commit such an act.

PHYLLIS F. (Mrs. SAMUEL DAVID) RUBY, 11616 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed telephonically as a result of an anonymous telephone call received at the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, on November 29, 1963, wherein a female, who refused to identify herself by name, address, or telephone number, furnished the following information:

She had talked with Mrs. SAM RUBY, 11616 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas, sister-in-law of JACK RUBY, and Mrs. SAM RUBY had advised that her brother-in-law, JACK RUBY, accompanied by a gambler and racketeer of Fort Worth, Texas, name and further identity unknown, had flown to Havana, Cuba, shortly after CASTRO had taken command, for the purpose of meeting GEORGE RAFT, the movie star and reputed gambler.

Cuba U.S.A.

Mrs. RUBY advised that she has never made any such statement to anyone and, in fact, has never been aware that JACK RUBY has ever taken a trip to Cuba at any time for any reason. She advised, after being made aware of the contents of the anonymous telephone call, that she suspects the source of this call may have been EVA L. GRANT, her sister-in-law. She advised she and EVA L. GRANT have never liked each other and EVA GRANT, from time to time in the past, has tried to cause rifts between her and her husband, SAM.

She said specifically that within the past day or two EVA L. GRANT has been in touch with SAM RUBY for the purpose of attempting to gain his assistance in the operation of the Carousel Club in Dallas, inasmuch as JACK RUBY, who normally operates that club, is in jail and someone is needed to look after things at the club. She said she feels that EVA probably believes that she cannot get SAM RUBY to work at the Carousel Club without first getting him away from the influence of her, Mrs. RUBY.

Mrs. RUBY said this is only supposition on her part and mentions it only because she cannot figure out who the anonymous caller would have been unless it was EVA L. GRANT. She repeated that she has no knowledge and has never had any knowledge of JACK RUBY ever having made a trip to Cuba. She, therefore, could not have made any statement to anyone about such a trip.

Mrs. RUBY said that the only trip by JACK RUBY that she knows about, other than various trips he has made to Chicago from time to time, is a trip he made with several other businessmen, one of whom was the attorney, STANLEY KAUFMAN, from Dallas to Hot Springs, Arkansas, to attend the races. She said this was about seven years ago and they took a train, which was specially assembled in Dallas for that trip.

SAMUEL DAVID RUBY, 11616 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas, advised telephonically that he knows of no trip to Cuba made by JACK RUBY at any time. It was explained to Mr. RUBY that if such a trip were made it had been alleged JACK RUBY made the trip with a gambler from Fort Worth, Texas. He suggested that such a person may have been a man by the name of MC WILLIE, whom he has heard mentioned as a gambler and as a friend of JACK RUBY.

In addition to the foregoing, Mr. RUBY advised that on December 4, 1963, EARL RUBY, his brother, came to Dallas from Chicago, Illinois, and while in Dallas visited JACK RUBY at the Dallas County Jail. He advised that in talking to EARL RUBY he determined that EARL suggested to JACK RUBY and JACK's attorney, Mr. HOWARD, that if additional legal assistance in JACK RUBY's defense were needed he knew a good attorney in Chicago, Illinois, by the name of CHARLES BELLOWS. Mr. RUBY said it was his understanding that EARL RUBY left Dallas on the night of December 4, 1963, to return to Chicago for the purpose of consulting BELLOWS regarding the defense of JACK RUBY and who is to telephone either Mr. HOWARD or EVA L. GRANT on or about December 5, 1963, to let them know whether or not Mr. BELLOWS will enter the defense of JACK RUBY's case.

Mr. RUBY advised he has been approached by EVA L. GRANT and RALPH PAUL regarding his possibly helping out at the Carousel Club during the week ends. He said he does not know whether or not he will do it. He said that Mr. PAUL has advised him that he is getting him 50% of the stock in the Carousel Club. He said he has seen no legal papers or evidence of such a stock transfer, and does not know from whom this stock will be transferred to him.

She was formerly employed at the T-Bone Night Club in Wichita, Kansas, from April 1961, to November 1963. During this period of time a man was pointed out to her as being JACK RUBY, the owner or operator of some Dallas, Texas, night clubs, as being a customer of the T-Bone. She denied knowing the dates he was in the club or who pointed him out to her, but was of the opinion this happened on only one or two occasions. She did recall serving dinner to RUBY on an unrecalled evening at the club and described RUBY as a "dumpy little fat man."

CORNWELL stated that she was of the opinion the night she served RUBY he was with or waiting for an exotic dancer known as "Precious Diamond" who was then employed at the T-Bone. She stated she thought this was about Christmas-time, 1962, because it was about the time of the Christmas parties. CORNWELL also recalled that VIRGIL PEEL, who works at the Boeing Company, and who also operates the private club known as the Westair Private Club, located in the Town and Country Motel, West 54 Highway, Wichita, claimed that RUBY gave him a card for one of his clubs in Dallas at that time. PEEL was at that time also employed at the T-Bone. CORNWELL said she did not recall seeing RUBY talk to or visit anyone other than the dancer. CORNWELL denied that she could furnish any other information regarding RUBY, his associates, or his reason for being in Wichita, Kansas.

CORNWELL suggested that if anyone wanted to contact "Precious Diamond" she could probably be contacted through the agent, JACK COLE, 515 Interurban Building, Dallas, Texas.

She is a waitress at the T-Bone Night Club, 220 East 47th Street, South, and has been so employed for the past three years. She recalled that sometime in the past she waited table for a customer who someone at the T-Bone later advised her was JACK RUBY, a night club operator from Dallas, Texas. SIMMONS recalled this as being during a period when a "stripper" called GAIL RAYBURN (phonetic), an exotic dancer, was appearing at the club. SIMMONS estimated the time as about one year ago.

SIMMONS claimed that upon this occasion, RUBY was accompanied by another unknown male and a female SIMMONS could only describe as having blonde hair. SIMMONS was of the opinion someone had told her this blonde was also an exotic dancer. She recalled that RUBY was at the club all evening for all three shows and apparently was interested in GAIL RAYBURN.

SIMMONS stated that after JACK RUBY had shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Dallas, Texas, she had heard that THELMA CORNWELL, a former waitress at the club, had telephonically contacted JEAN BOWMAKER, another former waitress at the club and reminded BOWMAKER that she, BOWMAKER, had waited on RUBY at the T-Bone Club. Mrs. ALLEN TAYLOR, 234 Crestway Road, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS telephone OL 5-2327, advised she was previously manager of the Fontainebleau Apartments, 1235 East Mulberrry Street, San Antonio, which were owned by EARL JACKSON. Mr. JACKSON was originally from New York but now resides at 4420 Larchmont, Dallas, TEXAS. Mrs. TAYLOR said that apparently JACK RUBY was around the Fontainebleau Apartments on three occasions between August, 1962, and February, 1963.

She said that she assumed the manager's job on August 20, 1962, and shortly afterward, she was with Mr. JACKSON near the swimming pool at the period when there was a grand opening for these apartments. He observed across the pool an individual whom he spoke to by saying, "Hello, JACK," and then he told Mrs. TAYLOR that this was JACK RUBY who had clubs in Dallas and told her not to rent to him since he was "a crazy individual."

Mrs. TAYLOR said that the second time she observed RUBY he was apparently wandering around the grounds, admiring the apartments, and she could not place the date when this occurred.

The third time she saw RUBY was in the winter of 1963, perhaps February, when she saw him on the grounds again with a second man. RUBY remarked to her that this was the best kept place in San Antonio, and he introduced the man with him as an individual from New York, a bachelor, who was interested in an apartment. Since the New York man was interested in a one-bedroom apartment and none was then available, Mrs. TAYLOR advised she showed him an apartment occupied by BETTE WILSON, a divorcee. She said she believed before the men left Mrs. WILSON's apartment, that Mrs. WILSON had offered them a drink.

| Age: | Late 40's or early 50's |
| Height: | Tall |
| Appearance: | Good-looking and distinguished |
| Complexion: | Dark skin. |

Mrs. TAYLOR said that she left the two men at the apartment of Mrs. WILSON.

She described RUBY as being always neatly dressed and conservative, with a hat, and he was always polite and courteous.

Mrs. TAYLOR said unless she has confused Mr. RUBY with some other man she believed that he told her that he had an apartment on Broadway in San Antonio and had a roommate, and he told her he was a bachelor. A stand-up photograph was exhibited to Mrs. TAYLOR, and she could not identify this photograph of RUBY.

Mrs. TAYLOR said that she remembered in conversation with Mr. RUBY that the Red Carpet, a bottle club in San Antonio, was mentioned, but she did not recall in what connection.

Date December 10, 1963

Mrs. BETTE WILSON, who has an apartment at the Fontainebleau Apartments, recalled that during the middle of the day about last January or February, 1963, Mrs. TAYLOR, the Manager, asked for permission for two men to observe her apartment. She believed that it was a Saturday or a Sunday. She remembered that one individual said that his name was RUBENSTEIN but that he was called RUBY, and the other man was from New York and was planning to move to San Antonio. She believed that he was going to open a branch of some business. As she recalled, they began talking and BILL EASTON, who had an apartment nearby and who has since moved to California, brought in a bottle of whiskey and they had one drink with the two visitors. She recalled discussing Dallas since she was acquainted with individuals at Dallas, and the conversation revealed that RUBY was a night club owner in Dallas.

TEXAS

Mrs. WILSON said that she was watching television at the time RUBY shot OSWALD, and she subsequently saw RUBY's photograph on television and made the remark to a friend of hers that she had seen this individual before. As she recalled, she shortly thereafter received a telephone call from Mrs. TAYLOR who reminded her that it had been the same JACK RUBY who had been at her apartment in the winter in the company of the New York man. She said she then realized that this was the same individual. Mrs. WILSON added that most of the conversation was in the nature of encouraging the New York man to move to San Antonio and take up residence at the Fontainebleau Apartments, particularly since he was a bachelor. She described the New York man as follows:

| Age: | Late 40's |
| Height: | 6 ft. |

MARK MARQUESS, Golf Professional, Tropicana Country Club, advised on this date that to his knowledge, JACK RUBY, the killer of OSWALD, had never played golf at that course. He stated that it was entirely possible that RUBY could have played golf at that course without his knowledge, but that he felt reasonably certain that if RUBY had played there, it was some time ago. MARQUESS stated that he caused a review of records of that Country Club to be made with respect to RUBY being entered on said records as a player, with negative results.

He advised that he had heard rumors that RUBY had played that golf course but that he had been unable to corroborate or refute same in discussing same with personnel of that course. He further advised that he had been informed that a Las Vegas television newscaster had mentioned RUBY's presence in town at a recent date, but that he had no first hand knowledge of same. He offered the opinion that he doubted very strongly that RUBY could have played the Tropicana Golf Course in the recent past, adding that pictures of RUBY, both on television and in the newspapers, were completely unfamiliar to him.

He stated that he had heard that RUBY had played golf at the Tropicana Country Club, but does not know this to be a fact. He feels sure that if RUBY had been in the hotel he, RICCI, would have known it. He recalled that about a year or so ago a JACK RUBY who he believes to be identical with JACK RUBY, Dallas, Texas, based upon newspaper photographs, did come to Las Vegas and that he had asked RICCI to make reservations for a flight to Chicago. RICCI stated the reason he recalled this was that during the time RICCI was trying to make the reservation, RUBY changed the spelling of his name several times. He recalls RUBY changed the name to RUBIN, RUBEN, and RUBENSTEIN. RICCI did not know in which name RUBY finally got the reservation.

JOSEPH STEFAN, Caddymaster, Tropicana Golf Club, NEVADA advised on this date that records of his office for the past thirty days, did not reflect a registration for golf in the name of JACK RUBY and/or JACK RUBENSTEIN. He advised that records of his office are maintained for thirty days and then destroyed. He stated that photographs of RUBY, both on television and in the newspapers, were unfamiliar to him. He advised that when the news of RUBY's killing of OSWALD first appeared on television, he had the impression that at one time RUBY might have played golf at that course, since he is sure that at some time during the past year, a player from Texas, had given him a card from the Carousel Club in Dallas and told him to look him up if he ever got to Dallas. STEFAN advised that he made a search of personal effects at the Club and also at his home with negatives results regarding said card. He stated that he could not recall how long ago it was, but that he must have thrown the card away. He advised that he also, in conjunction with MARK MARQUESS, the golf professional at the course, had a review made of the records of the Registration Desk at the Club with negative results regarding the name of JACK RUBY and/or JACK RUBENSTEIN.

STEFAN stated that to the best of knowledge PRESTON FEINBERG of the Tropicana Hotel has not played golf at that course in at least 8 months.

STEFAN advised that he was positive that FEINBERG had not played golf at that course in the past thirty days, adding that while FEINBERG and his wife maintain clubs in the locker room, FEINBERG has not played since he had a heart attack some time ago. Date 12/9/63

ARTHUR WEATHERWAX, 9302 Piper Lane, volunteered the following information:

He advised that he is employed as a printer in the Composing Room of the Dallas Times Herald located on Herald Square. He stated that by virtue of this employment he has known JACK RUBY for several years inasmuch as RUBY has more or less regularly come to the Composing Room about a week to place an ad in the paper concerning his places of business. On many of these occasions, RUBY would engage him in conversation, usually concerning current events and show business. WEATHERWAX added that he has never associated with RUBY socially and has never heard RUBY discuss politics.

WEATHERWAX stated that RUBY appeared at the Composing Room of the Times Herald about 4:15 AM on November 23, 1963, for the purpose of changing the wording of an advertisement in the newspaper to indicate that his places of business would be closed for the following three days. At this time he talked with RUBY, during which time most of the conversation was concerning the tragic events surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy. At that time, RUBY said to him that he had earlier that evening been to the City Hall and explained his presence there by stating that a reporter friend of his, whose name RUBY did not mention, had called him and told him he was hungry, and requested RUBY to bring him some sandwiches. RUBY took some sandwiches to the City Hall for this reporter and, according to RUBY, could not locate him. While at the City Hall, he found himself surrounded by newsmen who were rushing to a press conference given by HENRY WADE, the District Attorney. RUBY told WEATHERWAX that he "got swept in" to the press conference. RUBY further stated to WEATHERWAX that during the press conference, WADE remarked that OSWALD was a member of the Free Cuba Committee, or some such committee, whereupon RUBY spoke up and informed WADE of the correct title of the committee, to which OSWALD allegedly belonged. RUBY continued by telling WEATHERWAX that after the conference he called the KLIF office to find out where the reporter friend of his was. He did not learn his whereabouts, but he ran upon another reporter from the same office and to do this reporter a big favor, he phoned Mr. WADE and told him that the reporter wished to talk to him for any information

Mr. WADE could give him. RUBY stated that he did this to afford this reporter an exclusive interview with WADE.

WEATHERWAX further stated that while talking to RUBY, the latter appeared to be shocked and angry over the assassination of the President. He stated that he had seen OSWALD at the City Hall but did not elaborate how or exactly when he saw OSWALD. While dwelling on this subject, RUBY stated that OSWALD "looked like a weasel," or he may have possibly said OSWALD "looked like a smirking weasel." RUBY did not mention ever seeing OSWALD before. WEATHERWAX stated that he has never received any information concerning any possible relationship between OSWALD and RUBY and has never heard anyone mention anything to indicate such a relationship.

WEATHERWAX further stated that he does not feel qualified to comment on RUBY's character, personality, or political feelings inasmuch as his acquaintance with him has been entirely on a professional basis. He stated that he does recall several months ago, while driving a taxicab in Dallas as an extra job, he picked up a female employee of RUBY's at the Carousel Club, and, while driving this woman, he asked her how she liked her job and boss, whereupon she stated that RUBY was "a first-class bum." She explained that if one of RUBY's girls did not go to bed with him, he would "dump her."

ROBERT B. YOUNG, reporter for the Newsweek Magazine, whose home address is 430 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed in the offices of the FBI in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. YOUNG informed that he arrived in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

He furnished the following information:

His assignment in Dallas was to check the story regarding the President's assassination, at Parkland Hospital. He had worked at this assignment and on Saturday night he was up late. He slept late on Sunday morning and therefore was not at the Dallas Police Department when OSWALD was shot.

Since he has been in Dallas, Texas, he heard that the whereabouts of JACK RUBY had been known to the Dallas News and on Friday, November 29, 1963, he went to the Dallas News to check this story out. He ascertained that DON CAMPBELL, advertising salesman on the second floor at the Dallas News, had been talking with JACK RUBY at his desk from approximately 11:45 a.m. until approximately 12:20 p.m., November 22, 1963, at which time CAMPBELL left the room.

At approximately 12:30 p.m. a girl, whose name is not known to Mr. YOUNG, but who is employed on the second floor in the advertising section of the News, returned from her lunch hour and saw JACK RUBY sitting in the only chair on that floor from which he could observe the site of the President's assassination. According to this girl RUBY apparently had been sitting there for some time. Mr. YOUNG speculated that RUBY could have been sitting there for the specific purpose of observing the President being assassinated. Another advertising salesman, whose desk is near the desk occupied by the above-mentioned young girl, saw RUBY on this same floor after it had been learned in that office that the President had been assassinated.

Mr. YOUNG passed the above information to a Mr. WILLS, who is Assistant District Attorney in Dallas, Texas.

CLIFFORD L. WRIGHT, TEXAS, General Foreman of the Composing Room in the "Dallas Morning News", advised that his department received two advertisements on November 22, 1963. These advertisements were for the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club. Mr. WRIGHT stated that his department got the ad set up and they were taken back. He stated that they were received again in his department at 2:41 p.m. from the Service Department. He pointed out that it appears that there was a small change made on one of the advertisements by the Service Department and it may have been made as a result of a call from RUBY. He further stated that at approximately 7:00 p.m., RUBY either called back or came back and changed one of the ads.

Mr. WRIGHT furnished the following additional information:

His record reflects that at 7:00 p.m., RUBY requested that a change be made for both the Vegas and Carousel Club ad to show that both were to be closed Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

At 7:00 p.m. RUBY wanted to changed the ad on the Carousel Club so that it would show "closed tonight and Sunday." Mr. WRIGHT pointed out that RUBY was obviously "balled up" because he was trying to leave out the fact that the clubs would be closed Saturday night.

Mr. WRIGHT stated that he is sure RUBY wanted the ad to reflect that the clubs would be closed Saturday night, too. He pointed out further that when RUBY wanted to make a change at 9:00 p.m., he apparently wanted to make the change for the Carousel Club and not for the Vegas Club. This was further indication to Mr. WRIGHT that RUBY was "balled up."

Mr. WRIGHT advised that JOE COUCH, TEXAS, is apparently the man that RUBY made the change of the ads with at 7:00 p.m.

He further said that COUCH is apparently the man whomRUBY tried to make a change with at 9:00 pm. Mr. WRIGHT advised that the attempt to change at 9:00 p.m. was not made because it was too late to make such changes.

Mr. WRIGHT said that he could not state whether or not RUBY came to the office on the changes of the clubs ads or whether he called in. He stated that most likely JACK RUBY called to make the changes on the ad.

Mr. RICHARD L. SAUNDERS, Advertising Salesman for the Dallas "Morning News", home address 3553 High Vista, telephone number CH 7-9059, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in the advertising section of the Dallas "Morning News" and he furnished the following information:

He was near the Triple Underpass in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, at the time of the President's assassination. SAUNDERS' location was approximately 100 yards from the Texas School Book Depository Building. SAUNDERS was near the intersection of Elm Street and Stemmons Freeway, which is approximately 100 yards from the Texas School Book Depository Building. He said that after the President's car went by him to the hospital he drove to the Dallas "Morning News" building and went to his desk on the second floor of that building. He estimated that it took him a total of 10 minutes to arrive at his office after the President's car passed him and said this would make his arrival time at approximately 12:40 p.m.

He advised that when he came to the Advertising Section of the building, he saw JACK RUBY who was standing near Mr. SAUNDERS' desk, and was not actually at that time sitting in SAUNDERS' chair. RUBY was "ashen white" in the face, and was visibly shocked when SAUNDERS first saw him. SAUNDERS felt that RUBY was probably more "shook up" than any of the other people in the office at that time.

JACK RUBY has habitually come to the Dallas "Morning News" on Fridays for a long period of time and it was certainly not unusual for him to be in the Advertising Section at that time.

Mr. SAUNDERS believes RUBY has always been a person striving for recognition but he wanted this recognition for doing the right thing. SAUNDERS first called on JACK RUBY six or seven years ago when RUBY was operating the Vegas Club and SAUNDERS has the impression that RUBY has always tried to run a clean show. RUBY apparently tries to keep his shows on a little higher plane than the average stripper show.

SAUNDERS was of the distinct impression that RUBY was genuinely shocked and was in fact dazed after hearing of the President's assassination. He said that if it turns out that RUBY had any connection with OSWALD, it will "be the biggest error I have ever made in my judgment of a person." When SAUNDERS originally started contacting JACK RUBY in 1957 for RUBY's advertisements, he gave RUBY credit on occasion for his (SAUNDERS) convenience. He never doubted JACK RUBY's word at any time and RUBY never turned out to be a bad credit risk but always paid off exactly as he had agreed. To SAUNDERS' knowledge, RUBY never carried a gun on his person except on occasion when RUBY would be carrying money. He has seen RUBY on numerous occasions at his desk in the club counting money and generally RUBY would have a gun with him either on the table or in a drawer of the table. On one occasion he saw RUBY with a sizeable sum of money in a bag and saw RUBY put a gun in the same bag. He does not believe that RUBY carried a gun unless RUBY had large sums of money in his possession.

RUBY was known as being a "woman chaser" according to SAUNDERS and was believed to be particularly interested in the strippers who worked for him.

RUBY was known by SAUNDERS to respect authority and the President of the United States was theoretically the highest authority in the United States. For this reason, SAUNDERS believes that RUBY was particularly shaken up over the President's assassination, and this could have been the reason that in SAUNDERS' opinion that RUBY eventually killed OSWALD. He said that RUBY could have continued to brood over the fact that OSWALD shot the President. He further said that on the morning of the shooting of OSWALD, RUBY may have had the gun on because he might have had a large sum of money on his person and in SAUNDERS' opinion could have gone to the police department without intending to kill OSWALD.

He characterized RUBY as being a highly nervous individual but he was of the opinion that RUBY did make some efforts to upgrade himself and his shows. He pointed out that only a short time before the assassination RUBY had told him that he (RUBY) had recently gotten an injunction against other burlesque show operators so that they could not advertise. their Amateur Nights. He advised that the Amateur Nights had been advertised and on these nights either girls who had never stripped before or girls who would hold themselves out as never having stripped before would put on shows. RUBY was well pleased that he had arranged to stop the advertisement of these nights.

SAUNDERS related that during the seven years he has known RUBY he has carried on conversations with him quite frequently. At no time did RUBY ever discuss or mention politics or President KENNEDY.

He also informed that he knew of no relationship between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BILLIE A. RAY, Advertising salesman, Dallas "Morning News," home address 157 Arbor Lane, Lancaster, Texas, telephone number 221-5233, furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, the date of the assassination of President KENNEDY, RAY had returned from lunch and had been in the office for approximately 10 minutes when one of the boys in the office ran in and remarked that President KENNEDY had been shot. RAY recalls seeing JACK RUBY sitting in DON CAMPBELL's chair which chair is directly in front of the desk of Miss GEORGIA MAYOR. At the time RAY noticed RUBY, RUBY was facing away from the window of the building. It is not unusual in RAY's opinion for RUBY to be where he was since he has been around the office for so long a period of time doing business.

RAY further recalled seeing JACK RUBY near a small TV set in the office listening to the details of the President's assassination. JACK RUBY had a very strange look on his face at that time and seemed to stare without comprehending the events.

JOHN NEWNAM, Advertising Salesman, Dallas "Morning News," home address 3124 Kingston, Dallas, telephone number FE 1-8090, advised that he watched the Presidential parade on November 22, 1963, at Austin and Main Streets by Sanger-Harris Brothers. He said he returned to his office on the second floor of the Dallas "Morning News" Building at approximately 12:40 p.m. He furnished the following additional information:

When he arrived in the office, JACK RUBY was sitting at NEWNAM's desk. A short time after he, NEWNAM, sat down, JERRY COLEY came into the office and stated that the President had been shot. Everyone in the room of course, was perturbed. A short time after receiving this news, RUBY called his sister and while he was talking to her he told Mr. NEWNAM to listen. He put the receiver to Mr. NEWNAM's ear and Mr. NEWNAM heard the party on the other end which party he feels sure is RUBY's sister. From the gist of the talk, she was obviously very upset.

When NEWNAM first came into the office and saw RUBY, RUBY did not appear to be particularly upset and he does not believe RUBY had heard of the shooting at that time. DON J. CAMPBELL, Advertising Salesman, Dallas "Morning News," home address 5514 Swiss, telephone number TA 1-0792, furnished the following information: DALLAS, TEXAS DON Campbell

JACK RUBY has in the past for a number of years been a regular advertising customer with the Dallas "Morning News." It is the usual thing for him to be in the Dallas News Building with his advertisements on a Friday morning.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, at approximately 12:00 noon, CAMPBELL returned to the Advertising Office and JACK RUBY was in the office at that time. CAMPBELL heard from some unrecalled source that RUBY ate breakfast at the cafeteria of that building on that particular day. CAMPBELL, who has handled RUBY's accounts for the past few years, and RUBY discussed business and at the conclusion of that business, RUBY talked to CAMPBELL about his, RUBY's, business.

On this particular day, RUBY mentioned what a "lousy" business he was in and talked about some of the problems of running a night club. He spent some time talking about some of the physical fights he had been in in connection with his night club and informed CAMPBELL that he, RUBY, was a very capable fighter. At that time he made a statement to CAMPBELL that any time he felt like he was fixing to have trouble with someone, he would always get a gun and have it on his person.

RUBY did not at this time or at any other time to CAMPBELL's recollection, mention anything about President KENNEDY, the parade which was going on at that time, or discuss any kind of politics.

CAMPBELL had another customer he had to see and left the building at approximately 12:25 p.m. CAMPBELL advised he did not return to his office before RUBY's departure. He further advised that while he was in the office RUBY was not near the desk of Miss GEORGIA MAYOR to his (CAMPBELL's) knowledge.

GEORGIA MAYOR, Secretary in the Advertising Division, Dallas "Morning News," home address 115 West 7th Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, she returned from her lunch hour at approximately 12:30 p.m. She said that when she returned JACK RUBY was sitting in a chair directly in front of her desk. She said she is not sure which way he was looking but she had a faint impression that he was looking out at the scene where President KENNEDY was assassinated. She emphasized that she is not sure of this, however. She pointed out that in the particular chair where RUBY was sitting the Texas School Book Depository Building was clearly visible and further that the particular window from which the assassin shot is clearly visible.

Miss MAYOR stated that she had received information as she was returning from her lunch hour that the President had been shot. She stated that HAL COLEY had furnished her this information and she said that after stopping briefly downstairs to cash a check she came directly to the advertising room by the elevator. She said further that DICK SAUNDERS, the employee whose desk is in front of hers, and in whose chair RUBY was sitting, can verify the above information.

Miss MAYOR stated that when she first saw RUBY she did not notice him looking particularly dazed or pale but that at approximately 1:00 p.m. she again saw RUBY at JOHN NEWNAM's desk and at that time he seemed very dazed. She advised that he just stared into space when she noticed him at NEWNAM's desk. Miss MAYOR informed that she does not know the significance of RUBY being at that one particular spot where he could observe the assassination scene and admitted that she realized the distance was approximately 600 to 800 yards from the "Morning News" Building to the Texas School Book Depository Building.

SPEEDY JOHNSON, 5136 Horseshoe Trail, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On Saturday, November 23, 1963, JOHNSON and a friend, IVAN T. MUNDY, were at the Turf Bar, located at 1515 Commerce Street, Dallas. They had arrived at the Turf Bar at approximately 1:15 p.m. and had had one or two beers when a friend, FRANK BELLOCCHIO, came into the bar. He had with him a copy of the full page ad which had appeared in the Dallas newspaper on the day President KENNEDY arrived in Dallas, which in substance was highly critical of the President. JOHNSON was reading this article aloud while they were seated at the bar and he and MUNDY were discussing the article when a man approached them from behind and remarked that he had already been to the newspaper office concerning the article which JOHNSON was reading. At this time the individual also displayed to JOHNSON and MUNDY three polaroid photographs of a billboard calling for the impeachment of Chief Justice WARREN. He indicated that he had just taken these photographs and mentioned a location probably in north Dallas where the billboard was located. There was also some discussion at this time concerning bumper stickers calling for the impreachment of Chief Justice WARREN and the individual who had approached JOHNSON and MUNDY became rather excited and made some remarks indicating he had not known these stickers had been on display in the Dallas area for a considerable length of time. The individual made other remarks, exact nature not recalled, indicating that he was highly insensed at the criticism of President KENNEDY. This individual then left and ELMER SOLOMON, operator of the Turf Bar then told JOHNSON and MUNDY that the individual who had been talking with them was JACK RUBY.

JOHNSON said that neither he nor MUNDY had not seen JACK RUBY prior to this time or since and could furnish no additional information concerning RUBY.

At 1:00 P.M., December 3, 1963, MARY LAWRENCE, head waitress, B & B Restaurant, Oak Lawn Avenue in Dallas, telephonically advised SA J. DOYLE WILLIAMS she had received an anonymous call from a male caller about 6:00 A.M. on December 3, 1963, who stated: "If you don't want to die, you better get out of town."

LAWRENCE stated she has known JACK RUBY for the past eight years and that she saw him at approximately midnight on November 22, 1963, after the President had been shot or during the early morning hours of November 23, 1963. RUBY was at the B & B Restaurant at that time and was with an individual, possibly identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LAWRENCE was upset because of the call she had received and states she felt the call may have resulted, possibly, because of her acquaintance with JACK RUBY. She stated she knew of no reason why a person should want to kill her, because her acquaintance with RUBY had been on a business basis, based upon her employment as a waitress at various restaurants in Dallas.

LAWRENCE stated her husband is CHARLIE LAWRENCE who is employed by Yellow Transit Company in Dallas and that she lives with her husband at 4325 Chestnut, Mesquite, Texas. She stated her working hours at B&B Restaurant are from 10:45 p.m. to 8:00 a.m.

JOYCE LEE McDONALD, 424½ W. 10th Street, Apartment 3, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce, Dallas, in an attempt to identify an unknown male who visited the Carousel Club during the first part of October, 1963, and was referred to by RUBY as a "real swinger" from Chicago. Miss McDONALD furnished the following information:

Sometime around October 10, 1963, Miss McDONALD was employed on a part-time basis by ROBERT CRAVEN who operated a show at the State Fairgrounds in Dallas. CRAVEN and his partners, BOB MILES and MARVIN GARDNER, had financial difficulty, and as a result wrote a $100 check which JACK RUBY cashed, and which was subsequently returned for lack of funds.

TEXAS

At about the same time that RUBY cashed this check, Miss McDONALD met LAWRENCE V. MEYERS from Chicago at the Carousel Club. During one of several evenings that McDONALD saw MEYERS at the club she had several drinks with him and was told by MEYERS that he had business interests in Chicago, Minneapolis, and Las Vegas, Nevada, and that his headquarters was in Chicago, Illinois. Miss McDONALD did not know the relationship between RUBY and MEYERS, but felt that they knew each other only casually.

One or two days after first meeting MEYERS, Miss McDONALD saw MEYERS at the fairgrounds in Dallas, and having already heard about CRAVEN's bad check for $100, MEYERS gave Miss McDONALD a check signed LAWRENCE V. MEYERS, in the amount of $200, made payable to JACK RUBY, drawn on an unknown Chicago bank. This check was to assist CRAVEN and McDONALD in operating the show at the fairgrounds. After checking with the Chicago bank and learning that the check was good, RUBY cashed the $200 check. McDONALD then reimbursed RUBY the $100 he had lost as a result of CRAVEN's check and kept the remaining $100 for her own personal use.

Miss McDONALD could not explain MEYERS' motive in giving her the $200 and indicated that MEYERS had never made any improper advances to McDONALD, but she felt that he would no doubt make some type of request of her in the future.

McDONALD next saw MEYERS on the evening of November 21, 1963, when he appeared at the Carousel Club with a girl by the name of ANN, whose last name was unknown to McDONALD. ANN indicated to Miss McDONALD that she was originally from Minneapolis, presently living in Chicago, and was a girl friend of MEYERS. Both MEYERS and ANN told Miss McDONALD that they were stopping at the Cabana Motor Hotel in Dallas and were staying in either Room 503 or Room 530. Miss McDONALD had made a date to go shopping with ANN on November 23, 1963, but when she called the Cabana to make the appointment with ANN, she could not locate her. She was told by the operator at the Cabana that Mr. and Mrs. MEYERS were still registered. Miss McDONALD has not seen ANN or MEYERS since that time.

Miss McDONALD recalls that on the evening of Thursday, November 21, 1963, RUBY and MEYERS greeted each other only casually, shook hands, and to the best of her knowledge RUBY and MEYERS had no private conversations during this evening.

McDONALD furnished the following description of MEYERS and ANN:

BRUCE MC LEAN, TEXAS, Trichologist, Operator of McLean Hair Experts, Room 1323, Dallas Athletic Club Building, 1805 Elm Street, advised he was acquainted with JACK RUBY in a professional relationship only, in that RUBY has been a patient of his in connection with RUBY's attempts to restore hair. RUBY is approximately 80% bald and was taking treatment to prevent any advance of this condition.

RUBY took ten treatments during 1950. Since June, 1958, been treated regularly on an almost weekly basis. His records reflect RUBY took treatments on the following dates:

8/1, 8, 15, 25/63;

9/5, 12, 25/63;

10/4, 10, 22/63;

Each treatment took approximately one-half hour and RUBY usually arrived between 6:00 or 6:30 PM for these treatments.

In connection with RUBY's treatment on November 20, 1963, MC LEAN recalled that nothing out of the ordinary occurred and RUBY's main interest seemed to be his business in connection with the Carousel Club. RUBY made no mention of the intended visit of President KENNEDY to Dallas, Texas, on the following Friday.

MC LEAN was not acquainted with RUBY, other than his professional association. He was not acquainted with OSWALD and knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

Recently, a representative with Time Magazine has interviewed him, at which time the representative indicated an interest in whether or not it appeared RUBY had an operation on his skull or caused by the insertion of a silver plate. MC LEAN told the man it was his recollection that RUBY had no scars on his head which would indicate that such an operation had been performed.

Mr. LAWRENCE V. MEYERS, Bro Manufacturing Company, 714 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised that he is employed as sales manager of the Sporting Goods Division of this firm and resides at 3950 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois, with his wife and two children.

Mr. MEYERS advised that during the course of his business contacts he has been required to make frequent trips to Dallas, Texas, over the past several years. On one occasion approximately five years ago he met JACK RUBY at RUBY's night club, and since that time he has visited in RUBY's night club on numerous occasions.

He advised that on November 20, 1963, he flew to Dallas, Texas, where on the night of November 20, 1963, he stayed at the Ramada Motel and checked into the Cabana Motel on the morning of November 21, 1963. He stated he pursued his normal business affairs that date and in the evening following dinner he went to JACK RUBY's Carousel Club. Mr. MEYERS stated that on this trip to Dallas he was accompanied by Miss JEAN WEST whom he had known casually as a resident of 20 East Delaware Street, Chicago, Illinois. He described Miss WEST as a "rather dumb, but accommodating broad". He further pointed out that his association with Miss WEST is not known to members of his family or to his business associates. When he and Miss WEST arrived at the Carousel Club he introduced her to the owner, JACK RUBY, and RUBY joined them at their table, buying Miss WEST two champagne cocktails. He stated that during the course of their stay at the club on that evening the conversation revolved primarily around show personalities, the acts currently appearing at the club and other items of topical interest. He advised that he and Miss WEST remained at the Carousel Club for approximately one hour, returning to their motel at about 11:00 PM. Mr. MEYERS stated while at the Carousel Club he had invited RUBY to join him at the Cabana Motel for a drink with him and his brother, EDWARD MEYERS, and EDWARD's wife, who were attending a convention in Dallas. He said that shortly thereafter JACK RUBY came to the motel where he was introduced to his brother and his wife. RUBY remained at the motel for only a few minutes before he left, saying that he had to return to his club.

Mr. MEYERS stated that his next contact with JACK RUBY was at approximately 10:30 PM, Saturday, November 23, 1963, when RUBY telephoned him at the Cabana Motel. He said that at this time RUBY seemed greatly disturbed over the President's assassination, and that this feeling was compounded by the fact that, according to RUBY, the Colony Club and the Theatre Lounge, which are operated by ABE and BARNEY WEINSTEIN, were remaining open for business in spite of the fact that all other clubs had closed out of respect for the President. MEYERS said that RUBY asked, "what do you think of this awful thing," and "I've got to do something about this.". MEYERS stated although he did not give it any thought at the time he does not now know upon reflection whether RUBY was referring to the WEINSTEIN brother's clubs remaining open or whether he was referring to the assassination of President KENNEDY, at this time. JACK RUBY invited MEYERS to join him for a cup of coffee, but MEYERS declined the invitation and in return invited RUBY to come to the motel to talk, RUBY in turn declined the invitation and at that time it was agreed that they would meet the following evening for dinner. The conversation ended on this note and MEYERS has not been in further contact with JACK RUBY.

Mr. MEYERS stated that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, he drove to Mc Kinney, Texas, where a factory of his firm is located and then continued on to Sherman, Texas, where he intended to play golf. He said that while enroute he had the car radio on and heard the news that RUBY had killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Dallas Police Station. MEYERS stated that his reaction was one of shock and disbelief that RUBY could actually have been involved in such a deed.

MEYERS stated that upon his return to Dallas he debated whether or not to contact the Dallas Police concerning his recent association with RUBY, but decided that in the light of the apparent hectic activities then ensuing at the police station it would be better if he did not do so. MEYERS also stated that he made no effort to contact RUBY.

MEYERS stated that his observations and associations with RUBY over the past five years have culminated in some rather definite ideas as to RUBY's personality. He stated that he regards RUBY as a person who is well aware of his lack of formal education and who, by association with individuals who are well educated and/or well respected, tries to inflate his own position. MEYERS explained that on many occasions RUBY would drop names of well known entertainers, managers and agents, or would make a point of being seen in the company of a public official or respected member of the community. He seemingly felt that by engaging in these activities he would himself, gain stature and importance. He stated that RUBY has always impressed him as a gregarious individual who genuinely liked to be with people and in order to promote this need and to encourage business at his club would pass out drink cards free to any group with which he came in contact. He stated that although he, MEYERS, was never introduced to any police officers in Dallas, RUBY on many occasions would identify various individuals in the club as being members of the Dallas Police Department. He stated that through past conversations with RUBY he is of the impression that RUBY was well known to most of the members of the Dallas Police Department.

MEYERS continued that he does not consider RUBY to be an emotionally stable person and that RUBY has always been very emphatic concerning his likes and dislikes. He stated that RUBY seldom, if ever, takes a middle of the road attitude, but would rather have a strong leaning toward one or the other extreme. MEYERS advised that he feels JACK RUBY would usually act on the spur of the moment, being quick to either help or to fight. In this regard, he commented that JACK RUBY had seemed rather perturbed on his last three or four visits and in fact, poured out his troubles to MEYERS regarding other clubs that were in competition to RUBY's. Specifically RUBY mentioned that the actors unions had caused them to quit engaging in amateur nights wherein girls with no experience would try out as strippers in the night clubs.

MEYERS stated that RUBY had stopped this practice but that the clubs operated by the WEINSTEIN brothers had continued to do this and that he had hoped he could get the union managements to change their rule and allow this practice to continue. Regarding RUBY being "quick to fight" he said he meant he did not mean physically, inasmuch as he had never seen JACK RUBY in a physical fight, but was referring to RUBY's quick and firm convictions.

He stated that he had never seen RUBY with a gun but on one occasion when RUBY had closed the club, MEYERS accompanied him to his automobile where he placed the night's proceeds in the trunk of the car. Something was said at the time which gave MEYERS the impression that RUBY sometimes maintained a gun in the trunk of his car because of the sums of money that he was required to remove from the club.

Regarding his general association with RUBY he stated that to his knowledge RUBY drank very little, was a "health nut" and had a deep interest in physical fitness. He said in this regard he at one time had obtained a set of barbells for RUBY's personal use. He continued that he did not know of any close friends or associates of RUBY's, but mentioned that he had met GEORGE SENATOR in RUBY's place of business on several occasions. He advised he does not know if SENATOR had any official connection with the club or not. He stated that he can place no credence in the newspaper queries that RUBY had any connection or acquaintance whatsoever with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or any Chicago hoodlums. He stated that regarding the latter he is sure that knowing MEYERS was from Chicago, he would have at some time or another dropped the name of someone engaged in underworld activities in the Chicago area in hopes of enhancing his own level of importance in MEYERS's eyes. MEYERS also said that although he does not know anything about JACK RUBY's political affiliations RUBY has never given him any reason whatsoever to think that he has any communistic tendencies or interests.

He said that he had formed the opinion that RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD for one of two reasons, "that RUBY sincerely felt he was ridding the world of vermin in shooting OSWALD" or that he "elected himself executioner because of his deep sympathy for the President's family".

EDWARD MEYERS who resides at 1779 East 34th Street, Brooklyn, New York, telephone ES 5-2738, and who is the owner and operator of the Queens Beverage Company, a distributor for Pepsi Cola Company, was interviewed at his office, 9701 Avenue D. Brooklyn, New York, on December 5, 1963. He furnished the following information:

He and his wife had planned to attend the convention of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages, Dallas, Texas, the week of November 18, 1963.

He had decided to combine this with a vacation trip to Mexico City and visit his wife's sister.

Prior to leaving on this trip, his brother, LAWRENCE MEYERS, had visited him in New York and said that he would be in Dallas, Texas, during the same week. They made arrangements to contact one another while in Dallas.

EDWARD MEYERS left with his wife on November 8, 1963, and went to Mexico City. He returned from Mexico City to Dallas, Texas, on the 18th of November via San Antonio, Texas, on American Airlines.

LAWRENCE MEYERS called EDWARD MEYERS at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, Texas, on the evening of November 21, 1963, to make arrangements to have dinner together. EDWARD MEYERS was unable to have dinner with his brother, but after subsequent telephone contact, he did meet his brother at the Bon Vivant Room of the Cabana Motel about midnight, November 21. EDWARD MEYERS pointed out that his reservation at the Adolphus Hotel had previously been made for him by the Pepsi Cola Company.

At the Bon Vivant Room of the Cabana Motel, LAWRENCE MEYERS introduced EDWARD MEYERS to JACK RUBY. He knew it was just about midnight because it was too late for them to order any drinks due to a local ordinance.

EDWARD MEYERS chatted with RUBY about five minutes. He recalled that RUBY was very talkative and tried to get him interested in a "twist board" which MEYERS said was some type of promotional gimmick. MEYERS told RUBY he was not interested. Then RUBY had to leave to go back to his club. Present at the time were EDWARD MEYERS, his wife, his brother, LAWRENCE MEYERS, and a female companion of his brother, name unknown to EDWARD MEYERS.

EDWARD MEYERS returned to New York, New York via air November 22, 1963, leaving Dallas Airport early in the afternoon. He did observe President JOHN F. KENNEDY's arrival at Dallas at the Dallas Airport.

The above was the only contact he had ever had with RUBY. He knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He had never seen OSWALD at any time. He has never been in the Carousel Club.

Detective D. L. BLANKENSHIP, Special Service Branch, Dallas, Texas Police Department, who resides at 2807 Province Lane, Dallas, was contacted concerning his joint arrest, with Detective E. E. CARLSON, of JACK LEON RUBY on December 5, 1954 for alleged violation by RUBY of the State Liquor Law. BLANKENSHIP was advised he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he could consult an attorney at any time he desired. BLANKENSHIP voluntarily advised as follows:

A copy of the "Arresting Officer's Report", arrest number 54814, dated December 5, 1954, reflecting JACK LEON RUBY, 1719½ South Ervay, was arrested by Dallas Police Officers D. L. BLANKENSHIP and E. E. CARLSON for "Inv. Vio. State Liquor Law - having beer on table after hours," was exhibited to BLANKENSHIP.

The report states "Give complete details as to what you know, what you saw or what you were told about suspect which prompted this arrest:" The following comments were reflected on the report in answer to the above:

"This man is the owner and operator of the Silver Club located at 1717 S Ervay, was in charge tonight at the time arresting officers saw bottle partly fill with Schlitz beer on the table occupied by Eugenia Mary O'Brien and Mary Jane Schultz. When Blankenship attempted to get the bottle Miss O'Brien tried to hold the bottle and said that it was her beer.
TLCB Number will be attached to this sheet.
The bottle of Schlitz was about half full of beer, placed in the property room."

A copy of the "Case Report" concerning the arrest of JACK LEON RUBY on December 5, 1954 by officers BLANKENSHIP and CARLSON, identification number 36398 was also exhibited to BLANKENSHIP. This report reflects RUBY was charged with "Violation Art. II, Sec. 13 (16) permitting consumption during forbidden hours on Sunday." Under "Summary of Case" it was stated that "This man is the owner and operator of the Silver Club located at 1717 South Ervay and was present and in charge at the time. He permitted Eugenia Mary O'Brien and Mary Jane Schultz to consume a part of a bottle of Schlitz beer during forbidden hours on Sunday."

BLANKENSHIP stated that the curfew hours on Sunday morning for the sale and consumption of alcholic beverages is 1:15 A.M.

BLANKENSHIP believed either he or CARLSON prepared the "Case Report" since it was a policy during 1954 for the arresting officers to prepare case reports when persons were arrested by them.

BLANKENSHIP advised that to the best of his recollection the "Details" set out above as reflected on the "Arresting Officer's Report," and the "Summary of Case" set out above as reflected on the "Case Report", are true and correct. He does not recall at this time whether or not he actually saw the customers consuming beer after hours at the Silver Club, but he said that from previous experience he did not arrest a night club owner unless he saw the night club owner's customers actually consuming beer after hours. He added that since JACK LEON RUBY was arrested for the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD,he checked the identification record of RUBY and learned that the above mentioned arrest made by him and officer E. E. CARLSON had been dismissed.

BLANKENSHIP related that after he and officer CARLSON arrested RUBY in 1954 and charged him, as stated above, he heard nothing further concerning the matter and he had nothing to do with the dismissal. Furthermore, he stated no one ever contacted him about the charge against RUBY.

The following information appearing in a "Motion of District Attorney to Dismiss Prosecution," filed in Dallas County Criminal Court Number 3 on February 8, 1955, under Docket number 1788-C (naming EUGENIA MARY O'BRIEN as customer), in the case of the State of Texas versus JACK LEON RUBY, was read to BLANKENSHIP:

"This is a liquor violation case. The witnesses in this case officers Blankenship and Carleon advised that they conducted the investigation, but that it was filed without their knowledge. The police report stated that they observed customers consuming beer after hours. Both officers stated that this is incorrect and they did not observe the customers consuming beer. It is recommended that this case be dismissed because of insufficient evidence."

Signed "Lem Brotherton, Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas; Henry Wade, District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas."

A "Motion of District Attorney to Dismiss Prosecution," filed in Dallas County Criminal Court Number 3 on February 8, 1955, under Docket Number 1789-C (naming MARY JANE SCHULTZ as customer), which reflected the same information as Docket Number 1788-C, was called to CARLSON's attention.

In relation to the above, BLANKENSHIP advised it is possible, though not probable, that his report was filed without his knowledge.

Concerning the statement appearing in the above mentioned "Motion" that "The police report states that they (arresting officers) observed customers consuming beer after hours. Both officers stated that this is incorrect and they did not observe the customers consuming beer," BLANKENSHIP commented as follows:

He does not recall being contacted by anyone in the Dallas County District Attorney's Office, or by anyone else, and advising them that "this is incorrect." To the best of his recollection the statement "this is incorrect," appearing in the "Motion" is false.

BLANKENSHIP stated he had known RUBY for sometime prior to December, 1954, when he and officer E. E. CARLSON arrested RUBY but BLANKENSHIP was unable to recall the specific date he first became acquainted with him. BLANKENSHIP said he did, however, become acquainted with RUBY when he was on the Vice Squad and through a routine check of RUBY's night club. BLANKENSHIP added he has been on the Vice Squad (Special Service Bureau) for about twelve years.

BLANKENSHIP related that since he has been on the Vice Squad, he had made official visits to RUBY's night clubs on numerous occasions, since the Vice Squad has the responsibility of seeing that performances at all night clubs at Dallas are orderly and "clean". He added that outside of his official visits to RUBY's night clubs, he has been to RUBY's clubs as a customer on two or three occasions. On these occasions, he did not pay the cover charge but did pay for the beer and food served to him.

The last time BLANKENSHIP visited one of RUBY's clubs was approximately the latter part of October, 1963, when BLANKENSHIP took his wife to the Vegas Club.

BLANKENSHIP said he has never been employed by RUBY and he has never had any social contacts with him.

He described RUBY as an egotistical person with a quick temper, nervous, fidgety and he never relaxes. RUBY likes to be a "big dog" and he likes to be noticed, according to BLANKENSHIP. He added that RUBY never discussed politics in his presence. He stated that he has never had any reason to question the loyalty of RUBY to the United States Government.

BLANKENSHIP advised that all police officers assigned to the Vice Squad probably know RUBY but he knew of none who is closely acquainted with RUBY or who might consider RUBY a friend. He knew of no police officer who has worked for RUBY.

BLANKENSHIP related it is his understanding that RUBY was an acquaintance of JOE BONDS, former night club owner in Dallas, who was arrested and sentenced in approximately 1955 to 15 years in the State Penitentiary, Huntsville, Texas, on the charge of sodomy.

BLANKENSHIP advised he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. BLANKENSHIP never saw OSWALD in RUBY's night clubs.

BLANKENSHIP said he was off duty on the day OSWALD was shot by RUBY. He said he has no idea how RUBY gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas City Hall on the morning of November 24, 1963.

BLANKENSHIP stated he did not see or talk with RUBY at any time between November 22, 1963 and November 24, 1963.

Detective E. E. CARLSON, Identification Bureau, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, who resides at 5733 Penrose, Dallas, was contacted concerning his joint arrest, with Detective D. L. BLANKENSHIP, of JACK LEON RUBY on December 5, 1954, for alleged violation by RUBY of the State Liquor Law. CARLSON was advised he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he could consult an attorney at any time he desired. CARLSON voluntarily advised as follows:

A copy of the "Arresting Officer's Report," arrest no. 54814, dated December 5, 1954, reflecting JACK LEON RUBY, 1719 1/2 South Ervay, was arrested by Dallas police officers D. L. BLANKENSHIP and E. E. CARLSON, for "Inv. Vio. State Liquor Law - Having beer on table after hours," was exhibited to CARLSON.

The Report states, "Give complete details as to what you know, what you saw or what you were told about suspect which prompted this arrest:" The following comments were reflected on the Report in answer to the above:

"This man is the owner and operator of the Silver Club located at 1717 S Ervay, was in charge tonight at the time arresting officers saw bottle partly fill with Schlitz beer on the table occupied by Eugenia Mary O'Brien and Mary Jane Schultz. When Blankenship attempted to get the bottle Miss O'Brien tried to hold the bottle and said that it was her beer.
TLCB Number will be attached to this sheet.
The bottle of Schlitz was about half full of beer, placed in the property room."

CARLSON obtained from the Identification File of JACK LEON RUBY, Identification No. 36398, a copy of the "Case Report" concerning the arrest of RUBY on December 5, 1954, by Officer BLANKENSHIP and him. This report reflects RUBY was charged with "Violation Art. II, Sec. 19 (16) Permitting consumption during forbidden hours on Sunday." Under "Summary of Case" it was stated that "This man is the owner and operator of the Silver Club located at 1717 South Ervay and was present and in charge at the time. He permitted Eugenia Mary O'Brien and Mary Jane Schultz to consume a part of a bottle of Schlitz beer during forbidden hours on Sunday."

CARLSON believes he typed the above "Case Report" as he recognized certain wording and punctuation in the report.

CARLSON advised that to the best of his recollection the "Details" set out above, as reflected on the "Arresting Officer's Report," and the "Summary of Case" set out above, as reflected on the "Case Report," are true and correct, although he does not recall seeing the customers actually consuming beer after hours. He added that he never withdrew the above charge. He said he observed from the "Case Report" that the charge against RUBY was dismissed. He added that after he arrested RUBY and charged him, as stated above, he heard nothing further concerning the matter and he had nothing to do with the dismissal. Furthermore, he stated no one ever contacted him about the charge against RUBY.

The following information appearing in a "Motion of District Attorney to Dismiss Prosecution," filed in Dallas County Criminal Court No. 3, on February 8, 1955, under Docket No. 1788-C (naming EUGENIA MARY O'BRIEN as customer), in the case of the State of Texas vs. JACK LEON RUBY, was read to CARLSON:

> "This is a liquor violation case. The witnesses in this case Officers Blankenship and Carleon advised that they conducted the investigation, but that it was filed without their knowledge. The police report states that they observed customers consuming beer after hours. Both officers stated that this is incorrect and they did not observe the customers consuming beer. It is recommended that this case be dismissed because of insufficient evidence."
> Signed: "LEM BROTHERTON, Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas; HENRY WADE, District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas."

A "Motion of District Attorney to Dismiss Prosecution," filed in Dallas County Criminal Court No. 3 on February 8, 1955, under Docket no. 1789-C (naming MARY JANE SCHULTZ as customer), which reflected the same information as Docket no. 1788-C, was called to CARLSON's attention.

In relation to the above, CARLSON advised it is possible, though not probable, that his report was filed without his knowledge. CARLSON pointed out that the "Arresting Officer's Report" reflects the offense as being "Inv. Vio. State Liquor Law - Having beer on table after hours" and under "Details" of that report it is not stated that the arresting officers observed customers consuming beer after hours, but does state that the arresting officers saw a Schlitz beer bottle, about half full of beer, on the table of customers after hours.

CARLSON checked his files and no arrest record for EUGENIA MARY O'BRIEN or MARY JANE SCHULTZ was located.

CARLSON also pointed out that the "Case Report," mentioned above, believed to have been typed by him, states the charge as "Violation Art. II,

"Sec 19 (16) Permitting consumption during forbidden hours on Sunday" and under "Summary of Case" it was stated that RUBY permitted customers to consume a part of a bottle of Schlitz beer during forbidden hours on Sunday.

CARLSON said to the best of his recollection, as mentioned previously, he did not see the customers actually consuming the beer after hours, but did see a partly filled bottle of beer on the customers' table after hours.

Concerning the statement appearing in the above-mentioned "motion" that "the police report states that they (arresting officers) observed customers consuming beer after hours. Both officers stated that this is incorrect and they did not observe the customers consuming beer," CARLSON commented as follows:

He does not now recall being contacted by anyone in the Dallas County District Attorney's Office, or by anyone else, and advising them that "this is incorrect." To the best of his recollection the statement "this is incorrect." appearing in the "motion," is false.

CARLSON made available a copy of Vernon's Penal Code of the State of Texas Annotated, Volume 1 A, which contains Title II (concerning malt liquors), Article 667, Section 19, paragraph 16, of the Texas Liquor Control Act, which states as follows:

> "Violated any provisions of this act or any rule or regulation of the board at any time during the existence of the license sought to be cancelled or within the next preceding license period of any license held by the licensee."

Paragraph 17 of this same Section reads as follows:

> "Consumed or permitted the consumption of alcoholic beverages on the licensed premises during any time when such consumption is prohibited as provided in Section 4 (c) of Article 1 of the Texas Liquor Control Act."

CARLSON advised that the curfew hour on Sunday morning for the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages is 2:00 a.m.

CARLSON advised he first met JACK RUBY in early 1954 when he was assigned to the Vice Squad. He said Detective D. L. HAWKINSHIP, who was also on the Vice Squad at that time, introduced him to RUBY.

He said while on the Vice Squad it was his duty to check burlesque shows from time to time and for a period of about two years he checked out RUBY's Club Vegas and found his place was orderly and "clean" at all times. He said that since he left the Vice Squad he has patronized RUBY's Club Vegas and Carousel Club several times as a customer. He added that on two or three occasions, during his visits to RUBY's clubs, RUBY would not let him pay the cover charge or pay for beer.

He stated the last time he visited one of RUBY's clubs was about two or three weeks before RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. On that occasion he invited a friend, LOUIS BONNEY, part-time instructor, North Texas State University, Denton, Texas, to accompany him to the Carousel Club. CARLSON said neither he nor BONNEY paid the cover charge or for two beers consumed by each. He said this was the first time he had been to RUBY's club in approximately one year.

CARLSON related he has never worked for JACK RUBY and he has had no social relationship with RUBY. He described RUBY as a nervous, fidgety person who always seemed interested in how a person felt about him. He has seen RUBY lose his temper a number of times, but never in a violent state. CARLSON said RUBY never mentioned former President KENNEDY to him, nor did he ever discuss politics.

CARLSON declined to answer the following questions:

1. Do you know of any Dallas Police Officers who are personal friends of JACK RUBY?

2. Do you know of any Dallas Police Officers who are personally acquainted with JACK RUBY?

3. Do you know of any Dallas Police Officers who formerly worked for JACK RUBY?

CARLSON stated he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he had never seen OSWALD in RUBY's night clubs. He knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

CARLSON related he was at his home, off duty, on the morning that OSWALD was shot by JACK RUBY.

He had no opinion as to how JACK RUBY gained entrance to the basement of City Hall on the morning RUBY shot OSWALD.

LEOPOLDO RAMOS DUCOS, Supra, advised that ANA MARIA DEL VALLE voluntarily appeared at his office on November 26, 1963. She related information that MIGUEL CRUZ told her, "We killed KENNEDY and the next will be RAMOS DUCOS". RAMOS DUCOS had no additional information concerning this statement.

RAMOS DUCOS also related the following:

RAMOS DUCOS formerly was an Organizer of Local 901, Teamsters Union, from 1960 until March, 1962. During this period, he heard FRANK CHAVEZ, Secretary-Treasurer of that Local, mention the name of one JACK RUBY as someone connected with Teamsters Union.

P.R.

Sometime in about September, 1961, FRANK CHAVEZ told RAMOS DUCOS that CHAVEZ had an appointment to meet RICHARD KAVNER, International Vice President of Teamsters Union, and JACK RUBY as well as a third Teamsters official whose name RAMOS DUCOS could not recall. The meeting was to be in San Juan, but RAMOS DUCOS could not furnish any further details. He had neither seen nor talked to JACK RUBY who allegedly killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Dallas, Texas, on November 24, 1963.

On December 5, 1963, the Bureau supplied the following copy of a letter and an eight-page statement received at the Bureau on December 5, 1963, from Mr. CARROLL JARNAGIN, Attorney at Law, 511 North Akard Building, Room 428, Dallas, Texas:

"Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D.C.

"Dear Mr. Hoover,

"On Oct. 4, 1963 I was in the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas, and while there I heard Jack Ruby talking to a man using the name of H. L. Lee. These men were talking about plans to kill the Governor of Texas. This information was passed on to the Texas Department of Public Safety on Oct. 5, 1963 by telephone. On Sunday Nov 24, 1963 I definitely realized that the picture in the Nov. 23, 1963 Dallas Times Herald of Lee Harvey Oswald was a picture of the man using the name of H. L. Lee whose conversation with Jack Ruby I had overheard back on Oct. 4, 1963. I thereafter attempted to recall as much of the Oct. 4, 1963 conversation with as much accuracy as possible, and to reduce it to writing. The enclosed original and two copies of this report are true to the best of my own personal knowledge and belief; and this report is sent to you for whatever use it may be in assisting the F.B.I. in your current investigation. If and when you see fit, I have no objection to the copies of this report being sent by you to the District Attorney of Dallas County and to the Attorney General of Texas, and to any other officials to whom you may see fit to disclose this information. My only request is that my identity remain undisclosed as long as possible.
Respectfully Submitted,

"Yours Very Sincerely,

"(signed)

"Report of events which took place in The Carousel Club 1312 1/2 Commerce Street Dallas, Texas on Friday Oct. 4, 1963 from about 10 P.M. until about 11:45 P.M. The club is located on the second floor, and is entered by a stairway leading up from the sidewalk on the South side of Commerce Street.

Witness, who is an attorney, and a client, who is an 'exotic dancer', walk up the stairs to the Carousel Club Oct. 4, 1963 at about 10PM, on business, the dancer, stage name 'Robin Hood', desires to talk with Jack Ruby, the owner of the club, about securing securing a booking for employment. The witness and the dancer enter the club, and sit down at the second table on the right from the entrance; the dancer faces the stage, which is against the East wall and to the left, North, of the passage way which leads East from the second floor entrance door; and the witness sits facing the entrance doorway; the ticket booth is at the South end of the landing at the top of the stairs, and the entrance door way of the second floor is to the left coming off the landing, that is East would be the direction a person faces entering the club. Several minutes after the witness and the dancer are seated, the witness notices a man appear in the lighted entrance area and tell the girl in the ticket booth: ' I want to see Jack Ruby.' In a short period of time the bouncer appears and with a flash light shines a beam of light upon the ceiling on the inside of the club at the entrance area. The man who has aked to see Jack Ruby is dressed in a tan jacket, has brown hair, needs a haircut, is wearing a sport shirt, and is about 5' 9 or 10" in height, his general appearance is somewhat unkempt, and he does mt appear to be dressed for night-clubing; he, the new arrival, sits with his back to the wall at the first table to his right from the entrance area; after a few minutes he orders and is served a bottle of beer; he continues to sit alone and appears to be staring at the dancer; the dancer leaves the table and the new arrival stares intently at the witness; the witness notices that the new arrival's eyes are dark, and his face is unsmiling; after some minutes a man dressed in a dark suit, about 45-50 years of age, partially bald, medium height and medium to heavy build, dark hair, and more or less hawk faced in appearance from the side, joins the new arrival at the table; the new arrival appeared to be about 25 years of age; (the older man dressed in the dark suit was later indicated by the dancer to be Jack Ruby); and the following conversation was overheard:

"Jack Ruby: '--------(some name not clearly heard or not definitely recalled by the witess)--what are you going here?'
Man who had been sitting alone: 'Don't call me by my name,..'
Jack Ruby: 'What name are you using?'
Man who had been sitting alone: ' I'm using the name of H.L.Lee.'
Jack Ruby: 'What do you want?'
Lee: 'I need some money,.'
Jack Ruby: ' Money?'
Lee: ' I just got in from New Orleans, I need a place to stay, -and a job.'
Jack Ruby: ' I noticed you hadn't been around in two or three weeks, what were you doing in New Orleans? '
Lee: 'There was a street fight, and I got put in jail.'
Ruby: 'What charge?'
Lee: 'Disturbing the peace.'
Ruby: 'How did you get back?'
Lee: 'Hitch-hiked, I just got in.'
Ruby: 'Don't you have a family, can't you stay with them?'
Lee: 'They are in Irving, they know nothing about this; I want to get a place to myself; they don't know I'm back.'
Ruby: 'You'll get the money after the job is done.'
Lee: 'What about half now, and half after the job is done?'
Ruby: 'No, but don't worry, I'll have the money for you, after the job is done.'
Lee: 'How much?'
Ruby:'We've already agreedon that..'
(Ruby leans forward, and some of the conversation following is not heard by the witness)
Ruby: 'How do I know that you can do the job?'
Lee: 'It's simple, I'm a Marine sharpshooter.'
Ruby: 'Are you sure that ycu can do the job without hitting anybody but the Governor?'
Lee: 'I'm sure, I've got the equipment ready.'
Ruby: 'Have you tested it, will you need to practice any?'
Lee: 'Don't worry about that, I don't need any practice; when will the Governor be here?'
Ruby: 'Oh, he'll be here plenty of times during campaigns...'
(distraction....)
Lee: 'Where can I do the job?'
Ruby: 'From the roof of some building.'
Lee: 'No, thats too risky, too many people around.'
Ruby: 'But they'll be watching the parade, they won't notice you.'
Lee: 'But afterwards, they would tear me to pieces before I could get away.'

"Ruby: 'Then do it from here (indicating the North end of the Carousel Club) from a window.'
Lee: 'How would I get in?'
Ruby: 'I'll tell the porter to let you in?'
Lee: 'But won't there be people in the place?'
Ruby: 'I can close the place for the parade, and leave word with the porter to let you.'
Lee: 'But what about the porter..'
Ruby: 'I can tell him to leave after letting you in, he won't know anything.'
Lee: ' I don't want any witnesses around when I do the job.'
Ruby: 'You'll be alone.'
Lee: 'How do I get away, there won't be much time afterwards.'
Ruby: 'You can run out the back door.'
Lee: 'What about the rifle, what do I do if the police run in while I'm running out?'
Ruby: 'Hide the rifle, you just heard the shot and ran in from the parade to see what was going on; in the confusion you can walk out the front door in the crowd.'
Lee: 'No, they might shoot me first; there must be time for me to get out the back way before the police come in; can you lock the front door after I come in, and leave the back door open?'
Ruby: 'That would get me involved, how could I explain you in my club with a rifle and the front door locked?'
Lee: 'You left the front door open, and it was locked from inside when somebody slipped in while you were outside watching the parade.'
Ruby: ---(distraction---)
Lee: 'But what about the money, when do I get the money?'
Ruby: 'I'll have it here for you.'
Lee: 'But when? I'm not going to have much time after the shooting to get away.'
Ruby: 'I'll have the money on me, and I'll run in first and hand it to you, and you can run on out the back way.'
Lee: 'I can't wait long, why can't you leave the money in here?'
Ruby 'How do I know you'll do the job?'
Lee: 'How do I know you will show up with the money after the job is done?'
Ruby: 'You can trust me, besides, you'll have the persuader.'
Lee: 'The rifle, I want to get away from it as soon as its used."
Ruby: 'You can trust me.'

Lee: 'What about giving me half of the money just before the job is done, and then you can send me the other half later?'
Ruby: 'I can't turn loose of the money until the job is done; if there's a slip up and you don't get him, they'll pick the money up, immediately; I couldn't tell them that I gave half of it to you in advance; they'd think I doublecrossed them. I would have to return all of the money. People think I have a lot of money, but I couldn't raise half of that amount even by selling everything I have. You'll just have to trust me to hand you the money as soon as the job is done. There is no other way. Remember, they want the job done just as bad as you want the money; and after this is done, they may want to use you again.'
Lee: 'Not that it makes me any difference, but what have you got against the Governor?'
Ruby: 'He won't work with us on paroles; with a few of the right boys out we could really open up this State, with a little cooperation from the Governor. The boys in Chicago have no place to go, no place to really operate; they've clamped down the lid in Chicago; Cuba is closed; everything is dead, look at this place, half empty; if we can open up this State we could pack this place every night, those boys will spend, if they have the money; and remember, we're right next to Mexico; there'd be money for everybody, if we can open up this State.'
Lee: 'How do you know that the Governor won't work with you?'
Ruby: 'Its no use, he's been in Washington too long, they're too straight up there; after they've been there awhile they get to thinking like the Attorney General. The Attorney General, now there's a guy the boys would like to get, but its no use, he stays in Washington too much.'
Lee: ' A rifle shoots as far in Washington as is does here, doesn't it?'
Ruby: 'Forget it, that would bring the heat on everywhere, and the Feds would get into everything, no, forget about the Attorney General.'
Lee: 'Killing the Governor of Texas will put the heat on too, won't it?'
Ruby: 'Not really, they'll think some crack-pot or communist did it, and it will be written off as an unsolved crime.'
Lee: ' That is if I get away.'
Ruby: 'You'll get away, all you have to do is run out the back door.'

"Lee: 'What kind of door is there back there, it won't accidently lock on me will it?'
Ruby: 'No, you can get out that way without any trouble.'
Lee: 'It doesn't open onto an open fire escape, does it? I don't want to run out onto an open fire escape with a rifle in my hand right after the shooting.'
Ruby: 'No, its a safe way out, I'll show you, but not now.'
(distraction------)
Lee: 'There's really only one building to do it from, one that covers Main, Elm, and Commerce.'
Ruby: 'Which one is that?'
Lee: 'The School Book Building, close to the triple underpass.'
Ruby: 'What's wrong with doing it from here?'
Lee: 'What if he goes down another street? '
(distraction-------)
Lee: (looking up and staring directly at the witness) Who is that? he's from the F.B.I.'
Ruby: (half turning in his chair, looks at witness who tries to appear to be looking at the floor show); Ruby gets the attention of the exotic dancer who says: 'Mr. Ruby, can I see you on business?' Ruby: 'Yes, later, but come here now.'
(The dancer moves her chair over to the other table and remains for two or three minutes.. the conversation is too low to hear; when the dancer returns to the witnesses table she says: 'What was that about? They asked me if you were with the F.B.I., I told them you were an advertising man from Arizona; you're not with the F.B.I., are you?'
Witness: 'No. '
Lee and Ruby hudle closer over the table, and talk in lower tones----
Lee: 'I know he's from the F.B.I., they talked with me in New Orleans, and they followed me.'
Ruby: 'He couldn't hear anything over there.'
Lee: ' He heard everything, we'll have to get rid of him.'
Ruby: 'No, they work in pairs, ....we'll have to think of something else..'
--Ruby and Lee talk in inaudible tones...Ruby leaves and makes some introductions of guests from a microphone close to the stage; later returns to the table and asks Lee to come over and meet a celebrity; a spot light is turned on the table at which Ruby has made some introductions, and at least one flash photo appeared to have been made by the night-club girl photographer, which possibly included Lee in the back of the other guests at the spot lighted table, standing;)

"Some twenty or thirty minutes later, Lee walks out alone; in a few minutes the witness and the dancer walk out; at the bottom of the stairway partially blocking the doorway Lee is standing; he stares intently at the witness, and appears to have his hand in his jacket; after some delay the witness manages to to position a departing customer between himself and Lee.

---

"The next morning, Oct. 5, 1963, Saturday, the witness telephoned the Texas Department of Public Safety at the number listed on the first page inside the cover of the Dallas Telephone Driectory, and the gist of the above over-heard conversation was reported, with the request that it be relayed to the Governor, and the witness was assured that this would be done.

---

"On Sunday Nov. 24, 1963 the witness realized with certainty that the photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald printed in the Nov. 23, 1963 issue of the Dallas Times Herald was a photograph of the man using the name of H.L.Lee whose conversation with Jack Ruby in the Carousel Club on Oct. 4, 1963 the witness had over-heard to a substantial extent.

---

"This witness's account perhaps can be substantiated if the photos made in the Carousel Club on the night of Oct. 4, 1963 in fact show H.L.Lee-Oswald to have been present. The 'exotic dancer', stage name 'Robin Hood', real name Shirley Mauldin, may be able to recall some of the events above related; her last address was 3621 McKinney Ave. Apt. 211 B. Dallas, Texas, she uses a theatrical booking agent in St. Louis, Mo., name unknown to witness, and she indicated on Oct. 4, 1963 that she was booked for appearances in St. Paul, Minn. the following week. The colored porter at the Carousel Club may be able to recall part of the events described; and the M.C., entertainers, and customers at the club at the time may be able to recall part of the events. The date of Oct. 4, 1963 has been established with certainty as far as the witness is concerned, by referring back to notes made and dated then in regard to telephone calls made to him in the course of his business by the 'exotic dancer', a client."

CARROLL ERSKINE JARNAGIN, Attorney, with offices at 511 North Akard, Room 428, Telephone RI 7-9486, residence 5016 Northway, Telephone EM 8-4036, was interviewed at the Dallas Office of the FBI.

At the outset of this interview, Title 18, Section 1001, U. S. Code, was read to Mr. JARNAGIN and he advised that he understood the provisions of this article.

He related a conversation which he stated he had overheard at the Club Carousel, Dallas, Texas, on October 4, 1963, when he was in the company of a strip teaser known as ROBIN HOOD. He stated that seated at the next table to them was JACK RUBY and the man whom he has now identified as LEE HARVEY OSWALD from newspaper photographs.

He stated that he heard them discussing what he felt the next day was a plot to assassinate the Governor of the state of Texas. When asked if he specifically recalled these men mentioning the word "Governor," he stated that he believes they first said "SHIVERS," and later referred to the word "Governor" and he interpreted their remarks to be about Governor CONNALLY since he knew that Governor SHIVERS had not been the Governor for several years.

JARNAGIN advised that he first became aware of the fact that the individual he saw at JACK RUBY's table at the Carousel on October 4, 1963, was OSWALD when he saw OSWALD's picture in the paper on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963. He stated that he had neglected to report this information to the FBI until he had time to write down everything he could recall about the incident, and stated that when he had completed writing this down in a lengthy statement, he submitted same by mail directly to J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director, FBI, Washington, D. C.

He explained his submission to Washington, D. C., rather than the FBI Office, Dallas, to avoid newspaper publicity. He stated that his delay in submitting this information was due to the fact that he wanted to be sure that he had recalled correctly all of the conversation which he heard on the night of October 4, 1963.

by Special Agents RALPH E. HAWLINGS and BARDWELL D. ODUM :lp Date dictated 12/10/63

At this time he repeated the information set forth in his lengthy written statement submitted to the FBI, Washington, D. C., with a letter dated December 3, 1963. One change in the information related by him with that previously submitted in writing was that when he related a portion of the events allegedly occurring on October 4, 1963, at the Club Carousel, he was asked who RUBY introduced as a celebrity, and he stated that he did not see this person that JACK RUBY mentioned and thus, is not sure that this individual was there. He was then asked what name was called out by JACK RUBY as being the person at the table indicated, and JARNAGIN replied "General WALKER." JARNAGIN was immediately asked if he had not placed General WALKER in his story on this date because of the publicity given on December 6, 1963, in the Dallas newspapers and on Dallas radio stations regarding the report that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was the person who took a shot at General WALKER on April 10, 1963. No previous mention had been made of this in the press until December 6, 1963. JARNAGIN denied that he had even read a paper that day (December 6, 1963), but finally admitted that he had heard the news on his alarm radio on the early morning of December 6, 1963, but did not recall hearing General WALKER's name.

He was asked why he had not mentioned General WALKER's name in the written statement furnished by him with his letter of December 3, 1963, and he stated that he did not include his name because he did not recognize General WALKER at the Carousel Club on the night of October 4, 1963, and does not believe he was there.

JARNAGIN advised that on the evening of December 6, 1963, prior to being interviewed, he had considered the possibility that his mind was playing a trick on him and that he imagined the conversation, but he stated that he had reached the conclusion that this was not true, and that he did hear the conversation as related.

JARNAGIN advised that he has never had a mental or nervous breakdown, but that he does have an alcoholic problem and has considered the possibility of joining Alcoholics Anonymous. He also stated that his ex-wife, in divorce precedings, indicated that his drinking was part of the reason for her getting a divorce.

JARNAGIN admitted that on the night of October 4, 1963, he was drunk, but stated that he still believes he could recall the events that occurred. He advised that he and ROBIN HOOD and others had "killed" one bottle and were working on a second when the alleged conversation took place at about 10:00 PM, and further, that he had had nothing to eat since about 12:00 noon on that date.

JARNAGIN advised that on the morning of October 5, 1963, he woke up and immediately realized that he had overheard what he thought was a plot to assassinate the Governor of Texas. He then called the Texas Department of Public Safety, Dallas Office, and talked to a man who assured him he was a State Highway Patrolman. He did not furnish this patrolman his name but told him of the conversation and requested that the patrolman immediately communicate the information to the Governor at Austin. JARNAGIN stated he believes this was when he first woke up, either at 8:00 AM or 12:00 noon. He stated that a little later, he remembered something else and again called and talked to this man. This man told him that he had already related the information to Austin, Texas, via radio.

At this point, it was brought to the attention of JARNAGIN that such information would not be put on the air on State Police radio and he then remarked that what the patrolman had said was that he would "call" the information to Austin and that he, JARNAGIN, assumed that he meant to call on the radio.

JARNAGIN advised that ROBIN HOOD's true name is SHIRLEY MAULDIN and that she could probably be located through her mother, EDNA DORAN, or EDNA JENNINGS, at the Elbow Lounge, 3907 Capitol, Telephone TA 3-0436. He stated that SHIRLEY and her mother were moving from Apartment 211 B, 3621 McKinney, Dallas, on the night that the alleged conversation took place.

According to JARNAGIN's information, the conversation took place during the floor show at the Club Carousel, a strip tease club. He stated that he does not recall hearing the orchestra although on being questioned further on this point, he stated that he believes he heard "background music." He estimated his distance from the individual he identified as LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being about 10 feet, and stated that ROBIN

HOOD was probably within six feet of OSWALD. He also advised that he was carrying on a little conversation with ROBIN HOOD during the conversation between RUBY and OSWALD.

On December 6, 1963, Major GUY SMITH, Texas Department of Public Safety, advised SA BARDWELL D. ODUM that his office at Dallas, Texas, has no record of any call received on or about October 5, 1963, from CARROLL JARNAGIN or anyone else about an alleged assasssination of Governor CONNALLY. He further advised that he has inquired of personnel at the Dallas office and finds that no one can recall receiving such a call.

On December 7, 1963, Captain ROBERT CROWDER, Texas Rangers, Dallas, Texas, advised SA BARDWELL D. ODUM that he never received any information from JARNAGIN or from anyone regarding an alleged attempt to assassinate the Governor of Texas.

SHIRLEY ANN MAULDIN, also known as Miss Robin S. Hood, was interviewed at the Douglas County Jail, Omaha, Nebraska, and furnished the following information:

She worked for JACK RUBY as a dancer for one week at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, shortly after this club opened in 1962. She had known RUBY since she was a small girl in Dallas, but had very little personal contact with him except for the period she worked for him. About two and one-half months ago, believed by her to have been on the night of her release from the Dallas City Jail where she was held on a drunk and disorderly charge for two days, she dated a Dallas attorney whom she knew only by the first name of CARROLL. On this night, she and CARROLL visited a few Dallas night clubs, including the Carousel Club, and were accompanied by no one. They stayed at the Carousel Club for about a forty-minute period, during which RUBY came to their table, greeted her and she introduced RUBY to CARROLL. She stated this visit by RUBY was brief, and she described it as an apparent attempt by RUBY to get her to work for him again.

MAULDIN stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not known to her, and she had never heard of this individual prior to his arrest by Dallas police in connection with the shooting of President KENNEDY. On the night of her date with CARROLL, she overheard no conversation in the Carousel Club between RUBY and anyone, and she could recall no discussion regarding the shooting of the Governor of Texas.

MAULDIN did not believe RUBY served as Master of Ceremonies at the Carousel Club on the night of her visit there with CARROLL, and she could not recall him making any introduction to the audience of anyone. She was definite in her recollection that she and CARROLL did not engage in any conversation regarding the reporting of anything they had overheard to the proper authorities. MAULDIN stated that had she had any information such as overhearing a conversation between RUBY and OSWALD in which they discussed shooting the Governor of Texas, she would have not hesitated to report this information to the proper authorities, because of her hate for RUBY and the fact she would like to see him in trouble.

She stated that this hate for RUBY stems from his trying to "make" or have sexual intercourse with her during the period she worked for him and other actions of his toward friends of hers during her period of employment by him.

MAULDIN related that she and CARROLL were drinking at the Carousel Club, but neither were drinking to excess that night. She considered CARROLL to be an intelligent individual and during that evening, the only date she ever had with CARROLL, she had no reason to question his mental condition. She stated that she and CARROLL parted company on leaving the Carousel Club, when he put her in a cab for home, and she claims the only other conversation had with CARROLL took place the following day when she telephoned him to thank him for the night out. She added that at that time she had in her possession CARROLL's business card, which he had given her earlier, but which she has since lost.

As has been previously reported, ANDREW ARMSTRONG, JR., employee of the Carousel Club, advised on November 27, 1963, that JACK RUBY had employed an individual by the name of LARRY. At RUBY's directions, LARRY maintained a blue notebook with a spiral binder in which he recorded names of individuals calling JACK RUBY. In addition to making available this notebook which is a Penway spiral-bound memo book with a royal blue front cover, ARMSTRONG also made available a handwritten letter left in the room which LARRY had occupied at the Carousel Club.

It was noted that the cover of the memo book contained the indented writing "C. L. (LARRY) CRAFARD, Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce, Dallas, Texas". A review of this book reflected that one page contained the name BOBY PATTERSON. TEXAS

On November 28, 1963, the Penway spiral-bound memo book with the royal blue front cover which bore the name "BOBY PATTERSON" on the sixth page from the rear and the letter which had been left in the room occupied by LARRY and which is on the letterhead stationery of JACK RUBY Associates, addressed to "Dear GAIL" and which bears the notation in the upper right-hand corner "C. L. CRAFARD, 1312½ Commerce", was submitted to the FBI Laboratory in order that the name BOBY PATTERSON could be compared with the handwriting in the letter.

On December 2, 1963, the FBI Lab reported that as a result of examination, it was concluded that the name "BOBY PATTERSON" on the sixth page of the Penway spiral-bound memo book with the royal blue cover was written by the writer of the letter on the letterhead stationery of JACK RUBY Associates and addressed "Dear GAIL".

The above examination was based on a previously reported allegation that the writing BOBY PATTERSON in the above referred to notebook had been written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He did not personally know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never saw them together. He did not recall ever telling anyone he saw OSWALD and RUBY together.

However, shortly after RUBY shot OSWALD, exact date not recalled, he received a telephone call from someone at an unknown newspaper in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. This person said information had been received to the effect that VERN DAVIS, Oklahoma City, had allegedly seen OSWALD and RUBY together at Dallas. According to the person calling, DAVIS had reportedly thought he had seen RUBY and OSWALD together at the Parkside Bar, which is located around the corner from MIRANDA's establishment, when he had recently been in Dallas and thought that RUBY and OSWALD might have gone to MIRANDA's establishment. MIRANDA told the person calling he did not recall anyone resembling RUBY or OSWALD ever being in his establishment.

Mr. MIRANDA recalled that a week or so prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY a man who introduced himself as VERN DAVIS, from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, appeared at his establishment to eat. DAVIS was a professional ticket salesman. DAVIS told MIRANDA that his name (DAVIS') was being submitted as a prospective member of the Lone Star Showman's Club, which was then meeting in Dallas.

JOE R. FRANKLIN, Texas Department of Corrections number 172094 was interviewed on December 2, 1963, at the Wynne Prison Farm, Texas Department of Corrections, where he is an inmate presently serving two years for forgery.

FRANKLIN stated that in the last two weeks of October, 1962 while he was employed by the Fox and Jacobs Construction Company in Dallas, he had occasion to visit a blood bank located on Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas. He sat next to a man for one hour prior to giving his blood and upon leaving, this same man was still seated in the waiting room. FRANKLIN asked this man to accompany him to a tavern and they proceeded to a tavern three blocks from the blood bank on Commerce Street. This man identified himself to FRANKLIN as LEE OSWALD. While in the tavern, the owner came over and said, "Hi, LEE". OSWALD thereafter allegedly introduced this owner to FRANKLIN as JACK RUBY.

After a few hours of drinking, FRANKLIN took the person known as OSWALD to visit OSWALD's wife, who was separated from him and residing at a rooming house in west Dallas.

FRANKLIN claimed he happened to meet OSWALD two more times while OSWALD was standing at the corner of Inwood Avenue in Dallas and FRANKLIN gave him a ride to Farmer's Branch. On one occasion OSWALD gave FRANKLIN a book from the Jehovah's Witnesses and OSWALD claimed to be a member of this group.

FRANKLIN acknowledged that he has been committed to various institutions in the past for "nervous disorders" and a drinking problem.

Mrs. FLORENCE ROBERTSON, 3216 West 113th Street, Inglewood, California, a waitress at the Ted Owens Restaurant, Los Angeles, advised that she and her husband, while on a vacation in Texas, stopped at a small truck stop about 10:00 A.M., November 19, 1963, for breakfast. She stated she believed this truck stop was located on Highway 67 on the right hand side of the highway going from Texarkana, Texas, to Dallas Texas, at a point about 30 to 40 miles from Dallas. The truck stop mentioned was located in "the country" and was in a "run-down building," which has a wooded area behind it. The restaurant was very small with only two or three booths and a few tables. While eating, Mrs. ROBERTSON overheard a conversation between two or three men and a waitress concerning the President's forthcoming visit to Dallas, Texas. The waitress made a remark questioning whether the President would get through Dallas and one of the men said something to the effect that he did not think the President would make it and that RUBY was going to get him. Mrs. ROBERTSON said one of the men made some remark about the FBI would take care of him, apparently referring to whoever might be afer President KENNEDY. Mrs. ROBERTSON stated the remarks appeared innocent enough and she thought nothing about the matter. She said it is possible she misunderstood the name mentioned, "RUBY," although she took the name at the time as having reference to a woman. She said she had never previously reported this matter as it all sounded like a lot of talk to her. The only descriptions she could furnish of the men present in the restaurant was that they were white male and approximately 40 years of age.

She said she could furnish no additional information concerning this matter.

FD-302 (Rev. 8-8-61) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/7/63

Mr. LESLIE LAWSON, 7300 Second Avenue, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at which time he advised that he is the owner and manager of the Grays Cleaners which is located at 1209 Eldorado, Dallas, and has owned this business for approximately 12 years.

In regards to any information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY, Mr. LAWSON stated that he is not acquainted with nor has he ever seen RUBY other than in the local newspapers and television; however, he has seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD on one particular occasion that he can recall and possibly on other occasions which he could not specifically recall. Mr. LAWSON went on to say that approximately one month ago, exact date he could not recall, an individual who he identified as LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered his cleaning establishment and gave one of his employees a tie, white shirt and a black pair of pants for cleaning. Mr. LAWSON identified this employee who accepted the clothing as being Mrs. ROSALEE WILLIAMS. Approximately two days later LEE HARVEY OSWALD returned to LAWSON's place of business and requested his cleaning. Mr. LAWSON advised that he obtained OSWALD's items from the hanger and told OSWALD that the bill was $1.25. He noticed that OSWALD became somewhat disturbed over the fact that he was charged 25 cents for cleaning his tie and could recall that OSWALD was a little belligerent when he paid the bill. LAWSON advised that he could not recall the exact text of OSWALD's conversation on this particular occasion, but that he was under the impression that OSWALD was pretty much disturbed over the entire cleaning bill. TEXAS

Mr. LAWSON went on to say that he could recall seeing OSWALD on a few other occasions at the Sleight's Speed Wash which is located next to his establishment, but that to the best of his knowledge OSWALD never patronized his place of business after the first time.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown to Mr. LAWSON at which time he identified this photo as being that of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The photograph of JACK RUBY was exhibited to Mr. LAWSON at which time he advised that he has never personally met this individual, but the photograph appeared to look like a photograph of JACK RUBY that had appeared in the local newspapers. LAWSON was unable to furnish any information concerning RUBY and knew of nothing that would connect LEE HARVEY OSWALD with JACK RUBY.

Mr. LAWSON advised that he would attempt to obtain the cleaning ticket that was made out for LEE HARVEY OSWALD and would make this ticket available if the FBI desired to have same. In regards to this cleaning ticket, Mr. LAWSON was unable to say positively that the ticket was in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that it could very well be that OSWALD may have used another name.

Mr. LAWSON advised that Sleight's Speed Wash was previously owned and managed by Mr. ELMO SLEIGHT who could be located at telephone number WH 6-7453. He went on to say that the speed wash was now owned and operated by Mr. A. J. RENO and estimated that Mr. RENO had owned this speed wash for only two or three months. } TEXAS

Mr. CLAYTON H. CLARK, Route 2, Frisco, Texas, was interviewed on 12/12/63, by Special Agents ALTON E. BRAMBLETT and LANSING P. LOGAN as a result of a letter dated 11/28/63 to the Dallas FBI Office and letter dated 11/30/63 to Congressman RAY ROBERTS, Washington, D.C., from CLARK. Verifax copies of these letters are being enclosed herewith.

Mr. CLARK advised that in the Fall of 1961, he was in the Ace of Clubs, a Dallas bar. While in this bar, he met a girl by the name of MARIE, last name unknown. He described this girl as blonde, 5' 7", early 20's, wearing glasses, and rather nice looking. They had a few drinks and later went for something to eat. She gave him her phone number and about a week later, he made a date to meet her again at the Ace of Clubs. They had a few drinks and then she asked him to go to a private club that she belonged to on Greenville Avenue in Dallas. When they entered this private club, name not recalled, he noticed a mural on the wall and he made some mention that the mural was the type of art that was degrading to the general public. He could not recall what the mural looked like or exactly why he considered it degrading. She became angry about his comments regarding the mural and excused herself and went to the ladies' room. She stayed about a half hour and when she returned, she said she would like to go home. This girl said she worked for an insurance company and had been formerly employed in Austin, Texas, and was originally from Berlin, as he recalls.

He made another date to meet her in a Chinese Restaurant on Greenville Avenue, name not recalled, about a week later. He arrived early and decided to drive around while waiting for her. He saw her drive by the restaurant and followed her but soon lost her. He returned to the restaurant and waited and she never showed up. He thought there was something strange about this and he later telephoned her and learned that the telephone had been disconnected.

CLARK further advised that in the Summer of 1962, he was in the Joker Restaurant in Dallas, Texas, which he described as a restaurant and bar. He noticed an attractive girl sitting over in the corner and in a few minutes she came over and told him that he looked like a General. He could not recall her name. She asked him to go over to her table and have a drink and they had three or four drinks together. She suggested that they go up to her apartment for a few additional drinks. He went over to her apartment, location not recalled and had a few drinks. She kept talking to him as if he were a General and asking him about Physics. He told her that he did not know anything regarding Physics, but she kept asking questions regarding Physics. She then suggested that they go to her private club in South Dallas. They got in to her Sports car with her driving and she drove exceedingly fast, running stop signs and breaking every traffic law. He stated that he was extremely scared and wondered why she was driving so wreckless. Before they got to South Dallas, she said she wanted a drink of ice water and stopped at a motel, name not recalled, and demanded from the manager of the motel a glass of ice water. She became very angry with him and the manager, but finally the manager gave her some ice water. It seemed to him that she wanted something from him, but exactly what, he did not know. They then went to a downtown Dallas restaurant and ate and drank coffee about 4:00 AM. It seemed to him during their conversation that she was trying to get something from him but he did not know exactly what she wanted from him. She then took him back to his car and before he left he asked her for her phone number. She gave him her phone number and later he determined that the number she had given him was not correct. He was sure she was in some sort of conspiracy as he felt she thought him to be a General and had important information.

He described this girl as blonde, about 34 years old, 5' 5", 125 pounds and very nice looking.

CLARK stated he has not seen the above two girls again, but he has the feeling that they may have been in some sort of conspiracy to obtain information from him.

One night in the Summer of 1962, he had visited the Carousel Club in Dallas. When he returned to his car located in a opened parking lot near the Carousel Club, four men in an automobile had his car blocked in. When he approached his car, these men kept looking at him. He got into his automobile and was afraid to get out due to these men staring at him. He finally asked them to move their car so he could get out which they did. He believed that these men were looking at him to see just what he would do and was possibly trying to harrass him.

In the Fall of 1962, he was driving to Dallas from Frisco and in Highland Park, a carload of men stopped him. These men said they were police officers and that he had committed a traffic violation. These men used very strong language but finally let him go. He never did know exactly what traffic violation he was supposed to have violated. He stated he felt these men had picked him out to stop for some particular reason but he could not give my reason for their action.

He stated one night he came out of a club on Lovers Lane at Dallas and noticed that four women were beating another woman. He believed this woman being beaten was the band leader's wife in the club that he had just left. One of the women made some comment that she was from Irving, Texas. He did not want to get involved and left. Later a policeman came into the Toddle House where he was eating and questioned him regarding the fight but did not take him in. He believed that they were trying to get him into trouble and this was the reason the women had attempted to involve him.

In October, 1963, he noticed a blue and white two-door Ford driving by his house on numerous occasions. This car was occupied by two men and one of these men could possibly have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD but he did not see him clearly enough to recognize him. He became suspicious of this car as there had been cattle rustling in the neighborhood about that time. He started following the car in his automobile and after following for some distance, he decided to get the license number. He started moving up closer to the car and the car picked up speed. They reached the speed of about 95 miles per hour but he did obtain the license number. He no longer has the license number nor did he notify the Sheriff or the DPS of the incident. He believed that these men have been watching him for some reason but could not give any particular reason for their action.

He believed that all of the above facts are some sort of conspiracy against him to obtain information from him. He did not know of any information he had that would be of value to such persons.

He has seen JACK RUBY in the Carousel Club but has never had a conversation with him. He has no information regarding the background of RUBY. He has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor does he know of any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

It was believed by interviewing agents that this individual is emotionally unstable and appears to have a complex of some sort as he feels that most people are against him or trying to hurt him in some way.

CLARK telephonically contacted the Dallas FBI Office on 12/17/63, and advised that he wanted to make sure the FBI had received his letter of 11/28/63. He stated he was afraid that if this letter fell into the hands of the Communist some harm might come to him.

The above information is being furnished to the Bureau for information and is not being included in next Dallas reports as captioned above.

Dear Sirs:

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION PLEASE

As a frequent vistor to Dallas and to many of its night spots I might be able to supply important information regarding subversive activities as far as two years back. Previous to the past weekend I hadn't given serious thought to reporting some incidents which might have involved my personal safety-not realizing information I had could blow up a conspiracy. I am single and moved around quite a bit, at different clubs.

Some of the events are listed as follows: details omitted.

1. Meeting an attractive woman from Berlin, Germany. Date Summer 61
2. Meeting a second woman who thought I was a General that pressed me for information. Fall 61 (kept repeating) This
3. Blocking of my car by four men in another car against curbing as a date and I left Jack Ruby's in July or August 62 This was on a lighted parking lot used for daytime parking-only a few cars were on the lot at the time, about 2AM. Several later
4. Meeting of a few strangers who seemed to get violent in a discussion-especially when an opinion was voiced.
5. The beating of a bandleader's wife at the closing time of a club on Lover's Lane by an unidenified woman-four women involved-one claiming I was involved, sending a policeman to the Toddle House for me. One had stated they were from Irvi

An investigation of a blue & white tudor Ford by me which had been circuling around the farm for several hours at separated intervals-resulted in a high speed chase north on 289 to get license nos. This is real shocking to me as this man I recall could fit Lee Oswald-DRIVER OF CAR.

These series of events may not mean a thing but I am convinced that after I told the first story about this Berlin woman a reason for the other events would be in order, and could be related.

Congressman Ray Roberts

Dear Mr. Roberts,

I am somewhat disturbed and angry at the speed, efficiency and possibly of the loyalty of our security system which I believe needs going over with a fine tooth comb. I have lived in the southwest corner of Collin most of my life on the land my ancestors settled. Also I have mixed and mingled with many people who live in Dallas. Sometimes a person who has kept his eyes and ears open can hear startling things and actually by accident or curosity get involved in what I believe to be an international plot or conspiracy.

As far as two years ago I became acquainted with a strange woman in Dallas via way of Austin and later Berlin who impressed me as being on an important mission of some kind-possibly I was a mistaken contact and got to know too much and a series of events that followed would make good fiction reading before the assassination of President Kennedy. At the time those events seemed a little shallow to report, although on two occasions I actually started to call FBI.

Thanksgiving Day about 4 P M, I left a letter with important information for the FBI, at a letter box on the west side of the Federal Building-a car drop. Saturday morning Nov. 30, 63, I had heard nothing from anyone about more details which I omitted.

Sir, if it takes an act or Congress or act of the State Legislature that trial should not come off by Dec. 9, 63 of Jack Ruby. There are too many missing links to hurry and let possibly a real big Communist plot get away.

Very truly yours,

Clayton H Clark

Rerep SA Manning C. Clements dated 12/11/63 at Dallas.

Your attention is directed to page 23, paragraph 2, which outlines the walking distance and time taken to walk from the Western Union Office to the Main Street ramp at the Dallas Police Department. It appears there is an omission in paragraph 2 as compared to other descriptive phrases used in measuring the walking distance from the Western Union Office to the Main Street entrance of the ramp.

Page 186 containing the interview of William J. Newman, Dallas Reserve Policeman, is not clear as concerns paragraph 3. Newman stated "that from his position where he was assigned he was unable to see the top of the Main Street ramp but could see the lower part of it. He stated approximately one minute before the shooting occurred, he saw a man coming down the Main Street ramp but since he could just see the lower part of it, he was unable to see whether or not he was challenged or whether or not he had any identification. He could not see the man as there were too many people in between where he was stationed and where the Main Street ramp was." This should be resolved as to exactly where Newman was, what did he see, whom did he see or was his position such that he did not see anything of pertinence to this investigation.

Rerep contains the interview of Detective Thomas Donald McMillon. It is noted that Detective McMillon's name was spelled Reference is made to my previous memorandum dated 12-13-63 indicating a review of U. S. Secret Service (USSS) files had been initiated as they pertained to the assassination of President Kennedy, captioned Individual and other related matters; for example, the Jack Leon Ruby Civil Rights investigation and security aspects of the Oswald case. On 12-16-63, an additional review of these files was made by SA R. D. Rogge and information believed to be pertinent to the Bureau was requested. USSS duplicated the material requested.

It will be recalled that a total of 417 items had previously been reviewed and during the recent review this total has been increased to 591 items. Based on the review on 12-16-63, 66 items of possible value to the Bureau were requested. Upon receipt they were analyzed and disseminated to interested personnel at the Seat of Government.

Set out below is the identity of the documents obtained from the USSS including the pertinent USSS documentation number, a brief description of what the item relates to, as well as the identity of the Bureau supervisor to whom the particular item was directed. The USSS documentation number is being included so that any specific item can be located at a later date if so desired.

Item 319 Nine page USSS report of ATSAIC Leon L. Gopadze dated 11-29-63, at Dallas reporting taped and personal interviews of Marina Oswald. (E. T. Turner)

Re WFO letter to Bureau dated 12/17/63 and Bureau airtel to Dallas dated 12/18/63, both referring to correspondence between RUBY and one ROBERT B. CHASM, National Bank of Commerce, Washington, D.C.

Investigation at Dallas disclosed CHASM not employed by, or known to National Bank of Commerce, Dallas, Texas. Credit and criminal at Dallas was negative on CHASM. It is noted from the enclosures to referenced WFO letter, the envelope addressed to CHASM contains a notation at the extreme bottom thereof "Has acct. in your bank". It appears possibly the donation reportedly received by RUBY from CHASM could have been in the form of a check, money order or cashier's check drawn on the Bank of Commerce, Washington, D. C. with the natural presumption on RUBY's part that this person was a depositor with that bank or could be located through the bank.

In view of the above, WFO is requested to again cause a search of bank files in effort to identify CHASM as a customer of the bank and if this proves negative, consideration should be given to possibility the check may have been a spurious instrument and upon presentation to the Bank of Commerce was returned as NSF or no account. WFO also consider check of usual sources Metropolitan Washington, D.C. area (including suburban Virginia and Maryland), as well as credit sources and attempt to identify CHASM.

With respect to MATTY BRESCIA of Memphis, Tennessee, who was interviewed regarding his acquaintanceship with JACK L. RUBY, the following should be noted:

In an investigation entitled, "LEW FARRELL, with Alias Louis Farrell, etc., ANTI-RACKETEERING," Omaha Office of Origin, Bureau file 92-3185, the name of MATTY BRESCIA, 1235 West Perkins Road, Memphis, Tennessee, has appeared as having associated with FARRELL in Des Moines, Iowa, during June of 1958. FARRELL was described in this investigation as a Top Hoodlum of the Omaha Office, residing at Des Moines, Iowa. FARRELL originated in Chicago where he was considered on the fringes of the CAPONE mob and moved to Des Moines about 1939, where he commenced operation as a beer distributor, backed gambling activities and established connections with hoodlums in other Mid-Western cities. It was reported in recent years FARRELL had moved into the labor union field and demonstrated influence and friendship in the Teamster Union ranks, including his alleged close association with Teamster leader JAMES HOFFA.

BRESCIA, it was developed during this investigation, had numerous contacts with FARRELL in person and by telephone. The nature of these contacts were not developed and BRESCIA was not interviewed in that investigation in view of the instructions limiting the nature of the investigation, based upon FARRELL's labor connections.

WILLIAM F. ALEXANDER, Aka., Bill Alexander, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County, called at the FBI Office and advised that he has been assigned by District Attorney HENRY WADE to handle the prosecution of JACK L. RUBY for the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ALEXANDER stated it has come to his attention that EARL GOETZ, reporter for the "Milwaukee Sentinel" has information to the effect that RUBY had a roommate in 1957 - 1958 by the name of FRANK FERRARA or FRANK FERRARO who was close to RUBY until FERRARA and RUBY got into a fight and immediately thereafter FERRARO left Dallas by plane and was met at the International Airport by JOE VELACHI. TEXAS N.Y.

ALEXANDER stated he believes that if there was any connection between RUBY and the syndicate, Mafia, or other hoodlums, it would have come to the attention of his office through various gamblers and hoodlum informants of his office and no such information has come to his attention.

ALEXANDER stated he has never been a customer or guest in the Carousel Club and is not a member and never received a membership card to RUBY's club. He speculated if the name "William F. Alexander" or variations thereof was found in RUBY's possession, it is likely RUBY may have intended sending him a card.

ALEXANDER stated his office has employed a psychiatrist by the name of SILVANO ARIETI, 22 East 72nd Street, New York City, who is coming to Dallas, December 21, 1963, and that he plans to have ARIETI examine RUBY between 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. Sunday, December 22, 1963, without the knowledge of the defense attorneys of RUBY.

ALEXANDER discussed various potential witnesses who could place RUBY at various places during the period November 21 - 24, 1963, whom he contemplates utilizing as witnesses or utilizing t information furnished by them in cross - examination of RUBY in

The following investigation was conducted by SA KENNETH P. HUGHES:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

On December 17, 1963, ED BENEDICT, 11409 Tippitt, Dallas, Texas whose name was secured from the property obtained during the search of RUBY's automobile as having a pass to the Carousel Club, advised that some three or four weeks previous at Market Hall, when the Texas Product Show was on, JACK RUBY handed out numerous passes to his Carousel Club. BENEDICT stated that it was at this time he was handed Pass # 196. Prior to this time he had heard the name JACK RUBY, but had never met him. During this show and BENEDICT's conversation with RUBY, the only thing that RUBY talked about was the fight in which he lost his finger. BENEDICT knew of no connection between RUBY and the Dallas Police Department. He knew nothing of RUBY's travels or of any organizations to which RUBY belonged. He knew of no individual that had conspired with RUBY to kill OSWALD.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date 12/19/63

Mr. FRANK J. BOERDER, 1211 Mountain Lake Road, Dallas, whose name appeared as "FRANK BORDEN, WH 1-5938" in RUBY's personal property, was interviewed at his place of employment, Boerder Studios, 835 West 7th Street, WH 1-5938, at which time he advised that it would be very logical that his name and business telephone number had appeared in JACK RUBY's personal belongings. He went on to say that he had been associated with JACK RUBY for several years strictly on a business association and explained that RUBY may have spelled his name wrong inasmuch as several people have a hard time spelling his name.

Mr. BOERDER stated that he is self-employed as an architect and because of his occupation, he becomes acquainted with several business owners throughout the Dallas area. He has been decorating night clubs in Dallas for 23 years and could recall meeting JACK RUBY almost fifteen years ago when an individual by the name of JOE SLATIN introduced RUBY to him. He could recall that JOE SLATIN was at that time the owner of the Sovereign Club and knew that it was later owned by JACK RUBY. He could vaguely recall RUBY becoming involved in the night club business throughout the years and after RUBY had obtained the Vegas Club, he, BOERDER, decorated the club for RUBY. Since that time he has worked decorating RUBY's clubs, the Carousel and the Vegas, throughout the years and advised that his association with RUBY was very pleasant. He described him as being "a hell of a nice guy".

BOERDER went on to say that approximately two weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, exact date he could not recall, RUBY approached him and advised him that he was interested in obtaining a new location for a private club. He could recall RUBY saying that his new proposed club would be at the corner of Mc Kinney and Maple, Dallas, Texas. Although BOERDER was not aware of all the specific details concerning this proposed club, he could recall RUBY mentioning that his plan was to obtain $5,000.00 from a local real estate lady and that he would put in $1,000.00 himself in efforts to start the club. BOERDER's connections with this matter and the reason he knew of the proposed club was the fact that RUBY had approached him concerning the designing of the club. Although BOERDER could not recall the name of the real estate lady that RUBY approached concerning the $5,000.00, he did recall that RUBY referred to her as "BERTHA" and described her as being 35 to 40 years old, approximately 5 feet 5 inches tall, slender build and very attractive.

Mr. BOERDER further stated that RUBY had mentioned the new proposed club on one or two occasions, but after that had heard absolutely nothing in regard to this new proposed club. He advised that it was his impression that the new club was never built and has never heard anything more concerning this club.

The only other information he could recall concerning the new proposed club was that RUBY had planned to name the club "Club Bistro".

Mr. BOERDER advised that he knew very little concerning RUBY's background and could offer no information regarding his social friends or associates. He had never discussed any type of political views with RUBY and therefore did not know of RUBY's political convictions. However, BOERDER did state that RUBY was a very easy individual to get along with and could recall one specific time at the Carousel Club when RUBY had displayed very good character and tact. He explained this by saying that he, BOERDER, was present when RUBY had fired one of his strippers by the name of JADA and that RUBY was not only very nice to her but was also very considerate in the manner that he approached her. Mr. BOERDER stated that he later learned that JADA had made several allegations against RUBY and that as far as he was concerned they were all false. He explained that he has seen RUBY approach numerous customers and businessmen and could not recall ever seeing any type of friction between RUBY and other individuals.

Although Mr. BOERDER could not be sure, he was under the impression that the name JEANNIE BORDEN which appeared in RUBY's personal property on several occasions was possibly his ex-sister-in-law, whose name is now JEANNIE BAILEY. He stated that he knows of no connection between RUBY and JEANNIE but it would be conceivable that RUBY may have written her name down as JEANNIE BORDEN.

Mr. BOERDER was unable to furnish any information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that he knew of no connection whatsoever between OSWALD and RUBY. He knew of no one who conspired with RUBY to shoot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. BOERDER could offer no information of value concerning the assassination of the President or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD other than what he had read in the local newspapers.

Mr. CHARLES E. REED, 2408 Robert Circle, Arlington, Texas, Manager, American Casualty & Life Insurance Company, 2210 Richard Street, advised he did business with JACK RUBY during the period 1955 to 1958. At this time, Mr. REED was connected with the Lone Star Brewery and sold RUBY beer. In this regard, he may have become a member of one of RUBY's clubs, but did not visit them other than in a professional sense. He stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

REED advised he has no knowledge as to how RUBY entered the Dallas Police Station or why he shot OSWALD and, further, has no information regarding RUBY's acquaintances with the Dallas Police. He has no information on RUBY's activities at the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY and immediately thereafter.

He believes he last saw JACK RUBY approximately two or three months ago on Ewing Street in Dallas. This occasion was simply one of passing wherein he said, "Hello," having recalled RUBY from the days when he sold him beer.

TED STANFORD, 3020 Dothan Lane, residence phone CH 7-4442, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He met JACK RUBY about four years ago but could not recall the exact circumstances of this meeting. He is a musician and has played at numerous clubs in the Dallas area and undoubtedly met RUBY during the course of his business. He at one time played at the Vegas Club and was hired to play at the Sovereign Club at the time it was opened by RUBY. As he recalled this was about three years ago and he only played there for three months.

He recalled that RUBY was temperamental and on occasion would become involved in heated arguments with his employees. He always considered him to be rather "nutty."

The last time he saw JACK RUBY was about six months ago in downtown Dallas. He could furnish no information concerning RUBY's background, personal life or political convictions and had no idea as to why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

STANFORD had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination.

MARVIN E. WELCH, 10311 Crittendon, residence telephone FL 7-10[illegible], Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is employed by the Fuller Brush Company in Dallas, Texas. He came to Dallas in about 1958 and the first private club he joined was the Sovereign Club operated by JACK RUBY. He believed this was during about 1959 or 1960. The club was recommended to him by TED STANFORD who was a musician playing at the club when it first opened. He met RUBY on one or two occasions at the club after first joining, but quit attending the club after about three weeks. The reason he quit was because he felt it was not a very desirable club and RUBY was always shouting at his employees, which made him feel it was not the type of club he cared to belong to.

He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life or political convictions and has not seen RUBY since the few visits he made to the Sovereign Club a number of years ago. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination, does not know why RUBY shot OSWALD, and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

MEYER R. PANITZ, Apartment 21, 140 Albert Street LAS VEGAS, NEVADA furnished the following information concerning JACK RUBENSTEIN, also known as JACK RUBY:

PANITZ was married in Dallas, Texas in the summer of 1957. At that time RUBY hired off-duty Dallas, Texas Policeman on weekends as bouncers at his club, the Las Vegas Club. RUBY continued this policy in 1957, and to the best of PANITZ's recollection, RUBY was still doing this in 1958 when PANITZ left Dallas.

RUBY would phone or contact a Captain in the Dallas Police Department who in turn would send over available policeman for work. RUBY paid the policeman for their work. RUBY never knew which officers would be free or available, and so they changed from week to week.

PANITZ does not recall the names of any Dallas policeofficers and does not recall the Captain.

RUBY wanted the policeman around his club in case of trouble, such as drunks.

It is PANITZ's understanding that other night clubs in Dallas also hired off-duty policeman for the same reason that RUBY hired these policeman.

ROSEMARY ALLEN, 1220 Sunny Glen, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

She is a secretary at the Dallas County Sheriff's Office and she met JACK RUBY in approximately late October, 1963, at the Dallas County Sheriff's Office. RUBY at that time was offering complimentary Carousel Club passes to members of the Sheriff's Office. One of the deputies suggested to RUBY that some of the secretaries in the Sheriff's Office might appreciate receiving club passes as oftentimes the secretaries must entertain visiting policewomen who come to Dallas on official business.

ROSEMARY ALLEN had never met JACK RUBY prior to the time that RUBY appeared at the Sheriff's Office. She said she furnished her name and address to RUBY and subsequently she received a laminated Carousel Club card, #188, in the name of ROSEMARY ALLEN. ROSEMARY ALLEN did not get to use her Carousel Club card and to date has never been in the Carousel Club. She had no additional information pertaining to JACK RUBY. MIKE BARCLAY, Attorney at Law, whose name appeared on a list found in a book belonging to JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

Mr. BARCLAY advised he resides at 8515 Turtle Creek DALLA TEXAS and has his law office in Room 404, Davis Building, Dallas. He stated he met JACK RUBY in about 1955 at the B & B Restaurant, Dallas, which is located next door to the Vegas Club, operated by RUBY. He stated he has seen RUBY from time to time ever since that date but has never associated with him socially. He joined the Sovereign Club, operated by RUBY, this being about the fall of 1958, and was a member of this club until about 1960, when the club was converted into a striptease type club and the name was changed to the Carousel Club. He stated he did not continue to go to this club but has continued to frequent the Vegas Club from time to time and often saw RUBY at that club. He stated he never discussed politics with RUBY.

Mr. BARCLAY advised that about the spring of 1963 he had occasion to talk with RUBY and a part-time employee, namely DORIS DREXLER, who came to his office and requested him to assist them in drawing up a contract whereby RUBY might use DREXLER's services for a specified period. DREXLER had just received wide publicity at Dallas and to some extent nationally by suing her friend and companion, PAUL WHALAND, for assault and battery, claiming that WHALAND had beaten her. According to BARCLAY, WHALAND was in politics and running for a position on the City Council. RUBY believed that the publicity obtained by DREXLER would cause her to be an asset as an entertainer and that was why he requested the contract. BARCLAY stated it is his understanding that DREXLER worked for RUBY only from time to time prior to this as a dancer and in a comic strip and worked for him only a short time following their appearance at his office.

It is noted this cafe is also near RUBY's Carousel Club. He talked with RUBY about 30 minutes but noted nothing unusual in their conversation which was about trivial matters.

BARCLAY advised he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never had any reason to suspect a relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. He added he has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY or the manner in which RUBY entered the basement of the Dallas Police Department prior to the shooting.

DALE E. BASYE, 1311 Whispering Trail, FR 6-7928, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed since it had been ascertained that he wrote an article in a magazine concerning JACK RUBY's Stripper School for Amateurs, approximately 18 months ago. He furnished the following information:

BASYE works full-time for the "Dallas Morning News" but does free lance work on the side. In approximately December, 1962, he and JACK BEERS went to the Carousel Club and spent almost a full afternoon preparing an article which appeared in Volume 6, number 12, of the magazine "Adam", article entitled "Cool School." TEXAS

To the best of his recollection this is the first time BASYE had seen JACK RUBY. BASYE's recollection is that he stopped back by the Carousel Club a few months later and attempted to get JACK RUBY to sign up with an advertising agency with whom BASYE was connected at the time. He has not been in RUBY's club since that time.

On occasion he has seen RUBY at the "Dallas Morning News" where RUBY comes often concerning the advertisements for his clubs.

BASYE pointed out that the story he wrote had to do with the amateur night which JACK RUBY was then holding at his club and to the best of BASYE's recollection, the amateur night consisted of a contest in which the amateur girls stripped. If a girl won the contest with any degree of frequency, she often became a regular stripper.

BASYE has had very little contact with RUBY, but believes RUBY to be a "scatterbrain" and a highly emotional person.

BASYE recalls on one other occasion he met RUBY by pre-arrangement at the Dallas Hotel, across the park from the "Dallas Morning News." This was to give RUBY a copy of the magazine in which BASYE's article had appeared. BASYE recalls that at that time two policemen entered the hotel and RUBY introduced BASYE to both these men. He also recalls that one of these policemen was said to be engaged to the woman who was with RUBY at the time (KATHY KAY).

BASYE advised he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

He first met JACK RUBY in 1958 or 1959, or whenever the Sovereign Club was first started by JACK RUBY. RUBY came out to his used car lot and sold him a membership for $10.00 and he paid a year's dues at the same time, the total amount being $16.00 or $17.00. He understood that he was a charter member of the Sovereign Club. He only patronized the Sovereign Club on one occasion. He had no further association with JACK RUBY until about 1961 when JACK RUBY came into his used car lot and talked about trading cars.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown by BERMAN and he had never heard of him until the assassination of the President. He knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. MR+MRS TED BORMASTER

SARA BORMASTER, who resides at 4515 Reiger, Apartment 14, Dallas, Texas, and who is employed as a Co-owner in the Ted Bormaster Sales Company, 2223 Commerce, Dallas, Texas, and who is presently assisting her husband in the liquidation of the stock at the Silsbee Dry Goods Store, Silsbee, Texas, furnished the following information:

She stated that some time less than three months ago, a man named GEORGE SENATOR came to the warehouse at 2223 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, and purchased some shirts at wholesale price and that she understood, from previously having spoken to her husband, TED BORMASTER, SENATOR was sent by her husband's barber, Mr. BROOKS, who owns a barber shop in the basement of the Statler Hilton Hotel in Dallas, Texas. She stated that SENATOR made mention that he would like to have his friend, a JACK RUBY, come to the warehouse and purchase shirts, inasmuch as the style was the type RUBY liked.

She advised that she was at the warehouse when JACK RUBY came in to purchase some shirts and that he purchased several, stating he would like to come back when she had some more on hand; that she received these shirts, and, inasmuch as RUBY neglected to give her any address, she attempted to contact RUBY through Mr. BROOKS at the barber shop in the basement of the Statler Hilton Hotel.

She recalls that RUBY came to the warehouse a second time, where he purchased some shirts and, at this time, he brought with him a male Negro, whose name she could not recall, who RUBY introduced as his handy-man. She described this handy-man as a tall, slim, well-built person, who was nicely dressed and who was approximately forty years of age.

She stated that, after this second meeting with RUBY, this male Negro returned to the warehouse by himself and stated that he would like to work for Mr. BORMASTER. She stated when she queried this person as to his reason for quitting the employ of JACK RUBY, he stated that, "I think the world of Mr. RUBY, but I think he is shell-shocked, or something."

She stated she did not press this point with this individual, but asked of him what his duties were with Mr. RUBY and that he informed her he had been employed for the last fifteen years and had more or less been in charge of everything in connection with the running of the Carousel Bar, such as buying the wines and beers and keeping books on all these expenses; that he gave the impression he was in a position of great responsibility with Mr. RUBY.

She advised this person that she was not in a position to pay the salary he received from Mr. RUBY, that all they wanted to hire was a shipping clerk which paid considerably less than what RUBY was paying him. Also, inasmuch as Mr. RUBY was a customer, it would not seem right to hire him away from RUBY's employ.

She recalled that he, at this point, stated he understood her position, but did not seem to indicate he was quitting RUBY's employ, but was "just looking around."

She recalls RUBY came in one other time, and, in the presence of her husband, TED BORMASTER, RUBY offered a membership card to the Carousel Club, stating that this card would admit just she and her husband, but that their friends would have to pay. She stated that neither she nor her husband ever received this card.

She stated she only met RUBY at the warehouse on the above incidents and that she knows nothing concerning his background or connections; that actually he was introduced to her and her husband through Mr. BROOKS at the barber shop in the Statler Hilton Hotel and GEORGE SENATOR, who she understands lived next door to RUBY.

She further advised that she does not know whether or not RUBY knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor does she know of any subversive connections RUBY might have had, and she knows of no association which might have occurred between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She further advised she has no knowledge of any conspiracy of any other person with RUBY to kill OSWALD, that she knows of no connections between RUBY and anyone on the Dallas Police Department, and she has no knowledge of any travel of RUBY, either within the United States or foreign.

He stated that several months ago he received a telephone call from a Mr. BROOKS, who is the owner of the Brooks Barber Shop in the basement of the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas, Texas. BROOKS stated he desired to send a friend of his, named GEORGE SENATOR, to his warehouse where he could purchase some shirts and receive a wholesale price. He stated that SENATOR came to the warehouse, bought some shirts, and, sometime thereafter, SENATOR called and stated he was sending a friend of his, named JACK RUBY, who also desired to purchase shirts at a wholesale price.

He advised he was not at his place of business the first time JACK RUBY appeared, but that one of his employees, named CARROLL SINCLAIR, who resides on Swiss Ave., Dallas, Texas, with his sister, sold RUBY several shirts. He recalls that this was no more than a matter of two months ago.

He recalls that several weeks thereafter a person came to his warehouse and introduced himself as being JACK RUBY and that RUBY stated he was the owner of a strip-tease club in Dallas, Texas, that RUBY was accompanied by a male Negro, who RUBY described as his handy-man and that RUBY purchased some shirts at this time, but the discussion also centered around RUBY purchasing some racks also at a wholesale price, which RUBY stated he wanted for his night club.

He further advised that RUBY told him he was going to furnish him with a card which would entitle BORMASTER and his wife entry into the Carousel Club without any admission charge; that he was doing this because BORMASTER was giving him articles at wholesale prices.

He stated that he does not know if RUBY knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD, that he does not know any subversive connections RUBY has and does not know of any association that RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD might have had. He further advised that he does not know of any conspiracy of any other person with RUBY to kill OSWALD, nor does he know any connection between RUBY and any Dallas Police Department Officers, and that he has no knowledge of any travel activity of RUBY either throughout the United States or in foreign travel.

BORMASTER reiterated that his contacts with RUBY were limited to the two times RUBY presented himself at his warehouse at 2223 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, and that the next time he heard anything concerning RUBY was when he learned of his connection in the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MATTY BRESCIA, also known as Mattie Brescia, 1235 West Perkins Road, who is employed as Public Relations Director for Consolidated Distributors, 313 South Front Street, Memphis, Tennessee, was interviewed, at which time he advised as follows:

In about 1953 BRESCIA became affiliated with the newly formed Liberty Broadcasting System at Dallas, Texas, and served as the Director of Press for that company. BRESCIA maintained his residence at Memphis, Tennessee, but spent the regular work days at Dallas, Texas, for a period of several months, ending in 1954. In his capacity as an official of the broadcasting company, he was visited on approximately three occasions by an individual he identified by photograph as JACK L. RUBY. He did not know RUBY prior to the time of meeting him at Dallas, Texas, and had no background information about RUBY, except what he gained in the short visits with RUBY at the broadcasting company office. RUBY came to the broadcasting company office apparently for the purpose of gaining some sort of publicity for his night club, obtaining free tickets for some sort of sporting event or other similar type purpose which BRESCIA could not currently recall. RUBY did mention that he had a night club, identity of which BRESCIA could not recall. These meetings with RUBY were at the company office and the conversations were of short duration.

BRESCIA advised specifically that he had not seen RUBY anywhere except in Dallas, Texas.

BRESCIA thought that about 1955, after the Liberty Broadcasting System had gone out of business that he had seen RUBY somewhere in Dallas. At this time, BRESCIA had taken over public relations for "GOOSE" TATUM, widely known Negro basketball professional. TATUM was making personal appearances and holding exhibitions throughout the country. While in Dallas, BRESCIA was again contacted by RUBY who apparently had some interest in TATUM. BRESCIA recalled he gave RUBY passes to the TATUM performance. He said he remembers that RUBY had in fact tried to "teach TATUM how to play basketball." This typified RUBY's "brassy" manner of speaking and attitude.

BRESCIA said he had no idea how RUBY may have come to preserve his name and telephone number but felt he may have possibly given RUBY one of his cards at the time of the "GOOSE" TATUM exhibition.

The telephone number, JAckson 5-5180, was several years ago a business telephone which BRESCIA had at Memphis, Tennessee, for the Brescia Enterprises, 61 South Second Street, which he described as his various promotional activities. This telephone number has not been in existence for several years and is not currently listed in the Memphis, Tennessee, Telephone Directory or in the Memphis, Tennessee, Street Address and Numerical Telephone Directory.

This contact with RUBY was the last he has had in any manner. BRESCIA advised he did not know that RUBY had ever used the name of RUBENSTEIN, that he knew nothing about RUBY's family, background, past residences, other associates and specifically that he had no information of any communication between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. BRESCIA had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said he knew nothing about RUBY's association with any political organization or any movement associated with Cuba. He knew nothing regarding any associates or RUBY whatsoever, including criminal, law enforcement, or otherwise.

BRESCIA stated that his contacts with RUBY were not social in any respect and that he would have declined to have any social contact with RUBY because RUBY did not appear to be a person of sufficient culture to warrant this association.

JUANITA BUCHANNON, owner, El Dorado Lounge, 1010 North Haskell, TEXAS, advised as follows on December 16, 1963:

She had first met WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, known to her as "SCOTTIE", about seven or eight months ago when he started hanging around the bar and making a "big splash." She described him as a "con man" and she knew of no association between DUFF, RUBY and OSWALD. She did not know OSWALD but knew RUBY as she had been a former employee of his when he owned the Sovereign Club. She knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD based on her acquaintance with RUBY.

On December 17, 1963, she advised DUFF had a former friend named ANDRE ANGELES (phonetic) a/k/a: Don Moon whom she described as a white male, age 31 - 32, height six feet, weight 165 lbs, thin build, red hair, blue eyes, freckles on face and wearing horn rimmed glasses. ANDRE has called the El Dorado Lounge from Washington, D. C. approximately eleven times in recent months attempting to locate one RIED TIPPINS (phonetic), also a friend of DUFFs. B. Apprx 1932 TEXAS D.C. TEXAS

At the time of the last call, December 16, 1963, ANDRE advised he was in Washington, D. C. using the name DON MOON, telephone number 481-7057. She asked ANDRE if he had seen "SCOTTIE". ANDRE replied words to the effect "No, and I'd rather not talk about it." She recalled ANDRE had known JACK RUBY and had mentioned gambling with him.

The only other unusual incident she recalled was the fact ANDRE called her from Washington, D. C. the Sunday prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY telling her he was flying to Dallas on Friday, November 22, 1963, with a lot of money and wondered if she and her husband would meet him at the airport. They did not meet him and she did not know whether ANDRE had come to Dallas.

NICK DE GEORGE, JR., Owner, Town & Country Restaurant, 2020 Commerce Street, was interviewed, in that his name was in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY. DALLAS, TEXAS

DE GEORGE advised he first met RUBY about seven years ago at the Vegas Club, at which time he was introduced to RUBY and RUBY recognized him as the son of a man whose name was familiar to him as having been in the restaurant business. Since the initial meeting, DE GEORGE and RUBY have been on speaking terms, because of the similarity of their businesses. DE GEORGE continued that he possibly attended the Vegas Club three times and possibly attended the Sovereign Club two or three times early in 1960. Shortly after this time, DE GEORGE was in military service until May, 1962. Since then, he has possibly attended the Carousel Club six or seven times.

In that RUBY knew DE GEORGE was in the restaurant business, he, RUBY, always made it a point to speak to DE GEORGE whenever he saw him in one of the night clubs. DE GEORGE has seen RUBY on numerous occasions on the streets in downtown Dallas, at which time he has spoken to him. He last saw RUBY during the latter part of October near the Statler Hotel, across the street, and waved to him. He did not speak to him on this occasion.

DE GEORGE continued that, even though he has known RUBY for some time, he does not consider RUBY a personal friend, but only a speaking acquaintance. He did not recall receiving a membership card to any of RUBY's clubs; however, he said he could have possibly received a courtesy card. DE GEORGE continued that he did not know RUBY's associates, his business activities or dealings, and did not know if RUBY had any connections with the police. LEVI WESSLEY DEHAVEN, 381 East Puente Avenue, COVINA, CALI advised he is presently employed as an analyst at General Dynamics, Pomona, California, and has been so employed since August, 1962. He was born on February 21, 1921 in Lincoln, Nebraska, and formerly was employed at Chance-Vought Aircraft Company, Dallas, Texas, and resided at 2508 Republic Street in that city. He left Dallas in September, 1961.

DEHAVEN stated that he has known JACK RUBY since 1952 when he met him through going to RUBY's Vegas Club in Dallas. He and his wife visited the Vegas Club quite often as RUBY ran a clean place and one could go in there without a bunch of hoodlums and drunks hanging around.

DEHAVEN became quite friendly with RUBY and saw him once or twice a week until he, DEHAVEN, left Texas in September, 1961. He has not seen RUBY since that time but had a postcard from him in August of this year postmarked New York City. Apparently someone had given RUBY his present address, and on the card RUBY had told DEHAVEN he expected to make a trip to the West Coast sometime and would look him up.

DEHAVEN further advised that RUBY was a liberal Democrat and was also an integrationist and that they used to have friendly arguments regarding the racial situation as DEHAVEN was a segregationist. He stated that RUBY was very pro-ROOSEVELT, liked EISENHOWER, and also thought KENNEDY was a good man but KENNEDY had not been President long enough when he left Texas for him to notice any strong convictions regarding KENNEDY on the part of RUBY. DEHAVEN stated that although RUBY was very liberal he was quite certain RUBY had no communist affiliations.

DEHAVEN stated that RUBY was kind of a "nut" as if he did not like something, he would say it and would be quite firm in his convictions and would sometimes "blow his top."

DEHAVEN further advised that RUBY always carried a pistol and he could visualize RUBY standing around the Police Department getting worked up and just shooting OSWALD as he would have had a pistol handy since he always carried one.

DEHAVEN advised that he did not know OSWALD and had never seen him to his knowledge around either of RUBY's clubs and he would be amazed if RUBY had known OSWALD before the shooting.

DEHAVEN reiterated he has no knowledge of RUBY since September, 1961.

Mr. THEODORE LOUIS FLEMING, Unit Number 7, 4 H Motel, 4777 North Broadway, telephone 442-1772, was interviewed at his place of employment, Regent Investment Company, 900 28th Street, Boulder, Colorado.

Mr. FLEMING stated that he was employed in April, 1955 as a police officer on the Dallas, Texas, Police Department and remained in that employment until March of 1963 when he resigned in order to better his financial condition. He continued that he is not married, and that he first met JACK RUBY about 1958 at the Carousel, a night club in Dallas, Texas, specializing in strip-tease shows. He continued that this night club was operated by JACK RUBY, and that from about 1958 to March of 1963 he (FLEMING) occasionally visited the club, possibly once a month, to "have a beer and see a show." He stated that during this period he, as well as many Dallas police officers, were casual acquaintances of JACK RUBY and were on a "first name basis" with RUBY. He continued that RUBY is a man who "loves policemen" and very seldom let them pay for anything in his night club. FLEMING enlarged on this statement by advising that at times RUBY let him pay for his drinks; however, he estimated that 90 per cent of the time he received no check when he visited the Carousel. He advised further that he was of the opinion that most of the other police officers who frequented the Carousel were treated in much the same manner.

He advised further that during his service on the Dallas Police Department, he was assigned at times in the down town district and does not recall ever being called to the Carousel on a complaint of any kind; however, he has visited the Carousel on an official investigation on some occasions. He added that this was usually when he was attempting to locate someone he was looking for, and that in his opinion, JACK RUBY was generally known "as a pretty damn good night club operator who had a sincere love for police officers." FLEMING explained this statement further by stating that so far as he knows, RUBY is a normal male person who has shown no indication to him to be effeminate in any manner and merely has a high regard for police officers.

FLEMING stated further that he (FLEMING) was a good friend of the late Officer J. D. TIPPET; however, he does not recalled ever having seen TIPPET frequent the Carousal and does not know if RUBY was even acquainted with him.

He advised further that while RUBY liked policement and seldom let them pay their checks at his club, RUBY at no time requested any favors of FLEMING or, to his knowledge, of any other police officer. FLEMING continued that in fact he could not recall ever having seen JACK RUBY at the Dallas Police Department. He added that he certainly did not consider him a "hanger on" at the Police Department.

FLEMING advised that there is no vice or moral squad as such at the Dallas Police Department; however, this phase of the police activities is handled by the Special Service Bureau which has a complement of 40 to 45 men. FLEMING continued that to his knowledge there is no one in this Bureau that was any closer to RUBY than the ordinary policeman.

FLEMING repeated that in his opinion RUBY killed OSWALD solely because OSWALD killed a policeman; however, that possibly part of his motive might have been publicity. He added that he does not feel that RUBY committed this murder because OSWALD killed President KENNEDY.

FLEMING advised further that no crime of this magnitude occurred in Dallas during his time in the Police Department, and so he cannot visualize the security measures that the Police Department may have used when OSWALD was in custody. He continued that he has no knowledge as to how RUBY may have gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department unless some rookie policeman believed him to be a detective and allowed him to pass. FLEMING stated he does not believe any officer of the Dallas Police Department was involved in any conspiracy with RUBY to kill OSWALD; however, he added that there is a "good likelihood" that any officer acquainted with RUBY would have allowed him to enter the Police Building if he requested permission to do so.

FLEMING stated further that he does not recall ever having discussed any type of politics with JACK RUBY and has no information in his possession indicating that RUBY and OSWALD were acquainted.

He advised further that he does not believe that RUBY was acquainted with Chief of Police in Dallas and that he does not believe that RUBY is acquainted with Captain WILL FRITZ in charge of homicide at Dallas Police Department. He added that FRITZ in a bachelor, but that he has never seen him at the Carousel Club.

TEXAS

FLEMING stated that there is no information in his possession on which he could base an opinion on whether any person might have conspired with RUBY to kill OSWALD.

FLEMING advised that he is unable to furnish specific names of particular Dallas policemen with whom RUBY was acquainted, because in his opinion he was a casual acquaintance of almost every Dallas policeman. He continued that he did visit the Carousel about once a month, but that during this period he does not recall seeing any Dallas policemen present in the club habitually.

FLEMING advised further that as far as he knows, RUBY appeared to be a normal individual, and he cannot think of anything peculiar about him except that RUBY seemed to have an obsession about a furnace thermostate located in the Carousel Club. FLEMING went on to explain that he recalls kidding RUBY about the thermostat because RUBY was unable to walk past the thermostat without stopping to adjust it.

FLEMING advised further that he recalls that in about February, 1962, a Dallas detective, whose name he cannot recall, was killed while working on a prostitution case and that the master of ceremonies, several show girls, and other employees from the Carousel attended this officer's funeral. FLEMING added that he was unable to recall whether or not RUBY attended this funeral.

FLEMING concluded that he was unable to furnish any additional information concerning this matter; however, he planned to be in Dallas, Texas, over the Christmas holidays and if he learned anything additional, he would immediately notify the FBI.

AMOS C. FLINT, 5010 Live Oak, Apartment C, employed at Southland Life, advised that he observed an ad in a newspaper advertising membership in the Sovereign Club located on Commerce Street, to which ad he applied. He stated that he became a member of the club and met JACK RUBY, and he believed he gave JACK $20.00 or $25.00 for membership fee. He stated that thereafter he went to the club about ten or twelve times before the club folded up about two or three years ago. He said that he did not see JACK RUBY from that time until the Texas and Oklahoma football game this year, when he was standing on the street after the game and an individual called out his name: FLINT. He said he turned around and recognized JACK RUBY, that he was surprised RUBY recalled his name since the lapse of time.

He said during this brief meeting on the street RUBY was passing out little cards advertising the Carousel Club, one side of which contained a picture of an exotic and the other with the name JACK RUBY. He said he never saw RUBY again and during their association strictly as a member of the Club Sovereign, he never heard RUBY mention LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between the two.

He said that he first heard of OSWALD during the Presidential assassination. He advised that RUBY was the type of person who was constantly talking and bragging about his feats but never mentioned or talked about politics. He said that he was a crude salesman, the type that always went around slapping people on the back. He said that he had never observed RUBY swear, push anyone around or fight with them in public, and he was surprised to read about this part of RUBY's nature in the papers.

He said that he met RUBY's sister once and he was impressed by her since she was more sophisticated and suave than JACK RUBY. He said that he had known RUBY owned the Vegas Club in Oak Cliff but had never been in the club. He further advised that he never knew where RUBY lived and never knew any of RUBY's associates. He said that he was surprised when RUBY shot OSWALD. He advised that he joined the Sovereign Club with CHARLES PETTIGREW, who works for the City Planning Commission, City of Dallas, and who lives in an apartment building on North Henderson off the Central Expressway, exact address unknown.

BURNETT MERRELL FRAZER, JR., Attorney-at-Law, Law Firm of Pollard & Pollard, Southside Building, South Beckham, Tyler, Texas, stated he first met JACK RUBY in about 1960 or 1961 when RUBY operated the Sovereign Club which was in the same location as the present Carousel Club on Commerce Street in Dallas.

He stated at that time while he, FRAZER, was employed by the Better Business Bureau (BBB), Dallas, there were a number of private clubs started and some were only "paper operations" used to fleece prospective members. He stated he received an inquiry concerning the Sovereign Club and after investigating it ascertained it was a legitimate club and had good entertainment, part of which included the "Bottoms Up" Act now at the Adolphus Hotel. He stated a JOHN CHAMBLISS formerly employed at Zale's Jewelers in Dallas, was the manager of the Sovereign Club for RUBY at that time. He stated the club under the name of the Sovereign Club went out of business in approximately one year and was then re-opened under the name of the Carousel Club and had a nightclub act with strippers in it.

FRAZER stated the Carousel Club hired one SHELLY MYERS who worked an act as an hypnotist, and as a result of this he received his second complaint at the BBB concerning a club operated by RUBY. He stated he checked out RUBY and ascertained that MYERS was a self-styled clinical psychologist and had offices with one JACK M. MIROWITZ, who at that time had offices as the Southwest Psycho-Therapy Clinic, 6617 Snider Plaza in Dallas, and that he believes MIROWITZ now is operating on Westchester Drive in the 8200 block.

FRAZER stated his contacts with RUBY were strictly in a business manner but from his few contacts he believed RUBY to be a very emotional person and a man with a persecution complex. He stated other than those listed above he knows of no other associates of RUBY. He further advised he has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information that would indicate that RUBY and OSWALD were known to each other.

He stated results of his investigations concerning RUBY in connection with the Sovereign and the Carousel Clubs

Clockwise Fashions, 211 North Austin, Dallas" in JACK RUBY's personal property, was contacted at which time he advised that he met JACK RUBY approximately one year ago in connection with his business, Clockwise Fashions. He stated that he has sold JACK RUBY several items of clothing which he described as being party dresses for his waitresses. He has never visited either at the Carousel Club or the Vegas Club and was not aware of RUBY's exact position concerning these night clubs.

Mr. GAMMON stated that he is unable to furnish any information pertaining to RUBY's background, friends or associates, and was not aware of any political views he may have possessed during the past few years. GUNN advised there were three other pilots living with him at the time - AL PIERCE and EVERETT MAYO, both of whom are pilots for Central Airlines living in Irving, Texas; and R. L. GUNN advised he and his roommates met JACK RUBY through a BILL MARCUS, now deceased, who was part-owner of the apartments and that he (GUNN) had been more or less in charge of the swimming pool area at these apartments. GUNN stated that RUBY seemed like a great promoter and was always promoting his Vegas Club and a private club that he was just starting. GUNN advised RUBY asked him to promote some business for a private club through the airline crews and employees. GUNN stated this private club was located where the Carousel Club is now located in Dallas.

In describing RUBY, GUNN stated that RUBY seemed to like people, was always promoting his interests, and seemed to be cautious about running a legitimate club and business. JOHN P. HICKEY, JR., Sales Representative, Cunard Steamship Company, Ltd., 1802 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, who resides at 7209 Mason Dells Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised he first met JACK RUBY in the summer of 1958 or 1959 when he, HICKEY, was employed as a room clerk, Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, which is located across the street from JACK RUBY's Carousel Club, formerly known as the Sovereign Club. He said RUBY asked if he would try to get some new members for his club and for his trouble he gave HICKEY a free admission pass to the Sovereign Club. He believed that RUBY had just opened the Sovereign Club and was seeking new members.

HICKEY related that from the time he first met RUBY until he, HICKEY, left the Adolphus Hotel in July, 1961, he frequently saw RUBY and talked with him. He stated that RUBY's conversations pertained primarily to show business and RUBY never discussed his personal life or politics. Since July, 1961, HICKEY has seen RUBY occasionally on the streets of Dallas and has had little conversation with him. The last time he saw RUBY was in April, 1963.

He described RUBY as a high-strung, good-hearted person who would do anything for his friends. He said RUBY was somewhat of a nervous, fidgety person who seldom relaxed and constantly worried about his nightclub business. HICKEY related he has seen RUBY lose his temper a few times but has never seen him in a violent state.

HICKEY advised that from his knowledge of and association with RUBY and from his few visits to RUBY's Sovereign Club, he is positive that RUBY has never engaged in any illegal activities. He added that to the best of his knowledge, RUBY has always operated a "clean" legitimate nightclub.

HICKEY stated he has never had any social relationship with RUBY and he knows none of his close acquaintances or associates. He stated that RUBY never mentioned having friends on the Dallas Police Department and HICKEY new of none.

HICKEY advised that on the morning of November 24, 1963, he was driving his car in downtown Dallas and decided to drive by the Dallas City Hall and possibly be in a position to see LEE HARVEY OSWALD transported to the county jail. At approximately 11:10 or 11:15 a.m., exact time unrecalled, HICKEY drove his car up Main Street past City Hall and parked his car on a parking lot at the corner of Main Street and Pearl Expressway, which is located one block from Dallas City Hall on the opposite side of the street. HICKEY said he does not recall whether or not a parking lot attendant was on duty at the parking lot at the time. He then started down Main Street towards City Hall, on the opposite side of the street, with the intention of crossing the street to City Hall at the corner of Main and Harwood Streets. He said just before he got to the corner of Main and Harwood he saw a police officer, who was standing at the Main Street ramp entrance, draw his gun as if something had happened. He immediately ran to the Main Street ramp entrance and someone mentioned that OSWALD had been shot.

HICKEY advised that from the time he left his parked car until he saw the police officer draw his gun, at which point HICKEY was near the light crossing at the corner of Main and Harwood Streets, not more than two or three minutes had elapsed. Also, after leaving his parked car and as he was walking down Main Street toward City Hall, he occasionally looked over at the Main Street ramp entrance. He definitely recalls seeing one police officer on the sidewalk directly in front of the Main Street ramp entrance. HICKEY said at no time did he see a police car or any vehicle leave the Main Street ramp entrance. He added, however, that his eyes were not focused on that ramp entrance the entire time and a car could have left via the Main Street ramp entrance without his observing it.

HICKEY further stated that just prior to the time the officer pulled his gun he did notice a group of approximately six or eight people standing on the sidewalk to the right of the Main Street ramp entrance. He said he did not recognize any of the people standing in the group, however. He said that when he ran across the street to see what had happened he spoke briefly with an elderly gentleman standing in the group at the entrance, but he did not know the gentleman and he never learned his identity. HICKEY saw no one in the vicinity of the City Hall that morning whose identity was known to him.

HICKEY also advised that at no time during his presence at or in the vicinity of the City Hall on the morning of November 24, 1963, did he see JACK RUBY. Furthermore, HICKEY said that while standing at the Main Street ramp entrance he heard no one mention JACK RUBY's name.

HICKEY stated that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. He added that he has never seen RUBY in the company of OSWALD nor has he ever seen OSWALD at either of RUBY's nightclubs.

HICKEY was of the opinion that RUBY was very upset over the assassination of former President KENNEDY and, RUBY being an emotional person, took advantage of the opportunity when he shot and killed OSWALD. HICKEY was also of the opinion that RUBY may have been seeking publicity by his act. He stated that he believed RUBY killed OSWALD "on the spur of the moment" without premeditation and without any conspiracy whatsoever. He had no idea how RUBY gained entrance to City Hall on November 24, 1963.

HICKEY advised that he knew nothing unfavorable concerning RUBY's character, associations or loyalty to the U. S.

ROBERT W. HOLLIN, 2209 St. Francis Avenue, DALLAS, TEXAS Hollin Land Planning Company, 1106 Graham, advised he first met JACK RUBY in 1952 when RUBY owned the Silver Spur. He said at the time he was working for the City Planning Commission and RUBY came to the office requesting a permit of some kind. He said RUBY asked who he had to "pay off" to get a license for his club. HOLLINS advised he told RUBY that the city received the money, whereupon RUBY allegedly said he knew that, but wondered who got the biggest cut.

HOLLIN said RUBY tried to act like a big-time operator and mentioned he was from Chicago, Illinois. He said RUBY later opened a club, The Sovereign, which was a private club, sometime in 1956 or 1957, where he charged $100 for membership. He said this club later became the Carousel Club. He advised these clubs were owned by an individual named PAUL.

HOLLIN advised that in 1955 he went to work for himself and formed a land planning company and he used to stop by RUBY's clubs and take some of his clients with him. He said he also took some of the employees that had worked for him in the City Planning Commission to RUBY's clubs. He advised that when RUBY lived with his sister on Fitzhugh Street, in what he believed was the Continental House, he used to stop by his apartment and visit with them. He said JACK RUBY's sister was a more stable person than JACK and he classified RUBY as a "show off" who was always trying to be the center of attention. He said he never observed RUBY in a violent mood, nor had he observed him fighting. He advised that RUBY was not politically inclined or motivated and never discussed politics. He said the only time RUBY carried a gun was when he was taking money to the bank. He said he was surprised when he learned RUBY had shot OSWALD.

HOLLIN advised that, insofar as OSWALD is concerned, he never knew him and had never heard RUBY mention OSWALD's name and he knew of no association between the two.

He advised that he resides at the Washington Manor Apartments, 2480 Washington Street, San Francisco, Apartment 305, telephone number WAlnut 1-1559. CALIF.

Mr. KIRK stated he has been greatly disturbed regarding the recent Dallas murders of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and President KENNEDY's assassin, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He pointed out he has defended persons in Dallas courts charged with felonies and involving cases investigated by the Dallas Police Department.

Mr. KIRK states he is acquainted with Captain WILL FRITZ of the Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department. He states he also knows JACK RUBY by reputation and has been in Dallas night clubs operated by this individual. He does not recall ever having engaged in conversation with RUBY. Mr. KIRK was asked specifically if he knows of any instance that would dramatize a close friendship or association between RUBY and FRITZ. Mr. KIRK could not recall any specific occasion when he has seen these persons together. He could not recall any occasion when he, KIRK, has seen RUBY in the Dallas Police Department. However, Mr. KIRK states it is inconceivable that FRITZ did not know RUBY. He described FRITZ as a domineering, dictatorial officer possessing a photographic memory and a thorough knowledge of the Dallas underworld. In light of RUBY's reputation and notoriety in Dallas prior to the murder of OSWALD, and FRITZ's long-time control of the most important segment of the Dallas Police Department, Mr. KIRK considers it utterly riduculous that Captain FRITZ might contend that he did not know RUBY including physical recognition of RUBY. Mr. KIRK observed that news releases from Dallas subsequent to the OSWALD murder clearly stated that RUBY was known by some of the Dallas police officers, and known by them by sight and name. Mr. KIRK states he would have to question the veracity of Captain FRITZ if FRITZ were to disclaim knowledge or recognition of JACK RUBY. Mr. FRITZ was specifically questioned regarding prior statements made by him to the effect that FRITZ and RUBY were very close friends. He stated that under the circumstances and having witnessed RUBY shoot OSWALD on national television, he has come to the conclusion that FRITZ must have been a friend of RUBY's or else RUBY would never have been permitted to be in a location where he could commit this murder.

Mr. KIRK stated that anyone not having status in law enforcement or the legal profession who had access to the Dallas Police Department facilities would have to be known to Captain FRITZ. He observed that the press reports from Dallas specify that RUBY did have this access. Mr. KIRK also expressed a theory that it was to Captain FRITZ's advantage that OSWALD was killed for it enabled him to "close," in FRITZ's words, a murder case based on circumstantial evidence. KIRK stated that the OSWALD case was bound to involve the Dallas Police Department including Captain FRITZ in controversy for years to come.

He was asked if the Dallas authorities are involved in any less controversy as they are now faced with the investigation and trial of JACK RUBY. Mr. KIRK stated that in his opinion the JACK RUBY matter insofar as Captain FRITZ is concerned, can be more easily handled by the Dallas authorities. Mr. KIRK was unable to explain this contention.

Mr. KIRK again stated that the information furnished by him is not based on direct knowledge of the incidents surrounding the two Dallas murders, but is based on his past experience and associations in Dallas as well as information obtained from the news media.

RAY KIRKPATRICK, Attorney at Law, 324 Perry-Brooks Building, Austin, Texas, on December 16, 1963, advised SA H. T. BURK he first met JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas, about two years ago. KIRKPATRICK was there as a customer and RUBY came to the table and introduced himself as owner of the club and inquired how KIRKPATRICK liked the show and service at the club.

RUBY was very friendly and talkative and asked KIRKPATRICK his occupation. KIRKPATRICK believes he gave RUBY his professional card as attorney and wrote this information on a piece of paper and gave it to RUBY.

KIRKPATRICK has re-visited the Carousel Club on an average of three or four times a year for the past two years usually seeing or speaking to RUBY briefly as RUBY was usually "hopping about from table to table visiting the customers."

RUBY once invited KIRKPATRICK to come backstage and see his dog of which he was very fond. KIRKPATRICK also recalls RUBY as being a little emotional and who was always urging the waiters and cigarette girls to do certain things or wait on a customer immediately. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to KIRPATRICK and he never saw him in the Carousel Club or heard RUBY mention such a name.

JACK J. KLEIN, Manager of the Dallas-Fort Worth Arthur Murray Studios, residence 2533 Turtle Creek Boulevard, HIGHLA telephone LA 8-8497, advised that he first met JACK RUBY PARK, TEXA sometime in 1961 when a staff member of his employ mentioned that RUBY had club downtown which they might be able to use for their outside social functions. He said he believed the name of this club was the Sovereign Club and it was a private club at the time. He said the club has since changed to the Carousel Club. He advised that he used this club on two occasions for their outside social functions with RUBY's consent. He said he dropped in to see JACK RUBY one day prior to the use of the club and left his card containing his name and address and business. He said when the the club opened up under the name Carousel, RUBY gave them all complimentary passes but he never used them. but has gone to the club on his own with customers. He said he has no personal relationship with JACK RUBY and had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the shooting of the President and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

He said as far as his opinion of RUBY was concerned, he would class him as a con-man, vain and egotistical, who would do anything he could get away with. He said RUBY struck him as being a show off type person, and tried to be a big time spender. He said the only time that he has seen RUBY emotional and excited was on one occasion at the club an individual at one of the tables was making remarks to a stripper and the stripper became quite upset as did RUBY. He said RUBY talked to one of his bouncers who approached the individual and the man quit after that. He said that RUBY was quite excited, moreso than was called for. He further advised that members of his staff claimed that RUBY was a hot headed individual but he had no other recollection to substantiate their statements. He advised that he did not think RUBY would have been the type to have shot OSWALD because he did not believe RUBY would have gone that far to impress anyone.

He said he handled big bills at his cage window and he probably met RUBY through one of the individuals whom he dealt with through his window but he could not recall who it might have been. He said he had been in RUBY's Silver Spur Club once or twice and he joined RUBY's private club, the Sovereign Club, when it first opened, and had gone to the club on two or three occasions. He said RUBY gave him a membership card. He said he had never gone to the Carousel Club which later took over from the Sovereign Club. He said he considered RUBY was a small timer who tried to act like a big time operator. He said he knew of no associates of RUBY and had never heard of OSWALD until the Presidential assassination and never heard RUBY mention OSWALD's name. He advised that he never saw RUBY with a gun and he never saw him abusing or fighting with any of his customers or employees. He said his primary dealings with RUBY were through the banks that he had worked. He said he last saw RUBY about three years ago and he believed it was when RUBY came in to make a loan. DAVID S. LEVENTHAL, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Agent, Field Audit Division, IRS, Corrigan Towers, 212 North St. Paul, Dallas, Texas, advised that his office is located on the 8th floor of the Corrigan Towers and his telephone number is RI 8-5611, extension 2466. He stated, however, that he has never talked with JACK RUBY on this extension. He related that to his knowledge there is no DAVE ROSENTHAL employed by the IRS at Dallas and that he knows of no one by that name. He advised that another IRS Agent, GLEN STINNETT, has talked with RUBY on this extension several times in the recent past concerning a tax compromise with RUBY. DALLAS, TEXAS

LEVENTHAL advised that he does know RUBY, however, and he first met RUBY in approximately 1951 or 1952 when he, LEVENTHAL, was a public accountant. He said RUBY hired him at that time to handle his account for him which LEVENTHAL did for about one year during 1951-52. He said RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club in Dallas at the time and RUBY was not very successful in that business venture. He stated that in 1952 he was employed by a private firm and did not subsequently handle RUBY's account. He stated that as a result of the above service, RUBY owed LEVENTHAL money which he never paid. He added, however, that in subsequent years RUBY offered to pay LEVENTHAL but LEVENTHAL told RUBY to forget about it.

He related that in approximately 1954 RUBY and RUBY's fiancee, name unrecalled, invited him to accompany them to a boxing match in Dallas, which he did. He stated that outside of this association, he had no social contacts with RUBY. He added the only subsequent contacts with RUBY were occasional greetings exchanged when he saw RUBY on the streets of Dallas. The last time he saw RUBY was about two years ago when LEVENTHAL and LEVENTHAL's wife visited RUBY's Carousel Club in Dallas.

LEVENTHAL said nothing ever came to his attention reflecting that RUBY was engaged in any illegal activities and it has been his impression that RUBY was a law-abiding citizen, a serious minded businessman, and he operated a "clean," legitimate business. He related that his conversations with RUBY pertained primarily to business matters and RUBY never discussed his personal life or politics. He believed that RUBY is completely loyal to the U. S.

LEVENTHAL advised that RUBY is somewhat "hot tempered" but he has never seen him in a violent state or strike anyone. He added that RUBY likes "show business" and being his own boss.

LEVENTHAL stated he knew none of RUBY's close associates or acquaintances and he did not know if RUBY had friends on the Dallas Police Department.

LEVENTHAL did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. He had no idea how RUBY gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas City Hall on November 24, 1963, or why RUBY killed OSWALD.

EDWARD H. MC BEE, 3705 Travis, Apartment C, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

MC BEE, a bartender, is now in the employ of BOB NORTON, owner of three night clubs in Dallas, The Pago, The Red Garter, and The Keynote. MC BEE is subject to work assignments at any of these night clubs.

MC BEE first met RUBY in about 1954 or 1955 at a Christmas Party. MC BEE has worked in various night clubs in Dallas as a waiter and, in recent years, as a bartender. His employment over the years has repeatedly placed him in contact with JACK RUBY.

MC BEE, for many years, has frequented the Vegas Club and is acquainted with EVA GRANT, JACK RUBY's sister. The Vegas Club has always been a gathering or meeting place for night club employees, especially cocktail waitresses, as the Vegas Club remains open until 2:00 AM, whereas, most of the other night clubs close at midnight or 1:00 AM.

When JACK RUBY opened the Sovereign Club, the present location of the Carousel Club, MC BEE was a bartender at the opening of the club. He worked for RUBY for about a week and quit when RUBY would not pay him on schedule. MC BEE was never again in the employment of JACK RUBY.

During the approximate period 1960 - 1962, MC BEE and his then roommate, CHESTER MEYERS, maintained an apartment at 3939 Travis, Apartment 2. Their apartment became a place for night club employees to party after closing hours. Often times, the parties would continue until 6:00 or 7:00 AM. JACK RUBY frequently would show up at the parties and usually brought some of the girls from his club.

RUBY rarely took a drink, as he could not hold his liquor. On one occasion, in approximately 1961, RUBY and some of his showgirls appeared at an after-hour party at MC BEE's apartment. RUBY, that night, seemed to have been drinking prior to his arrival. While at MC BEE's apartment, RUBY drank some wine.

During the party, one of the girls, whose exact identity MC BEE cannot now recall, did a gyrating and suggestive dance. Someone in the group suggested that RUBY join her and that he do a strip. RUBY removed his outer garments down to his undershirt and shorts. All the while the girl did her dance. RUBY then attempted to do the twist dance and worked himself into a position where he was kneeling on the floor, with the girl doing her gyrating dance only inches away from RUBY's face. She then backed off. At this point, to the best of MC BEE's recollection, RUBY, in a loud and excited voice, said, "Come on, man or woman. I'll take anyone on."

MC BEE advised that nothing became of this incident and the party continued.

Prior to the above incident, MC BEE and the roommate, CHESTER MEYERS, had, at times, wondered if RUBY might be a person who is bisexual. After the above incident, MC BEE and MEYERS concluded there is a strong possibility RUBY is bisexual.

MC BEE stated he had no concrete proof to back up his opinion, and he can cite no other instance where RUBY behaved as he did on the above cited occasion.

MC BEE advised RUBY is a bachelor and, to his knowledge, has always lived alone.

MC BEE advised RUBY is the type of person who has a lot of friends and, at the same time, there are many who do not like him. If RUBY liked a person, RUBY would stick by that person and help him in time of need. Conversely, RUBY, if he did not like someone, would not hesitate to express his dislike. RUBY liked to play the role of "big shot" and often took pride in citing prominent persons as personal friends. Although RUBY knew many, and probably most, of the officers in the Dallas Police Department, MC BEE did not know of any who were close personal friends of RUBY.

MC BEE last saw RUBY sometime in September or early October, 1963, when MC BEE stopped in at the Vegas Club. MC BEE did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY.

ED E. MC LEMORE, 4211 Lakeside Drive, Owner of the Sportatorium, Industrial Boulevard and Cadiz, advised he has known JACK RUBY since RUBY first opened the Silver Spur Night Club on South Ervay Street. He said he used to provide entertainers to RUBY, since he used to handle western acts and RUBY's club primarily dealt with western and hillbilly-type individuals. He said this was in the late 1940's and early 1950's and his association with RUBY was strictly business. He said that RUBY's dealings were very good and that RUBY had attempted to give him membership cards in his private club, The Sovereign, when it first opened in Dallas. He said this was the same club which is now known as The Carousel.

He said he has never been to either The Sovereign or The Carousel and the last time he saw RUBY was over six months ago, when they happened to meet on the street. He said they chatted briefly and departed.

He said he never knew JACK RUBY to carry a gun and he knew of no connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. In fact, he stated, he did not know OSWALD until the President's assassination.

MC LEMORE advised RUBY used to come to the Sportatorium in the late 1940's and early 1950's when he, MC LEMORE, sponsored wrestling matches. He said RUBY would bring his friends and, naturally, expected to get into the wrestling match free, which he always did. He said RUBY was high-strung, emotional and was hard to get along with, both with his help and his customers. He classified RUBY as a glory seeker, but stated he was surprised to learn RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, because he did not believe RUBY would go so far to seek publicity.

Mr. GORDON McLENDON, owner, Radio Station KLIF, Dallas, Texas, said he had known JACK RUBY some ten or twelve years. He stated that he had never socialized with RUBY, and that his only contact with RUBY was when RUBY was trying to solicit favors of the news media. RUBY, at different times, would drop by the radio station, KLIF, for apparently no reason other than to attempt to ingratiate himself.

McLENDON related that it was his opinion that RUBY was a highly emotional exhibitionist and an extrovert who would do almost anything to draw attention to himself. McLENDON said he had at no time seen or heard anything that would make him believe, or would indicate, that RUBY may have known LEE HARVEY OSWALD. McLENDON advised it was his personal opinion that RUBY would have nothing to do with an individual of OSWALD's social status.

McLENDON further stated that he would personally judge RUBY as the type of individual who, by suddenly shooting OSWALD on November 24, 1963, felt that the populace would deem RUBY a great national hero. He stated RUBY had this type of mind and thinking. McLENDON was of the opinion that RUBY probably did this on an impulse rather than as the result of any planning. McLENDON was quick to point out, however, that this was his own personal opinion and that he had nothing other than that upon which to base this observation.

He advised SCHATZ told him that RUBY was a friend of his who he wanted MILLER to meet. He said he and SCHATZ went to the Sovereign Club and while there, in conversation with SCHATZ, he recalls RUBY saying that he had been exiled from Chicago and although he wanted to go to California, he had been directed to come to Dallas.

MILLER advised he did not pay too much attention to the foregoing conversation as RUBY impressed him as a "typical Chicagoan".

He said subsequent to the meeting with RUBY, he received a membership card to the Sovereign Club and thereafter, visited the club on six or seven occasions, the last time being in April or May of 1960. He said he only recalls seeing RUBY in the club on three or four of these occasions.

MILLER advised RUBY appeared to be trying desperately to get people with money, or influence to join his club.

MILLER advised he recalls seeing BLACKIE SHERROD, a sports writer with one of the Dallas newspapers at the Sovereign Club on one occasion. TEXAS

MILLER advised he does not recall ever having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD with RUBY or at the Sovereign Club.

BILL MOSER, operator, Texaco Service Station, North Fitzhugh, at Central Expressway, advised his name would have appeared on a membership list in the possession of JACK RUBY because he was a member of the Sovereign Club.

MOSER explained that for about a year or more, until about three years ago, RUBY was a regular customer at his filling station and always paid cash for gas and services. At that time RUBY was living nearby and operating the Vegas Club. MOSER did not actually want to join the Sovereign Club, but since RUBY was a customer he felt obligated. RUBY indicated to him the membership fee was somewhere around $15, which RUBY took out in trade. He only went to the Sovereign Club with his wife on one occasion. About three years ago, RUBY quit trading at the station and MOSER assumed he had moved from the area. He only saw RUBY on one other occasion since that time, which was about six months ago, when RUBY came into the station and purchased gasoline. All of his contacts with RUBY were of a business manner and he never became acquainted with RUBY socially or was aware of his habits.

MOSER was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY, and knew of no individuals as possibly involved with these men in the shootings.

Mr. MURRAY stated he is employed as manager of the Town and Traveler, Inc., with office located in the lobby of the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas. He stated he has known JACK RUBY only casually for the past six years but never associated with him socially. RUBY would occasionally come into the lobby of the Statler-Hilton Hotel and would engage him occasionally in conversations concerning local events or trivial matters. About five or six years ago, RUBY was in the lobby of this hotel and solicited from him and others membership into the Sovereign Club, requesting something like $5.00 or $6.00 for this membership. MURRAY attempted to join this club and was given a membership card. He stated he attended the club only one time and has attended the Vegas Club on only one occasion.

MURRAY stated he never discussed politics with RUBY and his acquaintance and association with him was limited to the casual visits of RUBY and the few times MURRAY visited RUBY's clubs.

MURRAY stated he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never knew of anything which would indicate a relationship between OSWALD and RUBY. He has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY or how RUBY was able to enter the basement of the Dallas Police Department before shooting OSWALD. He last saw RUBY about the middle of September, 1963, in the lobby of the Statler-Hilton during which time nothing unusual was noted in the conversation. He recalls that on that occasion RUBY was enthusiastic over a new place of business opening in Dallas named the "Spa" (PH), a type of health club. The following investigation was conducted by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN at Dallas, Texas:

On December 18, 1963, MATTIE NELSON, 2635 Forrest Avenue, Dallas, Texas, was telephonically contacted in order to make an appointment for interview. Mrs. NELSON was advised that her name and the number "TR 8824" appeared in an address book, the property of JACK RUBY. The name TOM MUSKARD, Texas, appeared in an address book secured from RUBY's property following his arrest by the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963. A search of the Dallas Office indices, telephone and city directories from 1958 to present, failed to reflect the name MUSKARD.

On December 19, 1963, BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Association of Dallas and Identification officers PAT CROSSLAND, Dallas Police Department, and J. H. KITCHING, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised that they were unable to locate any information in their files identifiable with TOM MUSKARD, Texas.

The name and telephone number JACK GREEN, Texas, BL 5-3389, appeared among the property of JACK RUBY obtained from his person following his arrest by the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963.

Mrs DONALD CLARK, JR., 2306 Finley, telephonically advised that she and her husband have had telephone number BL 5-3389 since about 1960 or 1961 and before that time the prefix did not exist in a telephone number at Dallas. She added that JACK GREEN is not known to her.

On December 18, 1963, the following individuals were telephonically contacted in an effort to locate and interview JACK GREEN, whose name appeared as an item obtained from RUBY's person as stated above. JACK GREEN, 10559 Gooding, Dallas;

JACK GREEN, 3202 Crest Ridge, Dallas;

JACK GREEN, 905 Newsom, Dallas.

On December 19, 1963, BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Association of Dallas and Identification officers PAT CROSSLAND, Dallas Police Department and J. H. Mr. ROBERT R. O'DONNELL, 10532 Cromwell, Dallas, Texas, owner of the General Films Distributing Company, 412 South Harwood, Dallas, whose business card appeared as "BOB O'DONNELL, General Films Distributing Company, 412 South Harwood" in RUBY's personal effects, was interviewed at his place of business at which time he advised that it would be very logical for JACK RUBY to have both his name and his business card in his personal effects. He explained this by saying that he has known JACK RUBY for sometime and has associated with him to a limited degree. LA.

Approximately twelve years ago, he was introduced to JACK RUBY by an individual whose name he recalled as being MOE ROSENBLOOM who is now deceased. During the period he has known RUBY, he never knew him to be anything other than "a real nice guy". Mr. O'DONNELL stated that he has talked with RUBY on various occasions during the past years and that as a general rule the conversation centered around the field of entertainment. He could not recall any particular conversation and did not feel that he, O'DONNELL, ever discussed politics with RUBY. He knew of nothing whatsoever that would connect RUBY with any subversive type group and did not believe anyone conspired with RUBY to shoot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

O'DONNELL advised that he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had heard his name for the first time in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. O'DONNELL advised that he could only recall one individual that had worked for RUBY and who knew RUBY quite well. He identified this man as being a prize fighter by the name of BUDDY TURMAN, who he believes is now somewhere in Europe. He mentioned that TURMAN is possibly back fighting again and if so would be touring the Europe circuit, explaining that TURMAN would be fighting throughout the various countries in Europe.

O'DONNELL stated that he last saw JACK RUBY during the evening of September 13, 1963, and had engaged in a brief conversation with RUBY at that time. Although he could not be sure, O'DONNELL was of the opinion that he had seen RUBY that evening at the Carousel Club.

Mr. O'DONNELL stated that he was in New Orleans when the President was assassinated and could not offer any information whatsoever in regard to either the assassination or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD other than what he had heard from the local news media and television.

In regard to RUBY's background, Mr. O'DONNELL was unable to furnish any other names of friends, associates or relatives that RUBY may have had during his time in Dallas.

Mr. PHIL MARTIN OLIAN, 4511½ Westway, Dallas, TEXAS, Telephone Number LA 8-9024, whose name appeared as "PHIL OLIAN, RI 1-4511" among JACK RUBY's possessions, was contacted at which time he furnished the following information:

He advised that sometime in 1960, exact date he could not recall, he became a member of the Sovereign Club, which he described as being a local night club. He stated that the Sovereign Club was at that time owned and operated by JACK RUBY. In regard to his membership, Mr. OLIAN stated that to the best of his recollection, Mr. RUBY had approached several individuals in efforts to obtain additional members for the Sovereign Club when it was originated in about 1960.

Mr. OLIAN was unable to furnish any information pertaining to RUBY's background inasmuch as he could only recall talking to RUBY on a very casual basis and would as a general rule only greet him whenever he visited the Sovereign Club. He could offer no information as to RUBY's friends, associates, or relatives, but was under the impression that RUBY had several friends in the Dallas area. Mr. OLIAN stated that he had no idea why RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that the only information he possessed concerning either the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was that which he had obtained from the local newspapers and television. He knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY whatsoever.

He was not a frequent patron of the Sovereign Club during his membership and could only recall four or five times that he had gone there for entertainment. He stated that he has been in both the Carousel and the Club Vegas on one or two occasions, but could never recall seeing RUBY on any of these occasions. The last time he saw JACK RUBY was approximately seven or eight months ago and believed that it was on the street somewhere in Dallas.

Mr. OLIAN stated that it is very logical that his name and telephone number had appeared in RUBY's personal effects inasmuch as he was a member of the Sovereign Club at one time.

He resides at 1202 Dearborn, Dallas, Texas. His telephone number is AD 5-6965.

PARRISH has known JACK RUBY on a very casual basis for approximately six to eight years. RUBY has been in the Statler-Hilton Hotel where Mr. PARRISH is doorman, many times over the years and has on numerous occasions asked PARRISH, or indicated to PARRISH, that he would like PARRISH to give out RUBY's cards to guests of the hotel. PARRISH has told him on each occasion that he has a standard answer when guests indicate they are interested in seeing a "girlie show." This answer is "There are three places down the street." He further tells them that all these shows are in close proximity to the hotel and insofar as he knows they are all the same.

PARRISH has indicated on more than one occasion to RUBY that he had no interest in his show and although he was civil to RUBY, he never so much as had a cup of coffee with him. RUBY told him he was going to give him a permanent membership card to his club and PARRISH replied to RUBY that he did not know why RUBY would do this because his answer to the guests of the hotel would still be the same.

PARRISH stated that he has been to the Carousel Club on two occasions and on each occasion he stayed not more than approximately 20 minutes. He informed that the last time he was there was approximately five months ago, when he had one beer and left. PARRISH informed that he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and OSWALD.

Shortly thereafter, the Carousel Club, a public club, was opened.

PETTIGREW was casually acquainted with RUBY since he saw RUBY when he, PETTIGREW, attended the Sovereign Club during the period of his membership.

When the Sovereign Club closed, PETTIGREW did not frequent the Carousel Club and, thus, did not see RUBY again until approximately June, 1963, when RUBY appeared at the City Planning Department Building. 1 AKA. WALLY RASH, WALLY RACK

WALLACE R. RASH, President, Truth Verification Service, Inc., 2818 Maple Street, telephone RI 8-7611, Dallas, Texas, was reinterviewed and furnished the following information:

RASH advised that he is commonly known as WALLY RASH. This concerns the name WALLY RACK and the telephone numbers ID 3-2783 and CA 7-5221, located on JACK RUBY's note pad. He furnished the following explanation:

During the time he was in Houston, Texas, RUBY contacted him and he believed he explained the circumstances of his relationship with RUBY when previously interviewed. His office telephone number in Houston was CA 7-5221 and he seemed to recall that the number RI 3-2783 was some how connected with his activities there. He felt therefore that the name RACK on the note pad was obviously a mistake in spelling and should have been RASH.

DICK L. REDMON, 4180 Plowmin, Apartment 1111, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. REDMON has been the manager of the Texas Consumer Finance Company, 1310 Commerce Street, Dallas, since April 22, 1963. Since April, 1963, REDMON has had periodic contact with JACK RUBY as RUBY's Carousel Club is located on the second floor in the same building as the Texas Consumer Finance Company.

REDMON recalled that approximately four or five months ago RUBY desired to install a blinking light Carousel Club sign that would have extended across the top of the Texas Consumer Finance Company building frontage. Executives of the Texas Consumer Finance Company objected to RUBY's plan and REDMON so advised RUBY. RUBY did not attempt to carry out his plan.

The last time REDMON had any dealings with RUBY was a week to ten days prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. At that time, RUBY and REDMON split the expenses of having refuse and debris picked up from the area immediately behind the building that they both occupy. REDMON recalled RUBY as being a person who was friendly and cooperative in any of their business dealings.

REDMON had no knowledge of any of RUBY's associates or personal affairs. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no knowledge of any acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

HUEY REEVES, 2903 Reynolds, Night Manager, Nichols Garage, Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed for any information he might be able to furnish regarding arrangements for a financial loan made by JACK RUBY for a stripper from the Carousel Club.

REEVES furnished the following information:

On Saturday evening, November 23, 1963, at approximately 7:30 p.m., a stripper from JACK RUBY's Carousel Club, which is located adjacent to Nichols Garage, appeared at the garage and asked to use the telephone. Shortly thereafter, REEVES received a telephone call from JACK RUBY who was at home at his apartment. RUBY told REEVES that one of his strippers from the club had just called him and was in need of some money. RUBY requested REEVES to give the girl $5 and to get a receipt from her. RUBY advised REEVES that he, RUBY, would be at the garage later that evening to repay REEVES the $5 loan. REEVES complied with RUBY's request and gave the girl $5 and in turn received a receipt from her.

Approximately 30-45 minutes later that evening, JACK RUBY appeared in Nichols Garage and repaid REEVES the $5.

REEVES has been employed as night manager of Nichols Garage for approximately one year. He became acquainted with RUBY at the start of his employment as RUBY for many years has parked his personal car at Nichols Garage. REEVES described RUBY as a good-hearted man who always seemed friendly and cheerful. RUBY, after closing his Carousel Club after midnight, periodically would bring REEVES a cup of coffee when RUBY came to the garage to get his car. On some nights when RUBY came to pick up his car he would have one of his strippers from the Carousel Club with him. Many times, RUBY would come to pick up his car and would be alone.

REEVES did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Upon viewing a photograph of OSWALD, REEVES was positive that he had never seen OSWALD in the company of JACK RUBY.

In approximately 1959 when Miss RHODES was employed at the Baker Hotel, Dallas, as an information clerk, a man, JACK RUBY, whose identity was not known to her until two years later, started a conversation with her at the Baker Hotel. She said he wanted to get acquainted and offered her a job at his nightclub. She stated she was only 17 years old at the time and could not work in a nightclub. He did not indicate the type of work she was to do.

Approximately two years ago she visited RUBY's Carousel Club in Dallas with friends and RUBY introduced himself to her group. She said until that time she did not know the man who approached her in 1959 with an offer for a position at his club was JACK RUBY.

She did not see RUBY again until April 1963 when RUBY ran into a car driven by her. She stated that Dallas police officer L. W. SPRADLIN (phonetic) investigated the accident and while she, RUBY and Officer SPRADLIN were talking about the accident, officer SPRADLIN made the following comment to RUBY: "Well, JACK, we've been friends for a long time but the way I see it, you're in the wrong." She added that officer SPRADLIN gave RUBY a ticket. TEXAS

She related that soon after the accident RUBY called her and offered her $50 if she would not show up in court. She said RUBY told her he was afraid of losing his driver's license if the case went to court. Miss RHODES informed RUBY that she had a summons and had to appear in court. She stated that in approximately October, 1963, she and RUBY appeared in a Judge's chambers and their case was settled there.

Miss RHODES believed that RUBY had no car insurance and her insurance company brought no charges against RUBY. She said she carried $50 deductible and her insurance company paid for the repairs to her car above $50. She added that in the settlement RUBY gave her a cashier's check in October, 1963, in the amount of $50 and in addition, he gave her $20 or $25 in cash. She recalls that the cashier's check

GILBERT R. TRIESCH, 716 Morningside Drive, stated that he is a manufacturer's representative for Castle Neckware, Los Angeles, California, and deals with Lilly-Dache line of clothing.

TRIESCH advised that he was at a men's fashion convention in Dallas sometime during April, 1963. While leaving his hotel one night with another man, he observed two well-dressed men and a woman arguing in front of the Carousel Night Club located across the street from the hotel. He and his companion crossed the street and told the three people who were arguing that they had better quiet down before causing a scene and getting arrested. At this point, the three individuals walked away and JACK RUBY stepped out of the Carousel Night Club and said to TRIESCH, "My name is JACK RUBY. I just saw what you did and would like to invite you in for a drink." TRIESCH introduced himself and his friend and they went in with RUBY and had a beer. While drinking the beer, RUBY stated that one of the waitresses needed a ride home and he had told her that he would give her this ride. He also stated that because he was a bachelor he would appreciate it if TRIESCH and his companion would go with him. They did and after taking the waitress home and driving back towards the center of town, TRIESCH commented that he wanted to get some bacon and eggs and then go to bed. RUBY replied that he would be more than happy to make some coffee in his apartment and then call a cab for TRIESCH and his partner. They went to RUBY's apartment, where RUBY showed the men his bar bells and other equipment used to develop the body, and drank a cup of coffee and then took a cab back to the hotel.

TRIESCH stated that during the conversation RUBY had said that if he ever had guests in Dallas that he could bring them to the Carousel Night Club and they would be personal guests of RUBY's. That night TRIESCH was in the lobbey of the hotel and he was talking with a number of individuals, one of whom was Major DOBKINS who is the Mayor of Del Rio, Texas. TRIESCH had said that he knew the man who owned the Carousel Night Club and any time he wanted to bring visitors over there he could do so. The other men began to kid him and jokingly told him what a big man he was. He said that "if you think that I am kidding let's take a walk across the street and I'll prove to you that I know RUBY." They did this and upon walking into the Carousel Night Club RUBY approached TRIESCH and said, "How's it going GIL. I see you have brought some friends along." TRIESCH advised that at this point they all laughed and sat down and had a beer. RUBY did not join them nor did TRIESCH have any further conversation with RUBY that night.

He stated that he has never heard or seen RUBY since those two nights in April when he was at Dallas on business. He described him as being a very nice and friendly gentleman and was quite surprised when he heard that RUBY was responsible for the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ROSS VALORE, Ace Hollywood Artists Agency, 100 N. Florence, El Paso, Texas, advised that he had known of JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas, for several years, as RUBY had frequently contacted him, VALORE, for stripper acts to use in the Dallas clubs.

VALORE advised he had never seen RUBY and that RUBY had never been known to come to El Paso. He said their contacts had all been by telephone. RUBY still owes VALORE about $350 on a contract handled some time ago. VALORE got the impression that RUBY was always looking for notoriety in one way or another and wanted to impress people.

VALORE reiterated that he was sure RUBY had never been to El Paso, Texas, as he would definitely know about this, most likely through a direct contact from RUBY or certainly from his sources of information in the entertainment field.

JOHNNY VOUDOURIS, Star Route A, Box 760, Austin, Texas operator of Austin Maintenance Company, a janitorial maintenance service, 1924 South First Street, Austin, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mrs. Johnny Voudouris

Late in October, 1963, he and his wife, FAYE, went to Dallas, Texas, to attend the Texas State Fair on the last weekend the fair was in operation. While in their motel in Dallas on Saturday evening, they noticed an advertisment in a tourist guide which referred to the Carousel Club in Dallas. He asserted that they did not have any prior plans to attend the Carousel Club and that they had never been there before. When they arrived at the Carousel Club they observed that the featured exotic dancer and stripper was a girl called "JADA", whom they had seen in an act in New Orleans, about two years previously.

VOUDOURIS stated that after "JADA" had performed, a man whom he later learned was the owner of the club, JACK RUBY, came to their table to apologize for the incident of "JADA" cutting her act short because she was upset with the orchestra. VOUDOURIS stated that he and his wife were not aware that the dancer had cut her act short and would not have known that she was upset if RUBY had not so advised them.

He added that RUBY offered to make some adjustment for the action of "JADA" by offering the VOUDOURIS' a complimentary drink. After conversing with RUBY for a short time, JOHNNY and FAYE went to the Vegas Club at Dallas, which JOHNNY understood was also operated by RUBY, who gave them a pass to the Vegas Club. RUBY's sister took the pass from them when they entered the Vegas Club where RUBY also arrived at about 1:30 am, Sunday. They stayed there until about 2:00 am, when the Vegas Club closed and RUBY and his sister, a waitress from the Carousel Club and the manager of the Carousel Club, all went to a bowling alley, believed to have been the Cotton Bowl. While eating, they engaged in casual conversation, mostly concerning dieting. After eating, JOHNNY and FAYE drove RUBY to his apartment residence where it was understood that the manager of the Carousel also resided in an apartment across the hall from RUBY.

During their conversation, RUBY did not mention anything which VOUDOURIS recalled as referring to LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor did RUBY discuss political affairs or any controversial topic. VOUDOURIS recalled that the only comment RUBY made which seemed unusual was at one point in their conversation, RUBY asked JOHNNY if he had any kind of a political job in Austin; whereupon JOHNNY advised RUBY that he did not have any political connections and that the only remotely connected sort of position he had was that his firm provided the janitorial maintenance of the local television station, KTBC-TV, channel 7, in Austin, which is owned by Mrs. LYNDON B. JOHNSON, the wife of the then vice president of the United States. RUBY did not pursue the subject any further and did not query VOUDOURIS concerning his acquaintance with Mrs. JOHNSON.

RUBY told VOUDOURIS that if he ever wanted to come to Dallas to work, RUBY knew a lot of people and may be able to help him.

VOUDOURIS stated that his last contact with JACK RUBY was on Sunday morning, the last weekend of the State Fair, in Dallas, which was later in the morning after he and his wife had eaten with RUBY at the Cotton Bowl. RUBY telephonically contacted VOUDOURIS at the motel to determine if they were returning to Austin that day. RUBY offered VOUDOURIS a free pass for the performance of "Little Egypt", an exotic dancer, at the Club Caravan, which is located in Austin, Texas, at the Villa Capri Motel and Restaurant. VOUDOURIS added that "Little Egypt" was apparently a professional acquaintance of RUBY's and that "Little Egypt" and her manager were acknowledged by the master of ceremonies as guests of the Carousel the night that JOHNNY and FAYE attended the Carousel club in Dallas.

RUBY gave VOUDOURIS a business card with a notation written in longhand to "admit party except Saturday" and a telephone number "WH 1-5601." VOUDOURIS stated that he also gave RUBY his name and number for RUBY's reference if he ever came to Austin.

VOUDOURIS asserted that he had never seen or met RUBY before the above described incident which VOUDOURIS described as a strictly chance meeting which was also their only contact. He added that he was shocked to learn through public news services that RUBY was the accused killer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that RUBY gave him no impression of being inclined to commit such a violent act. He further described RUBY as a "promoter" who talked to as many people as possible in the course of business to create a favorable impression and to build up his clientele.

The following listed names and notations were secured from RUBY's personal property, and the following investigation was conducted by SA LANSING P. LOGAN in efforts to locate and identify the same for purposes of interview concerning RUBY:

VIVIAN STATLER
Barber Shop

Mrs. VIVIAN RAY KILLEBREW, 419 North Marsalis, Apartment 4, Dallas, Texas, was contacted by SA LOGAN on December 19, 1963, at which time she advised that she is employed as a manicurist at the Statler Barber Shop in Dallas. She stated that she is not personally acquainted with JACK RUBY and could never recall having any type of conversation with him. However, she could recall that Mr. CHARLES, who is a barber at the Statler Barber Shop, had mentioned RUBY's name as being an individual who at one time used to get his hair cut at the Statler Barber Shop. Mrs. KILLEBREW stated that she knew absolutely nothing concerning JACK RUBY's background, friends, or associates and knew of no connection between RUBY and anyone in the Dallas area. She did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination and could offer no information pertaining to any connection between RUBY and OSWALD, if there ever was any connection. She could not explain why her name "VIVIAN" and the notation "Statler Barber Shop" had appeared in RUBY's effects other than the fact that maybe one of the barbers had possibly given her name to RUBY.

VF 7119 - HOUTON

The above notation appeared in RUBY's personal effects, and the following investigation was conducted in efforts to ascertain the identity or the meaning of this particular notation:

A check of the records pertaining to 1963 Motor Vehicle License Plates, Texas, revealed that 1963 License VF 7119 was issued to a 1959 Ford registered to W. J. SHELLY, Route # 2, Teague, Texas. A review of the 1962 license plate records revealed that 1962 Texas License VF 7119 was issued to a 1963 Chevrolet Sports Coupe, registered to BILLY D. COX, 3712½ Edison, Houston, Texas.

It should be noted that the registered individuals for 1962 and 1963 Texas License VF 7119 failed to reveal a name similar to that of BOUTON, the notation beside VF 7119, and for this reason it is not known if VF 7119 is a license plate or some other type of notation.

Statler, CHARLES

The above notation was found in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY, and the following investigation was conducted to ascertain the identity and thereafter interview:

Mr. FRANCIS C. CHARLES, 4524 Live Oak, Apartment 7, Dallas, Texas, was contacted by SA LOGAN on December 19, 1963, at which time he advised that he is a barber at the Statler Barber Shop, and in connection with his business, he has met several individuals, one of which was JACK RUBY. He advised that he had cut RUBY's hair several years ago, but could not recall having had any contact whatsoever with RUBY since around 1960. Mr. CHARLES mentioned the fact that JACK RUBY was always very particular about the way his hair was cut and was, as a general rule, complaining about the way his hair was cut. He was unable to furnish any background information, friends or associates of RUBY, and stated that he never had engaged in any lengthy conversations with RUBY at anytime. Mr. CHARLES did not know of any connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and RUBY, and stated that OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

A. J. WILSON
Wilson's Phillips 66 Station
(Service Station)

The above notation was secured from RUBY's property in connection with the search of his car and the following investigation conducted to locate and identify for purposes of interview:

Mr. ARTHUR J. WILSON, 1859 Greendale, Dallas, Texas, Telephone Number LA 1-7131, was contacted December 20, 1963, at which time he advised that he met JACK RUBY approximately three or four months ago at the Merchants State Bank, Dallas, at which time RUBY gave him a club pass card to the Carousel Club. RUBY advised him at this time that he would be admitted to the Carousel Club at any time and would not have to pay the cover charge. Mr. WILSON said that it would appear logical that his name and employment had appeared in RUBY's effects inasmuch as he was acquainted with RUBY and had given RUBY his business card. Although Mr. WILSON has known JACK RUBY casually since 1947, he was unable to furnish any information pertaining to RUBY's background and stated that he had never associated with RUBY other than to speak to him on the street. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor did he possess any information pertaining to any type of connection between OSWALD and RUBY. GLATZ and other bellmen at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel also received pass cards to the Carousel Club. GLATZ attended the Carousel Club on one occasion about three years ago. He has no knowledge of any activities of JACK RUBY other than his operation at the Carousel Club and has no knowledge of any of RUBY's associates. GOOCH, who is bellman at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, has known JACK RUBY as a club operator in Dallas for the past four or five years. He was formerly employed at the Baker Hotel and had occasional contact with RUBY. RUBY would come to the Baker and later to the Sheraton-Dallas to solicit business for the Carousel Club. GOOCH and other bellmen at the Sheraton-Dallas received pass cards to the Carousel Club. He has had no other contact with RUBY. He has no knowledge of RUBY's associates and activities other than operation of the Carousel Club. On December 17, 1963, MARION LUTHER GREER, commonly known as LUKE GREER, 1501 Vance, Irving, Texas, interviewed on the basis of a name "Luke"-Times Herald-RI-7-6965", appearing in the personal effects of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

GREER was formerly foreman of the midnight shift at the Composing Room of the Dallas Times Herald newspaper and became acquainted with JACK RUBY when RUBY was operating the Vegas Club in Dallas. RUBY would call in ads for the Vegas Club and subsequently when he began operation of the Carousel Club, he continued to call in ads for this club to GREER in the Composing Room. GREER has had no contact with RUBY other than in connection with his business and has never been in the Vegas or Carousel Clubs. He has no knowledge of activities of RUBY other than operation of the Vegas and Carousel Clubs and has no knowledge of associates of RUBY. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ALLEN H. SMITH concerning the various names and addresses found among RUBY's property at the time of his arrest on November 24, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department:

One item was a note pad with the name MARGARET, RI 7-5861.

On December 16, 1963, Mrs. MARGUERITE AMOS, 111 Continental, Dallas, RI 7-5861, stated that about a year and a half ago her escort took her to the Vegas Club and during the evening JACK RUBY staged a twist contest and she and her date won a bottle of champagne. When they went to collect, however, RUBY told them that he was out of champagne and requested her to leave her name and telephone number and he would advise her when she could get the bottle. She subsequently received the bottle of champagne. She said this was her only contact with JACK RUBY and she has not seen him since or before that time. She stated she was unacquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no idea as to why RUBY killed OSWALD.

During a search of RUBY's car at the time of his arrest on November 24, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department, a piece of paper with the following was found: "S. G. (Drum) TA 6-1270".

On December 17, 1963, S. G. YOUNG, JR., 1915 Norfolk, Dallas, stated he formerly resided at 1517 Harris Court and had telephone TA 6-1270. He related that he is presently a porter for the Standard Fixture Company, 1006 Commerce, and plays drums occasionally during the evening. He first met JACK RUBY in about 1951 or 1952 when he was in the ROBERT MOSS band and they played at the Silver Spur Night Club operated by RUBY on South Ervay Street in Dallas. He also worked for RUBY in the band at the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn. He last worked in a band which played for RUBY in about 1953. He has not seen RUBY since that time except on one occasion about a year ago when he saw him on the street and they chatted for a few minutes. He stated he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and, to his knowledge, had never seen him in any of JACK RUBY's night clubs. He had no idea as to why RUBY killed OSWALD and knew of no friends or acquaintances of RUBY in the Dallas Police Department.

On December 17, 1963, A. W. DUPREE, JR., 12630 Hallum Drive, was interviewed in connection with his former employment by JACK RUBY. He related that about three years ago he worked in the band at the Sovereign Club on Commerce Street for two nights. DUPREE is a piano player. He said he believed some other musicians had given his name to RUBY because RUBY came to his place of employment, the U. S. Post Office, and requested him to work in the band. DUPREE stated that he occasionally works in bands at various night spots during his off hours. DUPREE worked only two nights. He said he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no idea as to why RUBY killed him. He had never seen OSWALD prior to the time his picture appeared on television after the shooting of President KENNEDY. He knew of no friends or associates of RUBY on the Dallas Police Department.

During the search of his car at the time of arrest, a piece of paper with the notation "BISHOP RI 8-7991" was found.

On December 14, 1963, Mrs. EVELYN BISHOP, 2370 Bally Castle, Dallas, Texas, a supervisor at Forrester Telephone Answering Service, 1500 Jackson, stated that the telephone RI 8-7991 was a rotary blend number subscribed to by the answering service. She explained that the rotary blend was a number which if called and was busy would automatically be relayed to another telephone number subscribed to by Forrester. She said that some two or three months ago JACK RUBY telephoned Forrester Telephone Answering Service and spoke to her, saying that he was going to run an ad to hire some girls to work at his Carousel Club and wished to employ the answering service to take calls if he could use their number. Mrs. BISHOP stated that they offered such service and she agreed. However, RUBY later on the same day telephoned and said that he was too late to get his ad in the paper and would not need the service. She said this was the only contact she had ever had with him, that he was not personally known to her, and that she had never been in any of his clubs.

JAMES E. ALLEN, also known as ALLEN JONES, 4415 Riverside, whose name as ALLEN JONES (piano), HA 8-2126, appeared in a list of individuals among the property of JACK RUBY, advised as follows:

ALLEN stated he was formerly employed as piano player by RUBY and was sure RUBY had employed no piano player by the name of ALLEN JONES. He is certain his name must have been written in JACK RUBY's personal effects as ALLEN JONES relative with his employment.

Mr. ALLEN advised he met JACK RUBY about 1953 or 1954 when he was employed by RUBY to play the piano in a combo at the Silver Spur to fill in for another combo which had either left or was on vacation. He stated his combo was headed by (First Name Unknown) SMITH and another individual whose name he cannot recall. This was a colored combo.

ALLEN advised they played for RUBY for about one month, on Friday and Saturday evenings. Following this period, he has not kept up with RUBY and added that he last saw RUBY three or four years ago and spoke to him briefly.

ALLEN advised he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information indicating any connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He added he has no information concerning how RUBY gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department prior to the shooting of OSWALD and knows nothing concerning this shooting.

LOD C. ALLISON was interviewed in Room 202, Exchange Bank Mall, Dallas, and he was immediately advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and told that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised of his right to counsel.

ALLISON explained the presence of his business card in RUBY's automobile as follows:

During the years 1956 and 1957, he kept the basic accounting and tax records for JACK RUBY. He stated that at this time RUBY had incurred several thousand dollars in cabaret tax liabilities, and that the Internal Revenue Service had recommended ALLISON to RUBY to help him straighten out his accounting practices. ALLISON kept these records until 1957, when he sold out to the W. B. Good Company, who in turn sold out to Alexander Grant Company. His relationship with RUBY was limited to the time necessary to make up these records, which he stated would require him to see RUBY approximately once a month.

He has not seen RUBY since 1957 and knew of no relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. He knew nothing of RUBY's travels except that he had a relative in Chicago, or his relationship with the Police Department. He knew of no subversive organization to which JACK RUBY belonged or of any conspiracy between JACK RUBY and any other individual to kill LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BERNARD ANDERSON, 5000 West University Boulevard, DALLAS, TEXAS advised that his name could logically appear as a former employee of JACK RUBY as he has worked for RUBY at the Vegas Club in the past.

He advised he has worked as a bartender and floor clean-up man at the Vegas Club for JACK RUBY for about one and one-half years beginning in about October, 1956. He against worked at the Vegas Club in this capacity for about six or seven months until early October, 1963. In connection with this latter employment, it appeared that EVA GRANT rather than RUBY was then running the Vegas Club. He got along well with RUBY in connection with this employment but has heard from the employees that RUBY was quick tempered and hard to work for. During both of these periods of employment, he was also holding a day-time job. He terminated both of his employments at the Vegas Club voluntarily when he secured better paying jobs. He has not been in contact with JACK RUBY since early October, 1963.

He advised he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and is certain he has never seen this individual until his pictures appeared on television and in the newspapers. He knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. He stated he knew of no individual that possibly could have been involved with either OSWALD or RUBY in the shootings.

CAROLYN PATRICIA ALLEN DODSON, 2454 South Zanes, Apartment 211, telephone WH. 8-8549, was interviewed, in that the name PAT DOTSON, telephone RI. 1-1505, was found when RUBY was searched. She related she is employed by Solomon Brothers, Room 1135, Republic Bank Building, telephone number RI. 1-1505.

DODSON related that during July, 1963, she attempted to call one of her girl friends and, by mistake, reached RUBY's home phone number. She did not know who answered the phone but thought the person answering was "kidding her" that she had reached a wrong number. She continued talking to this person and he identified himself as JACK RUBY. She continued that she was looking for employment at that time and, during the conversation, asked RUBY if he had any jobs open at his clubs. As a result of this conversation, she was employed as a cocktail waitress at the Carousel Club. After working at the Carousel Club about five or six days during the early part of August, 1963, she stated she found out this was not the type club she wanted to work in and quit her job. Since that time, she has been to the Carousel Club about four times with friends and, on these occasions, RUBY has talked to her at their table, at which time he tried to talk her into becoming a dancer, which she has declined.

She stated she has no knowledge concerning RUBY's activities or associates, even though she was employed there for a short period of time. She does not know whether or not RUBY had any connections with the police or where he was on November 22 - 24, 1963. She stated she had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no idea whether or not RUBY and OSWALD were connected in any manner.

Miss BETTY JO GARNER, 6923 Clayton, Dallas, Telephone Number DA 8-1465, whose name appeared as "BETTY JOE GARNER" in the personal effects of JACK RUBY and who is believed to be a member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs, was interviewed at her place of employment, John C. Cain Office, Room 522, Texas Bank and Trust Company, Dallas, at which time she advised as follows:

Sometime around January or February, 1960, exact date she could not recall, several individuals with whom she is associated, were receiving invitations to join the Sovereign Club, which she described as being a private social club in Dallas. She stated that she could recall being contacted either by JACK RUBY, or possibly by one of his business associates, and was asked whether or not she would desire to join the Sovereign Club. Although she never actually became a member of the club, Miss GARNER stated that she was asked by JACK RUBY to assist him in maintaining the "liquor pool books" and she gained the impression that she could possibly be employed on a steady basis if she liked the work.

Miss GARNER advised that she worked on RUBY's books over a two-week period and stated that it was not a steady employment, but just something to keep her busy. In connection with this, she stated that RUBY's business records were not very well organized, and she had gained the impression during this short period that he was financially unstable. Although she had no specific information concerning his financial status, she had gained the impression from RUBY's actions and from his books that he was in need of money. Miss GARNER stated that she was never paid a salary during her brief period with RUBY and could never recall any type of gifts or money that RUBY may have given her.

She stated that she regarded RUBY as a very fine employer and that he - RUBY - always treated her in a very fine manner. She could offer no specific information concerning RUBY's background, friends, or associates, and regarded her acquaintance as strictly a casual one. She had no idea as to why RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but did state she was quite sure he did not shoot OSWALD because he was patriotic or had any concern over Mrs. KENNEDY. She stated that RUBY was too shrewd a businessman to ever become involved in such an incident and she gained the impression that RUBY knew very well what he was doing. She based this information strictly on her own observations and her own opinions.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Miss GARNER advised that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never heard the name prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. DALLAS, TEXAS

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, bartender, Carousel Club, advised he did not know of any girl named GLORIA whom RUBY had been dating.

ARMSTRONG described a girl who had worked as a hostess for five or six nights at the Carousel Club and whom RUBY had taken home after closing hours on each of the nights she worked as follows:

|---|---|
| Race | White |
| Sex | Female |
| Height | 5'2" |
| Weight | 115 - 120 pounds |
| Hair | Brown |

ARMSTRONG stated that this girl, undoubtedly, was the one who had been seen with RUBY at the B & B Cafe, inasmuch as RUBY customarily ate at that place after closing hours.

ARMSTRONG recalled that this girl had remained aloof from the other employees and only assigned waitresses to handle incoming groups; further that she had worked for two or three nights and had been missed for a couple of nights and returned there for, he believed, three more nights and then quit.

ARMSTRONG stated that this girl was no longer in town, to his knowledge, inasmuch as he had attempted to locate her after RUBY's incarceration, on the possibility that she might be able to assist in the operation of the Carousel Club in RUBY's absence.

GLORIA HIGGINS, home address 3700 Maple, was interviewed in an attempt to locate the "Gloria" who accompanied JACK RUBY to the B & B Cafe in the morning of November 21, 1963. She advised she had never worked at the Carousel Club.

In the early part of October, JACK RUBY came into the H. H. Green Company in connection with his promotion of twist boards and while there, she met RUBY who asked her for a date. She then accompanied RUBY to the Carousel Club where she remained for approximately one hour and he then sent her home in a cab.

Following this one time, she stated RUBY sent her several messages and on one occasion, phoned her, requesting a date, but that she had never been out with him since this one time.

HIGGINS stated that she had never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that is the first and only time she had ever been with RUBY and had never accompanied him to the B & B Cafe.

Concerning efforts to locate MILI PERELE, who was formerly employed as a stripper by JACK RUBY, Detective MANUEL SALAZAR, Vice Detail, Albuquerque Police Department, advised that the Far West Club is the only strip joint operating in Albuquerque at this time. He said that records of that detail show that MILI PERELE, true name OPAL ELIZABETH HOLMES, was employed as a stripper in the Far West Club for three weeks in July, 1963. His records show she was born June 8, 1943, and her home address at that time was 4804 East Yandell, El Paso, Texas. Her booking agent was listed as ROSS VALORE, El Paso, Texas. He said his files contained no additional information concerning PERELE and noted that detectives of that detail contacted every stripper who was employed in this area.

BILL SMITH, Manager, Far West Club, advised on December 10, 1963, that he has not seen PERELE since her engagement in that club in July, 1963, and could furnish no information concerning her whereabouts.

She was employed by JACK RUBY for approximately three months in 1961, estimating her employment from March, 1961 until May, 1961. Miss HYDER quit her employment with JACK RUBY around May, 1961. She has not worked for him since that time. Miss HYDER related the fact that her association with JACK RUBY was strictly that of an employee-employer association and that she has never socialized with RUBY in any manner whatsoever. She went on to say that her employment at both the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club was very pleasant and stated that she would work for RUBY at any time.

Miss HYDER stated that she knew of very little information concerning RUBY's background and that the only relative she was aware of was an individual by the name of EVA GRANT who she believed was JACK RUBY's sister. She stated that RUBY always worked deliberately toward enforcing the regulations concerning liquor laws and could recall seeing RUBY checking his clubs with a flashlight to insure that there was no drinking after hours.

Miss MARIA DEL CARMEN LIND, 1997 Fulton Street, Apartment 1, Aurora, Colorado, (no telephone), was interviewed at her place of employment, Radio Station KOSI, Altura, Colorado. She advised that from October, 1961, to January, 1962, she was employed as a secretary-interpreter in the Guatemalen Consul in Dallas, Texas, and her immediate superior was Mr. RAY M. JENKINS who was Consul Adhonorum. She further described Mr. JENKINS as a very wealthy man who is a director in the Republic National Bank, Dallas, Texas.

Miss LIND continued that in about November or December of 1961, she was seeking some part-time work to increase her income and she answered an employment ad in a Dallas paper for a night club hostess. She stated that she was under the impression that the hostess job would be in "The Soverign", a new private club opening in downtown Dallas. She stated that when she answered the ad, she believed she was interviewed by EVA GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, and then she learned that the hostess position would be at the "Vegas Club" on Woodlawn in Dallas. She continued that this club had a reputation for being "pretty tough" and she did not accept this position.

She advised she believes EVA GRANT then sent her to see JACK RUBY at "The Soverign Club" and he persuaded her to sell memberships for him in this new club. She advised that since she was selling memberships RUBY gave her a temporary membership in the club for herself. She advised further that she tried unsuccessfully for a period of about two weeks to sell memberships in this club and then she terminated this arrangement since it was too difficult to sell the memberships. She added that she does not recall the names of any members of the club at this time and she does not recall the price of the membership although it was quite expensive. She advised further that the membership entitled the member to frequent the Soverign Club in downtown Dallas and the member also had golf privileges at the Buckingham Country Club outside of Dallas. She continued that she does not know whether or not RUBY actually owned the Buckingham Club and she rather thinks that he merely had a working arrangement with the club. She recalled further that sometime in 1962, possibly February or March, both the Buckingham Country Club and the Soverign Club failed and that shortly after RUBY "went public". She explained that she meant by this statement that RUBY then opened a public night club which he called the Carousel which turned out to be a striptease club.

LIND continued that she does not recall ever having seen OSWALD in her life and never heard anything concerning him until he was mentioned as the assassin of President KENNEDY. She continued that she knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY and that she does not know why RUBY killed OSWALD but she expressed the opinion that he probably did it for publicity and to get his name in the history books. She stated that she does not feel that RUBY killed OSWALD out of any grief over the death of President KENNEDY or police officer TIPPET. She continued stating that she would describe JACK RUBY as a "very nasty-minded individual whose whole attitude was that nobody was any good". She added that RUBY had a very violent temper and would yell at anyone he became disturbed about on the spur of the moment.

She further recalled that on one occasion during her short employment by RUBY, she entered The Soverign Club and RUBY introduced her to a man dressed in civilian clothes who RUBY stated was a policeman. She advised further that she does not recall the name of the policeman nor could she furnish any further description except to say he was a white male.

She advised further that she has never been in the Carousel Club.

She further described RUBY as a "little fat, very unattractive man" and she at no time ever dated RUBY nor had she ever seen him in the company of a female. She continued that she did not consider him effeminate in any way, however, but that he seemed to be a confirmed bachelor and she believes he resided with his sister EVA GRANT at the Continental Apartments in Dallas, Texas.

She further stated that RUBY had a genuine liking and admiration for policemen. She went on to say that in her opinion he had a complex about being Jewish, that she felt that he wanted to be friendly to policemen since they represented some authority and by being friendly with them, this authority or prestige might "rub off" on him. She advised that she does not know how RUBY treated policemen in his club or whether or not he accepted or obtained any police favors through his association with policemen.

She stated further that she cannot recall at any time discussing politics with RUBY or consul matters, however, he did say occasionally that if there were any visitors in town at the Consul that he would appreciate it if she would bring them to the club. She stated that The Soverign Club was not doing well at that time and RUBY asked all of the employees to bring customers and potential new members to the club when they could.

She advised further that she does not know of any close associates that RUBY had and that she never saw him at any time with a gun. She advised further that he always appeared to be a law-abiding citizen since he was very careful to see that the customers left the club at the proper closing time so that no complaint would be made to the Police Department.

Miss LIND concluded that she left Dallas December 8, 1962, and that she has had no contact with EVA GRANT or JACK RUBY since about December of 1961. She stated that if she learned additional information concerning this matter, she would immediately notify the FBI.

She advised that her stage name is GLORIA CHRISTIAN, and she recalled working at the Sovereign Club during the summer of 1960 as a singer. She worked as a solo about three nights a week for approximately two months. During this time she met and talked with JACK RUBY; however, the conversations were only general in nature.

She recalled attending the Vegas Club as a customer about this same period, four or five times, and believes she saw RUBY there and spoke to him casually. She stated that even though she had worked for RUBY, she did not know anything concerning his personal life, associates, or business activities. She did not know whether RUBY had any connection with any police officer, nor where he was on November 22 - 24, 1963. She stated that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

She advised that her mother, Mrs. MICHAEL FLORES, advised her that she was being sought for interview by the FBI. She stated the only reason she could think of that a piece of paper with her name and address 1502 Ritchie and telephone number BL 4-7209, was found in the possession of JACK RUBY was because she had worked for him for two nights about two years ago. She stated she got the job by going to the Carousel Club and applying for work as a cashier. She worked as a cashier for two nights and met RUBY very briefly during that time. She stated she knew nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life or political convictions. She stated she has no idea as to why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between the two men. She had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination.

MARILYN OWENS, 814 Ryan Street, Dallas, Texas, who was reported to have been a former employee of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

OWENS works and dances under the name of DIANA HUNTER and contemplates making HUNTER her legal name and prefers to be known as DIANA HUNTER.

She first met JACK RUBY in February, 1960, when she went to work for him as a waitress at the Carousel Club in Dallas. She has been closely associated with RUBY since that time. In addition to working as a waitress, periodically HUNTER dances in RUBY's show at the Carousel Club, and has danced throughout the country.

HUNTER last saw RUBY during the latter part of September, 1963, at the Carousel Club, at which time she had an argument with RUBY, quit her job, and went on the road dancing. She traveled to Cincinnati, Ohio, Kansas City and St. Louis, Missouri, Nashville, Tennessee, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and was in Milwaukee, Wisconsin at the time she received the news that JACK RUBY had shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Immediately after hearing this, she left Milwaukee and returned to Dallas, Texas.

HUNTER was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, at which time she advised that she had never seen OSWALD and was positive that there was no association between OSWALD and RUBY. HUNTER recalls that numerous uniformed police officers stopped by the Carousel Club to talk and drink coffee, but she knows of no officer who is particularly close with RUBY.

HUNTER was as close to RUBY as any of his employees and could furnish no motive for his having shot OSWALD, other than because he felt so strongly over the assassination of the President. HUNTER described RUBY as a highly emotional individual and believes that he built himself up to the point of shooting OSWALD through brooding over the death of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

HUNTER was questioned concerning the identity of the Mexican stripper who worked at the Carousel Club during the middle of July, 1963, and was alleged to have had a boy friend who resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The only Mexican stripper HUNTER could recall working at the Carousel during the summer of 1963 was DIORANGEL, who presently resides in San Antonio, Texas. HUNTER could not recall any boy friends of ANGEL who resembled OSWALD in any way.

Concerning RUBY's connection with the criminal element in Chicago, HUNTER advised that she had heard RUBY mention what a tough life he had had in Chicago, but she did not believe that he has ever had any connection with the criminal element in Chicago.

She stated ED RUBIN introduced her to a man named JACK, and JACK and a lady who was his wife, hired her. She stated she has seen photographs of JACK RUBY in the newspaper and she could not identify the newpaper photo of RUBY as being the person named JACK that she met at the Chalet Club.

Mr. ARTHUR DOMINIC PAPA, usually called TONY PAPA, Branch Manager, Associated Booking Corporation, 3511 N. Hall, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in connection with information received from JEAN PIERCE, Odessa, Texas, that she had obtained a job with JACK RUBY through ED RUBIN, Associated Booking Corporation, Dallas, advised as follows:

He has been manager of the Dallas office of Associated Booking Corporation since it opened approximately three and one-half years ago and never heard of anyone named ED RUBIN or ED RUBINSTIN. He said if anyone named ED RUBIN was ever engaged in the booking talent at Dallas night clubs in the past three and one-half years, he would have known him. He had no record for JEAN PIERCE and never heard of anyone by that name.

PAPA has known JACK RUBY for over the past three and one-half years, but has not had any close associations with RUBY. The last time he talked with RUBY was approximately two weeks prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY when he talked to RUBY on the telephone. He had not seen RUBY personally since prior to that time.

He only booked one attraction in any of RUBY's night clubs and that was the Kismet Review from April 7 through 20, 1961, which was an out-of-town group.

PAPA did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had no information concerning any possible relationship between RUBY and OSWALD or concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

He could furnish no information as to where MURAT SOMAY might be located at the present time with the possible exception that he may have returned to Turkey or the near east where he was from. He advised it was very doubtful if SOMAY would have been acquainted to any substantial degree with JACK RUBY because SOMAY could only speak very poor English.

PAPA advised he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY and knew of no individuals who might have been involved with either of these two men in the shootings.

WILLIAM E. PARDUE, 3305 Cloverdale Lane, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed because his name appeared as being a former employee of one of JACK RUBY's clubs. PARDUE furnished the following information:

He was working full time in approximately 1960 but took a job working as a waiter in JACK RUBY's downtown club. He estimated that he began working there at night in approximately September, 1960, and discontinued in approximately August, 1961. PARDUE advised that his work was not continuous and sometimes he would not work for as long as three weeks at a time.

He did not know JACK RUBY very well but stated that he does know that RUBY was emotional. According to PARDUE, RUBY would scream at his employees on occasion if the work was unsatisfactory to RUBY. If a waiter, for example, took too long in his work, RUBY was known to scream at that waiter on occasion.

PARDUE has seen a gun, type and model not known to him, on RUBY's desk. He pointed out that RUBY made deposits on an almost daily basis, and he assumed RUBY kept a gun for the purpose of protection.

PARDUE had the impression that RUBY was a normal man with a normal interest in women and was surprised when he heard that JACK RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

PARDUE advised that he does not know OSWALD and knows of no possible connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mrs. EDWARD J. (MARY) PULLMAN was interviewed at the residence of her brother, IRV LEVA, 7061 Izard Street, Omaha, Nebraska. She furnished the following information relative to her knowledge of JACK L. RUBY:

She worked for RUBY at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, as a hostess for approximately three months prior to early September, 1963. She has known RUBY as a speaking acquaintance in Dallas for approximately the past ten years, but her only social contact with him took place during the period she worked for him and consisted of eating at a restaurant with him on a few occasions after work.

She was never acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never knew this individual to have any contact with RUBY or to frequent the Carousel Club. She saw pictures of OSWALD in the papers following the assassination of President KENNEDY and could not recall ever having seen OSWALD at the Carousel Club or any place else.

Mrs. PULLMAN was at a loss to explain why RUBY shot OSWALD, but stated she knew RUBY, based on conversations with him, to have had a very high regard for President KENNEDY. RUBY was the type person who never concealed his feelings and would always tell people exactly what he thought of them.

The Carousel Club was frequented by most of the officers of the Dallas Police Department, as were most clubs of this type in Dallas. Through these visits she felt certain that RUBY knew most of these officers on a first-name basis. She did not believe RUBY had been more friendly with Dallas police officers than the other night club owners in Dallas. The police officers visiting the Carousel Club were never given a bill in connection with their visits there, but this was the policy of practically all of the burlesque-type clubs in Dallas which strived to maintain good relations with the Dallas Police Department.

According to Mrs. PULLMAN, the only organizations to which RUBY belonged were religious organizations and she was certain he had no subversive affiliations.

She stated RUBY on one occasion told her he had been raised in a bad neighborhood and had done practically everything before coming to Dallas from Chicago and he appeared sincere in wanting to operate a legitimate business and to be respected in Dallas. She stated he insisted on the entertainers in his club abiding by his instructions that they present a "clean" show and because of this RUBY had difficulty with some entertainers, mostly strippers.

During the period she worked for RUBY the only traveling he did was a trip to either New York or California to the American Artists Guild to discuss business. She never heard him mention other trips that he might have made. She doubted that he had done much traveling since he devoted practically all of his time in the operation of the Carousel Club.

During her contact with RUBY she knew of only one close associate of his and this was RALPH PAUL, whom she believed to possibly be RUBY's partner in the Carousel Club. She knew of no other individuals with whom he associated.

Her last contact with RUBY took place in early November, 1963, when RUBY visited her home to discuss the invention of a friend of his with her husband.

MRS. GORDON SIMS

Mrs. MARGARET JEAN "JEANNIE" SIMS, 1309 Huddleston, Grand Prairie, Texas, advised that her nickname JEANNIE and telephone number AN 2-4910, could logically appear on a note pad in RUBY's possession as she has worked for him in the past.

She worked at the Carousel Club as a cigarette girl, full time from August, 1962 until October, 1961 and intermittently from October, 1962 until about March, 1963. This was night work and through most of this period she also had a day-time job. In connection with her work as a cigarette girl, she received tips and a commission on sales. In about March, 1963, by her calculations JACK RUBY owed her about $50.00 on commissions but he told her by his calculations he only owed her about $25.00. They got in an argument over this and he threatened to "throw her down the stairs". She "just dared" him to touch her. RUBY did not throw her down the stairs but appeared to be very angry. She left the club, went downstairs and called the Dallas Police Department from the parking garage. A police officer, name not recalled, answered this disturbance call, told her the situation was such that it would be very difficult to determine facts in the matter and suggested that she should probably take whatever amount of money RUBY offered. She left the area and had GORDON SIMS, from whom she was then divorced, but whom she has since remarried, go to the Carousel Club later to get the money due her. GORDON SIMS evidentally saw RUBY because he brought her $42.00.

TEXAS

When she first went to work at the Carousel Club, other female employees told her JACK RUBY would probably try to date her but RUBY never did. She heard from other employees, names not recalled, that RUBY dated both men and women, so she assumed he was "bi-sexual". She did not know the identity of any men or women whom RUBY dated.

She advised that RUBY was very quick tempered but that the above argument regarding commissions was the only serious argument she had with him. She had heard that RUBY kept order in the Carousel Club and would throw anybody down the stairs who was creating a disturbance but she never saw him do this to any customer or employee.

She advised she has seen officers of the Dallas Police Department in the Carousel Club, but does not recall any of them by name. In all instances, it appeared that they were there on official business in checking the club and they did not appear to get any special favors from RUBY.

RUBY appeared very interested in making the Carousel Club a financial success and it appeared that he was doing well. His interest in making the club a success plus a very intense interest in several dogs he owned, appeared to be his main concerns in life.

She advised that for about the last year or so that she worked at the Carousel Club, GEORGE SENATOR spent quite a bit of time at the Club and was in fact there so much that it appeared to her he might have a financial interest in the place. She knew of no personal association between RUBY and SENATOR away from the Carousel Club.

She explained that after she had the argument with RUBY in about March, 1963, she secured employment as cigarette girl at the Theater Club, which was upstairs over the Theater Lounge. Business there was not going to well so she secured similar employment downstairs at the Theater Lounge proper. She considered herself a personal friend of KATHY KAY who had been working at the Carousel Club for a long time and has visited KATHY at the Carousel Club on a number of occasions since March, 1963. She last was in the Carousel Club about two weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY visiting KATHY. On most of the occasions, when she has gone to the Carousel Club to visit KATHY, she also saw JACK RUBY but has talked with him only very briefly because of their previous misunderstanding.

She advised she was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD and knew of no other individuals as possibly involved in the shootings.

Regarding the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY, she advised that this situation surprised her when it happened as she had never seen RUBY carrying a gun. She advised, however, that the fact that RUBY shot OSWALD was understandable to her because he was a very unpredictable person.

WILLIAM SLOAN, 6954 North Greenview, Chicago, Ill. advised that he has known JACK RUBY for about 25 years and explained that both he and RUBY were raised on the west side of Chicago. SLOAN stated that during the time RUBY lived in Chicago, he knew him as JACK RUBENSTEIN. He explained that he, however, was more closely associated with RUBY's brother, EARL RUBENSTEIN. Ill.

SLOAN stated that in about 1953 or 1954 he anticipated going to Dallas, Texas, to make arrangements to marry a girl then residing in Dallas. He stated that he, during conversation with EARL RUBENSTEIN, mentioned this fact to him and EARL in turn told him that he, EARL, probably would be able to secure employment for SLOAN in Dallas through his brother, JACK, who at the time owned and operated two clubs in Dallas. SLOAN stated that EARL RUBENSTEIN telephoned his brother, JACK, in Dallas and mentioned the fact that SLOAN was going to be in Dallas, and that reportedly JACK RUBY told his brother, EARL, to have SLOAN "look him up," as he could use help that he figured could be trusted.

SLOAN stated that he went to Dallas in 1953 or 1954 and was employed by JACK RUBY at both the Vegas Club and at the Silver Spur, a dance hall also owned by RUBY. SLOAN stated that his employment included taking tickets and generally acting as "a watch dog" regarding employee and customer activities in both the Vegas Club and Silver Spur. SLOAN stated that inasmuch as his plans for marriage fell through, he quit the employ of JACK RUBY after about one month, and returned to Chicago. He stated during the time he was in Dallas he lived with RUBY in RUBY's apartment, which was located in a building next to the Silver Spur on South Irving (ph.) Street in Dallas.

given or loaned to him by his brother, EARL. He advised that RUBY was a type of individual who liked show people and liked to be around show people. SLOAN advised that to the best of his knowledge, no well known talent appeared in either of RUBY's business places during the time he was in Dallas. He recalled that during the time he was in Dallas, a combo known as Cellblock Seven and made up of students from Southern Methodist University were employed at the Vegas Club.

SLOAN described RUBY as an individual who was more concerned with the trouble of others than of his own. He recalled that on occasion he was in the presence of RUBY when RUBY cried, probably because of some trouble that had come to a friend of his or in another case when a girl had "jilted" RUBY. He stated that RUBY appeared to be the type of individual that was very easily hurt and would usually react toward the individual causing the hurt. He stated that he had no trouble with JACK RUBY, nor has he ever known JACK RUBY to be involved in any fight with anyone.

SLOAN stated that he considered RUBY as a loyal American, and that his action "toward LEE OSWALD" possibly would have been similar to the action any number of other loyal Americans may have taken if the opportunity had presented itself.

SLOAN stated that he never knew RUBY to be connected with any gambling activities in either Chicago or Dallas. He stated that he knows that RUBY hated "the hoods," in fact he did not allow any roughnecks to frequent either the Vegas Club or the Silver Spur. SLOAN stated that he has never heard any information concerning an alleged rape matter involving JACK RUBY.

MAXINE JOY WILLIAMS, aka Nikki Joye, 1816 Pleasant Run Road, whose name appeared as "NICKI JOY, telephone CH 7-9876," on a note pad of JACK RUBY's, furnished the following information after being advised that she did not have to make a statement, that any statement she made could be used against her in a court of law, and that she had the right to consult an attorney before making any statement:

She stated that she has been working at the Theater Lounge as a stripper under the stage name NIKKI JOYE for approximately 12 years. Her former phone number was CH 7-9876. She explained that her name and phone number were found in RUBY's possession due to the fact that in March or April, 1962, she quit working at the Theater Lounge and RUBY tried to hire her to work for him as a stripper at the Carousel Club. She stated that RUBY called her two or three times a day during this period, but that she never went to work for JACK RUBY. She has visited the Carousel Club approximately two times, the last time being some three or four months previous, which was the last time that she saw JACK RUBY. She stated that she has no ill feelings toward JACK RUBY, but that he is the type of individual that she would not care to associate with.

She stated that she did not know OSWALD; never saw OSWALD at the Carousel Club or with JACK RUBY. She had no conversations with RUBY concerning his travels, organizations that he may have belonged to, or any close connection that he might have with the Dallas Police Department.

Mrs. DONALD RAMSEY, nee Sharon Benner, 2019 Elmwood, Kansas City, Missouri, advised she resided in the Continental House, (Apartment 103), 4812 Alcott, Dallas, Texas, (vicinity of former address of JACK RUBY at 4727 Homer, Dallas, Texas), from 1960 until December, 1961. Her roommates were PATRICIA DE LONG, now Mrs. MICHAEL JOYCE, Detroit, Michigan, NANCY RITTS, now Mrs. WILLIAM MC MILLIN, Dallas, Texas; FRAN WARLICK, now Mrs. JAMES LEAKE, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. RAMSEY advised that she knew JACK RUBY only as another tenant at the Continental House, but who lived in another unit. Her only association with him was "around the swimming pool." She had a guest card to his night clubs as did almost everyone else in the apartments, but she never was in one of RUBY's clubs. She also advised that she had never visited him in his apartment and did not know the identity of any of RUBY's associates. She believed that RUBY lived with a sister, and as to female associates can only recall a very attractive girl, either Spanish or Mexican extraction, whom he was going to make into an actress." She could furnish no further information concerning this girl, but that she was at the apartment house on several occasions.

Mrs. RAMSEY advised that living next door to RUBY were two Central Airlines pilots who appeared to associate with RUBY on a limited basis. They were AL PIERCE, last known to be at Fort Worth, Texas; and DAN GUNN, last known to be at Amarillo, Texas.

1 Date 12/19/63

L. W. "TED" NEWBERRY, 4130 Hawthorne, Dallas, was interviewed concerning a cabin reportedly owned by JACK RUBY at Lake Grapevine, Grapevine, Texas. He related the following:

In about 1954, he, NEWBERRY, was handling a promotion of selling one square inch of uranium land for 25 cents in various concessions and cigar stores in the Dallas area. He said that JACK RUBY had gotten in touch with him and tried to become associated with him in this promotion, but he, NEWBERRY, had declined. At the time, RUBY gave NEWBERRY a pass to his Vegas Club located on Oak Lawn in Dallas. In 1955 or 1956, NEWBERRY, who is a part-time contractor also, conceived the idea of building some simulated log cabins at Grapevine Lake and went to JACK RUBY with the idea.

RUBY, at this time, was living at the apartment located at 4158 Hawthorne, and he would occasionally see RUBY in the neighborhood walking his dog. He talked with RUBY on several such occasions and RUBY thought that the idea of the log cabins would be profitable, so they went into sort of a partnership. The business was known as Northwest Log Cabins, and the name was registered with the Fictitious Names Division of the County Clerk in Dallas, Dallas, Texas.

NEWBERRY stated that RUBY and RUBY's partner, MORTON GIMPLE, were to handle the sale of the cabins and he, NEWBERRY, was to get his cost back from the construction and share in the profits. The first cabin was built on Red Bird Lane at Lake Grapevine in the area known as Placid Peninsula and was located just across the road from the property of Mr. T. A. YATES. The first cabin took approximately nine months to construct. The reason it took so long was because NEWBERRY was involved in an automobile accident and was unable to continuously work at the project.

During the construction, JACK RUBY and MORTON GIMPLE would occasionally come down and help nail the logs up or do other manual labor, which both seemed to enjoy. The cabins cost much more to construct than was anticipated, and the project was unsuccessful from a financial standpoint. The cabin was built sometime in 1957 or 1958. At about the same time, RUBY was having difficulties with the Internal Revenue Service in Dallas and was being represented by an attorney, STANLEY KAUFMAN. When the partnership dissolved, RUBY and GIMPLE took over the cabin and paid NEWBERRY for his expenses and costs. He does not know but assumes that KAUFMAN took over ownership of the cabin by representing RUBY in his contest with Internal Revenue Service. After the first cabin was built, NEWBERRY continued and built another cabin adjacent to the first one and subsequently built another one at Lake LaVonne.

To his knowledge, JACK RUBY never lived in the cabin and never gave any parties there or did any entertaining whatsoever. On one occasion, just after the completion of the cabin, NEWBERRY had several guests down on one occasion for a week-end, but JACK RUBY was not among them.

Since the dissolving of their partnership in the log cabin enterprise some four or five years ago, NEWBERRY has seen JACK RUBY on only one occasion, and that was in early November 1963 when they were both stopped by a traffic light in downtown Dallas and shouted greetings at each other.

NEWBERRY was unacquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen him in JACK RUBY's company. He had no knowledge of any conspiracy on the part of RUBY to shoot OSWALD and stated that he knew of no associates of JACK RUBY who were members of the Dallas Police Department.

Mrs. WILEY DISMUKES, Route # 1, Box 169E, Grapevine, Texas, was interviewed concerning the cabin reportedly owned by JACK RUBY at Lake Grapevine. She related the following:

Her husband operates Wiley's Shoe Store at 3517 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas, which is just across the street from JACK RUBY's Club Vegas. Mr. and Mrs. DISMUKES have been casually acquainted with JACK RUBY for several years, knowing him from his ownership of the Vegas and seeing him in the neighborhood where the shoe store is located.

About four or five years ago, two log cabins were built just down the road from the DISMUKES place at Lake Grapevine, but she was unaware that JACK RUBY was one of the principals in the building of the cabins. To her knowledge, the cabin across from T. A. YATES has been owned by a Dallas attorney, STANLEY KAUFMAN, ever since it was built. She said she had never seen JACK RUBY at the cabin. Sometime after KAUFMAN bought the cabin, he gave a party and invited everyone in the neighborhood, but she and her husband did not attend.

Mrs. DISMUKES stated that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. She had no idea why RUBY shot OSWALD. She had no knowledge of any association between RUBY and members of the Dallas Police Department.

WILEY DISMUKES, Route # 1, Box 169E, Grapevine, Texas, was interviewed at his shoe store, Wiley's, 3517 Oak Lawn, concerning the cabin owned by RUBY at Lake Grapevine. He related the following:

He has known JACK RUBY as a neighboring businessman for eight or nine years. He occasionally goes into RUBY's night club at Vegas Club, for a glass of beer, but is not socially acquainted with JACK RUBY. In about 1958 or 1959, JACK RUBY and some of RUBY's associates, names unknown to DISMUKES, put up some cabins a short distance from his (DISMUKES) place at Lake Grapevine. The venture was unsuccessful and, to his knowledge, only two cabins were built. He occasionally saw JACK RUBY during the construction of the first cabin but never knew him to live at Lake Grapevine in the log cabin or at any other place at the lake.

Mr. DISMUKES was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated he did not know why RUBY had shot him. He knew of no association between RUBY and members of the Dallas Police Department. He said that he had recently seen JACK RUBY in the neighborhood on Oak Lawn, but their association is casual and his only conversation was wishing one another good morning or good afternoon.

T. A. YATES, Route 1, Box 148, Grapevine Lake, Grapevine, Texas, was interviewed concerning information by JACK H. BROWNE relative to a cabin owned by JACK RUBY at Grapevine Lake and also concerning information furnished by PRENTISS I. VAUGHN concerning the drilling of a water well on property of Log Cabin Enterprises. He related the following:

About four or five years ago, JACK RUBY, in association with TED NEWBERRY and MORTON GIMPLE, built two log cabins near YATES's house at Grapevine Lake. The cabins were built for resale, but apparently they were too high-priced and they were the only ones built. During the building of the first cabin, JACK RUBY would occasionally come out to Grapevine Lake to help with the construction. An airline pilot later drilled a well on the RUBY property, but he could not remember who this individual was. TED NEWBERRY, to his recollection, was the one who had the idea of building the cabins and got JACK RUBY and MORTON GIMPLE to finance the project.

JACK RUBY never lived in the cabin, which was just across the road from YATES's residence. However, during the sales promotion, there was one party given and YATES was invited. He could not recall who the other guests were. The enterprise was not profitable and went out of business and RUBY's attorney, STANLEY KAUFMAN, bought the property or acquired it in some manner unknown to YATES. KAUFMAN still uses the cabin as a week-end or summer retreat.

Mr. YATES stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown him and he had never seen him at RUBY's cabin. He has no idea why RUBY shot OSWALD and knew of no connections RUBY might have had with the Dallas Police Department. He said he last saw RUBY about a year ago when RUBY came to Grapevine and asked him if he would board a couple of RUBY's dogs, which he declined to do.

The following investigation was conducted on December 18, 1963, by SA JOHN E. DALLMAN:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

The names TOBY GWYN, 418½ North St. Paul Street, DALLAS, and TOM MORRISON, same address, were located in JACK RUBY's files and both were apparently employees of one of his clubs for a short period of time during 1960.

A review of the current Dallas telephone book and all available city directories failed to reflect a listing for GWYN or MORRISON.

SAM ISAACSON, Assistant Secretary, Dallas Federation of Musicians, Local #147, 1416 East Commerce Street, Dallas, advised that 418½ North St. Paul Street was formerly the location of the office of Local #147. He stated the local moved to its present location during about 1961. He searched all available records and could locate no record for GWYN or MORRISON. He advised he is familiar by name with the identity of most of the musicians who have played in the Dallas area during the last two or three years and if GWYN and MORRISON were local musicians he would probably either have a record for them or recall their names. He stated that in all probability they were itinerant musicians who used the union hall's address, 418½ St. Paul Street during their stay in Dallas.

The following persons advised they could locate no record identifiable with TOBY GWYN or TOM MORRISON:

WILMA HUGHES, American Guild of Variety Artists, 1500 Jackson;

ORE. CALIF

PHILLIPS stated he was interviewed by the FBI in Portland, Oregon, on December 9, 1963, at which time he furnished information regarding conversations he overheard at various bars in Los Angeles, California. PHILLIPS stated that in this statement he stated the conversations took place on the evening of December 3, 1963. PHILLIPS stated that he could furnish no further information which would further identify "Little Joe" and stated that as far as he could recall this was the correct name and not "Little Bill." He stated, however, it is possible that the latter could be the name of the individual referred to in his interview on December 9, 1963.

PHILLIPS stated he had no further information which would further identify the unknown salesman from Wisconsin. He stated he had told interviewing agents in Portland, Oregon, that he had obtained the business card of this individual and had left it at his home in Houston, Texas. PHILLIPS stated he has made a diligent search for this card and has been unable to locate it. He also advised he had no further information which would tend to identify "Black Jack" mentioned in his previous interview. PHILLIPS advised that TED STROUD is well known to him and he also knows C. RE: EDWIN PHILLIPS

The files of the Houston Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation reflect that Investigator MURRAY E. GENTRY of the Houston Police Department arrested PHILLIPS on May 29, 1961. At the time of his arrest he was at the 1 - 2 - 3 Club located at 1700 Fannin Street, Houston. On May 30, 1961, PHILLIPS was interviewed by a Special Agent. of the FBI and he stated that on the previous day he had made several visits to local bars in Houston and had been told by some unknown dancing girl that she had dope for sale. He stated he contacted the Houston Police Department and gave them this information. He stated he did not intentionally cause the Houston Police Department to think he was a Government Agent. He stated he was intoxicated and could not recall exactly what he had said.

Prosecution was declined by the U. S. Attorney's Office at Houston in connection with any possible violation of the impersonation statutes on the ground that the facts did not come within the purview of the statute.

aka "LITTLE BILL"

WILLIAM LAVON GRAVES, 676 South Central Avenue, Los Angeles, California, was interviewed at the Market Cafe, 1327 East 7th Street, Los Angeles, on December 13, 1963, and furnished the following information: B. 1-15-27 NEW IBERIA, LA

He is an unemployed truck driver, age 36, who is known to his friends as "Little Bill". On Friday, November 29, 1963, he visited the Market Cafe, among others on 7th Street, Los Angeles, and "got plastered," having lost his job that morning as a truck driver for being drunk and not reporting for duty. On this occasion he was wearing a small metal ring in his left ear, an old custom from his Navy days.

He has no specific recollection of what he said that night in his intoxicated condition, although he remembers general expressions of resentment being made by patrons concerning President KENNEDY's assassination and subsequent events. However, he may well have made statements concerning money being available to kill JACK RUBY as he was upset over the events that took place like others. Further, he recalls that he was jokingly queried several days ago in instant bar by another unknown truck driver who asked him, "What's this about somebody offering something. Well, what are you going to do, knock off Mr. RUBY?" GRAVES answered him, "What are you talking about? I don't know a thing about it." And he emphatically states that he does not.

However, he has no specific recollection of any money offer, how it may have entered the conversation, and certainly has no connection with individuals in a position to make or know of such an offer.

GRAVES comes in contact with various truck drivers who visit Los Angeles bars when in town, but does not know any EDWIN PHILLIPS by name. He does not have any business cards to issue to anyone. He knows no one named "Little Joe" or "Black Jack" who may have made such an offer.

GRAVES' description, obtained by interview and description, is as follows:

JOHN HILL ?

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.

JOHN J. MELTON, 10328 San Louis Rey Place, advised that in about 1947 he was in Houston, Texas, and had an interest in two businesses known as the Melshan Lumber Company and the Melton Machine and Tool Company. He was also a partner in the operation involving the lumber rights on about 127,000 acres of land near Durango, Mexico. His brother, MAURICE MELTON, managed the lumber operation in Durango, Mexico, prior to the time the Mexican Government stepped in and seized his holdings.

+ MELTON — TEXAS A. MILK

He stated that while MAURICE was in Mexico he apparently met a pilot whose name Mr. MELTON could not recall and apparently worked up a deal involving narcotics forthe future. JOHN MELTON advised he knew nothing of this at the time and most of the information he is furnishing in this regard came out at a trial.

JOHN MELTON advised that at sometime during this period his brother, MAURICE, requested that JOHN drive him to McLean, Texas, to enable MAURICE to pick up a package there. JOHN complied with his request and MAURICE obtained a package at McLean from this pilot and thereafter they took the package in JOHN's car back to either Dallas, Texas, or Houston, Texas. JOHN could not recall the exact location at the present time.

He stated that on the return trip MAURICE advised him that the package contained narcotics. JOHN advised he thereafter did not see MAURICE again for sometime until three or four months later when MAURICE came back to see him in Houston, Texas.

At Houston, Texas, MAURICE told him that he had given up his activities regarding narcotics and that the pilot was in Laredo, Texas, and was apparently talking to Federal Narcotics Officers there. JOHN then took MAURICE to see the Federal Agents and both he and MAURICE were thereafter picked up by Federal Officers.

MAURICE was held on some narcotics charge, however, he believed that his position was more along lines of a material witness in view of the fact he was never held, never posted bond, was never fingerprinted, and any charge which may have been placed against him was subsequently dismissed. JOHN MELTON stated he knew nothing concerning the entire narcotics operation other than the fact that MAURICE mentioned to him on the above return trip that a package he picked up contained narcotics.

MELTON recalled that there was a man named BILL STILLS connected with the operation, but knew nothing further concerning him. MELTON stated he had never heard the name of JACK RUBY, JACK RUBENSTEIN or HYMAN RUBENSTEIN prior to the time he heard these names in connection with the President's assassination and could furnish no information whatsoever concerning them or their activities.

Allegations of

At Cincinnati, Ohio

On December 13, 1963, JOSEPH P. KINNEARY, United States Attorney, Columbus, Ohio, addressed a letter to the Cincinnati FBI Office with which he enclosed a letter received by him on December 13, 1963. This letter is dated December 12, 1963, and is from VERNON M. RIEGEL, Manager, Teachers Placement Service, 1950 Leveque-Lincoln Tower, Columbus 15, Ohio, which address is at 50 West Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio. Mr. RIEGEL's letter is as follows:

"Mr. District Attorney:

Dear Sir:

A doctor in Dallas, Texas, who is a very good friend of mine, said to me in a letter:

'A Mesquite woman policeman in Dallas, whom I know, told me yesterday (December 4, 1963) that Ruby and Oswald were good friends; she had seen them together many times.'

This doctor is a practicing physician in Dallas for many years and is a prominent citizen as well, being interested in various important civic organizations.

This may not be any additional information to your Department but no harm can be done in reporting it.

I did not vote for Mr. Kennedy, nor would I have done so had he been a candidate again. Nevertheless, I am a lawyer by education and of course we always believe in getting all the facts in any case that opinions may be established and that justice may be fulfilled.

I am enclosing also a clipping from the Dallas Herald which he sent me."

On December 14, 1963, Mr. VERNON M. RIEGEL advised SA ROBERT C. DAVIS that the doctor in Dallas, Texas, referred to in his letter quoted above, is Doctor SAMUEL SCOTHORN, resident address 3219 Beverly Drive, Dallas, Texas. Mr. RIEGEL continued that Doctor SCOTHORN has a sister, CORA BROADBECK, who resides at 1720 East Main Street, Columbus, Ohio, and that he, RIEGEL, Doctor SCOTHORN, and Mrs. BROADBECK have been friends for many years. Recently, he asked Mrs. BROADBECK to ask Doctor SCOTHORN when she wrote to him what he knew of the situation in Dallas. As a result, Doctor SCOTHORN wrote a letter to Mr. RIEGEL in which the paragraph about RUBY and OSWALD being good friends was included, as quoted. Mr. RIEGEL advised that Doctor SCOTHORN's letter did not furnish any other information about the matter but that there was enclosed a clipping from the Dallas Herald Newspaper, date not indicated, which clipping is headed "Theories Conflict on Why Ruby Did It".

BILL HAMPTON, Manager of Radio Station KBOX, Dallas, TEXAS telephonically advised he received an anonymous telephone call to the effect that the subscriber to Post Office Box 765, Irving, Texas, allegedly had information concerning OSWALD and RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA KENNETH P. HUGHES:

On December 10, 1963, FRANK H. BROWNE, subscriber to Post Office Box 765, Irving, Texas, who resides at 5803 Fremont, Dallas, TEXAS, advised that he met an unknown individual at Anthony's Lounge on Gaston Avenue in Dallas who stated that he could show that there was a connection between OSWALD and RUBY. BROWNE stated that he had been drinking and, in fact, stated he was drunk. He described the individual making these comments as a white male; 5 feet, 9 inches in height; 175 pounds, with light hair, age approximately 45-52. He could furnish no further information.

On December 10, 1963, MYRTLE REECE, waitress, Anthony's Restaurant, Gaston Avenue, Dallas, advised that she recalled two individuals who were drunk in the tavern and stated further that one individual was "cut off" because he was dancing. She did not hear anything regarding OSWALD and RUBY.

On December 13, 1963, GENE FARLEY, 10234 Kilkenny, Dallas, TEXAS, advised that he is the "bouncer" at Anthony's Tavern. He stated that on approximately November 26, 1963, he had two individuals in the tavern whom he had to "shut off". One individual by the name of NICK LUCAS was "shooting his mouth off" about a Latin woman who skipped from the Statler-Hilton Hotel leaving a $50.00 bill. The individual also gave him a card advertising Haskell Drive-In Restaurant, Dallas, TEXAS.

LUCAS was supposedly making statements connecting this woman with RUBY and OSWALD. He described this individual as 5 feet, 7 inches to 9 inches in height; 60-65 years old, with a Greek or Italian accent.

On December 13, 1963, RAY AIKEN, Statler-Hilton Hotel, made available the records of individuals registered there on the 26th of November 1963. The records failed to show a woman of Latin descent as being a "skipper" leaving a $50.00 bill.

2 DALLAS, TEXAS

On December 16, 1963, NICK CUZIGTIS, of 3219 Ross Avenue, interviewed at his place of employment, the Haskell Drive-In, stated that he remembers being in Anthony's and drinking quite a bit. He later admitted that he was drunk. He stated that he was cut off because he was dancing and was somewhat boisterous. He stated that he does not remember making any statements connecting JACK RUBY and OSWALD but remembers stating that the hotels around town should be on alert for Madame NHU because he had read that she was noted for "skipping out" on her hotel bill.

Mr. CUZIGTIS stated that any statements he made that night, he made in reference to Madame NHU and does not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD or of any connection between the two. He knew of no connection between RUBY and the Police Department or of any conspiracy between RUBY and any other individual to kill OSWALD or of any subversive organizations RUBY belonged to or any close connections between RUBY and the Police Department. He knew of none of RUBY's travels.

NOTE:

Sheriff Decker has advised that Ruby will have a habeas corpus hearing 12/23/63 and has requested Agents be present in the area to observe and identify communist sympathizers or other subversives. In a conversation with SAC Shanklin 12/17/63, Sheriff Decker stated he wished to have an Agent familiar with representatives of hate or racial groups so that representatives of these groups could be identified to the Sheriff. SAC Shanklin advised Decker we cannot have Agents present but will furnish him with any pertinent information coming to our attention.

Dallas has been instructed to alert surrounding offices to advise Dallas of any information indicating individuals or groups are going to Dallas to demonstrate.

The Honorable J. Edgar Hoover,
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington 25, D. C.

Attention Mr. J. Gordon Shanklin,
Special Agent in Charge,
Dallas, Texas

Dear Mr. Hoover:

There will be a habeas corpus hearing set Monday, December the 23, 1963, in our city for Jack Ruby, defendant, charged with murder in the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, such hearing to be in Criminal District Court Number 3 in the Criminal Courts Building in Dallas.

I wish to request you to permit your agents to be present to check the court room, the halls and all the building for any communist sympathizers or members of subversive groups who may be present.

I am unable to anticipate at this time just how long the assistance of these agents may be needed, but I assure you they will be of much value to us because they can keep a continuous check upon the crowds and work constantly with the people. We are attempting on this occasion to avoid any incidents.

SAC Shanklin, Dallas, telephonically advised that Attorney Belli had notified the press in Dallas that he was authorizing an interview by the FBI with Ruby today. He desires to cooperate fully and it is alright with him if Ruby was given a polygraph examination and given truth serum. Shanklin stated he was concerned in view of Belli's remarks to the press as to what answer he would give in the event Belli should request that the FBI give Ruby a polygraph examination.

Shanklin also advised that up to the time of his call, the press had not indicated they intended to publicize any of Belli's remarks concerning the interview but that he did not know whether they would continue to take this attitude.

Shanklin was advised that if during the interview, Belli or any other attorney who is sitting in on the interview interferred with the interview by continually advising Ruby not to answer questions, the interview should be tactfully terminated.

Shanklin was also advised that no polygraph examination should be given Ruby and that in the event Belli or any other attorney insists that this be done by the FBI, the attorney should be tactfully advised that the Bureau does not desire to give Ruby a polygraph examination.

FROM: A. Rosen

SUBJECT: PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

A group of reports was delivered to Mr. J. Lee Rankin today at 12:30 p.m. During the discussion which followed with Mr. Rankin it was pointed out that the reports that had been delivered to him were the work reports which backed up the material to a large extent that had been made available in the report and exhibits that had been delivered to the members of the Commission.

Mr. Rankin was advised that additional reports would be forthcoming as quickly as possible and that the individuals reviewing these reports should bear in mind that in any instance where it did not appear that the investigation had been completed, in all likelihood a supplemental report would be forthcoming running out this investigation to a logical finish.

The nature of the Bureau's investigative reports was explained in detail so that he would have a full understanding of Bureau procedures with regard to our reports. Rankin advised that he thoroughly understood and was appreciative of the fact that he had been reminded that each individual report could not carry every aspect through to a completely logical conclusion and would necessarily have to be followed up on in a subsequent report.

Mr. Rankin was also advised that the individuals reviewing the reports might run across the names of some persons who had requested their names be kept confidential and that in some instances an individual may have furnished his name but stated that he did not wish to testify. Mr. Rankin was advised that in such an instance, if the Commission had further use for the information that such an individual had furnished, the Bureau would be glad to recontact the individual to determine his feelings relative to the disclosure of his name or to furnishing testimony if it was the Commission's desire.

Mr. Rankin commented that he thoroughly understood the Bureau's desire in connection with the foregoing and that he also was well aware of the fact that the reports delivered to him were investigative work reports, and that

Gentlemen:

We are advised that some time prior to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and the shooting of Lee H. Oswald, a photographer we have just been asked to represent, Mr. Eddie Rocco, interviewed Jack (Ruby) Rubinstein of Dallas, Texas, and at that time took photographs of Jack Rubinstein as well as photographs of the interior of the Carousel Club.

Further, we are told that on November 24, 1963. "2 photos of Jack Ruby" were sold by our client to Associated Press, and, that on November 25, 1963, certain photographs of Jack Rubinstein, and two photographs "which show the interior of the Carousel Club of Dallas", and "the contents of Eddie Rocco's interview with said Jack Rubinstein" were sold to Life magazine.

We do not know whether the referred to photographs or client's interview with Jack Rubinstein, or any other matters possibly learned by our client during the course of said interview are of any interest, or can be of any help to you. However, not wanting to overlook any possibility that may be of aid to your inquiry, and not wanting to waste your time since Mr. Rocco who resides in Hollywood, California, does travel on assignments and free lance work, we hurry the above information to you for whatever importance it may have and for your instructions, if any in regard thereto.

Very truly yours,

Jerome A. Perles

SUBJECT: JACK LEON RUBY, AKA;

Robert B. Denson, owner of Tri-State Private Detective Agency [redacted] advised our Dallas Office he had been retained by subject's attorney Tom Howard. Denson is to conduct investigation to show a continuity of acts indicating insanity on the part of subject.

Denson stated that on 12-10-63 he attended a conference with subject's attorneys Melvin Belli, James Martin, Joe H. Tonahill, Samuel S. Brody, Phil Burleson, former Assistant District Attorney, Dallas, and Earl Ruby, brother of subject. Attorney Brody agreed to a fee of $6,000 for Denson plus expenses not to exceed $5,000 for a period of 60 days. He has received $1,500 cash as a retainer.

During the above conference, Belli, Burleson and Brody discussed getting 300 to 400 people to demonstrate in front of the Dallas Courthouse on 12-19-63 at the time a hearing for Ruby is scheduled. He subsequently advised a demonstration was planned for 12-23-63 and individuals arriving from the West Coast would be in Dallas on 12-20-63.

Denson said the demonstrators would possibly carry placards expressing a desire to assist in raising Ruby's bond. Denson is to question the demonstrators to ascertain if they would do anything legal to help Ruby. He is to be furnished a list of the demonstrators and advised he would make this list available to the Dallas Office. To date, no such list has been received from Denson. Earl Ruby is to provide transportation for the demonstrators.

Robert B. Denson, Tri-State Private Detective Agency, Dallas, Texas, advised that Tom Howard, attorney for Jack L. Ruby, has retained him to establish a continuity of acts by Ruby indicating insanity.

Denson stated that on December 10, 1963, he conferred with Melvin Belli, James Martin, Joe H. Tonahill, Samuel S. Brody and Phil Burleson, former Assistant District Attorney, Dallas, all of whom are attorneys representing Jack L. Ruby. Earl Ruby, brother of Jack L. Ruby, was also present. At this meeting, Mr. Brody agreed to pay Denson $6,000 for his services for 60 days plus expenses not to exceed $5,000. He received a retainer in the amount of $1,500.

During the above conference, Denson was informed that plans are being made to have 300 to 400 people demonstrate at the courthouse when a hearing is held concerning Ruby on December 19 or 23, 1963. Some demonstrators allegedly will arrive in Dallas from the West Coast on December 20, 1963.

According to Denson, the demonstrators possibly will carry placards expressing a desire to assist in raising funds for Ruby's bond. Earl Ruby is to provide transportation for the demonstrators and Denson will question them as to their willingness to assist Ruby.

The Dallas County Sheriff's Office, the Dallas Police Department, local military authorities and the Secret Service have been advised.

SAC Shanklin, Dallas, called at 11:20 a.m. to advise that at 10:10 a.m. (11:10 a.m. our time), a deputy sheriff called with a subpoena for the two agents who interviewed Ruby at the jail in the presence of his attorney. These two agents are C. Ray Hall, and Manning Clements. The subpoena was issued by the defense in connection with the hearing scheduled for 10 a.m., Dallas time, re release of Ruby on bail.

Mr. Shanklin supposed that the purpose of the subpoena was to indicate that Ruby was cooperating with the FBI during the interview. Shanklin proposed that the agents appear but not answer any questions except that they did interview Ruby and he did answer questions. No specifics of the interview would be given. Mr. Shanklin also suggested that the US Attorney be notified so that he could appear in court with the agents to object to inappropriate questions.

I told Shanklin to go ahead and proceed on this basis.

Jack Ruby

The following investigation was conducted by SA NORBERT F. DONAHUE:

AT KALISPELL, MONTANA

Mr. OSCAR E. PETERSON, Route 4, advised the basis of his letter to Senator MANSFIELD was information from his brother-in-law, ED ROBIDIA of Columbia Falls, Montana. ROBIDIA, while in the hospital at White Fish, Montana, during the period just following the assassination of President KENNEDY, heard a visitor of one ESKEL SWANSON, state that a man in Eureka, Montana, was acquainted with JACK RUBY and knew that RUBY had killed other people several years ago.

Mr. PETERSON had no first-hand information and had obtained the foregoing from Mr. ROBIDIA.

AT COLUMBIA FALLS, MONTANA

Mr. ED ROBIDIA, residing near the Stoltz Land and Lumber Company, advised that when he was in the White Fish hospital on about 11/27/63, a patient of the same room with him named ESKEL SWANSON of White Fish, Montana had a visitor who stated there were people in Eureka, Montana, who had known JACK RUBY many years ago in California.

Mr. ROBIDIA advised that this visitor made no statement to the effect that RUBY was reported to have killed other people in the past. Mr. ROBIDIA did not know the identity of SWANSON's visitor.

AT WHITE FISH, MONTANA

Mr. ESKEL SWANSON, 44 Mill Street, self-employed as an automobile body repairman, advised that when he was in the White Fish hospital during the latter part of November, 1963, he recalled being visited by Mr. HOWARD WHITNEY, a U. S. Border Patrolman. Since this was shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY and the murder of the President's assassin by JACK RUBY, the events of the day were the subject of that conversation. NOT

During the course of the visit, Patrolman WHITNEY advised that he knew a man in Eureka who claimed to have known RUBY many years ago in Los Angeles, California. Mr. SWANSON stated that to his recollection there was no statement made by WHITNEY that RUBY had been involved in murders in the past.

HOWARD WHITNEY, Senior Patrol Inspector, U. S. Border Patrol, advised he recalled his visit with ESKEL SWANSON and has a recollection of talking with SWANSON concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY and related incidents.

WHITNEY advised that his Patrol duties in Eureka enabled him to contact JOHN ROBB, employed by the City of Eureka as a night watchman. ROBB told him that many years ago, he was in the law enforcement profession in California at which time he became acquainted with RUBY under the name of RUBINSTEIN.

BT #94-OSCAR E. PETERSON

ROBB made no statement to WHITNEY to the effect that he knew of other murders that RUBINSTEIN or RUBY had been involved in.

AT EUREKA, MONTANA John Robb Baptist 1843

Mr. JOHN F. ROBB, age 70, advised he is presently employed as night watchman for the town of Eureka. He stated that from 1924 to 1946 that he was a Deputy for the Los Angeles County SO at Los Angeles County, California, with the exception of four years he spent in the USN during World War II. He stated that following the assassination of President KENNEDY and the murder of President KENNEDY's assassin by a man named JACK RUBY, he observed RUBY's picture on the local television screen. He immediately recognized RUBY as a man he had met in 1936 or 1937 in Los Angeles County while he, ROBB, was a Deputy of Los Angeles County SO.

Mr. ROBB advised that this acquaintanceship occurred following bulletins of members to the Los Angeles County SO to be alerted that members of Los Angeles mobs,, lead by AL CAPONE, JACK DIAMOND, and BUGGS MORAN, who were trying to "muscle in" on rackets in Los Angeles Coutny. ROBB recalls that at about this time, he had stopped a carload of four men who had created a disturbance in a traffic jam in the east Los Angeles area. He spoke to these men for a period of five or ten minutes and recalls that one of them was a man named JACK RUBINSTEIN. He later saw this man's picture among photographs of the above-mentioned "mobsters."

He was unable to identify any of the other men in the automobile. He did not arrest any one of the men in the automobile and had no other contact with any of the members in the automobile, except he thinks that on two or three occasions later he saw RUBINSTEIN in the Hall of Justice in Los Angeles, California, and exchanged greetings with him.

|---|---|
| Age | 35-40 years |
| Height | 5'10-11" |
| Build | Chunky |
| Weight | 180# |
| Hair | Dark |
| Eyes | Dark. |

It was pointed out to Mr. ROBB that if this man was approximately 45 in 1936 or 1937, he would be approximately 63 years of age today which is considerably older than the publicized age of JACK RUBY, the murderer of President KENNEDY's assassin.

Mr. ROBB, thereafter, stated that he could be mistaken, but he feels confident in his own mind that the photograph of RUBY as publicized in the newspapers and on television if that of the man he met under the above pretenses in Los Angeles County in 1936 or 1937.

Mr. ROBB stated he has no recollection of ever telling anyone that RUBY or RUBINSTEIN had any prior record in California for murder. He stated that it is his recollection this man was mentioned in bulletins to the members of the Los Angeles County SO as a "trigger man" for the above-mentioned mobs, but he has no personal knowledge of this fact.

In light of the vague nature of Mr ROBB's information and of the discrepancies between the physical description of JACK RUBY and this man, it is felt that no further investigation is contemplated by this Office.

Gentlemen:

We are advised that some time prior to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and the shooting of Lee H. Oswald, a photographer we have just been asked to represent, Mr. Eddie Rocco, interviewed Jack (Ruby) Rubinstein of Dallas, Texas, and at that time took photographs of Jack Rubinstein as well as photographs of the interior of the Carousel Club.

Further, we are told that on November 24 1963 "2 photos of Jack Ruby" were sold by our client to Associated Press; and, that on November 25, 1963, certain photographs of Jack Rubinstein, and two photographs "which show the interior of the Carousel Club of Dallas", and "the contents of Eddie Rocco's interview with said Jack Rubinstein" were sold to Life magazine.

We do not know whether the referred to photographs or client's interview with Jack Rubinstein, or any other matters possibly learned by our client during the course of said interview are of any interest, or can be of any help to you. However, not wanting to overlook any possibility that may be of aid to your inquiry, and not wanting to waste your time since Mr. Rocco who resides in Hollywood, California does travel on assignment and free lance work, we hurry the above information to you for whatever importance it may have and for your instructions, if any in regard thereto.

Very truly yours,

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Belmont

DATE: December 18, 1963

FROM: A. Rosen

ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

Mr. J. Lee Rankin was contacted yesterday at his office at 4:00 p.m., at which time he was furnished five complete sets of reports and exhibits prepared by the Bureau. Mr. Rankin was most appreciative of receiving these copies and stated that for the time being this would be a sufficient number and if he desired more, he would so advise.

During the contact with Rankin he advised that the Commission had met the previous day and that a number of items had come to light wherein clarification was needed. These items are set forth hereinafter.

Rankin requested information as to whether or not the Bureau had obtained the medical reports concerning the shooting of the President from Parkland Hospital in Dallas as well as the report from U. S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda. This is one of the items which Rankin mentioned on the telephone on 12/17/63 when he contacted the Bureau. It was again pointed out to Mr. Rankin that our investigative report would cover in detail the results of the medical examination at the Parkland Hospital. Rankin was advised that the family of the President had requested the report from the U. S. Naval Hospital at Bethesda be kept as confidential as possible and for this reason the Bureau did not obtain the medical report for inclusion in the investigative report prepared by the Bureau. He was also told that this report was in the possession of the Secret Service. Rankin stated that it would not be necessary to do anything on this and that in the event Secret Service did not supply the medical report with material to be furnished by Secret Service, the Commission would request the medical report from Secret Service.

Mr. Rankin indicated the Commission desired that income tax returns dating back to 1955 be obtained relative to Lee Harvey Oswald, Jack Ruby, his brother Earl Ruby, Mr. Michael Paine and Mrs. Ruth Paine (the Paine residence is the one in Irving, Texas, where Mrs. Oswald and her children were residing.) Rankin indicated the Commission was interested in the tax returns so that determination could be made of any collaboration of any kind between Oswald and Ruby as well as the Paine family and that they were desirous of having all negative information as well as positive.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

Mr. Rankin was advised that the Bureau was making a complete financial check of both Oswald and Ruby and that full details concerning income tax returns as well as the financial check would be included in the investigative report.

The Commission was also desirous that Western Union and Post Office money orders be checked, all localities where Oswald had resided, and also be checked concerning Jack Ruby. Mr. Rankin was advised that this was being done and would be included in the investigative report.

Mr. Rankin asked whether of not all other Govern ment agencies have been contacted for information that they might possess in their files concerning Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby. Mr. Rankin was advised that considerable information had been obtained from the files of other Government agencies and that our investigative report would definitely show the information obtained from all agencies of the Govern - ment. In this connection, a canvass of the other Government agencies is being made to make certain that we have received any information available on Oswald and Ruby..

Rankin is interested in knowing whether any of the intelligence organizations of the military had taken any action relative to Lee Harvey Oswald before he went to Russia or since his return. Rankin was advised that the U. S. Marine Corps' file on Oswald had been obtained, had been reviewed and summarized in our investigative report. He was told that a check would be made, if it had not already been completed, to ascertain whether any action had been taken by any of the military intelligence services. A check has been instituted to obtain this information if any such action was ever taken.

Mr. Rankin stated the Commission was very desirous of obtaining typewritten copies of information that had been included in our exhibits as handwriting of Oswald. He stated the Commission had experienced difficulty in reading his writing and would therefore appreciate typewritten copies. These copies have been prepared and will be made available to Mr. Rankin.

Mr. Rankin stated that for purposes of handling this investigation, the Commission had decided to handle it all on a top secret basis and that probably within the next few days they would have the names of some individuals concerning whom they would desire a check made. Mr. Rankin was advised that in the event he desired a name check on these individuals it could be handled in very short order but that if he had in mind a full investigation it would take considerable time. Rankin advised that no definite decision had been made on this at the present and he would be in touch with the Bureau later concerning this matter.

Mr. Rankin inquired whether information would be available covering investigation that had been conducted in Mexico concerning Oswald's activities and whether or not there was any necessity for the Commission attempting to obtain any information from the Mexican Government. Mr. Rankin was advised that this matter would be checked into and he would be advised as soon as possible.

Concerning films, Mr. Rankin mentioned that Mr. Larson of Life-Time Corporation had offered to make available to the President's Commission the film in possession of Life relative to the shooting of the President. Mr. Rankin desired to know whether the Bureau had copies of this film, and if it could be made available to the Presidents Commission. Mr. Rankin was advised that the Bureau did have this particular film along with other film relating to the assassination of the President and that he would be advised later as to what film was actually available.

Mr. Rankin stated that he did not know if it would be possible for the Bureau to arrange for a type of re-enactment of the assassination of the President but that he felt that it would be of invaluable aid to the Commission if, through photographs, diagrams or other arrangements, the Commission would be able to sit down and be briefed as to what actually occurred in a more or less chronological story of the events which took place and then to have made available the more important items of evidence that had been discovered. Mr. Rankin was advised that his request was thoroughly understood and that this matter would be looked into and he would be advised later as to what action could be taken. In this connection aerial photographs have been made depicting the scene where the President was assassinated as well as other important points of activity in Dallas. It is also noted that the Bureau's Exhibits Section is at the present time in the process of making three-dimensional exhibits which would completely portray the activities which occurred in Dallas. It is believed that when these exhibits are completed that they would be most helpful in assisting the Commission to see exactly the events that transpired in Dallas relative to the assassination of the President. Mr. Rankin indicated that he presumed it would be better for members of the Commission to come to the Bureau for such a briefing if this could be arranged and that he would not hesitate to ask the members of the Commission to come to the Bureau for this briefing rather than have Bureau personnel come up to headquarters of the Commission.

During the interview, Mr. Rankin was asked whether or not the Commission intended to hire investigators. It was pointed out to Mr. Rankin that the Bureau was desirous of being of any assistance that it could possibly render and that it would be glad to conduct further inquiries concerning any matters that the Commission desired. Mr. Rankin stated that he was most appreciative of this offer on the part of the Bureau and that he personally felt that the Bureau would be only too glad to cooperate on any request the Commission might have.

Rankin advised that while he did not share the views of some members of the Commission, there were some who had the feeling that it might be best to have investigators assigned to the Commission inasmuch as it might develop that the Commission would desire some checks on one or more of the Government agencies involved in the over-all matter. Mr. Rankin stated that he personally felt that the responsible Government agencies involved would be able to handle their own phases of this matter and that he sincerely hoped that it would not be necessary to hire investigators for the Commission.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) It is recommended that Mr. Rankin be advised that the results of the investigation conducted in Mexico relative to Oswald are being received and that this information will be submitted to the Commission at an early date. (Our material from Legat, Mexico, is ready. We are clearing CIA material with CIA). Rankin advised CIA will furnish theirs prior to when we furnish ours. OK - WJ 12/20 Hm

(2) Concerning films that are available, it is recommended that Mr. Rankin be advised that the Bureau has a copy of the film which Life-Time Corporation has as well as other film relating to the assassination of the President and that all of these films can be viewed by the President's Commission whenever it desires. OK. Furnish advice of film available when ready. Hm 12/20

(3) If approved, Mr. Rankin will be advised that the Bureau is in the process at the present time of preparing three-dimensional exhibits which will accurately portray the locations covering the assassination of the President along with other material which would be of considerable benefit to the Commission. He will be advised that when these exhibits are completed, arrangements will be made with him so that the Commission may view these exhibits at their convenience. Mr. Gauthier has assured that the exhibits will be ready by 1/2/64.

Based upon his discussions with Lee Rankin, counsel of the Commission, Inspector Malley has requested that Liaison check with all Government agencies except State Department and Secret Service who might logically have pertinent information concerning Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Leon Ruby. Specific reference is made to a check with Defense Department, Office of Naval Intelligence, Office of Special Investigations Air Force, and Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence Army, to determine if any action was taken by those agencies with regard to Oswald's trip to Russia in 1959-62. It was noted that we have previously reviewed the U.S. Marine file on Oswald and have summarized it for the Commission; therefore, it will be unnecessary to obtain any information from that file. However, any other information in possession of ONI would be desirable.

Inspector Malley also requested that we obtain through Liaison copies of income tax returns filed by Oswald, Ruby, Ruby's brother Earl R. Ruby, his sister Eva L. Grant, and Oswald's associates Ruth and Michael Ralph Paine from 1955 to date.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended Liaison make the appropriate contacts with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and other Government agencies in accordance with Inspector Malley's request. For the assistance of Liaison and for delivery to IRS attached are memoranda pertaining to these individuals.

Some one possibly W. FOWLAR, reporter for the Dallas Morning News, told him that a 16 year old high school girl reporter for a high school newspaper was in the basement at the time of the shooting.

MACHIRELLA had no information regarding the conspiracy to kill OSWALD, he did not known of any prior relationship between RUBY and OSWALD, and he did not see OSWALD any time between 11/22/63 and 11/24/63.

Referenced Cincinnati airtel related to an anonymous communication postmarked Cincinnati, 12/2/63, enclosing a photograph from the 1962 Compton Year Book of a group of people affiliated with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. The writer of this anonymous communication encircled (on the photo) the picture of a man who the writer believed bore a "striking resemblance to JACK RUBY".

In the opinion of Agents in the Dallas Office, who observed RUBY following his arrest, it was not believed the individual in question in the photo referred to above bore any resemblance to RUBY.

Referenced New York airtel dated 12/20/63 contained information that the person in question in the photo had been identified as JOSE GARCIA LOPEZ, [redacted]

Since the above investigation relates primarily to a security-type matter, and since RUBY has been eliminated in this instance as being possibly connected with the FPCC, the enclosed FD-302 is not being incorporated in a report in instant Civil Rights case.

POSSIBLE ACTIVITY OF JACK RUBY IN FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE, NEW YORK

PATRICK MC DONALD, photo news editor, Associated Press, 50 Rockefeller Plaza, on December 6, 1963, furnished two prints, one 8 x 10 inch, the other 11 x 14 inch of a photograph which he obtained from the files of Wide World Photos, a subsidiary of Associated Press. He said this photograph was taken by an Associated Press staff photographer April 13, 1961, and it depicts a group of men and women picketing in front of United Nations Headquarters, New York, New York. He was unable to furnish the identity of the photographer taking this picture but indicated that if necessary some research might be done to identify the photographer.

Photograph reflects that the pickets were carrying placards one of which reads, "US Navy Supports Dictator," and the others read, "Hands Off Cuba."

MC DONALD said he could not release the negative of the photograph at this time.

JOSEPH DECKER HARRISON
925 South State Street
Ann Arbor, Michigan

HARRISON was interviewed on December 19, 1963, at Ann Arbor, Michigan, as he had sent a $5 money order to JACK L. RUBY.

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that JOSEPH HARRISON was a Communist Party (CP) member in Detroit during May, 1950.

[redacted] Ann Arbor, Michigan, who has furnished reliable information in the past, described HARRISON in December, 1951, as being a Communist.

[redacted] and [redacted] both of whom have furnished reliable information in the past, both advised in January, 1954, that HARRISON was no longer trusted by CP members in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and that he was avoided by such persons. They advised that HARRISON was suspected of being an informant for the FBI.

In December, 1960, HARRISON traveled to Cuba with a Christmas tour sponsored by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

In July, 1954, TOM HARRISON, DISCM brother of JOSEPH HARRISON, reported to the Ann Arbor Police Department that JOSEPH HARRISON was a mental case and was going to commit suicide. The police officers, when investigating this report, found JOSEPH HARRISON in front of his home in a dazed and confused condition with his hands full of aspirins. The police officers reported that JOSEPH HARRISON was in no condition to be out on the street. JOSEPH HARRISON was confined for investigation of a mental disorder and a petition was filed in Probate Court. The police record noted that JOSEPH HARRISON had the idea that he wanted to hurt someone or take his own life. TOM HARRISON reported that JOSEPH HARRISON had been in a Veterans Hospital previously for similar difficulties.

No subversive activity on the part of JOSEPH HARRISON has been reported since 1954. (Bufile 100-381806; DEfile 100-18261.)

He was found not guilty.

On December 9, 1963, [MAIDA KNIGHT], Traffic Records Division, Dallas Police Department, advised that her records reflect TOM HOWARD of 906 Turner Avenue and 1315 Longdale has two traffic violations, one for violation of State Motor Vehicle Inspection Law, December 23, 1962, for which he paid a $5 fine; and one for no valid inspection sticker, May 11, 1963, and paid $5 suspended May 30, 1962. A newspaper clipping from the Dallas "Morning News," Dallas, Texas, entitled "ATTORNEY DISBARRED SIX MONTHS," appears in this file: Said article shows that TOM HOWARD, a Dallas criminal lawyer had been disbarred six months for failure to file income tax returns. The original petition filed by the Bar Association charged that HOWARD failed to file income tax returns from 1952 to 1958. HOWARD was also fined $2500 by U. S. District Judge T. WHITFIELD DAVIDSON. On December 17, 1963, BARNEY H. TIMMONS, Assistant U. S. Attorney, Dallas, advised from records that TOM HOWARD was arraigned on 10/4/60 at which time he entered a plea of guilty. He was sentenced on 10/8/60 to 6 months and fined $2500 with the proviso that if the fine were paid within 60 days the jail sentence would be probated for one year. HOWARD remained on bond until the following Monday, 10/10/60, at which time he paid the fine.

TIMMONS further advised that from the Probation Officer's file that HOWARD's probation expired 10/7/61 and that judgment in cause #57502-C in the 134th Judicial Court, Dallas County, entitled "State of Texas versus TOM HOWARD," was entered on 6/23/61 by CHARLES E. LONG and it recites that TOM HOWARD waived a jury trial and was convicted for failure to file income tax returns and was in violation of the Canons of the State Bar Association and his license to practice law was suspended for 6 months on 6/2/61 and also "that the defendant HOWARD be and hereby is reprimanded for misconduct."

He then made available a copy of the indictment against HOWARD and information from his files concerning the sentencing of HOWARD, which are as follows:

"In violation of Section 7203, Internal Revenue Code of 1954; 26 United States Code, Section 7203."

"SENTENCE DATA

"INDICTMENT: THREE COUNTS: charging willful failure to make an income tax return for the calendar years 1954, 1955 and 1956. (Section 7203, Internal Revenue Code of 1954)

MAXIMUM PENALTY: $10,000 fine and/or one year imprisonment, together with costs of prosecution for each count.

DATES OF OFFENSES: Count I: April 15, 1955; Count II: April 15, 1956; Count III: April 15, 1957.

FACTS: Mr. HOWARD failed to file income tax returns continually for the years 1952 through 1959. During February and March, 1956, the Chief, Intelligence Division, sent Mr. HOWARD two letters requesting information relative to his 1952, 1953 and 1954 income tax returns. There was no reply to either of these letters.

Mr. HOWARD's one-half community interest in his gross income from his law practice for the years 1954, 1955 and 1956 were for criminal purpose:

|---|---|
| 1954 | $ 8,102.44 |
| 1955 | 11,125.00 |
| 1956 | 10,801.63. |

This income was computed on the specific item basis. Upon initial personal contact by the Special Agent with Mr. Howard regarding his income tax returns, he declined to discuss his income tax affairs or to describe what records he kept or to state whether or not he had filed returns for the years 1952 through 1955. He did state that he filed returns prior to 1952. Since he did not discuss his liability and did not furnish any records, his income was determined by cohtacting his former clients whose names were extracted from the records of the Dallas County Sheriff's Department and Courts, and other professional income was determined from the records of associate attorneys who divided attorneys' fees with him on criminal cases. For criminal purposes Mr. Howard received a gross community income for the three years involved as follows:

|---|---|
| 1954 | $ 16,204.88 |
| 1955 | 22,251.40 |
| 1956 | 21,603.21. |

Mr. HOWARD's expenses for the three years involved were determined from his personal checking accounts and his share of a joint business expense checking account with his former associates.

For civil purposes the government will assert a total deficiency for the years 1952 through 1956 in the amount of $64,325.24 and, in addition thereto, substantial penalties in excess of 50% of the civil deficiency.

No determination has yet been made of his tax liability for the years 1957 through 1959. His former wife filed separate returns for 1956 and 1957 but did not include her community share of Mr. Howard's income.

Although he had previously declined to discuss his tax affairs with the government agents and declined a final conference with the Chief, Intelligence Division, he did attend a conference furnished him at the Regional Counsel level on June 24, 1959, and stated that he had failed to file returns for the years 1952 through 1958.

Mr. HOWARD's knowledge that he received income is sufficient amounts requiring him to file returns is evidenced by the fact that he made financial statements to various institutions showing the following incomes:

|---|---|
| 1954 | $ 17,500. |
| 1955 | 20,000. |
| 1956 | 17,000. |
| 1957 | 19,400. |
| 1958 | 21,500. |

PERSONAL HISTORY: Thomas Hale Howard was born in Dallas, Texas, on May 6, 1916. He has two children by a former marriage. He and his second wife whom he married in 1958 have one child. He graduated from high school in Dallas in 1933 and attended Texas Agricultural College at Arlington, Texas, for two and one-half years. Thereafter, he entered Southern Methodist University as a law student in 1936, graduating from the law school in 1939. From 1940 to 1945 he was employed as an adjuster and salesman and was in the U. S. Army for approximately one year. He began law practice in 1945. From 1952 to 1957 his principal practice was criminal law in the Dallas County Criminal Courts and District Criminal Courts.

FINANCIAL CONDITION: Since Mr. Howard declined to discuss his financial affairs during the investigative stage, his present financial condition is not known. However, after a division of community property upon his divorce from his previous wife in September, 1957, Mr. Howard reported his net worth as $43,900. in a financial statement he submitted to The First National Bank of Dallas dated March 28, 1958.

CRIMINAL RECORD: None."

On December 17, 1963 JIM MARTIN, attorney, Room 1207, Davis Building, Dallas, Texas, advised SAs JAMES F. GLONEK and RALPH E. RAWLINGS that he had been retained by GEORGE SENATOR and that he was also retained as one of the defense attorneys for JACK RUBY.

He stated that he would allow SENATOR to be interviewed alone for any general or background information he could furnish concerning JACK RUBY and his activities up to the date of November 22, 1963. Since it was probable that SENATOR would be a witness for the defense in RUBY's trial, Mr. MARTIN insisted that any interview of SENATOR concerning the events of November 22 through November 24, 1963, would have to be conducted in Mr. MARTIN's presence, with the questions and answers recorded by a reporter.

SENATOR was interviewed on December 19, 1963, alone, for background information up to the date November 22, 1963. Bureau permission has been requested to interview SENATOR under the conditions set forth by his attorney for details of his activities and those of RUBY for the period November 22 through November 24, 1963.

MICHAEL F. HENEGHAN, Chief Probation Officer, Family Court of Cook County, 2246 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, Illinois, advised that a notation in his records pertaining to JACOB RUBENSTEIN as being 17 years old in 1923 was obtained from the petition filed in Juvenile Court on July 10, 1923. He said the complete petition was in pencil script while the number itself was in numerals. He stated that because of the crabbed nature of the writing and its age, the number he interpreted as 17 could well be 12. He was not certain. He stated, however, that his records pertaining to JACOB RUBENSTEIN, Case Docket Number 90342, reflect that JACOB RUBENSTEIN was born April 25, 1911.

With regard to JACOB RUBENSTEIN's siblings, HENEGHAN advised as follows:

His records reflect HYMAN RUBENSTEIN was "age 14 on December 25, 1915". SAMUEL RUBENSTEIN was "born December 28, 1912." ISADORE RUBENSTEIN was "born April 28, 1915". IDA RUBENSTEIN was "age 6 in 1923". EVA RUBENSTEIN was "age 12 on March 15, 1921".

JOSEPH GOULDEN, Reporter, "Philadelphia Inquirer," PHILADELPHIA PA. telephonically advised that he had contacted the unidentified law enforcement officer in Dallas, Texas, over the week end by telephone, who had previously told GOULDEN in Dallas that JACK LEON RUBY had gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department by posing as a TV cameraman's helper on the day that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. GOULDEN declined to identify the law enforcement officer after having talked to him on the telephone. He did say, however, that the officer told him that the matter was being "handled through proper channels." GOULDEN said he did not question the officer further as to what these channels were.

INTERVIEW WITH NEWSMEN

Henry Machirella, Reporter for the "New York Daily News", was interviewed at the offices of this newspaper and he furnished the following information:

He is generally known among reporters as "Hank" Machirella. He was assigned on November 22, 1963, to cover the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and he arrived in Dallas, Texas, about 8:15 P.M., on November 22, 1963. He was in the Dallas Police Department Building on the night of November 22, 1963, and several times during the day on November 23, 1963. On each visit he went to the third floor and he recalled that he was required to identify himself when he reached the third floor. He was unable to recall if he was required to identify himself each time he went to the third floor. He explained that there were a great number of people in the corridor on the third floor, and a great deal of confusion existed in this corridor. There were some police officers on this floor who were checking the identification of persons as they left the elevator. However, he believed that due to the confusion which existed on this floor, it was possible for an unauthorized person to have entered the premises without exhibiting identification at a time when these officers were busy checking other persons entering the area.

Machirella had been informed on November 22, 1963, at an informal press conference, by Jesse Curry, Chief of Police, Dallas, Texas, that Lee Harvey Oswald would probably be moved to the County Jail at 10:00 A.M., November 24, 1963. He went to Dallas Police Headquarters about 10:00 A.M., November 24, 1963, and he immediately went to the third floor. The corridor was not crowded at that time and he is not sure if he was required to show identification at the time. He went to the office of the Chief of Police Curry.

Chief Curry was standing outside his office talking to some photographers who wanted to know when they could get pictures of Oswald. Curry was telling these men that Oswald would be moved out of the building through the basement in about 45 minutes and that they would have ample opportunity to get pictures of Oswald.

Machirella took the public elevator to the basement about 10:50 A.M. When he left the elevator his identification was checked by a uniformed officer in a basement corridor. When he entered the basement area itself, he was told to stand near a television camera. There were a number of other people standing on both sides of this camera and another television camera located on the Main Street side of the building. There were people standing in front of him.

He had noticed a number of police officers stationed along the basement ramp leading toward the Commerce Street side of the building and several at the top of the ramp. There were several officers on the ramp leading to the opposite side of the building, but he believed there was only one officer at the top of the ramp on foot. He thought there was a police car also stationed at the top of this ramp. However, he believed that the security was not very strict and that it would have been possible for an unauthorized person to gain entry to the basement without too much difficulty.

He observed Oswald being brought out by police officers into the basement corridor. He saw Oswald look to the left, which he later believed was the direction from which Jack Ruby came.

He did not see Jack Ruby in the basement area that morning. As Oswald was walking along this corridor he heard a shot and saw Oswald bend over clutching his abdomen. He saw police officers grappling with a man whom he did not know at the time. He saw a hat rolling on the floor and believed the initials inside the hat were J.R. He pointed out that he did not see Jack Ruby any time prior to the time Oswald was shot. He did not see the gun used by Jack Ruby.

He observed that after Oswald was shot he was taken back through the doorway from which he had emerged and the man in police custody, whom he later determined was Jack Ruby, was also taken through this doorway. Machirella was standing near this doorway and could see Oswald lying on the floor inside the doorway. Then, in a short time, Oswald was placed in an ambulance and taken to a hospital.

He recalled that just about the time that he heard the shot a car had backed rapidly down the ramp behind the armored car and stopped short.

He did not know of any authorized persons permitted to enter the basement area on November 24, 1963, without exhibiting identification.

He did not know from his own personal knowledge of any unauthorized person in the basement area on the morning of November 24, 1963. Someone did tell him that a sixteen year old female reporter for a high school newspaper was in the basememt that morning. He did not know who had furnished him this information, but believed it might be W. Fowler, a reporter for the "Dallas Morning News". TEX.

Machirella estimated that there were between 75 and 100 people, in addition to police officers, in the basement area on that morning. It did not seem to him that all could have been authorized press representatives, but he could not name any unauthorized persons in the basement other than the girl mentioned above. The only persons he actually knew among the press representatives in the basement were the following:

A girl named Peggy (Last Name Unknown) (LNU), who is a reporter for the Dallas Bureau of the Associated Press;

Gene Miller, Reporter for the "Miami, Florida Herald"; FLA. TEX.

Tony Ripley, Reporter for the "Detroit Times"; MICH. TEX.

Francois (LNU), Reporter for the French Press.

He is not certain, but he believed that Adrian Smith and John Mc Donough, Reporters for the "Philadelphia Evening Bulletin", were in the basement that morning. PA. TEX.

Machirella had no knowledge that any person conspired with Ruby to kill Oswald. He also had no knowledge that any police officer, or other official, conspired with Ruby or wilfully permitted the killing of Oswald.

Machirella did not see or talk to Ruby at any time on November 22, 23, or 24, 1963.

Machirella did not know of any connection between Ruby and Oswald.

Machirella also related the following facts which were furnished to him on November 25, 1963, by Tom Howard, who was attorney for Jack Ruby:

Howard was in the basement near the public elevator at the time Oswald was shot. This was not in the same area where the shooting took place.

After the shooting, Howard left the basement of the building and went to his office nearby. His partner, E. C. Sullivan, was in the office at the time. There was also a man in the office, whom Howard said identified himself as "a lawyer from the East". This man had an attache case with him, which he opened and which contained two guns, one of these was an automatic and a pistol. This man had told Howard that he came to Dallas to kill Oswald. Howard informed this man that he might as well take a bus back to the East.

Machirella questioned Howard as to whether he had reported this to police authorities and Howard indicated that he had not. Howard did say that he had taken the two guns from this man. Howard had pointed out that the man came to his office because he noticed the sign Howard had outside his office indicating that he was an attorney. Machirella described the information furnished by Howard as "fantastic", but he did report it to his newspaper, which did not print it. Machirella thought the story had been made up by Howard and he believed that this story gives an indication of the type of man that Howard is. Machirella thought Howard's purpose for furnishing this information was to give the impression that a number of people wanted to kill Oswald.

DALLAS, TEXAS

Detective E. R. BECK, 2242 Tealford, assigned to the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed at Dreyfuss Department Store, where he is employed as a security officer during his vacation. Detective BECK furnished the following additional information to that which he furnished on November 24, 1963:

At about 11:00 AM, November 24, 1963, Captain WILL FRITZ told him and Detective C. N. DHORITY and C. W. BROWNE to proceed to the basement and arrange two automobiles in the basement ramp for the transportation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the County Jail. } POLICE DEPARTMENT DALLAS TEXAS

At approximately 11:20 AM, Detective DHORITY was in the process of backing the transportation car into position on the ramp in the basement of the City Hall. He was standing at the right rear of the automobile driven by Detective BROWNE when he heard a shot fired. He saw numerous police officers wrestling with an individual on the floor and heard some newsmen say that JACK RUBY had shot OSWALD. He had not noticed anyone in the basement other than newsmen and police officers prior to the shooting.

He does not know JACK RUBY personally, but he believes that he may have seen him on the streets of Dallas prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He has never worked for RUBY, nor does he know any officer who has. He would estimate that there were about seventy-five persons in the basement at the time of the shooting other than police officers. He did not see anyone in the basement that he knew except for police officers. He did not know of any security measures that were in effect in the basement on November 24, 1963.

No police officer in the basement required him to identify himself, nor did he see any officer require identification from any person in the basement. He did not know of any unauthorized persons in the basement at the time of the shooting. He has no information regarding any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

AUGUST M. EBERHARDT, Detective, Burglary and Theft Division, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, was interviewed concerning the name MIKE EBERHARDT, 706 E. Farmer, CH 4-1766, Seagoville, Texas, being found in the personal affects of JACK RUBY during the time of his arrest.

EBERHARDT has known JACK RUBY and RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, for five or six years and has been in contact with both individuals over this period of time in connection with official business. He said that both RUBY and EVA GRANT, he is sure, have his calling card. He believed that RUBY wrote his name and address sometime shortly prior to May 8, 1962, because this was the day his, EBERHARDT's, child was born and RUBY wanted to send the child a present. He had also invited JACK to visit him and JACK stated he was going to see him but he never did.

He has not seen JACK RUBY for about three weeks prior to November 22, 1963.

On November 22, 1963, EBERHARDT was on duty from 3:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. on that day, which was the day the President was assassinated. He recalled seeing JACK RUBY in the hallway on the third floor at about 6:00 or 7:00 p.m. and asked him what he was doing there and RUBY told him that he had brought some sandwiches over and was acting as interpreter for some Israeli reporters. RUBY was carrying a note book and he thinks he had on some kind of a lapel badge such as reporters were wearing. He could not be sure about this but recalled that when he asked him what he was doing there, RUBY had pushed his lapel with his note book when he answered about acting as interpreter.

EBERHARDT said that he might be mistaken about this press card. He also remembered that RUBY said he had bought sandwiches and had remarked that he had brought nothing but "Kosher stuff."

He next saw RUBY sometime between 11:30 p.m. and midnight on the 22nd when there was a press conference in the Police Assembly Room in the basement of the Police Department. At that time, RUBY was standing on top of a table with a group of reporters when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was being interviewed by the press that night. He did not recall RUBY asking any questions during the press conference. He did not recall seeing RUBY between 7:00 p.m. and the time of the press conference.

EBERHARDT was not on duty Sunday, November 24, 1963. He had no idea as to how RUBY got into the basement on that day, which was the day OSWALD was shot. He said that RUBY knows numerous Police Officers in Dallas, both plain clothes officers and uniformed officers. He did not know why RUBY shot OSWALD, but remarked when Detective "SLICK" MULLINIX of the Vice Squad was shot to death previously, RUBY had been quite concerned and had been further disturbed when the person accused of shooting him was not prosecuted.

TEY X DECEASED

He had in his own, EBERHARDT's, dealings with RUBY found him to be honest and reliable. He knew of no favors that RUBY had extended to any Dallas Police Officers or of any Dallas Police Officers soliciting any favors of RUBY.

EBERHARDT knew of no connection or association between OSWALD and RUBY and had no information concerning any conspiracy on the part of RUBY and others to kill OSWALD.

ARTHUR DOUGLAS COHEN, permanent residence 10450 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, part owner of Douglas Furniture Corporation, 1920 East Maple, El Segundo, California, was interviewed in his hotel room at the Reef Hotel, Honolulu, where he is currently vacationing.

COHEN advised that he was in the furniture business in Chicago, Illinois, for many years up to November, 1951, when he moved to Los Angeles, California. At a time, best recalled as sometime between 1938 and 1945 and extending over a period of five to ten years (he was unable to fix this period more accurately), COHEN was acquainted with SPARKY RUBENSTEIN, then age thirty, who has since been identified by him through newspaper photographs as identical with JACK LEON RUBY. COHEN first met RUBENSTEIN as a customer in the same barbershop which both regularly patronized at the corner of Lawndale and 12th Streets in Chicago. The two barbers in that shop, HARRY GELBART and HARRY STURNER, were well acquainted with RUBENSTEIN in those days and are believed to know his closer friends in that period.

The barbershop was frequented largely by persons active in sports and had a long line of regular customers. Through this contact and frequent contacts through the five to ten years, COHEN came to know RUBENSTEIN as only a casual acquaintance and had no separate social contacts except on occasion having a drink together in a nearby cocktail lounge. COHEN emphasized that RUBENSTEIN only had soft drinks on these occasions and was never known to either drink, smoke, or curse. He apparently resided with his family somewhere on Independence Boulevard near Harrison Street section in the so-called Eastside of Chicago, while COHEN resided about one mile distant on the "Westside." COHEN never had occasion to visit RUBENSTEIN's home nor meet members of his family.

The two barbers are both presently in business and residing in the Beverly Hills, California area. HARRY GELBART who is considered the "Number One Barber in Beverly Hills," operates the Rothschild Barbershop on Beverly Drive, while HARRY STURNER is associated with either the Beverly Hilton Barbershop or Comb and Shears Barbershop, both located in the Beverly Hilton Hotel or in the latter-named shop at its Beverly Drive location.

COHEN recalled that RUBENSTEIN left Chicago ahead of his own departure prior to 1951, approximately 1948, and at the time indicated he was going to Dallas, Texas, to run a bar for an older sister.

During this period in Chicago, RUBENSTEIN was never known to be regularly employed but was like some other younger men who frequented the above barbershop, a so'called "hustler," buying various merchandise items such as watches at special prices and reselling at discount prices. He was described as good looking, dapper, clean-cut, a person of very good manners, and very gentlemanly with women on the few occasions COHEN observed him in female company.

Specifically, COHEN was never aware of any association by RUBENSTEIN with any known or suspected hoodlum elements nor was he ever suspected of any un-American sympathies or affiliatior with any suspected leftist or extreme rightist groups.

COHEN never attended the same school with RUBENSTEIN since they resided in different neighborhoods, and they did not meet until after RUBENSTEIN was out of school. COHEN believes that at one time RUBENSTEIN aspired to being a prize fighter, but he was never known to have entered into training. RUBENSTEIN could suggest no close acquaintances or friends of RUBENSTEIN pointing out that his only known associates were others patronizing the barbershop, but he believed that the two barbers, above, could provide further information on RUBENSTEIN's closer associates in that period.

Following his last contact with RUBENSTEIN in Chicago about 1948, COHEN had never seen or heard about him until the news story broke regarding his shooting of OSWALD.

COHEN recalled that one AL GOLDEN, an employee of the Westube Corporation at 10450 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, Calif. Ill.

in discussing this case, commented that he and RUBY had been kids together in Chicago; at one time got in a fight, and RUBY had "beat the hell out of him." COHEN pointed out that GOLDEN and RUBY were apparently from the same neighborhood although he had not known GOLDEN during the period he, COHEN, resided in Chicago.

In reading of the OSWALD slaying, COHEN had the feeling that this act by RUBY was completely out of character since, in his opinion, he had always been a "gentleman's gentleman." He added that RUBY was always a good talker and a person of very affable nature with lots of personality and one who made friends very easily, so it was understandable that he could have ingratiated himself with members of the Dallas Police Department.

COHEN advised that he has never had cause to believe RUBY was emotionally unstable or had any psychiatric problems during the period he knew him in Chicago, but he recalled that one one occasion when they were talking together in the Glass Hat Cocktail Lounge, Chicago, with RUBY having a soft drink, they were discussing the fighter JOE LOUIS, and RUBY made a serious remark that he could hit harder than LOUIS. From the odd look on RUBY's face, COHEN chose to walk away and leave him since he felt that RUBY might even seek to prove his point, and he did not want to chance a disturbance. This was the only instance when he considered RUBY reflected an unstable temperament.

MEYER H. ABLON, 3064 Walnut Hill Lane, DALLAS, TEX. voluntarily furnished the following information:

In about 1955 he owned a night club called The Chateau Club and one evening JOE BONDS, who owned the Sky Club, brought JACK RUBY into his club. RUBY invited him to visit the Vegas Club and thereafter he visited RUBY at the Vegas Club on numerous occasions. RUBY also visited him numerous times at his club, The Chateau. This all occurred between 1955 and 1957. Their relationship was strictly personal and he has never had any business dealings with RUBY, nor did they ever discuss the possibility of doing any business together. JOE BONDS rented The Chateau from him in 1956. He believes RUBY asked BONDS to help him run the Vegas Club but did not know if this happened or if BONDS was ever in business with RUBY. He has not seen or talked with RUBY in the past four or five years.

RUBY was a very nervous individual and could not sit still for any length of time. He always had to be doing something. He recalled that on one occasion when he was in the Vegas Club a customer who had had too much to drink became rather noisy. RUBY attempted to quiet him down in a nice way but when the customer became smart with RUBY, RUBY grabbed him by the shirt and escorted him out of the club. He believed RUBY was the type of person who was not afraid of anyone and if given good reason he would fight. He never knew RUBY to carry a gun or to be in any trouble with the Police Department. He described RUBY as a very likeable and friendly fellow. He never recalled seeing RUBY in the company of a girl. He has heard that RUBY was from Chicago but knows no further information regarding RUBY's background.

He has never heard anything concerning RUBY attempting to bribe or pay off any police officers or any other person to obtain favors. He does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor does he know of any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

He is employed as a salesman for the Jetco Chemical Company. During 1959 or 1960, he was employed by the Corrosion Rectifying Company, Houston, Texas, and living in Dallas. His firm determined that it would be desirable for him to have a membership in a private club in Dallas and he therefore obtained a membership at the Sovereign Club. He recalled that a JACK RUBY was the operator of the club at that time but he does not recall ever meeting RUBY. He did not join the club for any particular reason other than it was convenient to downtown Dallas. To his knowledge, he has not seen JACK RUBY since 1959 and knows nothing concerning his background, personal life or political convictions.

ASCHE advised that after the Las Vegas Club venture RUBY opened the Carousel Club on Commerce Street in Dallas. This is a private club that did not do too well and RUBY converted it into a strip club about 1958.

ASCHE stated that RUBY never discussed politics in his presence, but he was sure he had no communistic or erratic political tendencies. He stated that RUBY was an excitable, impetuous man. He did not believe that RUBY had any real close friends, although he had a long list of acquaintances. He said he understood that RUBY had the reputation of knowing a "tough crowd" from Chicago,

Mrs. J. M. (DOLORES F.) BANKSTON, nee MERIDITH, 3542 Rosedale, Highland Park, Texas, whose name appeared on a note pad secured from JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

Approximately four or five years ago, she met JACK RUBY, through friends of hers, BOB and KATHRYN HEISER, at the Jaz Limited Club in Dallas.

She said she subsequently accompanied the HEISER's and RUBY to various private clubs, the only one which she now recalls is the 3520 Club.

She advised she has not seen RUBY since the aforementioned night, however, about two years ago, she received a phone call from him which he advised her he had learned she had recently been hospitalized and inquired as to her health. She said RUBY asked her if she needed any money and when she replied that she did not, he said he thought she might have been strapped for funds due to her illness and was offering her the money without any strings attached.

Mrs. BANKSTON advised HEISER was formerly associated with the National Cash Register Company and sold their products to various clubs. She said she presumes it was while he was with the National Cash Register Company that HEISER met RUBY.

Mrs. BANKSTON further advised HEISER used to joke with her about RUBY and said that he thought "JACK liked boys".

Mrs. BANKSTON advised she could furnish no further information concerning RUBY. She said she does not recall ever having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD or of having heard of him prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

JAMES C. BARRAGAN, owner, The Town Pump of Dallas, 5021 West Lovers Lane, associate of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information: DALLAS, TEXAS

He opened The Town Pump of Dallas in about 1956, which is the same year he first met JACK RUBY, as RUBY made it a practice to visit all of the night spots in Dallas at least once a year. At this time RUBY was operating the Vegas Club, which he understood was owned by RUBY's mother, and as far as he knows, RUBY did not have any funds of his own to operate such an establishment. He described RUBY as a man who would have a pocketful of money one day and was broke the next day. On one occasion five years ago RUBY attempted to sell him a diamond ring, saying he was broke and needed the money. He last saw RUBY in the Carousel Club about two years ago, at which time there were approximately six uniformed officers of the Dallas Police Department present. He recalls thinking at the time that RUBY must have friends in the police department as drinks were still being served after midnight even though the police were present.

He had no personal contact with RUBY outside of an occasional visit from RUBY at The Town Pump, and he was only in one of RUBY's clubs, the Carousel Club, on one occasion, as noted above. He does not know of any connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD or of any direct connection RUBY had with the Dallas Police Department.

Grover William Cantrell, International Staff Representative, Communication Workers of America, 99 University Place, New York City, was interviewed by SA Timothy B. Lagrone on December 17, 1963, and furnished the following information pertaining to himself and his association with Jack Leon Ruby:

Cantrell moved to New York City in 1960 and presently resides at 409 Shirley Parkway, Piscataway Township, New Jersey, telephone number EL 6-8623. Prior to moving to New York, he resided at 6030 Menger Street, Dallas, Texas, and was a partner with Thomas Howard, Dallas attorney, in the Danceland Night Club, Corinth Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

He first met Ruby in approximately 1956, when Ruby was the owner of the Longhorn Tavern on Ervay Street in Dallas. As he recalls, he introduced himself to Ruby one night at Ruby's Longhorn Tavern, as it was common practise in Dallas for night club owners to visit other night clubs and introduce themselves to other club owners. He said most club owners in Dallas extend courtesy passes to other club owners, and, as a result, the owners visit each others night clubs and become acquainted in this manner.

During the period 1956 to 1960, he had visited Ruby's night clubs on several occasions and was usually met at the door of the clubs by Ruby himself. As he recalls, Ruby had visited Danceland on only one occasion. He knew that Ruby had also owned the Vegas Club in Dallas, but could furnish no additional information in connection with Ruby's business affairs.

He said he had never associated with Ruby outside the visits to Ruby's clubs, but upon this limited association with Ruby, he would describe Ruby as an excitable, nervous person that always seemed to be in a rush. He further added that he never saw Ruby drink any type of alcoholic drink and had, at the time, felt this was a little unusual, as most of the night club owners would have an occasional drink with their guests. He described Ruby further as being well known in the circle of clubs and was usually standing at the door of his own clubs.

Cantrell said he has never met Oswald and has no knowledge concerning any connection or association between Ruby and Oswald. He knew of no subversive affiliations of Ruby nor any knowledge of a conspiracy on the part of any other person with Ruby to kill Oswald; no knowledge of any connections between Ruby and Dallas police officers; and no knowledge of any travels of Ruby in the United States or foreign countries.

Cantrell stated that periodically he makes trips to Dallas, but as he could recall, the last time he saw Ruby was prior to the time he moved to New York in 1960. As for associates of Ruby, outside of other club owners in Dallas, the only person he knew that associated with Ruby was possibly above-mentioned Thomas Howard, who was the attorney for Ruby in some business transactions, and who may be presently representing Ruby. . ....

In conclusion, Cantrell stated that he, Cantrell, was a candidate for the State Legislature in 1956, as well as a candidate for the United States Congress in 1958. He said he he had been in possession of any information he felt pertinent to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) present investigation in this matter, he would have notified the FBI immediately. He expressed a desire to assist this Bureau in any way possible, stating that he should be contacted at any time it was felt he could furnish any additional information in this matter.

Alfred L. Dreyfus, who resides at the N.Y. N.Y. Narragansett Hotel, 2508 Broadway, Manhattan, was interviewed at the office of Sports Data Corporation, 150 West 52nd Street, third floor. TEX

He furnished the following information:

He is part-owner of Sports Data Corporation and this firm is engaged in the business of electronic golf data handicapping.

He went to Dallas, Texas, on a business trip from December 18 to 21, 1962. The purpose of this trip was to attempt to buy out a competitor in the electronic golf data handicapping business, a firm known as Minimax, which is located in Dallas. While in Dallas, Texas, he went to the Carousel Club on two nights, probably December 18 and 19, 1962.

The first night that Dreyfus was at the Carousel Club, Jack Ruby introduced himself to Dreyfus, then Ruby sat at the table with Dreyfus part of the evening. To the best of his recollection, the discussion with Ruby was about night club business and show business in general. Dreyfus asked Ruby to get him a date with one of the "strippers" who was at that time performing at the club. However, Ruby did not obtain this date for him. He saw Ruby again the following night and could only recall that they engaged in small talk about show business.

Dreyfus had no knowledge of any subversive activities on the part of Ruby. He did not know of any association between Lee Harvey Oswald and Ruby. He had no knowledge of any conspiracy to kill Oswald. He had no knowledge of any close connections between Ruby and anyone in the Dallas Police Department.

He stated that he has been in the Carousel Club on several occasions and has talked to RUBY briefly on these occasions. He has never heard RUBY discuss his political views and knows nothing regarding RUBY's political tendencies, or his background. He stated that he has not seen JACK RUBY in the last two years.

He advised that he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor does he know of any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

RICHARD J. HAND, 2607 San Marcus, advised that he was formerly employed as an accountant by the Kenneth J. Rich Company located at 211 North Ervay, Dallas. In about 1959 or 1960, JACK RUBY gave membership cards to Mr. RICH and Mr. HAND and possibly to PATSY CARTER, who was Mr. RICH's secretary. He saw Mr. RUBY only on a few occasions and did not know him well enough to provide any pertinent information concerning him. Mr. HAND stated that he had never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no information that OSWALD and RUBY were ever connected.

Mr. JOE A. HELM, Mercantile National Bank, Dallas, Texas, whose name appeared on a Carousel Club pass card, furnished the following information:

He has known JACK RUBY for about ten years, however, had not had any contact with him for approximately seven years up until three or four weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. HELM advised it was late on a Friday evening approximately four weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY when JACK RUBY came into the bank attempting to get a cashier's check cashed. He said at this time RUBY asked him if he had been to his club. He said he had not and at that time RUBY gave him a pass for four to the Carousel Club. He said he signed the pass and RUBY then took it back saying he was going to have it laminated and would mail it back to him. He said that was the last contact he had with RUBY.

Mr. HELM stated he was formerly in the bookkeeping department of the Mercantile National Bank and while in that department, had frequent contacts with RUBY and knows that he had one or two checking accounts with the bank but does not recall the names in which these accounts were carried.

Mr. HELM advised RUBY always carried a big roll of bills in his pocket, but never put much money in the bank and when asked why, he said he could not as the Government had a lien against him.

Mr. HELM advised he visited the Vegas Club on several occasions and RUBY was always cordial and friendly, however, he always thought of him as a big promoter.

Mr. HELM advised he does not know of any associates, acquaintances or friends of RUBY and his only contacts with him were in connection with the banking business in the aforementioned infrequent visits to the Vegas Club.

Mr. HELM advised he does not recall ever having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to observing him on television after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

JACK HORNER, Apartment 101, 708 Bittersweet, Chicago, Illinois, advised the following:

He is a former resident of Dallas, Texas, having resided there for approximately 14 years. He left Dallas approximately two years ago. While in Dallas he and his wife used to go to the Vegas Club, which was owned by JACK RUBY. He met RUBY at the club at various times. However, he does not consider himself to be a good friend of RUBY's.

He recalls reading in a Dallas newspaper approximately four years ago that RUBY and another individual were arrested for sodomy.

He considers RUBY to be the lowest type of a character. He believes that he is a homosexual and is of the opinion that RUBY killed OSWALD merely for publicity and personal gain. He does not believe RUBY is a patriot but reiterated he believes that RUBY killed OSWALD in order to gain publicity. He recalls RUBY's Vegas Club was famous for cheating customers, such as serving watered drinks.

He does not know of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY and does not know of any connection between RUBY and the Dallas Police Department other than he feels that RUBY is known by the majority of the police officers due to the type of business RUBY was engaged in in the Dallas area.

She advised that he could have stayed at the Avalon Motel but is not certain She said that they have many patrons at this particular motel and it is physically impossible to recall each individual.

Mrs. JACKSON advised that in June of 1963, there was a man by the name of ROBERT AHLER who stayed at the motel for approximately three weeks and whom she suspected of having communistic tendencies. The following interview was conducted by SA's KENNETH B. JACKSON and JOHN V. ALMON on November 29, 1963:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

WAYNE JANUARY, owner, American Aviation Company, Room 101, Terminal Building, Red Bird Airport, advised that from February through April, 1963, he, together with several friends, on occasion frequented the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, which he understands is owned by one JACK RUBY. JANUARY stated that during February, 1963, he received an anonymous telephone call from a man who offered him the sum of $5,000.00 to fly to Laredo, Texas, and back with no questions asked. JANUARY said that he surmised that this individual planned to transport narcotics to Dallas and for this reason he declined the offer. JANUARY further stated that during March, 1963, he received a second anonymouse telephone call from a man who wanted him to fly $12,000,000.00 worth of gold dust to Mexico City where he was to pick up the currency and return with it to Dallas. He stated that this individual offered him $400,000.00 to make this flight which he also declined.

JANUARY stated that during the latter part of July, 1963, a man and woman whom he had never seen before contacted him at his office at which time they inquired about chartering a plane for a trip to "Old Mexico". JANUARY stated that when he asked this man questions essential to such a flight he was definitely evasive in his answers. JANUARY explained that this individual did not appear to know exactly where he desired to go in Mexico but said something about the West Coast. Furthermore, he did not appear to know when he desired to return or exactly how many passengers could be expected on the flight. JANUARY said that this man, after stating that he did not wish to make the flight for a couple of months, stated that he would consider the information which JANUARY had given him and let him know at a later date. He said that when the couple left he observed a third man who had been waiting in their automobile during the entire conversation, and after observing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television it now seems to him that this man somewhat resembled OSWALD although he was not definitely sure in this respect. JANUARY was unable to offer any additional information which might be of assistance in identifying the man and woman who inquired about the flight to Mexico. He said that they did not appear to him to be persons of sufficient financial means to charter a trip such as the one discussed.

JANUARY further commented that he was never at the Carousel Club, that he did not observe at least three plainclothes officers, and when a friend of his attempted to date a performer, KATHY ~~X~~KAY, she informed this friend that she had to go with another man whom she identified as a plainclothes officer. TEX.

JANUARY concluded with the opinion that JACK RUBY was not the type individual who would have killed, or attempted to kill, anyone charged with the assassination of the President. He said that he does not think that RUBY cared that much even about his own mother.

PAUL R. JONES, 1120 Graylynn Drive, Vestavia Hills, Alabama, advised he first met JACK RUBY at the Congress Hotel in Chicago, Illinois, about early Fall of 1946, as best he could recall. RUBY was residing at the Congress Hotel and the reason for JONES being in Chicago was to discuss the slot machine and policy business with PAUL LABRIOLLA and JIMMIE WEINBERG, both now deceased. JONES was walking in company of PAUL LABRIOLLA and JIMMIE WEINBERG in the lobby of the Congress Hotel and they ran into JACK RUBY. JACK RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, had arranged the meeting between JONES, LABRIOLLA and WEINBERG. RUBY some time later moved to Dallas Texas, because his sister, EVA GRANT, had become involved with a phony chiropractor and he (JONES) knew that she was about to be taken. He so advised RUBY and thereafter became friendly with him.

He said he had no direct business dealing with RUBY; however, he had been in contact with RUBY on a friendly basis on numerous occasions and considered RUBY to be an "acquaintance" rather than a friend. He described RUBY as being a "physical fitness bug, a dapper dresser and a ladies' man". RUBY, in his estimation, was capable of doing anything to accomplish what he set out to do, including shooting OSWALD or the President. He said he was acquainted with HYMIE RUBENSTEIN, brother of JACK RUBY.

JACK RUBY, according to JONES, must have been paying off the police department in Dallas, Texas, otherwise he could not have operated his businesses nor been permitted to put on the "raw shows" that he did. He based this opinion on his own activities in having had to pay off in order to operate in Dallas. JONES saw RUBY about ten days prior to the assassination of the President at Dallas. He saw him at the Carousel Club and asked RUBY how he was getting along. RUBY replied he was not doing any good and said "his competitors had become his enemies." He asked RUBY if he could help and RUBY replied that he got himself into the situation and that he had to get himself out. JONES did not know what RUBY meant by this statement and assumed it

JONES stated he has known Captain FRITZ, Dallas Police Department, for 30 years and Police Chief CURRY for a number of years. He does not believe CURRY has ability or stability to do the job and that if Captain FRITZ had been handling the OSWALD arrest with complete authority, OSWALD would not have been killed. He said he does not know how RUBY was allowed to be in the police department and reiterated the opinion RUBY must have been paying off someone in the police department.

He said he is not aware of any of RUBY's activities other than those in the Dallas area.

He had never heard of OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and had no knowledge of any relationship whatsoever between RUBY and OSWALD.

DALLAS, TEXAS

He has known RUBY since the early 1930's when he used to see him in the Randolph Street area of Chicago, Illinois, and although he knew his name, he had never met him and did not know him personally. He did not know of any associates or activities of RUBY at this time in Chicago. The next time he saw RUBY was in Dallas in about 1946 when RUBY arrived in Dallas from Chicago and opened the Silver Spur night club. He did not know where RUBY obtained the money to open this night club but feels it probably came from relatives in Chicago. He states RUBY never liked him and this has often puzzled him, although on one occasion when he visited one of RUBY's clubs in Dallas, name unrecalled, RUBY, with no apparent reason, told him to get out and never come back. He stated this animosity has always existed between them, but he cannot say exactly why or when it started. He does not know of any political affiliations of RUBY or of any connection with the hoodlum element in Dallas or Chicago or any connection with LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the murder of OSWALD.

He last saw RUBY two or three days prior to the assassination of the President in the coffee shop of the Cabana Motor Hotel in Dallas at about 1:00 a.m. where they exchanged a short greeting.

He first met RUBY sometime in 1960, when he took a customer into the Sovereign Club. A short time later, RUBY came to his place of business, Pay Master Sales, with another man whose name he has forgotten. RUBY asked KRAUSE to help this man get a job, which he agreed to do. KRAUSE was only in the Sovereign Club on one occasion thereafter. This was about two years ago and this was the last time he saw RUBY.

Mr. KRAUSE did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or why RUBY shot OSWALD. He knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He had no knowledge that RUBY was acquainted with any officer of the Dallas Police Department.

ROBERT G LANDERS TEX.

Date 12-21-63

ROBERT G LANDERS, Service Representative, "Dallas Morning News" newspaper, advised he had only been acquainted with JACK RUBY as a customer placing ads in the newspaper since early November, 1963. He was not well enough acquainted with RUBY to be familiar with his habits or associates.

About six weeks ago, RUBY issued him a permanent Carousel Club pass-card number 190. On Thursday night, November 21, 1963, he went to the Carousel Club with another employee, CHARLES MILLER. They saw RUBY there but did not talk to him. During an intermission, RUBY was on the stage giving away prizes. There was a man who appeared to be drunk creating a disturbance in the crowd, in that he was using foul language, telling RUBY to get off the stage and to bring on the girls.

RUBY had a verbal argument with the man after which the man left the Carousel Club. RUBY did not have to use any force to get the man to leave. He apologized to the audience for the disturbance after the man left.

Sometime on Friday morning, November 22, 1963, he saw RUBY at the "Dallas Morning News" but did not talk with him other than to just say hello.

LANDERS was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD and knew of no association by other individuals with these two men in connection with the shootings.

1 VINCENT LEE, 305 Lomaland Drive, El Paso, Tex., furnished the following information:

During a period of time in the 1940's and 1950's LEE was connected with the American Guild of Variety Artists. He served with this union in Kansas City, Missouri, and moved to Dallas, Texas, in 1948, where he took up the position of Branch Manager of the American Guild of Variety Artists in Dallas. LEE became acquainted with JACK RUBY in Dallas during the early 1950's but did not have a business relationship with RUBY until about 1953.

In about 1953, RUBY became the operator of the Silver Spur Club in Dallas and found it necessary to contact LEE in connection with obtaining entertainers for his club.

LEE said that the information set out below, which was contained in a memorandum of SA RALPH J. MILES of the Dallas Office of the FBI and dated August 11, 1953, was correct, to the best of his recollection:

"On this date, the writer chanced to be in the office of VINCENT LEE, Branch Manager, American Guild of Variety Artists, 1918 Live Oak Street, Dallas, Texas, on official business. An individual later identified by Mr. LEE as JACK RUBY, operator of the Silver Spur, 1717 S. Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, came blustering into LEE's office. RUBY demanded of LEE that LEE supply RUBY with some 'girls' to put on entertainment at his Silver Spur. LEE told RUBY that RUBY would have to put up a cash bond to guarantee the girls' salary whereupon RUBY began to curse LEE, claiming that he was short on money and that LEE did not make his, RUBY's, competitors put up such a cash bond. LEE maintained that he still could not furnish girl entertainers to RUBY unless RUBY put up some cash at which time RUBY arose and in a threatening tone of voice asked LEE: ' Do you want to know whether or not I'm packing a gun?' and 'What are you trying to do, be a tough guy in Dallas? Well, I'm just as tough as they come' or words to that effect.

"After RUBY stormed out of LEE's office, cursing all the while, LEE confidentially advised the writer that RUBY considered himself a very tough Dallas character and was an associate of JOE BONDS, operator of the Sky Club, who was also a 'tough' character who bore a grudge against LEE because LEE one time attempted to collect a $700.00 bad check BONDS had given a girl entertainer at which time either BONDS or one of his henchmen had struck LEE across the forehead with a pistol. LEE continued that both RUBY and BONDS always carried concealed pistols and were in constant association with JAMES ROBERT TODD, better known as JACK TODD, FBI #1805883, Dallas PD #22255, a well known Dallas safe-cracker. LEE informed that RUBY, BONDS and TODD, together with other hoodlums and safe-crackers, whose identities were unknown to LEE, usually hung around Sue's Used Car Lot, 3400 Live Oak, Dallas, Texas."

TEX.

The above mentioned business relationship between LEE and RUBY was punctured with arguments and disagreements, followed by threats by RUBY against the life of LEE. RUBY frequently got mad at LEE because of problems that LEE presented for RUBY in connection with obtaining entertainers for RUBY's club. RUBY threatened LEE on many occasions as a result of the disagreements between these two individuals. On a number of occasions RUBY told LEE that he could have LEE taken care of. On one occasion RUBY needed to obtain some money in order to put up the proper bond for an entertainer. RUBY indicated to LEE that he did not have the money, at which time LEE told RUBY that RUBY could go out and borrow the money. On this occasion RUBY got mad at LEE and threatened LEE's life. RUBY frequently patted his coat which contained a gun in a shoulder holster, indicating to LEE that RUBY would use the gun on LEE if it became necessary.

RUBY appeared to LEE to be the type of person who could be a"Dr. JEKYL one moment and a Mr. HYDE the next." On occasions RUBY was very nice to LEE and they got along very well. Their conversation frequently went along in pleasant terms and then RUBY would get mad because of something that was said during the conversation. If RUBY did not get his way, "All wrath of hell could fall down."

In spite of the fact that LEE was threatened by RUBY on many occasions, LEE took these threats with a grain of salt. He said that as a result of his position as a union organizer he expected to run across that type of thing.

Many of RUBY's disagreements with LEE resulted from the fact that RUBY felt that other club owners were not required to put up the full amount of bonds in connection with the payment of salaries to entertainers. RUBY complained about the fact that he had to put up the full amount of bonds on many occasions. RUBY was required to follow this course of action when he first went into business as a club operator in about 1953 in view of the fact that he had not proved his reliability as yet and because of the fact that he associated with such persons as JOE BONDS and JACK TODD. The other club owners who were not required to put up full amounts of the bonds were allowed to follow this course of action in view of the fact that they had established a reputation for themselves as far as the payment of salaries to entertainers was concerned. LEE never did have a meeting of the minds with RUBY and he considered RUBY to be an agitator who wanted to dictate to the union. Because of their continuing difficulty he tried to avoid RUBY whenever possible. RUBY was just like a little boy who would pick up his marbles and go home if he did not get his way. On several occasions LEE told RUBY to "grow up" as a result of the tactics used by RUBY.

RUBY was very closely associated with JOE BONDS and JACK TODD in Dallas. An individual by the name of GREEN, first name not known, who had the reputation of being a hoodlum in Dallas and who was killed several years ago, was also a friend of RUBY. RUBY was seen frequently with the above mentioned individuals in various places in Dallas. RUBY was not known to have any open business relationship with any of these individuals except for possibly BONDS.

BONDS told LEE on one occasion that he, BONDS, owned a part of the Silver Spur Club, which belonged to RUBY. BONDS was later sent to prison over an incident involving a young girl.

On the above mentioned occasion when BONDS had a disagreement with LEE regarding collection of a $700 bad check, BONDS pistol whipped LEE and threatened the lives of both LEE and his wife.

LEE was of the opinion that RUBY and BONDS would have stooped to anything for money. Both RUBY and BONDS were the type of persons who would go ahead with the threats that they made against LEE's life if they thought they could get away with it.

Even though RUBY used to lose his temper frequently in connection with his difficulties with LEE and threatened LEE on a number of occasions, RUBY always seemed to be rational.

RUBY never showed any interest in politics during the time that LEE was in contact with him. LEE knew nothing regarding the political feelings or beliefs of RUBY.

Based upon LEE's association with RUBY and his knowledge of RUBY, he formed the opinion that RUBY must have been paid in order to kill LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that this was merely an opinion on his part and he had no information to substantiate this opinion. He said that he considered RUBY to be an unscrupulous individual who would do just about anything.

LEE has never been in Buffalo, New York, and has not been in New Orleans, Louisiana, since about 1955. LEE's activities in New Orleans in 1955 had to do with his work as a union organizer.

LEE has never had any contact with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. He never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew nothing regarding him prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. LEE read in the newspaper in connection with the assassination that there was an individual by the name of VINCENT LEE in New Orleans in connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. LEE said that this individual was obviously another person who had the same name as his.

Dr. MIROWITZ advised that he is a psychologist and uses the art of hypnotism in partial cures of many of his patients.

He stated that to his knowledge, RUBY did not know OSWALD and he has no information of any conspiracy that may have existed between RUBY and OSWALD; RUBY and the Dallas Police; nor has he any information as to how RUBY may have entered the Dallas Police Department Building. He personally had never heard of OSWALD until reading of him in the news media.

Dr. MIROWITZ added that he has volunteered his services to the United States Attorney in Dallas in that he felt that hypnosis could certainly answer a lot of questions concerning any conspiracy upon the part of RUBY and others in this matter; however, he has received no reply from the United States Attorney.

DON M. *MURDOCH, 7325 Syracuse, Dallas, Texas, was advised the following was found in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY:

*MURDO, Inc. (DON M. MURDOCH) or (DAN)
DALLAS TEX.

MURDOCH advised the above is undoubtedly his name and the firm he was formerly associated with in Dallas. He said he first met JACK RUBY in approximately 1960 when RUBY was soliciting membership to his Sovereign Club (later named Carousel Club) in Dallas. He joined the club at that time. MURDOCH stated he was president and principal stockholder of MURDO, INC., a land development firm in Dallas, now defunct, in 1960 and he does not recall whether his membership card to the Sovereign Club was in the name of Murdo, Inc., or in his name or in both names. Subsequently, he visited the Sovereign, Carousel and Vegas Clubs in Dallas a number of times and on most occasions talked with RUBY. He had no other contact with RUBY and no social relationship with him whatsoever. He added that he never had any business contacts with RUBY for Murdo, Inc., or any other firm. He last saw RUBY in the summer of 1963.

MURDOCH related that RUBY impressed him as being a very friendly person who would help anyone in need. He was a nervous person who never seemed to relax for a moment. His conversations pertained primarily to his night club business and he never discussed politics. He occasionally saw RUBY lose his temper when a customer in his club misbehaved in some way, afterwhich RUBY would ask the customer to leave. He never saw RUBY in a violent state, however. MURDOCH added that RUBY operated a "clean," legitimate business.

MURDOCH knew none of RUBY's close friends or acquaintances, and he did not know if RUBY had any "contacts" on the Dallas Police Department.

He had no idea how RUBY gained entrance to Dallas City Hall on November 24, 1963. He believed RUBY was very disturbed over the assassination of former President KENNEDY and saw an opportunity to eliminate LEE HARVEY OSWALD after gaining entrance to the basement of City Hall. MURDOCH had no idea how RUBY gained entrance to City Hall on the morning RUBY shot OSWALD. He also believed RUBY actually felt he was doing a "right" by eliminating a "wrong."

SCHWARTZ stated from that time on, he would call RUBY whenever he was in Dallas and they would visit together or go out to supper together. SCHWARTZ stated he has not seen RUBY for over a year since he has not been in Dallas for over a year. He advised he was in Dallas about every six months.

He related that RUBY had mentioned he was from Chicago and had talked about going to Chicago for a visit and at one time, he, SCHWARTZ, had given RUBY his home address in Philadelphia so RUBY could contact him in the event RUBY came to Philadelphia. Mr. SCHWARTZ stated he could not recall when this incident had taken place but did know that it had been several years ago. He added that RUBY had never visited at the SCHWARTZ home and had never contacted him in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

SCHWARTZ related as a rule he would arrive in Dallas, Texas, on a Friday night, spend the weekend in Dallas and call on his business contacts on Monday or Tuesday. During this period of time, he stated he might see RUBY once or twice, and they would meet at the hotel and go out for dinner. He stated he had been to RUBY's apartment only once and could not recall where the apartment was located.

SCHWARTZ also sated that he had been at RUBY's clubs, the Vegas and the Carousel, to visit RUBY but added that these clubs were not to his liking and therefore did not frequent these clubs other than to call on RUBY.

SCHWARTZ related it was his opinion that RUBY did not like the night club business, and he, SCHWARTZ, always felt that RUBY wanted to be a business man and was looking for status in the community. SCHWARTZ stated it was his impression that RUBY thought he could learn something about the business field from SCHWARTZ and that was one reason he, RUBY, liked to associate with him. He added that RUBY very seldom discussed business with him; however, at one time he did mention that he was contemplating going into the hot dog machine business. He stated apparently this business did not come into being.

Mr. SCHWARTZ advised that he makes it a practice not to enter into discussions revolving around politics or religion; however, he stated it has been his experience that anyone who had strong feelings in these matters will make his feelings known and will discuss these fields voluntarily.

Mr. SCHWARTZ added that he could not recall RUBY ever entering into any discussion concerning politics.

He stated RUBY had never discussed President KENNEDY or any political systems, and it was his, SCHWARTZ's, opinion that RUBY had no strong political views.

SCHWARTZ related that RUBY seemed to be well known in Dallas and the acquaintances of RUBY whom he met all seemed to be very highly respected people. He recalled one night RUBY invited him to dinner at the 3225 Club in Dallas, which he described as a very elite club, and while there, RUBY introduced him to GREER GARSON and her husband. SCHWARTZ advised that during his association with RUBY, he did not know him to associate with anyone who did not have a good reputation. Tel.

Mr. SCHWARTZ also advised that RUBY appeared to be the type of person he would call a "handshaker" and knew many people, but he did not know of any close friends which RUBY might have.

Concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Mr. SCHWARTZ stated he had seen his photograph many times during the past few days and could not recall ever seeing this person in RUBY's clubs or in Dallas and never heard RUBY mention this person. Judging from what he had read about OSWALD, Mr. SCHWARTZ stated it was his opinion that RUBY would not associate with or be affiliated in any way with such a person. He stated he based this on the fact that all the persons he had met when in the company of RUBY had been persons of stature.

SCHWARTZ stated that RUBY seemed to be well acquainted with several police officers in Dallas, but he did not know the names of any of these men. He pointed out that he did not believe this was anything out of the ordinary, since Dallas seems to be the type of town where everyone knows everyone else. He added that the way RUBY spoke to the police officers, there seemed to be a familiarity between them.

SCHWARTZ described RUBY as a soft-spoken and gentle type of person who would never try to antagonize anyone. He added he was a clean-living person who did not drink or smoke and was interested in physical culture and wanted to see how long he could live and be healthy. He was pleased with himself and his success and liked Dallas and people in general. He was not a bitter person and was easy to get along with and a person would feel comfortable in his presence. He never had any show of obvious emotions and never made any derogatory statement or threatening statement about anyone.

SCHWARTZ added that RUBY was the type of person who could take care of himself and could be tough if necessary. He related that RUBY had told him that he had to keep his customers in line and on more than one occasion had to remove them from his place of business. RUBY related to SCHWARTZ that on one occasion, he became involved in an altercation with one person and the person bit off part of one of his fingers.

SCHWARTZ also stated on one occasion, several years ago, he met RUBY at one of his clubs at closing time to go out to dinner. At that time RUBY had a paper sack which contained the day's receipts and in the sack was a revolver. They got into the car and RUBY put the gun in the glove compartment. At that time, he, SCHWARTZ, asked RUBY why he had the gun, and RUBY stated he had the gun because of the money he was carrying and added he needed that protection in Dallas. SCHWARTZ stated he did not question RUBY any further in this matter, but he gained the impression that RUBY carried a gun when he carried large amounts of money. He stated he did not see RUBY with a gun after that. SCHWARTZ advised he could not recall any more details concerning this event.

SCHWARTZ advised he was shocked when he learned that RUBY had shot OSWALD and stated that it was inconceivable to him that RUBY would be capable of doing such a thing. He stated as far as he was concerned, this would have to have been a spontaneous act on the part of RUBY, and he was certain that RUBY did not have any dictation from anyone to do such an act.

He added that RUBY was strong willed and egotistical and would not allow himself to be talked into anything. He also added RUBY was not the type who would align himself with any radical group and did not believe he had the education to become involved in any such group.

SCHWARTZ again stated it was his opinion that the action taken by RUBY was due to a spontaneous action on his part and not due to any political involvements.

Mr. JAMES H. SCOTT, 4747 Homer, Apartment 102, Telephone TA 4-5880, Dallas, was interviewed to ascertain if he had any information as to why the name CAROL appeared next to the notation MP 9670 that was obtained from RUBY's note pad. MRS. JAMES H. SCOTT

Mr. SCOTT advised that his wife's name is CAROL and could recall that she used to own a 1962 Pontiac convertible and that he had purchased 1962 License MP 9670 for this particular car in 1962. Mr. SCOTT stated that his wife CAROL is employed by a local attorney, MIKE BARKLEY and was of the opinion that JACK RUBY had either employed BARKLEY or possibly knew him at one time. He stated that he could recall his wife mentioning to him sometime ago that she had seen RUBY and several other individuals standing on the street near the office of Mr. BARKLEY and that she was just leaving for home when she heard some remarks from RUBY. He went on to say that his wife had told him that either RUBY or his friends had made some "wise cracks" to his wife and was under the impression that RUBY had possibly written down the 1962 License Plate with the notation of CAROL next to it.

Mr. SCOTT related the fact that he was quite positive that his wife CAROL knew absolutely nothing concerning JACK RUBY's background and was quite positive that she could offer no information whatsoever concerning RUBY. He stated that his wife is presently traveling in Colorado and will not be available for interview for quite sometime.

Mr. SCOTT is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and he could offer no information concerning RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY and stated that he is positive that his wife knew of no connection between the two.

GEORGE SENATOR, c/o Carousel Club, 1312 1/2 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He came to Dallas about May 15, 1954, and first met JACK RUBY about 1955. He believes this was at the time RUBY was assisting in the operation of the Vegas Club. RUBY was only a casual acquaintance until about March or April, 1962. He would see him only infrequently when he happened to meet him in the business area of Dallas or at a restaurant or night club. On those occasions he would talk to him for only a short period of time. About March or April, 1962, SENATOR was out of work and about out of funds. RUBY invited him to stay in his apartment, which was located on South Marsalis, exact address unrecalled. Mr. SENATOR stayed with RUBY for approximately five or six months at this address, and during this period assisted RUBY in the operation of the Carousel Club by acting as a cashier or taking tickets at the door. About August or September, 1962, SENATOR began operating the Texas Post Card Company and moved to the Grandbury Apartments, located on Maple Street. MR. RUBY remained at the South Marsalis address. SENATOR would still help out occasionally at the Carousel Club on weekends and special occasions.

In the latter part of November, 1962, SENATOR moved into Apartment 206, located at 223 South Ewing with a Mr. STANTON CORBIT, a buyer for Titche's Department Store. He told JACK RUBY about the new apartments and RUBY moved into Apartment 207 in the latter part of November, 1962.

About August, 1963, CORBIT got married and left SENATOR with all of the rent to pay on his apartment. He was unable to handle the entire amount by himself and at the invitation of RUBY, moved into Apartment 207 with RUBY about the first week in November, 1963. He was still living with him at the time of RUBY's arrest.

Mr. SENATOR advised that during the period he has lived next door to and with RUBY, he can recall only one trip out of town made by RUBY. On this occasion RUBY was having trouble with his competitors over AGVA requirements on amateur hours put on at the burlesque shows. He did not feel that his competitors were following the rules set forth by AGVA and this was hurting his business. RUBY went to New York City to talk to the officers of AGVA concerning this situation. Mr. SENATOR believes that on this same trip RUBY first took a young dog to CANDY BARR in the vicinity of Houston, Texas, prior to flying on to New York. To the best of SENATOR's knowledge, RUBY made this trip alone, and was gone for about three or four days. SENATOR does not know where RUBY stayed in New York City and does not know for sure the identity of the persons he contacted. He believes that RUBY contacted a Mr. BOBBY FAY of the AGVA and possibly a Mr. JOE GLAZIER (phonetic), a booking agent in New York. RUBY has talked to SENATOR about vacation trips he has taken, but SENATOR cannot recall any details of these trips. N.Y.

SENATOR stated that he has no information to indicate that RUBY has connections with the hoodlum element in Chicago, Illinois. RUBY has confided to SENATOR that he grew up in a very tough neighborhood, but SENATOR has seen no visitors whom he recognized as being from Chicago during the period of his close association with RUBY. The only close friend of RUBY known to SENATOR who has a Chicago connection was one MARTY GIMPLE (phonetic), a traveling salesman who had formerly lived in Dallas and moved back to Chicago. Mr. GIMPLE died about 1962. KEY. ILL DECEASED

The only addresses recalled by SENATOR at which RUBY has resided in Dallas include the Continental Apartments on Homer Avenue, the address on South Marsalis at which SENATOR resided with RUBY for a short period of time, and the apartment at 223 South Ewing. He also recalled that RUBY lived with his sister, EVA GRANT, for a period of time, but he does not recall the dates or address.

SENATOR advised that RUBY was a Democrat but was not active in political affairs and very seldom even discussed them. He is not sure that RUBY voted. At no time did RUBY express an opinion in SENATOR's presence concerning the Cuban crisis.

During the period of his acquaintance with RUBY he has had no indication of any violation of law, such as the handling of narcotics, allowing employees to practice prostitution, or fencing stolen articles. RUBY operated a very strict business and would allow no disturbance in his place of business. He was checked very closely by the Dallas Police Department every night. The officers who had this duty were strictly business and would appear at the Carousel Club practically every night at closing time to insure that RUBY was abiding by the regulation that all glasses and drinks had to be moved from the tables by 12:15 a.m., or 1:15 a.m. on Sundays.

RUBY always carried at least $2,000 or $3,000 in cash with him to and from his place of business. He carried this money in a sack and on each trip he would take a revolver and place it in the bag on top of the money. This is the only gun possessed by RUBY, as far as Mr. SENATOR knew.

In recent weeks RUBY has been trying to promote a Twist Board. He has been getting up about 8 or 9 a.m. each day, prior to November 22, 1963, and visiting various department stores in an effort to promote this article.

SENATOR advised that he has heard various reports that RUBY is a homosexual; however, he is certain from his own observations that RUBY's sex habits are those of a normal man. SENATOR advised that RUBY had many friends in Dallas, but he was unable to specify his closest friends, other than RALPH PAUL, who operates a place of business in Dallas; a MR. CAMPISI, who operates the Egyptian Lounge, and WALLY WESTON, a master of ceremonies, who has previously worked for RUBY.

SENATOR advised that JACK RUBY did not have credit cards of any description, to his knowledge.

SENATOR examined a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that he has never seen the man previously. He advised that the names LEE HARVEY OSWALD, O. H. LEE, or HIDELL meant nothing to him. He stated that he has absolutely no information to indicate that RUBY had any connection with OSWALD.

The following description of SENATOR was secured during the course of the interview:

The following investigation was conducted by SA GERARD A. PERKINS:

AT GLOVERSVILLE, NEW YORK

On December 16, 1963, CARRIE TOOKER, Credit Bureau of Gloversville, advised that GEORGE SENATOR was taken on file in 1941, at which time investigation was conducted at the request of an unidentified insurance company. The report reflects that SENATOR was born September 4, 1913, at Gloversivlle, New York, and had attended Gloversville High School.

At that time SENATOR was employed as the Assistant Manager for Senator's Restaurant, Gloversville, New York, which was owned by his brothers JACOB and SAM.

SENATOR had been so employed for eighteen months. Prior to that he had roamed around the country and never stopped much although he had worked in restaurants and soda fountains in New York City (not further identified).

The report reflects that SENATOR was in good health and had no serious illness. His family's health record was good and his brothers and sisters were described as being grown-up, ambitious, and serious workers.

TOOKER advised that they maintain no record as to the source of this type of information and that this was the last inquiry they have received.

On December 16, 1963, EARL DUTCHER, Manager, Credit Bureau of Gloversville, advised that he has been acquainted with GEORGE SENATOR and his family for over forty years. He stated that GEORGE has been gone from this area for at least twenty or thirty years and doubted if he would even recognize him if he should see him on the street. He stated, however, that he has never heard anything that would reflect upon SENATOR's moral standard or that of any member of his family.

On December 16, 1963, ELMER BROOKS, employee, Gloversville Credit Bureau, advised that he attended Gloversville High School with GEORGE SENATOR and that if GEORGE had graduated it would have been in 1932. He stated that it was not quite clear in his mind as to whether or not GEORGE ever got his high school diploma.

He stated that soon after this GEORGE left the Gloversville area and did not return for any extended period of time until just before World War II. At this time he went to work in his brothers' restaurant. Soon after the outbreak of World War II it was his understanding that GEORGE went into the United States Army.

He stated that since that time he has lost complete track of him.

He stated that never in his associations with SENATOR has he ever had cause to question SENATOR's moral standards and has always believed them to be quite normal. He stated that as he recalled SENATOR during his high school days he was a well adjusted boy with no problems whatsoever.

On December 16, 1963, Lieutenant GORDON SCRIBNER, Gloversille Police Department, advised that he could locate no record for SENATOR in any of their files.

He stated that he was not acquainted with GEORGE SENATOR; however, he attended Gloversville High School with SAM SENATOR and graduated in 1930. He stated that SENATOR's family has always had a good reputation in the community and that none of them have ever been arrested in that area.

On December 16, 1963, Gloversille Police Court Justice ISAAC ZALEON, 12 Church Street, advised that he has known GEORGE SENATOR all of his life. SENATOR's parents ANNA and ABRAHAM are deceased. One of his sister's, PAULINE, is also deceased. The other sister, PEARL, is married and left the Gloversville area seven to eight years ago. JACOB presently operates Senator's Restaurant, located next door at 8 Church Street. SAM is now living somewhere in Rochester, New York.

He stated that GEORGE left Gloversville in the early 1930's and returned for a short period of time in 1940 or 1941. He has made very few visits to this area, if any, since then.

He stated he would describe SENATOR as being the roving type with very little ambition. He was more of the gambler type who would like to win money on the horses rather than go out and earn a living. He would do anything to get out of work.

He stated that there is no question as to SENATOR's moral standards nor that of any member of his family. SENATOR was always a "loner", and he liked to travel and be by himself. He did not like to work hard enough to support anyone but himself. He stated that he felt this was the primary reason why SENATOR never married.

RICHARD H. SHEPPARD, 4518 Marlborough, advised that he was acquainted with RUBY in that about a year ago he transacted business with him in Dallas when he sold him lettering for the Marquee of the Carousel Club.

Since this transaction in the latter part of 1962, SHEPPARD advised he has been in Dallas on numerous occasions and quite frequently visited the Carousel Club, which is located across the street from the Adolphus Hotel, where he stays on his business trips. His last trip to Dallas was approximately the 20th of October, 1963, and he stayed at the Adolphus and talked with RUBY mostly about the advertising business.

SHEPPARD further advised that in his numerous conversations with RUBY the name OSWALD was never mentioned, and he never knew of RUBY belonging to any organization or club.

SHEPPARD concluded by saying that he could produce proof of his trips to Dallas and the specific dates, if it be necessary, in that he has all the records at his business office.

SHEPPARD stated that he was in the neon sign and advertising business.

DALLAS, TEXAS

HUGH GENE SMITH, 9841 Lanshire Drive, telephone number DI 8-3820, a former Dallas police officer, voluntarily furnished the following information:

He first met JACK RUBY in 1957 at the Vegas Club which RUBY owned. He stated that the club was recommended to him by a police officer, whose name he could not now recall. He stated when he joined the Dallas Police Department in 1958 he visited the club on numerous occasions in an official capacity. He stated that RUBY always liked police officers and that a great many attended the club socially. He stated that RUBY gave numerous policemen whiskey for Christmas. He stated he had received whiskey from RUBY on three different occasions and on one of these occasions, RUBY delivered a fifth of whiskey to his home. He could not recall the names of the policemen that received whiskey from RUBY and does not believe that any policeman did any type of favor for RUBY for receiving this whiskey.

He stated a former policeman named DENBOW, first name not recalled, was very closely associated with RUBY. He stated DENBOW was a bachelor and he believes that DENBOW used RUBY's apartment on several occasions. He does not believe that DENBOW ever did any favors for RUBY in an official capacity or that DENBOW ever took any money from RUBY. As far as he knew, the relationship between RUBY and DENBOW was strictly social. DENBOW once told him that RUBY knew a number of Chicago hoodlums but he does not recall any names that DENBOW mentioned that RUBY knew.

He stated that he understood that RUBY had a bad temper but that he never saw RUBY get violent or angry at any time. As far as he was concerned, RUBY was always friendly and he believed that RUBY would do a favor for any friend if he could. He recalled that about three years ago, RUBY asked him to fix a $3.00 parking ticket for him. He explained that any Dallas police officer could pay a $3.00 parking ticket for $1.00. He told RUBY this and RUBY said never mind that he would pay the parking ticket.

He stated that RUBY always liked police officers and he believed the newspapers had it wrong when they stated that RUBY killed OSWALD because of his affection for JACQUELINE KENNEDY and the KENNEDY children. He believed that the reason RUBY killed OSWALD was because OSWALD had killed Officer TIPPIT.

BOB RICH, who is a regular customer at the Vegas Club, once told him that RUBY attempted to get BUDDY TURMAN, an ex-prize fighter and also a bouncer at the Vegas Club, to go to bed with him. He stated that RICH lives on Reagan Street some place and his father owns some parking lots in Dallas and his father resides some place in Irving, Texas. He stated that he does not believe that RUBY ever paid any Dallas police officer and he believed that no officer would accept any money from RUBY as the Police Department is a very "tight outfit".

He stated that he has never worked for JACK RUBY nor does he know of any other Dallas police officer that has been so employed.

He does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor does he know of any association between RUBY and OSWALD. SMITH summarized by saying that he believed RUBY was a very friendly and sincere person as far as he knew. SMITH stated that he had never seen RUBY outside of his clubs and knew nothing concerning his background or any of his close associates. He added that he had not seen RUBY in four or five months.

LAURENCE WALLACE SNOW, 1917 Locust Grove Road, Silver Spring, Maryland, furnished the following information:

He has known JACK RUBY since about the fall of 1961. In the fall of 1961, he was employed in Dallas, Texas, by Jaggars, Childs and Stovall, printers, and was interested in joining a private club. He received a piece of advertising concerning the Sovereign Club, Dallas, Texas, which was in the process of being organized and opened by JACK RUBY.

He telephoned RUBY concerning membership in this club and subsequently, on a Sunday afternoon, went to the club and talked with RUBY about becoming a member. He did join the club, together with a friend. L. T. McCARTY, who resided at that time at 6661 Hygate Lane, Dallas, Texas, and who currently resides at 4708 Abbott Street, Apartment 201, Highland Park, Dallas, Texas.

At the time he first talked with JACK RUBY concerning membership in the club, the club was being remodeled and his conversation at that time concerned only membership in the club and the plans RUBY had for the club. On several occasions after this he was at the club in the evening and had conversations with RUBY but these conversations were always limited to the club and RUBY's plans for the club.

He was a member of the club 6 or 8 months and attended the club with his wife on about 3 occasions and by himself a few times.

The club was subsequently remodeled and changed by RUBY into a "strip joint" and was at the same location as the Carousel Club owned by RUBY.

He has not seen RUBY in about 2 years as he left Dallas about 2 years ago and has only been back for brief visits since that time.

He never associated with RUBY outside the Sovereign Club and never talked with him at other places. He was not a social friend of RUBY, except at the club and has no business

RALPH STUART CUTSHALL, 6207 Bordeau, was interviewed since JACK RUBY's records reflect that Carousel Club Pass # 155 belongs to RALPH STEWART, Beauty Salon Director, Nieman-Marcus. Mr. CUTSHALL informed that he uses the name of RALPH STEWART in his business and is known as RALPH STEWART. He furnished the following information:

He has known JACK RUBY for approximately five months having met him one night at the Cabana Club. JACK was there with his sister, EVA GRANT, and Mr. CUTSHALL began a conversation with them. He advised that he began a casual conversation with RUBY and from that day they became friends. RUBY gave him a card to his club and he has been to the Carousel Club approximately three or four times since then. When he has been to the club, RUBY has chatted with him briefly.

Mr. CUTSHALL had previously attended the Vegas Club and EVA GRANT knew him since he had attended that club on two or three occasions. He has known EVA GRANT approximately one and one-half years.

CUTSHALL described JACK RUBY as a "loudmouth" but said that he would "bet everything I own JACK didn't know OSWALD". CUTSHALL informed that he did not know OSWALD and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

JACK SWEET, General Manager of the Executive Inn, home address 4039 Capps Drive, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed as his name was found in a notebook of JACK RUBY's. He furnished the following information:

He advised he has known JACK RUBY since approximately 1950, when he was Assistant Manager of the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, and JACK RUBY had the Silver Spur night club on South Ervay in Dallas. RUBY would drop into the Adolphus Hotel approximately once or twice a month, trying to drum up business for his club. SWEET presumes that RUBY made a habit of stopping at all the major downtown hotels trying to get employees of those hotels to send guests to his night club.

SWEET has never been in any of JACK RUBY's night clubs and, in fact, has not seen RUBY in approximately 7 or 8 years. He considered RUBY to be an eccentric character when he did know him but he does not consider that he knew RUBY well. He never so much as had a cup of coffee with RUBY, but knew him only as hundreds of other people in Dallas knew him, as an acquaintance.

Mr. SWEET advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

FRED L. TOAN, contractor, 4115 Central Expressway, Dallas, Texas was advised that his name appeared on a list of members of one of JACK RUBY's clubs and he was asked for available information concerning Mr. RUBY. Mr. TOAN advised that RUBY formerly lived at an apartment house located at 4727 Homer Street, Dallas, which is owned by Mr. TOAN's company. He met him during the period he resided at this apartment house. He was not well acquainted with him but did recall that an exception was made to the rule that no dogs were allowed in the apartments as a concession to Mr. RUBY's fondness of his dogs.

He was a good tenant, orderly, and gave the management no cause for concern because of his behavior. He got behind in his rent payments about the time he was organizing a club which Mr. TOAN believed was the Carousel Club. He was given permission to pay his back rent on installments and Mr. TOAN believes he has now paid all of the back rent. While he was living in the apartment house at 4727 Homer, Mr. RUBY gave Mr. TOAN a membership card to his club. Mr. TOAN never attended any of the shows at the club. His acquaintance with RUBY was of such a casual nature that he could furnish no specific information concerning his travels, activities, or associates.

Mr. TOAN has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information to indicate a connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

BOB K. WRIGHT, 1612 Glenhaven Drive, telephone AD 1-1906, Supervisor of Collections, First National Bank, advised that he met JACK RUBY after he joined the Sovereign Club, a private club which he understood was started by one JOE SLAYTIN. He said that RUBY became SLAYTIN's partner in the operation of the club and he thought that this was sometime in 1959. He said that a friend of his, CHARLES SANSONNE, of the Dallas Police Department, Auto Theft, knew SLAYTIN and helped him get a membership for a figure under $10.00, which he thought was around $9.75.

DALLAS, TEX CHARLEY SANSONNE

He said in his position he had control of the financing of automobiles for customers and had to attempt to collect from the "skips". He said in this connection they financed cars for a number of strippers and bar maids and financed them through the bank. He said that JACK RUBY knew most of these girls and when the girl would leave town he could generally find out where she had gone and he was a good source of information for WRIGHT.

WRIGHT advised that he used the membership card about six or seven times before the placed closed up, but the majority of the time he would stop in for a couple of drinks prior to going home. He said he would describe RUBY as a haughty person and one who was not too friendly to him, WRIGHT. He advised that otherwise he did not know RUBY well enough to describe his character and added that he never socialized with RUBY. He said he never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the shooting of the President and never heard RUBY mention OSWALD while he had been attending the club.

He further advised he knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD and had not seen RUBY at all except once in a while on the street, but they would not stop to speak.

He advised that JOE SLAYTIN presently operates a drug store in the Mercantile Building on South Ervay Street and that CHARLEY SANSONNE was still with the Dallas Police Department as far as he knew.

KENNETH E. BISHOP, 3716 Cole, Apartment 12, was interviewed in connection with his alleged membership in one of JACK RUBY's clubs. He related the following.

He is presently employed as a salesman by Fishback and Moore, 1717 Baylor, Dallas, Texas, and was formerly employed as a salesman by Aero Test Equipment Company, 8401 Chancellor Row.

About three years ago someone at Aero Test solicited several salesmen to join the Sovereign Club. He recalled that they got a special rate of $50 if more than four joined and he bought his purely on speculation thinking that he could perhaps later sell it for more. He said he was never in the Sovereign Club and does not know JACK RUBY.

The only occasion he had to patronize the Sovereign Club was once when he went there with a customer and learned that it was no longer in business. HEIDI LEE BALLOWE, stage name LISA LAND, advised she was employed as a dance instructor at the Holiday Dance Studio, Dallas, Texas during 1959 and she met JACK RUBY at this time at the Vegas Club, which she and other studio employees patronized.

BALLOWE advised she was employed by JACK RUBY as an exotic dancer during February or March, 1961 and was so employed until December, 1961, at which time she resigned.

BALLOWE advised members of the Dallas Police Department occasionally were guests at the Carousel Club, but she had never received any information which would indicate RUBY was "paying off" to the Dallas Police. She stated Officers GANAWAY and GILMORE of the Dallas Police Department watched the Carousel operation very closely and RUBY always cautioned the dancers to be careful in their acts when these two officers were in the Club. She stated these two officers had never been in the Club as guests and it appeared to aggravate RUBY that he could not be on good terms with these two officers.

BALLOWE advised it was rumored RUBY knew of activities concerning the strip clubs at City Hall and at the Police Department, however, she could not shed light concerning his source of information.

BALLOWE advised she had never heard RUBY discuss politics of any kind with anyone and stated his main interest appeared to be making a success of the Carousel Club.

BALLOWE advised she considered RUBY to have paranoid tendencies in that he frequently made statements to the effect that the Police Department and operators of the other strip clubs in Dallas were after him. She stated RUBY had a violent temper and continually harrassed the employees at the Club, and on many occasions would make remarks without thinking and later apologize. She also described RUBY as a very enthusiastic person who was very eager to make a success of his endeavors.

BALLOWE advised she had very little contact with RUBY since December, 1961, and could furnish no information regarding his activities since that time. She was doubtful RUBY would be associated in any way with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BALLOWE was of the opinion RUBY shot OSWALD because of his bad temper and possibly because of the publicity angle.

BALLOWE advised she understood JACK RUBY had frequently dated and had possibly lived with MILLIE PERELLE (phonetic) an exotic dancer believed to be in El Paso, Texas at the present time. She further advised RUBY's closest friend was EARL NORMAN, Master of Ceremonies at the Carousel Club for a considerable length of time. She advised RUBY was fairly well acquainted with JIMMY LEVINE, Skyliner Club, Fort Worth, Texas.

BALLOWE advised RUBY's sister EVE had been in Dallas several years and and at the time RUBY opened the Carousel Club, EVE managed the Vegas Club. She stated RUBY had on occasion struck EVE during arguments about operation of the club.

BALLOWE advised she is currently on the Board of the A.G.V.A. in Dallas and the Board had received several complaints concerning working conditions at the Carousel Club. She stated the complaints were mainly concerning the hours, but two of the complaints had been that RUBY expected the dancers to associate with the customers.

FRANK DEVERA, residing 4907 Parkside, Memphis, Tennessee, on interview advised as follows: B. 1915 - N.Y.C.

DEVERA is currently the Memphis, Tennessee, representative of Encyclopedia Britanica, Incorporated, which is owned by WILLIAM BENTON and the University of Chicago. He is in the process of taking over as Memphis area manager of another branch of Britanica known as Great Ideas Program, with offices at 3387 Poplar Avenue, Memphis. D.C. Tex. Ark.

MRS. FRANK DEVERA, a native of New York City, and now 49 years of age, was until the late 1950's a professional ballroom dancer and ballroom dance instructor. His wife KITTY DEVERA, a native of Jedsonia, Arkansas, teamed up with him as his dancing partner. During the 1940's, the DEVERAS operated a dance studio in Washington, D. C. Tex. In 1948 they moved to Dallas, Texas, where they opened and operated the Devera Dance Studio, teaching ballroom dancing. In 1949 they had an exhibit at a Dallas Home Show, and put on several ballroom-type dancing demonstrations. There FRANK DEVERA made the acquaintance of JACK LEON RUBY who came to the home show with EDDIE DICKER, a one-time U. S. Representative from the Dallas area, and a prominent builder in Dallas. RUBY, he recalled, was a personable, gregarious and inherently friendly individual. Tex. D.C.

Later around 1951 or 1952 FRANK and KITTY DEVERA, in an effort to advertise and promote their dance studio, began putting on dancing demonstrations at country clubs, hotel ballrooms and other functions frequented by ballroom dance enthusiasts. During this period, RUBY was operating a dance hall in Dallas, believed to be known as the Silver Spur. The DEVERAS, for about two months, would, once a week, put on dancing exhibitions at Ruby's Club. This would probably have been around 1954 or 1955. DEVERA said actually the name of RUBY's dance hall at that time may have been the Vegas Club on Oaklawn Street, Dallas.

Later around 1956 DEVERA who by then had two dance studios went broke when his landlord broke a lease in the Commerce Bank Building Studio.

RUBY, on hearing of DEVERA's bad financial plight, loaned him $200.00. DEVERA claimed he later repaid the $200.00 loan to RUBY.

About that time KITTY DEVERA went to Jedsonia, Arkansas, to live with her parents. During this period, RUBY, being his usual generous self, offered to allow FRANK DEVERA to share his apartment. DEVERA claimed he declined the offer.

Later DEVERA went to work for Encyclopedia Britanica in the Dallas area and later transferred to the Little Rock, Arkansas, territory.

Around 1959 or 1960, RUBY opened up a private club known as The Carousel. This was open to members who had paid fees and dues. The Club permitted members to leave their whiskey at the Club, permitted dancing and, on occasion, would provide live entertainers in the form of comedians and exotic dancers. FRANK DEVERA was a member of this club for a short time, immediately prior to moving to Arkansas about 1960.

DEVERA said that The Carousel Club has since become a public place of amusement and RUBY has provided live entertainment such as strip-tease type dancers. He claimed not to know the details of RUBY's business operations in recent years.

During the afore-mentioned period, FRANK DEVERA became fairly well acquainted with RUBY.

Both DEVERA and RUBY were members of the Downtown YMCA in Dallas. Both used to engage in physical exercise at the "Y," but not necessarily together. DEVERA recalled that RUBY did not drink, carefully watched his diet in order to not become over weight. He opined that RUBY kept in reasonably good physical condition, but was never a fanatic regarding his physical well being.

RUBY never manifested any unusual sexual or moral tendencies. RUBY was interested in women and, in fact, once told DEVERA he was engaged to a secretary in Dallas, name not recalled.

RUBY read considerably but was never a deep reader. He frequently discussed politics, religion and philosophy with DEVERA. DEVERA, a Catholic, used to discuss his religion with RUBY and sometimes RUBY, a Jew, would discuss Judaism. He gave no indication, however, of being a regular attendee at any synagogue. His interest in politics appeared to be provincial, in that it seemed consistent with the typical Texas viewpoint of being openly extremely pro-American. RUBY always seemed to support the given national administration in power. Nevertheless, DEVERA considered RUBY's political depth and interest to be rather shallow, not unlike that of the typical "man on the street."

RUBY appeared to be a hard worker, intense in his activities and loyal to his friends.

He carried a gun on occasion according to his own statements, although DEVERA never saw him with a gun. RUBY claimed he frequently carried large sums of money in the form of his club's receipts and needed the gun for protection.

RUBY never gave DEVERA any indication that he had any organized vice or gambling-type connections. He never told DEVERA about his activities in Chicago prior to moving to Dallas in the 1940's. He did say that he had been reared in poor surroundings in Chicago.

RUBY never gave any indication of making a lot of money out of his clubs or dance halls. He told DEVERA that he was frequently in arrears in his income tax payments and used to bemoan the fact that he had to go down to the Internal Revenue Office to straighten out his income tax.

RUBY definitely had a quick temper and was prone to argue. He appeared to be highly emotional and somewhat impetuous. In certain areas, he had a very strong sense of moral and legal justice in that he could not tolerate what he felt to be injustices to people or animals. DEVERA could not recall any specific examples of RUBY's so-called sense of justice.

On occasions RUBY would tell DEVERA that he was having trouble with Dallas authorities concerning his liquor license in that on occasions he would be charged with selling to minors or serving liquor after hours. DEVERA said he did not know any of the details.

RUBY appeared to know many of the Dallas city police officers. He would frequently have them as guests at his clubs. Also on Friday and Saturday nights and on other nights of heavy patronage, RUBY would frequently hire off-duty Dallas police officers to serve as glorified bouncers or guards in his clubs. DEVERA did not know the identities of these officers.

DEVERA said he had not personally seen or talked with RUBY since about 1960 despite the fact that DEVERA has been to Dallas several times in recent years to attend sales meetings of Encyclopedia Britanica, in the latter's divisional office.

DEVERA said that in retrospect he can recall no indications in any of RUBY's utterances or actions to indicate that RUBY has ever had any pro-Communist or pro-Cuban sympathies, associations or affiliations. Similarly, he has never had any reason to believe RUBY to be connected with any extreme type conservative movements. RUBY has never given any indication of holding any extreme views nor has RUBY ever manifested any apparent racial or religious prejudices.

DEVERA was last in Dallas in March or April, 1963, to attend a divisional sales meeting of Britanica. He did not see RUBY during that visit.

DEVERA said he never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the appearance of his name in the press following his arrest and being charged with the assassination of the late President, JOHN F. KENNEDY.

Based on reading of OSWALD's background and pro-Communist connections, DEVERA said it was incomprehensible in his mind that RUBY could have previously known OSWALD.

DEVERA theorized and conjectured that RUBY undoubtedly shot OSWALD of his own volition, probably motivated by emotion or the desire for publicity.

DEVERA said that he was not familiar with the fact that RUBY allegedly "had the run of the Dallas Police Department" as reported by various news media. He said that this was possible in that RUBY was so well known in downtown Dallas and evidently knew so many individual police officers.

VIRGINIA DITULLIO, 2663 Millmar Drive, telephone number DA 7-0163, was interviewed at Tiny's Lounge, 7525 East Grand Avenue, and voluntarily furnished the following information: MRS. TINY DITULLIO

On November 24, 1963, she sent a telegram to JACK RUBY at the Dallas City Jail. She advised she had been drinking at the time but as she recalls the telegram said something like "good shooting and glad you did it", with a P.S., "former employee".

She was formerly employed at the Vegas Club in 1960 as a waitress for approximately three months. She had met JACK RUBY, who owned the Vegas Club about three years before she became employed in the Vegas Club. She was introduced to RUBY by her former husband, TINY DITULLIO. Her relationship with RUBY was always of a casual nature and she never had any discussions with RUBY regarding any of his political beliefs. TEX

When she was employed at the Vegas Club RUBY would take her home nearly every night. She made it clear to RUBY that it was just a ride home and nothing further. RUBY respected her wishes and never made any advances toward her. She considered RUBY "high strung" but she never saw him get violent. He would always help anyone if he could and was always a very friendly fellow.

She did not know any girls that RUBY dated but was sure that he went out with quite a number. She did not know any of RUBY's close friends or anything regarding his background except that he was originally from Chicago, Illinois. She was also very friendly with RUBY's sister EVA and on one occasion, she recalled that EVA asked her would she open and run the Vegas Club for her. As she recalled, this was a Jewish holiday and EVA did not want to work that day. She opened the Vegas Club, handled the money and so forth, and closed the club that night. She has the greatest respect for RUBY and EVA and sometimes believes that if RUBY had not shot OSWALD, she might have done it herself. She did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or of any association between RUBY and OSWALD. She last saw RUBY approximately one and one-half years ago at the Vegas Club. She added that her former husband might be able to furnish additional information.

WINNIE FAYE FLOYD, 847 Peavy Road, who formerly resided at 3359 Delhi, advised that she has known JACK RUBY for fifteen years, when he first operated the Silver Spur on South Ervay Street, Dallas. She further advised that she has been in all of his clubs, the Silver Spur, the Vegas Club and the Carousel. She advised that JOE SLAYTIN started the Sovereign Club in 1960 or 1961 and she was working for him before RUBY became a part owner with SLAYTIN. She said she worked as a hostess and manager for SLAYTIN and also with RUBY.

FLOYD advised that she got into a fight with RUBY about an altercation at the Sovereign Club when a group of people came in to the club and asked to join another party already present. She said that RUBY came over to her and told her not to give them a check, that the latter group were friends of his. She said she had already made a check out for the first party at the table and when she tried to give the check to them RUBY caught her by the arm. She said that he started to cuss her out in front of everyone and then he struck her in the face with his hand, splitting her lip. She said she took her shoe off and tried to hit him on the head.

She advised that there were numerous people in the club at the time and the show was going on. She said that she knew of other instances where RUBY had shoved a girl upstairs and had dragged another around in the garage and he was an individual with a terrible temper with customers as well as employees. She said for this reason he never used a bouncer at the club and he took care of most of that type of work when it was demanded. She advised that he never carried a gun as far as she knew and never entered into any political discussions. She said that he never heard him mention LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she herself never heard of OSWALD until the Presidential assassination. She said she never knew of any connection between the two.

She said that she worked for RUBY about a month in all before the altercation, when she left, and that later the club folded up and then became a public club prior to the present Carousel Club, where they employed strippers. She said she last saw RUBY at the Carousel about six weeks ago and that he had forgotten the incident.

JEAN FLYNN, 2410 Connecticut Lane, Dallas, Texas, advised she worked as a cigarette girl for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club for about five months beginning in about June, 1962. She terminated her employment because she did not like to work for RUBY. He always behaved as a gentleman and she had no arguments with him; however, he was very nervous, was always running around telling people what to do and she just did not care to work under those conditions. She last saw RUBY briefly at the Dallas State Fair in September.

She advised she never saw RUBY with a gun. She had heard that he was very quick tempered and had thrown people down the stairs at the Carousel Club for getting out of line but she never saw him do this or get involved in any violent arguments with anyone.

She explained that it was a general rumor among the employees that RUBY was sexually interested in both men and women and she assumed he was "bi-sexual." She knew of no men or women who RUBY supposedly dated and could recall the names of no individuals who claimed to actually know anything about RUBY along these lines.

RUBY was an extrovert and wanted to make friends with everybody. Although he was a very friendly type person with everybody he appeared to have very few close friends. She could recall only one person who appeared to be a close friend of RUBY, namely RALPH PAUL. Numerous police officers whose names she could not recall came around the Carousel both in uniform and plain clothes but these calls appeared business in nature. RUBY was friendly with these individuals but no more so than he was friendly with other people. She never saw RUBY give police officers any special favors other than not charging them for coming into the Carousel and possibly giving them a cup of coffee or a coke. She never saw any police officers drinking alcoholic beverages at the Carousel.

RUBY did not appear to be interested in politics. His main interests in life seemed to be several small dogs that he kept and a very strong desire to make the Carousel Club a successful business.

Regarding the Carousel Club, RUBY was very conscious that the convention trade was the backbone of his business and went out of his way to encourage trade from individuals visiting in town, particularly those staying in the downtown hotels.

She recalled RUBY mentioning that he originally came from Chicago. He spoke of being raised in a very tough neighborhood and being from a very poor family. FLYNN advised she is aware that there is an organized criminal element in Chicago, Illinois, referred to as the "syndicate" but nothing which RUBY ever said or anything she heard about him indicated that he associated with or was a part of this organization prior to the time he left Chicago for Dallas.

FLYNN advised that the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by RUBY surprised her. In thinking over this situation, it is her opinion that RUBY's motivation for the shooting developed out of his fear that OSWALD's assassination of President KENNEDY in Dallas would ruin the convention trade and ultimately ruin his business.

She was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY and knew of no other individuals possibly involved with either of these two men in the shootings.

GLOVER stated that he is a close friend of ISAIAH HOWARD HAYNES TEX. who works part time for RUBY. He used to accompany HAYNES on some of the occasions on which he worked for RUBY. His acquaintance with RUBY was so slight that he had no opportunity to learn anything about his activities or associates. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and had no information to indicate any connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

RENEE MARIAN HAYES, Nee SIGMAN, 5015 Simpson, telephone TA 7-9604, Dallas, Texas, reported to be a former employee of JACK RUBY's, was advised she did not have to make a statement; that any statement she did make could be used against her in a court of law, and that she had the right to consult an attorney. She furnished the following information:

Mrs. HAYES stated she worked for JACK RUBY from December, 1962, to February, 1963, as a cigarette girl. Her duties required her to drink champagne with the customers, and after it was found that she was consuming too much champagne nightly, she was asked to terminate her employment.

She last saw JACK RUBY at the Vegas Club sometime in October, 1963, date unknown. She furnished the names of ANNE HAMILTON, believed to be residing in Dallas, and BETTY GUESS of Houston, Texas, as co-employees of RUBY. She said both HAMILTON and GUESS had dated RUBY and she believed they could furnish information concerning him.

Mrs. HAYES did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, had never seen OSWALD and RUBY together and knew nothing of RUBY's travels. She did see police officers of the Dallas Police Department in the Carousel Club at least once a night, but did not know of any particular police officer with whom RUBY was particularly close. She knew of no conspiracy between RUBY and any other individual to kill OSWALD, and knew of no organizations to which RUBY belonged.

She stated that in April of 1962, she was employed in Dallas, Texas by Kelly Girls and was located at the Anderson Studios. Miss HIGGINBOTHAM advised that during April, 1962, she accepted a date with a gentleman, name not recalled, and during the course of the evening was introduced to JACK RUBY while drinking at the Carousel Club. At that time, JACK RUBY offered her a position at the Carousel Club as a stripper. Miss HIGGINBOTHAM stated she enrolled for lessons as a stripper at the Carousel Club and for approximately six weeks practiced frequently at the Carousel Club under the supervision of a veteran stripper employed by JACK RUBY. During this period, she frequently saw JACK RUBY, visited his apartment and became quite friendly with him, but not intimate. Miss HIGGINBOTHAM said she last saw JACK RUBY in September, 1963.

She stated that during her acquaintanceship with RUBY she never saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD or ever heard his name mentioned. She further advised that at no time did RUBY give any inclination of violent actions or actions which would indicate the future shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

"HOMER JEFFERSON, 3215 Colonial, September 19, 1960"

JEFFERSON stated that the above HOMER JEFFERSON is undoubtedly him because he resided at 3215 Colonial, Dallas, in 1960 and he was employed by JACK RUBY in his night club on Commerce Street in Dallas. JEFFERSON stated that sometime in 1960, he believes, while employed as a porter at the "Dallas Morning News," RUBY approached him and asked if he would like to make some extra money by helping his cook at the club. JEFFERSON said that prior to the time RUBY approached him regarding the above employment, he had seen RUBY frequently at the "Dallas Morning News" placing his night club ads, but he had never engaged in any conversation with RUBY and he had no prior association with him. He accepted RUBY's offer and worked for him intermittently for three or four weeks, or possibly over a two months period, during 1960, he believes. He added he has not seen RUBY since he left RUBY's employ.

JEFFERSON advised that RUBY operated a "clean," legitimate business and to the best of his knowledge RUBY was not engaged in any illegal activities during the time he worked for RUBY. He knew nothing about RUBY's personal life and he knew none of RUBY's close friends or acquaintances. Furthermore, he did not know if RUBY had friends on the Dallas Police Department.

JEFFERSON stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him and he knew of no associatin between RUBY and OSWALD.

She was employed by RUBY at the Carousel Club as a waitress from December 1, 1962, until July, 1963, and she obtained this job after reading an advertisement in the Dallas Morning News. She recalls that RUBY was a generous person who gave Christmas gifts to his employees and also recalls RUBY gave a Thanksgiving dinner and a Fourth of July party for his employees during the time she worked for him. RUBY also gave a fifth of whisky to each policeman who would come into his club during the Christmas season. He also would not take any money from these policemen when they visited his club at other times during the year. She is unable to identify any of these police officers by name.

She recalls RUBY took only one trip during her employment and that was to Edna, Texas, to visit a person named CANDY BARR. She understands that CANDY BARR had just been released from prison at this time. The last time she saw RUBY was at the Carousel Club on the night she quit and does not remember ever seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel Club. CHERIE LAMOUR, Route #2, Grand Prairie, Texas, telephone AN 2-3362, advised her name could appear among the papers of JACK RUBY as a former employee of his.

She has worked as a stripper for about the past five years primarily filling "club dates." She has never worked for RUBY or for any burlesque house as a permanent employee, preferring to fill the one day club dates several days a week instead. She has contacts with numerous booking agents throughout the southwest and secures most of her work as club dates from these agencies. RUBY has her telephone number and has called her to perform on several occasions in the past when one of his regular girls was off. She estimated she has worked for him for a day to three days on about five or six occasions during the past three years. The last time she worked for him was a one-night engagement about six or eight months ago.

She advised that her association with RUBY was very satisfactory and that he paid her well, treated her like a lady and never argued with her or created any problems. Shortly after she first went to work for him he asked her to work for him regularly but she declined to do this because of her desire to fill club dates. She explained that she can make as much money filling three or four club dates as she could working steadily for RUBY or at any other burlesque house. She advised that she has never worked for RUBY performing at any club dates or private parties. She knew of no such parties for which he furnished entertainment.

She was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY and knew of no other individuals possibly involved with either of these two men in the shootings.

Mr. SHELLEY BURNS* MYERS, 433 East Jefferson, Telephone Number WH 8-9384, who is a clinical psychologist often referred to as a hypnotist, was contacted at which time he furnished the following information: Shelley * Myers

He advised that he first met JACK RUBY approximately two years ago and that to the best of his recollection he had met RUBY at the Carousel Club. He could not recall the exact circumstances surrounding the meeting of JACK RUBY, however, he could recall working for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club on four or five occasions as a hypnotist. He could recall that on one particular occasion in December, 1961, he was putting on a show at the Carousel Club and had hypnotized SANTA CLAUS, and for this reason could remember that it was around December, 1961. Mr. MYERS stated that he had a few conversations with JACK RUBY during the time he was employed by the Carousel Club, but could not recall ever discussing any political views or anything that would pertain to RUBY's background.

MYERS has developed several personal views of JACK RUBY since the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that these are only his personal opinions and could not be substantiated by any particular fact. He related that JACK RUBY was an individual who was continually being "picked on" and for this reason he regarded JACK RUBY as being somewhat of an underdog. He was under the impression that RUBY had always wanted to be a big "star" and would do anything to attain this goal. Although he could offer nothing specific, Mr. MYERS had gained the impression that RUBY shot OSWALD because RUBY had his one chance to be something. He stated that he believed that RUBY was well aware of what he was doing and that he did shoot OSWALD strictly on his own.

Mr. MYERS stated that he would be unable to furnish any specific information concerning RUBY's background and associates, and knew of no one who had possibly conspired with RUBY to shoot OSWALD. OSWALD is unknown to him and he could offer no information that would connect OSWALD and RUBY.

Mrs. DOROTHY (B. H.) POORE, JR., 156 Sendero Street, Garland, Texas, Telephone BR 6-8249, advised she formerly resided at 6233 Vickery and was a former employee of JACK RUBY.

Mrs. POORE advised that shortly after World War II she worked at the Martha Washington Candy Store on South Akard Street, downtown Dallas. She met JACK RUBY at this time, who apparently was staying at or visiting the Adolphus Hotel on East Commerce Street. She obtained a job from RUBY at the Silver Spur Club on South Harwood, where she worked four or five weekends as a cashier.

Mrs. POORE stated that after RUBY opened the Vegas Club, she obtained employment from him as a cashier and later as a waitress at this club. She estimates that she worked at the Vegas Club off and on over a period of three to four years. RUBY also operated the Sovereign Club and she handled the money for him at this club on occasion. She left his employ while at the Sovereign Club approximately three years ago and, in fact, that is the last time she has seen him or talked to him.

Mrs. POORE stated that in 1958, she was re-married and was formerly known as DOROTHY GRIMES. In fact, JACK RUBY always called her DOROTHY GRIMES.

During her association with RUBY, she also became acquainted with RUBY's sister EVA GRANT and at one time considered EVA to be her closest friend. They had a falling-out three to four years ago and she has not seen EVA or talked to her since that time.

She stated that to her knowledge RUBY never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she personally never saw OSWALD at any of these clubs. She can offer no information as to how RUBY may have entered the Dallas Police Department Building, nor can she give any information on any possible conspiracy between RUBY and any policeman. She would describe RUBY as an individual who wanted to be in the forefront of everything, and would actually relish police visiting his clubs. She never associated with him other than during working hours and can offer no information as to his conduct of his personal life, although always considered him a normal man with normal passions.

CHARLES DOUGLAS PRICE, 3301 Colby Place, residence telephone TA 4-1582, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Negro

PRICE is presently employed at the Famous Door, 1441 N. Zang Street, telephone WH 3-0077. He has known JACK RUBY since about 1950 and has worked for him and his sister, EVA GRANT.

PRICE said he first met RUBY at the Silver Spur and also worked at the Vegas Club, operated by GRANT. He was hired as a bartender when the Sovereign Club was opened in about 1959 and acted as the manager on occasions.

As concerning JACK RUBY's background, all that he could recall was that RUBY talked frequently about Chicago and the fact that he spent his earlier life there. He did not know much concerning RUBY's personal life or his close friends. Employees change frequently at the clubs RUBY operated and he could recall no one in particular that worked for RUBY.

PRICE described RUBY as a peculiar individual, whose emotions fluctuated frequently. On one occasion at the Sovereign Club in about 1960, 14 Japanese staying at the Adolphus Hotel came to visit the club. They had apparently received club passes from one of the managers at the Adolphus. He was managing the club that evening and when RUBY arrived at the club, he became highly irriated with him and called him a "stupid, black S.O.B." and told him to get them out of the club. RUBY said that the white customers would leave if they found Japanese in the club. He said to RUBY that he was a Jew and I am a Negro, and Jews and Negroes are the most hated people on earth. He told him that he should be more tolerant of people like the Japanese and that if he ever called him a "black S.O.B." again, he would cut him up and kill him. RUBY threatened to kill him at that time and he immediately terminated the discussion and quit his job. He stated he felt at the time that RUBY was temperamental enough to be capable of killing someone as higly excited as he was that evening.

PRICE also recalled that during that same period of time, the porter named GEORGE (LNU), who was on the verge of being an alcoholic, had locked the doors to the club and fell asleep in RUBY's office. GEORGE was apparently drunk at the time and he was there when RUBY found him. RUBY hit GEORGE across the head with his fist and when that failed to arouse GEORGE, RUBY took out a pistol from his pocket and "pistol whipped" him until he woke up. GEORGE immediately ran from the building and the next day RUBY asked him to locate GEORGE and relay his apology and tell him to come back to work. RUBY also got in touch with him on the occasion that he quit and asked him to come back to work which he did. Normally RUBY was friendly and nice to him, but as he was with other employees, he violently lost his temper on occasions.

RUBY made it a point to contact many of the hotel people in downtown Dallas and would give them pass cards to the club requesting that they pass them out to guests at the hotel. He also recalled that he personally, by RUBY's bidding, gave out pass cards to bellboys that he knew in the downtown area.

RUBY wanted to be known by all the "big people" in Dallas and make it a point to be friendly with attorneys and public officials. He never knew of any police officers that RUBY was particularly friendly with, but he seem to know them all and treated them like friends.

He never heard RUBY express any political convictions and has no ideas as to why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He never heard of OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Miss GERRY REDIN, also known as SHARON BEVINS and CANDY CANE, was located at her place of employment, The Red Mill Club, Juarez, Mexico and was interviewed in the presence of Detective J. REFUGIO RUBALCAVA M. of the Juarez Police Department.

REDIN advised that she had worked for JACK RUBY for approximately eight weeks in late 1959 or early 1960 at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, as an exotic dancer. She met RUBY at the time while she was a free agent and looking for work. She knew from general knowledge that he employed exotic dancers in his clubs. Her association with RUBY was limited to the terms of her contract though she came to consider him a friend. She has not seen him since termination of her contract. She further advised that she did not know LEE OSWALD nor did she have any knowledge of any contact or friendship between OSWALD and RUBY.

REDIN recalls RUBY as a non-violent person, who to the best of her knowledge, was well liked by everyone who ever worked for him. She recalls one incident in particular where a drunk got violent in the Carousel Club and smashed an expensive mirror. RUBY did nothing more than ease the drunk out of the club. RUBY was a great friend of the Dallas Police Department and would usually buy drinks for any officer who came in the club whether on duty or off. She noted that perhaps as a result of this, the Dallas Police never bothered RUBY when he held stag parties.

REDIN expressed the opinion that RUBY had a "persecution complex" and as a result, felt a great need for friendships. He most frequently tried to "buy" these friendships with free drinks at the club. She further advised that based on her knowledge of RUBY she could not imagine that he would do such a thing as shooting anyone nor could she imagine what reason he might have had.

KITTY was apparently disliked intensely by RUBY's sister who served as manager of the Carousel Club while she, REDIN, was there.

WILLIAM V. SAUERWEIN, 1817 McClure, Irving, Texas, was advised that his name appeared on a list of former employees of JACK RUBY, and he was asked for available information concerning RUBY's activities and associates.

SAUERWEIN stated he worked with an orchestra known as the "Chain Gang," for about two weeks at the Carousel Club in either 1960 or 1961. It is possible that this was still the Sovereign Club at the time he was employed there.

His acquaintance with RUBY was very casual and since that time he has seen him on only a few occasions. RUBY has called him two or three times since that date and requested him to organize a band to work at the Carousel Club.

SAUERWEIN advised that he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, and had no information which would indicate a connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Dallas, Tex.

On December 18, 1963, Mrs. REUBEN C. SMITH, 1339 Arizona Street, advised that her husband is deceased and added she is positive he never worked for or knew JACK RUBY. She could furnish no additional information substantiating this belief.

On December 19, 1963, JOHN HENRY BRANCH, Owner, Branch Agency and Manager, Empire Room Dance Hall, 1710 Hall Street, advised he is not acquainted with REUBEN SMITH, who may have formerly been employed by RUBY.

Dallas, Tex.

Mr. VERNON ROY SMITH, 176 South Osceola Street, Denver, Colorado, no telephone, (landlord's telephone WEst 5-5859), was interviewed at May D & F Department Store. Tex.

Mr. SMITH advised that he first met JACK RUBY about October, 1960, and that he worked for him from that time until about December, 1960, as a handyman around the Sovereign Club, a private membership club operated by RUBY in Dallas, Texas. SMITH continued that he quit his job about December, 1960, because he did not care to work any longer for RUBY. He described RUBY as being "very different." He enlarged upon this by stating that RUBY "would curse you out and later apologize." He continued that he did not care to work for RUBY because of this emotional part of his personality.

SMITH stated further that RUBY also operated a nightclub known as the Vegas Club which was a low type nightclub and SMITH was of the opinion that RUBY was trying to "upgrade himself" when he opened the Sovereign Club since it was a very plush club and the members, who SMITH does not know by name, all appear to be well off financially. SMITH continued that he had "heard" from an unrecalled source, probably another employee, that every new girl that came to work at the Sovereign Club was expected to go out with RUBY or "stay late" at the club with him after closing hours. SMITH stated that he is unable to furnish the names of any of these girls or the source of this rumor but that he recalls one night after the club closed he had to return for some reason and knocked on the door to gain entrance. He continued that RUBY finally appeared at the door to let him in and SMITH noted that RUBY's shirt was rumpled up so as to appear that he had had it off and rapidly put it back on to answer the door. SMITH continued that RUBY allowed him to enter on this occasion and as he went to some part of the club to secure whatever he came back for, he noticed one of the new girls employed by RUBY sitting in RUBY's office; however, she was fully attired. SMITH further described RUBY as a normal male so far as he knows with no effeminate actions. He stated that he has no knowledge of any close associations between RUBY and Dallas policemen and does not ever recall seeing Dallas policemen in uniform in the Sovereign Club except for one occasion when he saw a uniformed officer come to the reception desk in the club and speak to the receptionist; however, he did not enter the main part of the club. SMITH added that it is possible that plain-clothed men from the Dallas Police Department were entertained in the club without his knowledge.

SMITH advised that he has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning any association between OSWALD or JACK RUBY. He advised further that in his opinion RUBY killed OSWALD because of his grief over the death of President KENNEDY.

SMITH added that he does not know of any close associates of JACK RUBY and would have no opinion as to whether or not RUBY conspired with any person to plot the death of OSWALD. SMITH concluded that he was unable to furnish any additional information concerning this matter but that if he learned anything additional, he would immediately notify the FBI.

Seymour Geller, 305 East 86th Street, Apartment 8B West, New York City, telephone number FI 8-3309, was interviewed on December 17, 1963, by SAS Timothy B. Lagrone and Robert J. Lawson.

Geller advised that he is not acquainted with Jack Leon Ruby and had never heard of Ruby prior to the time the name was in the newspapers and on television in connection with the killing of Oswald. He said that he is presently occupied as the manager of the Las Vegas Restaurant, 55 East 54th Street, New York City, and has been so employed for the past nine years. He further stated that he has no personal friends or relatives in the Dallas, Texas, area, and would know of no reason why it would be believed that he was acquainted with Ruby. He said that he is known by many people because of his position as manager of the above restaurant; however, many people that know him are not known to him. He was of the opinion that possibly someone who knows him as manager of above restaurant could have given Ruby his name as a person to be contacted in New York City if they were looking for a good time. He explained that there are a number of girls that hang out in the Las Vegas Restaurant and this could have been the reason someone had furnished his name to Ruby.

In conclusion, he stated that he had a sincere desire to assist the Federal Bureau of Investigation in instant matter in any way possible; however, he could furnish no information concerning Ruby, his activities, or any of his associates.

WALTER E. BLASSINGAME, 1017 Highland Oaks Drive, Dallas, Tex. (phone number FR 6-9754), advised that he has casually known JACK RUBY for a number of years and that in July or August, 1963, he happened to be on the same plane with JACK RUBY on flight from Dallas, Texas to New York City. He said that he sat directly in front of RUBY and talked with him; that RUBY stated he was going to New York to complain to the American Guild of Variety Artists regarding the use of strippers who were not professionals and also to look for some talent for his club while he was there.

BLASSINGAME advised that on the same plane was AL LOURIE, Manager of KLIF Radio Station, Dallas, and there was a girl who sat with RUBY who is a buyer in the Junior Wear Department at Neiman Marcus in Dallas. He said that RUBY asked HIM where would be a good place to stay in New York and also said that he was to be met at the New York Airport by a BARNEY ROSS. BLASSINGAME said that while he was waiting for his baggage at the New York Airport, he heard the name BARNEY ROSS being paged over the loud speaker.

BLASSINGAME advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY; that he did not know how RUBY got into the basement of the Dallas Police Department or RUBY's motive in killing OSWALD.

BLASSINGAME said that he would look for an airplane ticket so that he could provide exact information regarding the date and flight number of his flight to New York City.

CHARLES MILLER, Clerk and Messenger, "Dallas Morning News", advised he has been casually acquainted with JACK RUBY for about the past year in connection with RUBY, coming to the paper to place ads. He has never developed a personal acquaintanceship with RUBY and is not aware of his friends, associates, or habits.

MILLER stated he has been in the Carousel Club about three times during the past year. On several of the occasions, RUBY would write him an informal pass to attend the club while RUBY was at the paper to place an ad.

About six weeks or so ago, the last time that he saw RUBY at the newspaper, RUBY issued him a Carousel Club pass card number 138 sealed in plastic.

On the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963, he and ROBERT LANDERS, another employee, went to the Carousel Club with their passes. They did not talk with RUBY at the club, but saw him there. During an intermission, RUBY was at the microphone on the stage giving away prizes. There was a man in the audience who appeared to be intoxicated, who was creating a disturbance by using dirty language, telling RUBY to get the prizes over with and to bring on the girls. RUBY told the man to behave, which the man refused to do. RUBY made a statement something to the effect that he wanted to "flip a coin with the man to pay for the furniture that would be busted if the man did not leave the place." The man then left the club at RUBY's insistence peacefully and RUBY did not have to use any force to eject him. RUBY then apologized to the audience for the disturbance and the show continued.

MILLER was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY and knew of no association by other individuals with these two men in connection with the shootings.

CONNIE TRAMMEL, 5109 Live Oak, DALLAS, TEX. was interviewed in connection with her name and address being found on the person of JACK RUBY at the time of his arrest, November 24, 1963. She related the following:

In April, 1963, she and a group of seniors from the University of Texas, School of Journalism, came to Dallas in connection with the promotion of a boat show. They stayed at the Adolphus Hotel across from the Carousel Club and had a party at the Carousel Club. She met JACK RUBY at that time and had a lengthy conversation with him. She graduated from the University of Texas and returned to Dallas from her home, 1420 Rankin, Ashdown, Arkansas, to try and secure employment. This was about the middle of November, 1963. She sought employment for two or three days and then called JACK RUBY to see if he needed an employee. At this time, he tried to get her to go into show business, which she declined to do. She thought perhaps he could employ her temporarily as a hat check girl or in some capacity while she was trying to find a job in her own line of work. About November 20, 1963, she called RUBY and told him she had an appointment with LAMAR HUNT, a prominent oil man in Dallas. She called him inasmuch as she hoped that RUBY might have a personal acquaintance with Mr. HUNT. RUBY came out to her apartment on November 21, 1963, and they again discussed possible leads for her to secure employment and he drove her down to the office of LAMAR HUNT. She was with RUBY from about 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., and it was on the day before the President was assassinated. On the way downtown, he stopped at the Merchants State Bank on Ross Avenue for a few minutes. She has not seen or heard from RUBY since.

Miss TRAMMEL stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not known to her and she had no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD. She knew of no friends or associates of RUBY who were members of the Dallas Police Department and had no idea how RUBY got into the basement of the Police Department in order to shoot OSWALD.

Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following affidavit of WILBURN WALDON LITCHFIELD reflecting that LITCHFIELD claimed to have seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD with JACK RUBY during the first two weeks of November, 1963. Said affidavit is set forth as follows:

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF DALLAS

BEFORE ME, Betty Dunagan a Notary Public in and for said County, State of Texas, on this day personally appeared Wilburn Waldon Litchfield, aka Robert, 2454 South Zangs apartment 120, WH8 9503, Business: Spenser Press, 8428 Kate.
Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: Sometimes within the first two weeks of November, 1963, either on a Tuesday or Thursday night, (Idon't remember the exact date, but this will help establish the date: It was the night that the strippers had their pictures made for the National Magazine at the Carosel. Three of them signed the release and one didn't. I do not remember the man's name who took the pictures) I went to the Carosel Club. I had an appointment with Jack Ruby between 10:00 and 10:30 pm. I entered and asked for Jack Ruby and was told by the doorman that Mr. Ruby was not in, but I could wait. There were three people already waiting to see him. The doorman was a man in his late 40's, or early 50's about 5'7" to 5'9", stocky build, close curly hair, silver colored without a part, and he spoke with a northern or mid western accent. He was wearing a blue suit, dark blue tie with light blue and red in it, and white shirt with collar unbottoned. He offered me a seat at the first table to the left of the door, and said I could wait until Mr. Ruby arrived. While I was waiting, I had a cup of coffee and watched the show and observed the people in the Carosel.

While I was watching the crowd which consisted of about 28 people, I noticed about 4 tables directly in front of me, a man in a white sweater. The reason I noticed this man was that everyone else in the Carosel was either in a suit, sport coat, or in uniform.

After I had been waiting approximately one hour, the door opened. In came a dash hound, and in came Jack Ruby. Jack greeted me, said just a minute, spoke to the doorman, came back and asked me if I'd mind waiting that he had to see some other people, took his hat off, turned left, and went to the back towards his office. He came back into the club area, and the first person he saw was a fellow in his late 30's or early 40's, black wavey hair, real stocky build, who was sitting at the table directly by the door to the back, next to the wall. I was later informed by the doorman and Jack Ruby that this gentleman was an old friend from California. Jack spoke to this man roughly 15 to 20 minutes.

The next man that Jack saw was a photographer for a national magazine similar to Stag or Male, etc. The reason I know this man was a photographer for a national magazine is that during my discussion with Jack Ruby, this man was introduced to me (although I don't remember his name) as a photographer for the above type national magazine.

The next man that Jack saw was the man mentioned earlier who was sitting 4 tables in front of me wearing a white sweater. Jack came and got this man and they walked back toward his office. They were gone about 15 to 20 minutes. They both came out and Jack stopped at the table by the wall and spoke to the man from California again. The gentleman in the V neck white sweater and grey slacks walked by me under neath a bright light by the door. He was approximately two feet from where I was sitting.

After Jack got through talking to the man from California, he came over and got me and carried me back to his office. We discussed a private club. I asked him if he would sell the Vegas. He said no, it had about $40,000 Federal taxes against it, but that he had a good, terrific idea for a private club at a location in Northeast Dallas. I asked him if he had a lease, what the idea was and what the location was. Jack did not say. He said he was afraid someone would steal his idea from him. I left around 1:20 to 1:45 am. After President Kennedy was assasinated, and this fellow Oswald's picture was on televisionand in the paper, I remembered that he was the man that I saw in the white V neck sweater the night that I was at the Carosel Club to see Jack Ruby. I didn't say anything for about a week until Sunday, December 2, 1963, and then I called Don Green, a friend of mine, and told him about it, and asked his advise. He suggested that I come in and talk to the Police.

WILBURN WALDON LITCHFIELD, II, was interviewed in the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, and furnished the following signed statement reflecting that he is unable to make a positive identification of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as the individual he saw with JACK RUBY at the Carousel during the first two weeks of November, 1963.

"Dallas, Texas
December 2, 1963

"I, Wilburn Waldon Litchfield II make this free and voluntary statement to James W. Bookhout and George W. H. Carlson whom I know to be Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have been advised that I do not have to make any statement. No threats or promises have been made to me and I have been advised that I have the right to consult with an attorney. I have been advised that this statement may be used against me in court if it is not true.

"I am 30 years old and I was born June 14, 1933 in Dallas, Texas. I reside at 2454 South Zangs, Apartment 120. I am a salesman for the Spencer International Press Inc., 155 N. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

"Sometime within the first two weeks of November, 1963, on either a Tuesday or Thursday night, I cannot recall the exact date. It was the night that a photographer for a National magazine was at the Carousel Club, on Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, taking pictures of the strippers for the magazine. There were four strippers and three of them signed releases but one did not.

"I arrived at Carousel Club around 10:00 - 10:15 PM as I had an appointment with Jack Ruby at 10:30 PM. Jack Ruby was not there when I arrived and the doorman informed me that there were three people already waiting to see him and I could have a seat and wait. in his late 40's or early 50's, real curly hair without a part and silvery gray and has a northern or mid-western accent.

"While I was waiting I had a cup of coffee, saw the show at the Carousel Club and looked around. There were about six young fellows sitting to the left of the center of the stage and I was sitting at the first table to the left of the front door. There was about twenty eight people inside. At the table next to the aisle in front of me was a young man in a white sweater. At the table next to the wall on the aisle going to Jack Ruby's office was a man in a dark suit, had black curly hair, in late 30's or early 40's, who I later found out to be a friend of Ruby's from California and who was also waiting to see Ruby. The third person waiting to see Ruby was a photographer sitting at a table in front of me to my left.

"I do not know the names of any of the people in the Carousel Club who were patrons or waiting to see Ruby.

"About 11:10 PM to 11:20 PM the front door near where I was sitting opened and in came a dog and then in came Ruby. Ruby was wearing a dark blue suit and a dark snap brim hat. Ruby spoke to me and asked if I would mind waiting. I told him I would wait. Ruby and the dog went to the left toward his office. Ruby invited the man from California to come in to his, Ruby's office first.

"About 15 or 20 minutes later Ruby came back out with the man from California. Ruby then invited the photographer to come in to his, Ruby's, office. About 10 or 15 minutes later Ruby and the photographer came out. The photographer stopped by a post where all the electric control buttons are located.

"Ruby then invited the young man in a white sweater to come in to his, Ruby's office. This young man was in his middle 20's, 5'7" - 5'9"; and very slender. The young man was with Ruby for about 20 minutes. Ruby came out and said something to the man from California. The young man in the white sweater walked down the aisle toward me and stopped at the door. The young man turned to his right and looked toward the table where the man from California was sitting. The reason I noticed the young man in the sweater was because of his sloppy dress and wondered what he was doing there. Most of the men there were wearing suit coats or sport coats. While the young man was turned to the right I saw his face and that he was wearing a V neck white sweater, gray slacks, his hair was not combed and he did not have oil on his hair. His slacks needed pressing. He had acne pock marks on the right side of his chin. The young man was at the door about 45 to 60 seconds.

"Ruby left the man from California and walked down the aisle to the first table on the right in front of the cash register and said something to the doorman because the cigarette girl had left early. Then Ruby turned and invited me into his office. While I was in Ruby's office I met the photographer and a newly married couple. The newly married husband was 6'5" - 6'6", 245 - 260; 30's, coal black hair thick and full, very heavy build and a very flashy dresser. The man said he was an entertainer and had worked in Galveston and Florida and was playing at the Dallas Athletic Club. The newly married wife was 21 years old, from Galveston, Texas, 5'5" - 5'7"; 112 - 118; light brown hair, and was wearing a light beige or cream dress. She was wearing a corsage. The newly married couple could not have seen the young man in the white sweater. There was also a Negro who came in Ruby's office who works at the Carousel Club. The Negro man possibly saw the young man in the white sweater. The man from California and the photographer and the doorman saw the young man in the white sweater.

"I did not think anything of the young man in the white sweater until after the assasination of President Kennedy and the capture of Oswald. (Lee Harvey Oswald) From the pictures on television and then the picture in the Times Herald newspaper I remembered that I had seen a young man who closely resembled Oswald at the Carousel Club. He bore a very close resemblance to the young man in the white sweater whom I had seen at the Carousel Club as related above. I did not say anything about this until Sunday night December 1, 1963, when I called Officer Don Green of the Special Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department. I informed Green of what I remembered and told him that I was fairly sure that I had seen Oswald the night I was at the Carousel Club and asked his advice as what to do. Green told me he would contact his supervisor and for me to call him, Green, on December 2, 1963 at 9:30 AM. I called Officer Green and he told me to meet him, Green, at the Statler Hotel. I accompanied Officer Green to the Dallas Police Department.

"I have been exhibited a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald, Dallas PD #54018 dated November 23, 1963. I cannot positively say that the photograph of Oswald is identical to the young man in the white sweater at the Carousel Club but the photograph does closely resemble the young man in the white sweater I saw at the Carousel.

"On either Monday or Tuesday November 25 or 26, 1963 when two Special Agents of the FBI interviewed Bertha Cheek at 3914 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, Texas, concerning her knowledge of Oswald I was introduced to the two Special Agents and realized I had the opportunity to furnish the above information at that time but did not do so because I was not completely positive of my identification of Oswald.

"I have known Jack Ruby since October or November 1959. He owned the Vegas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas, and I used to go to the club.

"Since I have known Ruby I have never heard Ruby voice any political opinion to me. I have never heard him discuss Castro or Fair Play for Cuba Committee. I have never known Ruby to be associated with or acquainted with Lee Harvey Oswald. I do not know Lee Harvey Oswald myself.

"On December 2, 1963 I furnished a sworn statement to the Dallas Police Department concerning my presence at the Carousel Club sometime during the first two weeks of November 1963. The sworn statement is true except the last paragraph wherein I made a positive identification of the individual I saw at the Carousel Club, being identical with Lee Harvey Oswald.

"I wish to state at this time that I cannot make a positive identification of said individual as being identical with Lee Harvey Oswald.

"I wish to state that my only reason for contacting Jack Ruby at the Carousel Club on the occasion mentioned herein was to negotiate a purchase of his Vegas Club which I was unable to do because he did not wish to sell it. Ruby said the club was 'dear to his heart'.

"I have read the above statement consisting of (8) eight pages and (12) twelve lines on page (9) nine. This statement is true and correct.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents GLENN E. SILVEY and DAVID W. MC CLUGAGE on December 18, 1963, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma: 8-9-12-61 Ill. Tev.

DONALD ALVIN HUTCHINSON, a Negro male, age twenty-three, FBI No. 629 040 E, was arrested as a vagrant and drunk by the Oklahoma City Police Department the night of December 17, 1963. He advised arresting officers JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD had assassinated the President, that two rifles were used, and he had been paid $3,000 by OSWALD to keep quiet.

Donald
Upon being interviewed by Bureau Agents on December 18, 1963 HUTCHINSON first claimed he had met OSWALD in Chicago during April of 1963 and had associated with him on a daily basis for a period of three weeks. (From news accounts OSWALD was not in Chicago at that time.) He claimed he later met OSWALD in Dallas, at which time OSWALD took him to JACK RUBY's house where they exhibited two rifles to him and OSWALD later offered him $3,000 not to mention having seen the rifles. He advised he previously knew JACK RUBY from employment at RUBY's club as a bus boy thirteen years ago. (At this time HUTCHINSON was only ten years of age.)

Throughout the interview HUTCHINSON altered his story four times and subsequently admitted the story was not true. HUTCHINSON was unable to furnish details of his alleged association with RUBY and OSWALD and he was unable to provide specifics, did not know addresses of either OSWALD or RUBY, and could identify no one who could verify his acquaintance with either RUBY or OSWALD. HUTCHINSON claimed he had consumed one fifth of whiskey the night of his arrest.

Detective K. R. LILES who interviewed HUTCHINSON in the early morning of December 18, 1963, advised he felt HUTCHINSON is a psycho. He stated HUTCHINSON claimed numerous arrests for robbery, manslaughter, narcotics, etc., while arrest record in Police Department reflects but two arrests on minor charges.

Police Department Records reflect HUTCHINSON was arrested and charged with two traffic violations September 11, 1963; fined $30. In contrast to claims, Police Department has

This arrest was in Dallas, Texas, Dallas Sheriff's Office No. 77616, on December 15, 1960, charge C. O. C. HUTCHINSON's mother, MARTHA HUTCHINSON, allegedly resides at 2700 South Boulevard, Dallas, Texas.

JOHN J. BANNIGAN, 428 Euclid Avenue, advised on December 19, 1963, that he is the husband of TERESA BANNIGAN. He said she is employed in the offices of attorneys Cahill - Gordon, 70 Pine Street, New York City, working from 6:00 p.m. until about 6:00 a.m. He said she gets home at 8:00 a.m. and sleeps all day. He said his wife is a prolific letter writer and that she had written President KENNEDY numerous times. He said she has also written Cabinet members concerning the handling of Government policies. He said she has also corresponded with Senator CLIFFORD P. CASE and Representative JAMES C. AUCHINCLOSS, of New Jersey. He said Mrs. BANNIGAN wrote editorials for New Jersey Governor HUGHES on his current bond issue and that she had received a letter of congratulations from Governor HUGHES on the fine work she did.

He said his wife is not an attorney but has been employed by the above law firm for 20 years and knows all the answers concerning law.

He said that recently she sued the City of Manasquan and he produced an article from "The Coast Star", Manasquan paper, December, 1963, issue, which reflected "Manasquan Wins Suit - Mrs. Bannigan Loses Court Action Aimed at Upsetting Beach Rate Ordinance." This article states that Superior Court Judge J. EDWARD KNIGHT has upheld the validity of Manasquan's beach rate adopted April 16, 1962.

In a written opinion in a suit brought by Mrs. JOHN J. BANNIGAN, 428 Euclid Avenue, Judge KNIGHT declared the code is not discriminatory.

Mrs. BANNIGAN had termed the ordinance unethical, undemocratic, and unconstitutional. She specifically attacked the measure because it stipulated that season beach badges at $4.00 are available only through May 31. After that date, June-July badges and August-September badges may be bought at $4.00 each.

REUBEN BARTH, used car manager, Gerelick Ford Company, 4707 North 30th Street, Omaha, Nebraska, advised on December 19, 1963, that on the night of November 24 or 25, 1963, he and his wife had several friends in for drinks and during the evening a discussion took place concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY and the subsequent shooting of LEE OSWALD by JACK RUBY. She stated that as a result of her sympathy for his widow, whose two children reminded her of her own when they were young, she sent a telegram to JACK RUBY when she learned he had shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the assassinator of President KENNEDY.

Mrs. BREWER further advised she told JACK RUBY in the telegram sent to him from Rahway, New Jersey, that she could "kiss his feet". She stated she made no effort to hide the fact that she sent the telegram, having signed it KATIE BREWER, and she sent it because she felt OSWALD got what he deserved. She said RUBY should be given a "long rest on the French Riviera" for shooting OSWALD.

Mrs. BREWER added that the sending of the telegram to RUBY was strictly an emotional impulse. She stated that she never heard of RUBY or OSWALD until President KENNEDY was assassinated and certainly knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Patrolman FRED CARRICK, Clark, New Jersey Police Department, advised on December 19, 1963, that records of that department reflect that CATHERINE BREWER, Madison Hill Road, Clark, was arrested on April 3, 1952, and charged as "disorderly person - abusive language". The following investigation was conducted by SA STUART J. CAMERON at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

On December 19, 1963, JACK L. JORDAN, JR., 320 Alcazar, NE, advised he is in the United States Army stationed at Sandia Base. He is a SP/5, having Army serial number RA 19702451.

He acknowledged the fact that he had previously sent a telegram to JACK L. RUBY at Dallas, Texas, shortly after RUBY allegedly shot OSWALD. He said he does not recall the specific contents of the telegram, but it was along the line that he thought it was a good thing that RUBY had shot OSWALD. He said he sent the telegram in view of the fact that he doubted whether OSWALD would have been convicted under the present judicial system of the United States. He advised that he feels this way in view of the fact that OSWALD's attorney could have "gotten him off" on a temporary insanity plea and added that he doubted that it would come to trial in the first place in view of the fact that they would be unable to select a jury that was unbiased. For these reasons, he stated that he thought that RUBY shooting OSWALD was a good thing. JORDAN advised he did not know RUBY or OSWALD and had never heard of them prior to the time they appeared on television in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY. He knew of no connection between them and could furnish no information regarding them other than what he has received via news media.

HOYLE on December 20, 1963, that on the evening of the afternoon that JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, a group of individuals who had been drinking in his tavern decided to send a telegram to RUBY to congratulate him for shooting OSWALD. He added that it was a spur-of-the-moment decision and that although the telegram was sent by one DONALD A. WALTMAN, 28 Silver Street, Bayonne, New Jersey, he permitted WALTMAN to sign the telegram with the name of the tavern, that is Amble Inn. He added that he knows neither RUBY nor OSWALD and that to the best of his knowledge neither does WALTMAN.

DONALD A. WALTMAN, 28 Silver Street, Bayonne, New Jersey, advised SA HOYLE on December 20, 1963, that he had been drinking the day OSWALD was shot and at the time he felt it was a good idea to send a telegram of congratulations to JACK RUBY. He said that he did this and that the telegram was signed Amble Inn. He added, however, that he does not know RUBY or OSWALD and that to the best of his knowledge no one he is acquainted with knows either of these individuals.

On December 19, 1963, ALICE ROSARIO, also known as Mrs. Florencio Rosario, Apartment 49, 1300 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, telephone number WA 1-2696, advised SA WILLIAM N. KIDWELL, JR. that on November 24, 1963, after witnessing the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK LEON RUBY on television, she directed a telegram to RUBY in care of the Dallas, Texas Police Department congratulating him on his actions. Mrs. ROSARIO stated that she is not acquainted with RUBY or OSWALD and had no prior knowledge of these individuals until the time of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and the subsequent murder of OSWALD. She stated she cannot recall exactly what she sent in this telegram, but she believed that it included the phrase "I would be honored to call you friend". She explained that she was quite upset over the assassination of President KENNEDY, and even now believes that OSWALD deserved to die for committing this crime. She was unable to recall further information concerning this incident.

ALBERT EDMOND LONG, also known as ED LONG, 293 Maria Street, Santa Clara, California, advised this date he has had absolutely no acquaintanceship with RUBY or OSWALD and sent the telegram to RUBY believing that a long trial with the attendant publicity is just what OSWALD would have wanted. He advised that it was a spur of the moment act but he still feels that considerable time and expense have been saved.

SA ORVILLE N. They advised that they did not know either RUBY or OSWALD personally and they had no information to offer concerning them. They advised that they thought so much of President KENNEDY that they wanted to congratulate RUBY for what he had done. They wish now that they had not sent the telegram.

AT SANTA CRUZ, CALIFORNIA

On December 20, 1963, SA ORVILLE N. MOLMEN was advised by Mrs. GEORGE (JUNE HESTER) CALLICOTTE, 645 Glenwood Cut Off that on the day that RUBY killed OSWALD or the day after, she telephoned a telegram to the San Jose Office of Western Union congratulating RUBY for what he had done. She advised that she became very emotional about President KENNEDY's death and for this reason sent the telegraph of congratulations. She advised that after she sent the telegram she was sorry she had sent it.

Mrs. CALLICOTTE stated that she did not know either JACK RUBY or OSWALD personally and has no information to offer concerning them.

Reur airtel of 12/5/63, my reply of 12/10/63.

On December 16, 1963, MYERS was contacted by SA H. WARREN TOOL, JR. at the County Jail, Pascagoula, Mississippi, at which time he said he had no additional information to furnish concerning JACK RUBY other than that he furnished to SA JAMES J. FILES on November 26, 1963.

MYERS advised that he was originally confined on bad check charges, but that after his escape from confinement, additional charges of assisting in a jail break had been filed against him. MYERS advised he expects to have the charges against him disposed of by February, 1964, in Circuit Court, and that after he does so, he will contact Agents at Biloxi, Mississippi, as he is interested in "paying his debt to society." He indicated he could obtain information concerning WSTA and narcotics matters.

Awaiting the availability of MYERS and results of cases pending against him at Pascagoula, Mississippi, no further inquiry is presently contemplated.

RE: Bureau airtel to New York and Dallas, 12/19/63; and New York teletype to Bureau and Dallas, 9:23 PM, 12/20/63, re one EDDIE ROCCO.

Enclosed to the Bureau are two copies and to New Orleans one copy of a photograph made available to the Dallas Office on 12/23/63, by EDWARD ROCCO, Free-Lance Photographer. This photo was made by ROCCO at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, on or about 11/5 or 11/6/63 and reflects various patrons, one of whom appearing in the center foreground was allegedly identified by one source as being LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

REC 8 44-24016-894

For information of the Bureau and New Orleans, ROCCO advised as a free-lance photographer and in the nature of his business, he travels about the country interviewing various owners and performers of night clubs and other similar places of entertainment. He stated on or about November 5 or 6, 1963, he came to Dallas to do a profile on JACK L. RUBY and in that connection was present at the Carousel Club on six or seven consecutive nights. During this time, he took two photographs of the interior of the club which depicted patrons sitting at tables and enjoying the floor show. These photos and negatives thereof have been sold by him to Life Magazine. One such photo was made available for reproduction by ROCCO, copies of which are enclosures to this airtel.

ROCCO said subsequent to the making of these photos he was in New Orleans, Louisiana, at which time he displayed the photos to one TERRY FRIEDMAN, a photographer with the "Times Picayume," and FRIEDMAN alleged that the white male appearing in the center foreground of the enclosed photograph "looked like OSWALD to him."

While in New Orleans, ROCCO said he also displayed this photo to an individual, name unrecalled, but who operates a flower shop on Canal Street. This person claimed he had known OSWALD when the latter was about 14 or 15 years old and, upon viewing the photograph, stated the person in question appearing in this photo, was not OSWALD. ROCCO volunteered at the time he visited this florist the latter was being interviewed by two FBI Agents, and the conversation above mentioned did not occur until after the interview was terminated and the FBI Agents had left the premises. ROCCO noted he did not personally feel that the person in this photo was identical with OSWALD.

For further information Bureau and New Orleans, four Bureau Agents assigned to the Dallas Office, who had occasion to personally observe LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to his being shot by RUBY, have stated the person in the photo in their opinion is not identical with OSWALD.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Last Night, December 29, a program titled "Making of the President" was shown on Channel 7 by the American Broadcasting Company. In one of the scenes, the late President Kennedy was addressing a group of clergymen. During Kennedy's speech, the camera focused on a section of the audience and my attention was immediately drawn to a face that resembled that of Lee Harvey Oswald. I have tried to dismiss the idea of this strange resemblence, but it has been on my mind since last night.

I know this information will be acted on by you and your staff. I would be interested to know what, if anything, results from this letter.

Very truly yours,

There are two doors, which open on the north, or on Main Street.

SA LEO L. ROBERTSON, who is 6 feet, 3 inches tall, walking at a normal rate of speed, took the following set out time to cover these distances:

From the far entrance at the front of the Western Union office, down to the entrance approach to the Main Street ramp, which leads into the basement of the Dallas Police Department, 105 steps, time was 63 seconds.

From the near Western Union door, or the west door of the building entrance, to the middle of the Main Street entrance ramp, 101 steps in 58 seconds.

From the middle of the sidewalk of the Main Street ramp to the place where the shooting occurred, 33 steps in 22 seconds.

SA JAMES C. From the middle of the sidewalk of the Main Street ramp to the place where the shooting occurred, he took 37 steps in 22 seconds.

Captain O. A. JONES, of the Dallas Police Department, had the man in the Police Crime Laboratory measure the actual distance from the east end of the Western Union Building to the center of the Main Street ramp and found that it was 356 feet and 6 inches. It is to be noted that there are two doors opening on Main Street from the Western Union Building.

WILLIAM J. NEWMAN, Dallas Reserve Policeman, residence 10923 Cotillion Drive, Garland, Texas, advised that he was called by Sgt. SULLIVAN of the Police Reserve to report to the Central Police Station as soon as he could get there on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963. He stated he arrived there between 9:00 and 9:15 AM and was told to report to Sgt. PUTNAM of the regular Police Department. Sgt. PUTNAM requested that all of the Reserves, approximately 25 in number, assist them in searching all cars and areas in the basement. This was at approximately 9:20 AM when they began, and at about 10:15 AM Sgt. PUTNAM told him to guard the door underneath the ramp coming in to the basement from the Commerce Street side where the armored truck was parked.

He advised the door he was guarding went into the basement, which was the engine room. He stated that no one came in or out of this door while he was stationed there, and he was there from approximately 10:20 until approximately ten or fifteen minutes after the shooting. He advised that he did not see the shooting. He did not know RUBY. He never knew or heard of any officers working for RUBY. He stated at the time he went into the basement there were probably fifteen or twenty people already there other than policemen and that they were newsmen, photographers and TV cameramen. He did not know any of them. He stated these people were already there and he was not in a position to observe any others coming in to the basement, so that he was unable to say what identification they had to show or if they were challenged to show any form of identification.

He estimated that at the time of the actual shooting there were approximately fifty people in there other than the police officers. He knew of no security measures taken other than what his assignment was but did say that he had heard the armored car was going to be a decoy and that OSWALD would be taken to the County Jail in another car. He did not recall who told him this.

As mentioned previously, he was assigned to guard the door leading to the engine room. This door is on the east side of the ramp and back toward the Commerce Street side of the building. It is to be noted that both the Main Street and Commerce Street ramps enter into the basement level on a sharp grade. NEWMAN, from where he was stationed, could see the lower part of the Main Street ramp but was not able to see the top of the ramp where the police officers guarding the Main Street ramp were stationed since he was on the level of the basement floor. He stated at approximately one minute before the actual shooting occurred he saw a man coming down the lower part of the Main Street ramp. From his position he was unable to see the upper part, therefore could not say whether an officer stopped and asked this man for any identification.

He stated from the time he saw the man on the lower part of the ramp, the man had to take just a few steps and he was on the basement floor level. He advised that the various members of the news media which were mentioned previously were all on the basement floor level. Therefore, they were in his line of vision and prevented him from getting an unobstructed view of the man. His obstructed view prevented him from seeing where the man disappeared into the crowd. He advised that he did not know JACK RUBY and had not heard any talk concerning him prior to the shooting. He never heard of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

FBI TO QUESTION RUBY AGAIN—WHY?

By Dom Bonafede
Of The Herald Tribune Staff

WASHINGTON.

Still trying to fit together the loose pieces in the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination, FBI agents have requested and received permission to question Dallas strip club operator Jack Ruby over the week end.

Ruby, in full view of national television viewers, shot and killed Lee Harvey Oswald Nov. 24, two days after the young ex-Marine sniper murdered the President.

Since Ruby is being held in custody of local authorities, the FBI had to receive the approval of Dallas County Sheriff W. E. Becker and Ruby's attorney, Melvin Belli, of San Francisco, before questioning him.

Mr. Belli, frequently referred to as the "king of torts" because of his success in presenting medical evidence, was in San Francisco yesterday but will be present throughout the interrogation.

Sheriff Becker told the Herald Tribune he did not inquire into the nature of the questioning to be pursued by the FBI but believed it would cover "the general overall situation." He said the FBI may confer with Ruby tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

Other sources said the FBI action was taken in conjunction with a request by the blue-ribbon panel named by President Johnson to investigate the assassination and subsequent slaying of Oswald. The commission earlier this week asked the FBI to turn over materials forming the basis of the agency's investigative report on the assassination. At the time, Chief Justice Earl Warren, commission chairman, reported the panel was also seeking evidence beyond the report.

Washington officials denied that the FBI interrogation is part of a line of inquiry to determine whether Ruby and Oswald had ever known each other, and if a conspiracy existed between them.

"There's been a lot of rumors and speculation about it, but Ruby and Oswald absolutely did not know each other," commented an authoritative spokesman. "We've talked to many, many, many people who knew both and we have never been able to connect the two."

Sheriff Becker said Ruby is "separated from the other prisoners for his protection—you can understand that."

He aded that Ruby has "adjusted very well" to prison life and has given his jailers no trouble.

Meanwhile, pathologists who performed an autopsy on President Kennedy reported he was shot twice from behind. They said he might have survived the first bullet, which struck him in the upper part of his right shoulder and lodged in his lung. A second bullet hit Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who was riding in the President's car. Gov. Connally was seriously wounded but has since recovered.

The third bullet pierced the back of the right side of Mr. Kennedy's head, a small fragment of the pellet angling downward and passing through his throat. Damage caused by the shot would cause almost instantaneous death, the pathologists said.

Earlier, the wound in Mr. Kennedy's throat confused investigators and led to speculation that he may have ben shot from the front as well as from the rear. In such a case, more than one assassin had to be involved.

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

The major facets of this investigation concern such questions as whether there was any connection between Oswald and Ruby, the manner in which Ruby gained entrance to the basement, whether any other person conspired with Ruby to kill Oswald and whether any police officer permitted the killing. We are also attempting to compile as detailed a record as possible of Ruby's movements from 11-21-63 to 11-24-63.

Discrepancies have been found in the statements of various witnesses particularly with regard to the manner in which Ruby gained entrance to the basement. All aspects of the investigation are within Ruby's knowledge; and if he should provide a frank and complete statement, it could materially aid in resolving the issues under investigation.

In a memorandum of 12-11-63, which is attached for ready reference, consideration was given to the desirability of interviewing Ruby, and it was determined that the interview should be conducted if Ruby's defense counsel and the County District Attorney agreed. It was recognized at that time that Melvin Belli, one of Ruby's attorneys, will attempt to get all of the publicity out of this case that he can; however, it is felt that the best interests of the Bureau require we meet the situation head on in order that we will be in a position of having exhausted every possible source of pertinent information. Should we fail to interview Ruby, the President's Commission or others could raise the question as to why no effort was made to obtain information from Ruby which might resolve the issues of the investigation.

ACTION

Ruby, defense counsel, and the County District Attorney have agreed to Ruby's interview, and arrangements have been made for Ruby to be interviewed between the evening of 12-20-63 and 12-22-63. Belli has insisted upon being present, and the Agents have been cautioned to the importance of phrasing their questions in such a manner that neither Belli nor Ruby will become aware of information which should be withheld from them.

Dearest Dad,

I was very happy to get three letters from you last week, one after the other. This week, I have not received a single one and it is Wednesday already.

We are still astonished at the turn of events and we are very anxious to know the effect over there of the untimely appearance of our top and only leader, as he took it for granted that he was referred to in a matter of which he had not been accused. What will SERGIO say about the charge made against him to the effect that he knew what was going to happen? In short, we are assailed by hundreds of unanswered conjectures.

On the other hand, you have the fact that our government agreed that OSWALD had gone to the Cuban Embassy in Mexico to ask for a Cuban visa en route to Moscow. Could he have been trying to get a visa or money for services he was going to render? Besides, it is known here that RUBINSTEIN was here a little less than a year ago visiting a Mr. PRANSKI, owner of a shop dealing in touris articles, located on Prado Street between Animas and Trocadero, opposite the Sevilla Biltmore. In short, there is something rotten in Denmark. When you answer me, tell me what comments are being made there about these facts.

Here, some important persons in the government consider t government here definitely established. Also, the worms believe that it is coming to an end, and that there is no help for it. Who are you to believe? God, alone, will have the last say.

I am still improving, but there is a saying, which I don't remember very well, about a dog who loses his fleas. Now, I have caught a cold and I spend the nights coughing and going without sleep. After taking Benadryl, Cosedal and Largactil, I have finally given up. Now, it is after 3 A.M. Naturally, I then spend the following day in a daze.

My wife is well, constantly fighting with all the orders issued and keeping house. Mother is the same.

EVELINA was here last night and asked me to send greetings. She always tells me to, and I forget to do so. We were not able to go and see the photos at the home of CONCHA, because my car was not running for several days. I have already found the part, and thank God, they are going to fix it for me one of these days.

Do you still see SUSO? How is that sour drink? Is he getting any sweeter, or what?

Well, I don't have much more to tell you today, so I will say goodby until the next letter. Give our love to CARY and family, and our love, kisses and embraces to you, as always.

PRIETA and CHINO*

The word "Prieta" may mean "the dark one" and "Chino", the Chinese man.

Mr. Carlos Villa, 1450 Coral Way, Miami, Florida, furnished to the FBI on December 21, 1963, a letter which had been forwarded to a friend of his named Jose Antonio Juan. Mr. Juan had received the letter from his son living in Cuba.

In the letter received by Mr. Juan from his son the statement was made, "it is known here that Rubinstein was here a little less than a year ago visiting a Mr. Pranski, owner of a shop dealing in tourist articles, located on Prado Street between Animas and Trocadero, opposite the Sevilla Biltmore." The reference to Rubinstein appears to refer to Jack L. Ruby who is presently in custody, Dallas, Texas, on charges of shooting Lee Harvey Oswald.

For your information this Bureau's investigation concerning Jack L. Ruby has developed no information that Ruby has ever been in Cuba except on one occasion in 1959 when he visited there briefly on a vacation trip. Ruby himself readily admits to this trip but has denied any other trips to Cuba or contacts with persons there.

It is requested that, through available sources of your Agency, you develop any information possible relating to the above-quoted statement in an effort to resolve the allegation that Jack L. Ruby has possibly visited Cuba since 1959 and has connections there.

The information set forth above was submitted to the Bureau by Dallas with the request that such investigation as may be possible through CIA or otherwise be conducted concerning the person referred to as "Rubinstein" and to further identify Pranski. CIA is not in a position to conduct any effective investigation inside Cuba; however, it is possible that through its exile sources they may be able to come up with something that would be of value in resolving the allegation that possibly Ruby has visited Cuba subsequent to 1959.

FERDINAND, aka, ITSMV", MI file 26-4884, which file reflects that HOLT left a 1950 Mercury as security for a $75 loan at Smith Auto Parts, Dublin, Georgia on 1/17/52. The car was reported stolen 12/6/51, Kewaskum, Wisconsin. HOLT was placed on two years probation on 6/24/52 in federal court in Milwaukee but violated probation and was sentenced to one year by the same court as a result. Involved in this offense was a friend of HOLT, DAVID F. FERDINAND, but prosecution was declined as to FERDINAND on the ground that there was insufficient evidence to warrant prosecution.

HOLT is also the subject of the case entitled "FRANK HOLT - FUGITIVE, FV", MI file 76-527, which deals with efforts which resulted in the apprehension of HOLT in Chicago, Illinois on 1/29/53 by Bureau Agents.

HOLT is also the subject of the case entitled "FRANK KENNEDY HOLT, aka, IWU OF FRIENDLY NATIONS; IMP", MI file 43-32, of which Los Angeles is office of origin. This file disclosed that HOLT wore the uniform of the RCAF in Pasadena, California and he was subsequently apprehended by Bureau Agents in Indianapolis on 12/23/42 wearing an RCAF uniform. However, prosecution was declined in view of the fact that subject enlisted in the RCAF at Windsor, Canada 6/22/41 and that he had the right to wear that uniform.

HOLT is also the subject of an investigation entitled "FRANK KENNEDY HOLT, INFORMATION CONCERNING, POSSIBLE BANK ROBBER", MI file 91-934. Information was received on 10/4/56 from HOLT's daughter, JOANNE CAROL HOLT, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, that on or about 11/1/55 HOLT received a roll of bills from a man named BROWNIE. There were large bills in the roll which allegedly amounted to $10,000. JOANNE HOLT claimed that a month later her father received more money from BROWNIE in Cincinnati, Ohio. The first contact had been in Charleston, West Virginia. JOANNE said that her father carried a gun in a shoulder holster and also had one strapped to his leg. Milwaukee by airtel dated 10/4/56 requested investigation of Albuquerque, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. JOANNE HOLT had said that her father claimed to have participated in a bank robbery in or near Albuquerque, but Albuquerque was unable to identify any unsolved bank robbery in which HOLT might have taken part. JOANNE HOLT claimed that she left a briefcase at the Greyhound bus depot in Cincinnati on or about 1/3 or 1/4/56, which briefcase belonged to her father and the contents of which were unknown. Cincinnati could not find the briefcase, although a brown leather briefcase had been removed from a locker on 1/1/56 and turned over to an unknown claimant on 1/5/56 upon payment of storage. JOANNE HOLT, as stated above, claimed that she first saw BROWNIE give money to her father in Charleston, West Virginia, so Pittsburgh was advised but no lead was set out. No further investigation was conducted. The file notes that

TO : Director, FBI DATE: 1/2/64

FROM : Legat, London (62-360)(RUC)

SUBJECT: JACK LEON RUBINSTEIN, aka.
Jack Ruby;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM

The following is submitted for the information of the Bureau:

On 12/30/63 a Dr. DENNIS COWAN contacted this office stating he had information relating to the death of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and the subsequent shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He was interviewed on 12/30/63 by a representative of this office and Detective Sergeant CHRISTOPHER DRACOTT of the Nottinghill Police Station, London.

COWAN advised he is a senior flight surgeon for the British Civil Aeronautics Administration and in the course of his business had gone to the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) Institute at Fort Worth, Texas and stayed in the Fort Worth-, Dallas area from 11/19 through 27/1963. While at the FAA Institute he was in contact with Dr. JOHN D. DOUGHERTY who is the FAA regional flight surgeon.

He stated he was in Dallas the morning of the President's assassination and stayed in Dallas for a few days thereafter. On the Sunday morning when OSWALD was to be transported from the Dallas Police Department to jail he stationed himself as a tourist across the street from the exit to the jail and took a number of 35 mm color slides. The slides show various individuals, police officers and others, who were stationed around the automobile exit from the jail. The photos include pictures of the armored car used to transport OSWALD, as well as pictures of the ambulance that eventually took him to Parkland Hospital.

Dr. COWAN stated his reason for contacting this office was that he wished to make the photos available to the FBI on a loan basis if they were believed to be of interest. It [illegible] be noted that COWAN appeared extremely effeminate in his manner and he was thanked for volunteering the information and advised that his possession of these photos would be made a matter of record with the FBI.

Records of the Visa Section, American Embassy, London, reflect COWAN's full name as DENNIS LEVENTON COWAN, born 10/18/24 in Glasgow, possessing U.K. passport 537263 issued 12/17/58. He has a four year visitors visa issued 5/15/62 and resides at 22 Caroline Place, London, W.2.

This office is not in possession of the full details re this matter, however, it is believed from the amount of publicity given to this affair there will be a sufficient quantity of all types of photos available to the Bureau should the Bureau desire them. Therefore it is not anticipated any further contact will be had with Dr. COWAN.

Assistant Attorney General Miller of the Criminal Division telephoned with reference to the subpoena which was served on two Bureau Agents at Dallas on December 23, 1963. These two Agents, C. Ray Hall and Manning Clements, interviewed Ruby at the jail following his arrest for killing Oswald. The subpoena was issued by Ruby's attorneys in connection with a hearing originally scheduled for December 23, 1963, to determine if Ruby should be released on bail.

SAC Shanklin, who called in from Dallas on December 23 about this matter, proposed at that time that the Agents appear but not answer any questions except that they did interview Ruby and he answered questions. Shanklin was to get in touch with the U. S. Attorney. Actually, the hearing was not held, having been postponed. It is now scheduled for January 24, 1964.

Assistant Attorney General Miller said that he was calling at this time so that we could give consideration to the action which the U. S. Attorney should take when this matter comes up in court on January 24. He noted that the U. S. Attorney has been in touch with Ruby's Dallas counsel, who is a reputable member of the bar. The U. S. Attorney has been assured that any questioning of the Bureau Agents will be limited to the facts surrounding the Agents' interview of Ruby following his arrest.

While there is some question as to the admissibility of the Agents' testimony in this regard, the local District Attorney who is representing the state will not object to the Agents' testifying. He feels that the Agents' testimony would not be detrimental to the state's case in any way and that if he objected to the testimony, this could react unfavorably to the state.

Miller asked that the Bureau consider this matter. He said he would appreciate receiving any thoughts which we might have. He noted that the U. S. Attorney could be instructed to rely upon the privileged nature of Federal Government matters. He observed that this would be technical in nature because as a matter of fact there is nothing confidential about the statements made by Ruby.

Miller also expressed the feeling that if the U. S. Attorney argued against the appearance of the Agents on the basis of privilege, it might create the impression that the Federal Government had something to hide, whereas actually the U. S. Government has no direct interest in this state murder prosecution.

While Miller is perfectly willing to go along with the Director's decision, whatever it may be, he thought we should give some consideration to the unfavorable reaction should the Agents decline to testify. He pointed out that this case is obviously a most important one and the unusual procedure of allowing the Agents to testify in the state prosecution could be justified.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

On reviewing the matter, it appears that Miller's observations have merit. It would be difficult to contend that the information here was confidential. Should the state request it when the trial for murder actually begins, the Agents would testify for the state as to what Ruby told them. Ultimately, the decision as to this testimony is properly one for the Department. We will, therefore, if you approve, inform Miller that we appreciate his bringing this matter to our attention and will defer to his views as to whether the Agents should be allowed to testify. The U. S. Attorney should, of course, be present in State Court if Agents testify.

Miller advised 2/12/64 Miller desires agents made available to testify if requested

Reurtel 1/8/64.

The subpoena of SAs Manning C. Clements and C. Ray Hall to testify at Ruby's bond hearing now scheduled for 1/24/64 has been discussed with the Department. The Department desires that the Agents testify pursuant to the subpoena with the U. S. Attorney present.

U. S. Attorney should insure that the questioning of Bureau Agents is limited to the facts surrounding the Agents' interviews of Ruby.

With regard to current press reports that attorneys for Ruby have stated they have offered Ruby for polygraph and truth serum examinations by the FBI and that they will ask for reports of all FBI investigation on the assassination of President Kennedy and the killing of Oswald, make certain that the Bureau is promptly advised of any such specific requests received.

Enclosed is one copy of an FD302 (16 pages) reflecting interview with JACK L. RUBY, 12/21/63. This will be included in an early report.

Attention is directed to paragraph one, page nine, in which RUBY stated he did not go to the Cabana Motel during the pertinent period. Investigation indicates RUBY did in fact go to this motel.

Attention is directed to paragraph two, page nine. RUBY is believed to be in error when he stated he gave $5.00 to "LITTLE LYNN" on Friday night, November 22, 1963. Investigation indicates this occurrence was on Saturday night, November 23, 1963.

On page 4, paragraph 2, RUBY is quoted as saying he did not go to Parkland Hospital on November 22, 1963. The only indication that he did go to the hospital on that date was from SETH KANTOR, a Scripps-Howard newspaperman, Washington, D. C., who claimed to have seen RUBY there at approximately 1:28 PM, just before the official announcement of President KENNEDY's death. Investigation tends to indicate RUBY was not at Parkland Hospital, that he was elsewhere at the time in question. A lead has been set out for Washington Field to reinterview KANTOR who it appears used his "literary license" in effort to write a saleable news story.

JACK L. RUBY was interviewed in an interview room located on floor 6-M of the Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas. His attorneys, MELVIN BELLI, San Francisco, California; JOE TONAHILL, Jasper, Texas; SAM BRODY, Los Angeles, California, and WILLIAM CHOULOS, San Francisco, California, were present. The interview commenced at 1:50 PM and continued until 3:30 PM, when RUBY went to the rest room. It was resumed again at 3:34 PM and continued until 5:00 PM.

JACK L. RUBY was advised by SA C. RAY HALL that he did not have to make any statement. He was reminded that his attorneys were present, and that any statements he made in answers to questions could be used against him in a court of law.

JACK L. RUBY then furnished the following information:

On the night of Wednesday, November 20, 1963, he was at his club, the Carousel Club, in Dallas, Texas. He thinks he closed the club at about 2:00 AM on November 21, 1963. One of his dancers, called "LITTLE LYNN", drank some champagne before closing, and when she started home she got sick and passed out at Nichols Brothers parking garage near his club. He thinks this occurred after 2:00 AM on November 21, 1963, but it could have been after 2:00 AM on November 20, 1963. He went over to see about her, and tried to get her to go to a hospital, but she refused to go. He remained with her, trying to take care of her, until 4:00 AM or 5:00 AM and then went home, so far as he can now recall. After he got home, he went to bed and went to sleep.

At about 10:30 AM or 11:00 AM on November 21, 1963, he received a telephone call at home from a girl named TRAMMELL, whose first name may be CONNIE, or something similar. He met this girl at the Carousel Club about eight months previously, and since meeting her she has called him on the telephone several times. The TRAMMELL girl lives in an apartment on either Gaston Avenue or Live Oak Street in Dallas. When she called him on November 21, 1963, she told him that she had to get a job and that she had an appointment with LAMAR HUNT. He asked her how she got an appointment with HUNT, and she told him that she called HUNT's home and got his number, then just called his office and asked him for an appointment about a job.

by Special Agents C. RAY HALL and MANNING C. CLEMENTS - LAC Date dictated 12/23/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

TRAMMELL asked RUBY to come after her and give her a ride downtown, so he got dressed, picked her up and drove her downtown. RUBY had an appointment with his attorney but does not remember whether it was GRAHAM KOCH or STANLEY KAUFMAN. Both attorneys have offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, Dallas, the same building in which LAMAR HUNT has his offices. TRAMMELL went up to see LAMAR HUNT and after RUBY completed his business with his attorney regarding some tax matters, he waited around the cigar stand in the lobby for a while for TRAMMELL to come down, but she did not, so he left and went to the Carousel Club. When he got to the club, one of his employees named LARRY was there.

LARRY was a young boy whom he had seen at the State Fair of Texas, and he gave LARRY a job at the Carousel Club after the fair closed. He had asked LARRY to build a crate so he could ship a dog to a friend of RUBY's, AL GRUBER, who lives on Olympic Street in Los Angeles, California. LARRY had not built the crate, so he got after him for not having done what he had asked him to do. So far as he remembers, he stayed around the Carousel Club until about 9:30 PM, when he and RALPH PAUL, who owns part of the Carousel Club, went to the Egyptian Lounge for dinner.

While they were eating at the Egyptian Lounge, a man named CONNORS, who is a salesman for the Dallas Morning News newspaper, came over to the table and invited RUBY over to the Castaway Club located nearby. He declined the invitation because he did not want to go to this club as the manager had hired an orchestra away from RUBY that had played for RUBY for several years. After dinner, RUBY returned to the Carousel Club. During the evening of November 21, 1963, he did the breaks between shows, which were two breaks of twenty minutes each, and he used a roulette wheel to give away prizes to the audience. Sometime during the evening, he ordered someone out of the club because he was creating a disturbance, but he has no idea who this person was. He believes he closed the Carousel Club at about 2:00 AM on November 22, 1963, and went home. If he went anywhere to eat before going home, he does not remember it. He does not now remember whether GEORGE SENATOR, who shares the apartment with RUBY, was at home when he arrived there or not, but he went directly to bed and went to sleep.

On the morning of November 22, 1963, RUBY got up at about 9:30 AM and does not now recall whether GEORGE SENATOR was in the apartment or not. He drove downtown and stopped at the Dallas Morning News at about 10:50 AM. He believes he stopped for a moment and talked to two girls employed there, GLADYS CRADDOCK and a girl named CONNELLY or CONNELL. He thinks he gave them a bottle of Larson's CRD, a food supplement for persons on a diet. He then went to the office of TONY ZOPPI, but TONY was not there. RUBY looked over a brochure there about BILL DEMAR, a master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club. Another employee of the newspaper, a Mr. PAYNE, may have been in ZOPPI's office while RUBY was in there.

RUBY left that office and went to Mr. JOHN NEWNAM's office at the newspaper to talk about RUBY's ads. RUBY was trying to make a 12:00 noon deadline. Mr. CONNORS, the same person RUBY had seen at the Egyptian Lounge the previous evening, came in to NEWNAM's office, and they talked for a while. NEWNAM came in, and RUBY completed his advertisements for his clubs.

At about that time, people began running around, and RUBY heard someone say that somebody had been shot. First, he heard that Governor CONNALLY had been shot, then a Secret Service Agent, and then someone said that "our beloved President has been shot". RUBY then called his sister, EVA GRANT, and told her about the shooting and told her he would be at her house as soon as he could. He left the Dallas Morning News but does not know the time when he left. He drove to the Carousel Club and told his employee, ANDY ARMSTRONG, to get in touch with everybody and tell them he was closing his clubs. He then called a friend, ALICE NICHOLS, and she told him that Neiman-Marcus had closed their store. He called AL GRUBER in Los Angeles from the Carousel Club and told GRUBER he would send a dog to him soon. RUBY said he talked to GRUBER about the death of President KENNEDY but began crying and finally just told GRUBER he had to break it off and hung up the telephone.

Somebody brought some merchandise to the club, but he does not remember who it was, and RUBY just told the man to take the merchandise back as he did not want any. He called his sister several times during the afternoon and was so upset that he was belligerent toward his employees, ANDY and LARRY, who were at the Carousel Club. He remembers getting a telephone call from KATHY KAY; he called his business associate, RALPH PAUL, and told PAUL that he was going to close his clubs; he called BRECK WALL in Galveston, and also JOE PETERSON; and he called his sister

Sometime late that afternoon, he left the Carousel Club and went to the Ritz Delicatessen and bought a lot of food and then went to the home of his sister in Dallas, EVA GRANT. He and his sister talked and while there, his employee, ANDY, called and told him that DON SAFRAN, of the Dallas Times Herald, had called and wanted to get in touch with him. RUBY then called SAFRAN, who told RUBY that the Cabana and the Century Room were going to close and he did not know what ABE and BARNEY WEINSTEIN were going to do. RUBY said he told SAFRAN that he had already closed, without asking what the other club owners were doing. SAFRAN then asked RUBY about whether he would be open the next night, and RUBY said he did not know but would call him back. In a few minutes RUBY called SAFRAN back and told him he was going to be closed Saturday and Sunday nights, in addition to Friday night.

At no time did RUBY go to Parkland Hospital on November 22, 1963. At about 7:00 PM or 8:00 PM, he left his sister's home and drove to his apartment to get dressed to go to Congregation Shearith Israel Synagogue, arriving there at about 10:00 PM or 10:30 PM. Before he left his apartment, he called Dr. COLEMAN JACOBSON to determine when the services began at his Synagogue. Following services, refreshments were served, but he did not feel like visiting with anyone. He stayed there for a short time, then drove toward downtown. He passed the Club BaliHai, noticing that it was open, and then drove by the Gay Life Club and saw that it was closed. He then drove on to Phil's Delicatessen and went in and talked to the owner, PHIL MILLER. He had read in the newspaper, or heard over the radio, that the police officers in the Homicide Bureau would be working overtime that night, so he ordered ten sandwiches and decided he would take them something to eat. After he ordered the sandwiches, he called the Police Department Homicide Bureau and talked to Detective SIMS, telling him he was getting some sandwiches and would bring them down for them. SIMS told him they were about through and were winding up things there and did not want anything to eat. After SIMS told him that, he decided he would take the sandwiches to the employees at KLIF Radio Station.

He explained that he has known GORDON MC LENDON, owner of the radio station, for a number of years, and he also knows RUSS KNIGHT, a disk jockey at the station. The employees at the radio station have been good about giving him free plugs when he was trying to get started with his clubs, and he just wanted to do something for them because he knew they would be working late. He called GORDON MC LENDON's home, from Phil's Delicatessen, in order to get a number at the radio station so he could talk to the men on duty there. The daughter gave him a number, and he told her he was going to take some sandwiches to the radio station, but the daughter told him her mother had already sent some food up there. RUBY called the number he had gotten, but it was a wrong number.

He picked up his sandwiches and discovered they had made only eight, when he ordered ten. He drank a soft drink, then left with his sandwiches and drove downtown, driving up Commerce Street and parking across from the City Hall. He decided to go to the Police Department to try to locate some newsmen from KLIF in order to obtain the unlisted phone number for the radio station. He went to the third floor of the Police Department, where the newsmen were gathered. As he got off the elevator, a policeman, who was not known to RUBY, asked him where he was going, or whom he wanted to see. RUBY told him he was looking for JOE DELONG, of KLIF, and the officer let him go on inside. He looked around for a while, without seeing anyone from KLIF, and asked some unknown police officer to have JOE DELONG paged over the loudspeaker. DELONG did not answer the page, but while he was waiting he saw Captain FRITZ, of the Police Department, come out of his office with a person, OSWALD. RUBY heard a reporter tell FRITZ that this was not a good place, so FRITZ went back inside his office with OSWALD. In a minute, RUBY heard some newsmen say something about the basement, so he went down there to an assembly room where some newsmen were.

When he saw OSWALD here, this was the first time that he had ever seen him. He had never heard the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD before OSWALD's arrest on November 22, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department. Any rumors that OSWALD was ever at any of RUBY's clubs are wrong because RUBY had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any place before he saw him with Captain FRITZ at the Dallas Police Department the night of November 22, 1963. Any rumors that OSWALD was at the Carousel Club are absolutely untrue. RUBY has since heard reports that his master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club, BILL DEMAR, has reported that OSWALD was at the Carousel Club one night before President KENNEDY was assassinated.

RUBY said that this is absolutely false, because OSWALD was never there. RUBY has heard that ED SULLIVAN got in touch with BILL DEMAR and wanted DEMAR on SULLIVAN's television program, but SULLIVAN did not believe DEMAR's story and would not use him. RUBY further advised that newspaper reports that RUBY and OSWALD were seen together in Waco, Texas, are complete falsehoods because he was never with OSWALD anywhere. Reports that OSWALD was going to RUBY's apartment after President KENNEDY's death are absolutely false, because OSWALD did not know RUBY, RUBY has never had any previous connection with OSWALD, and OSWALD could not have been going to RUBY's apartment. RUBY said that his employee, ANDY ARMSTRONG, knows more about RUBY's club and RUBY's morals than anyone else, and ANDY can tell anyone that OSWALD was never in the Carousel Club.

When RUBY got to the assembly room, he went to the back of the room and stood on top of a table, so he could see and be out of the way. In a few minutes, HENRY WADE, the District Attorney, and Captain FRITZ came into the assembly room with OSWALD for an interview with the press. OSWALD mumbled or talked a little, but the newsmen could not hear him. RUBY did not hear OSWALD either. After a short time, Captain FRITZ took OSWALD away. HENRY WADE was then interviewed by the newsmen.

RUBY said that he had his revolver in his right front trouser pocket all during this evening, November 22 and 23, 1963, except when he went to church services. He left the revolver in his car while he was in church but put it back in his right trouser pocket when he got back to his car. He said he carried his gun because he had a lot of money on his person and always carried his gun when he carried money.

After the interview with WADE, RUBY left the assembly room and was out in the corridor. A newsman came by whom RUBY did not know, and RUBY asked him if he had seen JOE DELONG, of KLIF. This man said he had not seen DELONG, and RUBY mentioned that he had some sandwiches for KLIF. This man said he was from KBOX radio and asked RUBY what was the matter with them. RUBY said he told the man that next time maybe, but this time he had the sandwiches for KLIF. This man from KBOX then gave RUBY the unlisted phone number for KLIF. RUBY went around behind the counter in the basement offices of the Police Department and telephoned KLIF, talking to an employee named KEN. He told KEN he had some sandwiches but could not get in the entrance door to the radio station. At about that time, HENRY WADE walked by, and RUBY was still talking to KEN so he asked KEN if he wanted to talk to HENRY WADE. KEN said he did, so RUBY called to HENRY WADE and told WADE he was wanted on the telephone. WADE talked on the phone to KEN, then handed the phone back to RUBY. RUBY talked to KEN again, and KEN told him it was great of RUBY to help him get the interview with WADE.

RUBY said he then left the Police Department building, went to his car and drove over to Radio Station KLIF. He got the sandwiches out of his car to take them upstairs, but the front door was locked. In about ten or fifteen minutes, RUSS KNIGHT came by and let him inside. They all went upstairs, and the employees on duty ate the sandwiches. RUBY left Radio Station KLIF at about 3:00 AM on November 23, 1963, and drove to the Dallas Times Herald newspaper building. He went inside and talked to an employee named PAT GADOSH and gave PAT a twist board, an exerciser. GADOSH is the person at the newspaper who takes RUBY's ads for his clubs.

He talked with GADOSH about the advertisement in the Dallas Morning News, by BERNARD WEISSMAN, that was critical of President KENNEDY. GADOSH told RUBY not to worry about the ad, because the Dallas Morning News was suffering enough for carrying such an ad. RUBY got his ad taken care of and drove toward home.

While driving home, RUBY thought of the similarity between the BERNARD WEISSMAN advertisement and a sign he had seen which read, "Impeach EARL WARREN". He drove home and awakened GEORGE SENATOR and asked SENATOR to go with him. He called the Carousel Club and awakened his employee, LARRY, and asked LARRY if he knew how to operate a Polaroid camera. LARRY said he could operate the camera, so he told LARRY he would be down to pick up LARRY and the camera. RUBY and SENATOR then drove to the Carousel Club sometime about 4:00 or 5:00 AM on November 23, 1963, and picked up LARRY and the camera. They drove to Central Expressway and Ross Avenue, where they found a sign, about 2 feet by 4 feet, on top of a Potter Steel Company sign, which read "Impeach EARL WARREN", and at the bottom of this sign was "Box 1757, Beltham, Mass."

They took some photographs of this sign, and RUBY then remembered that the BERNARD WEISSMAN ad had the address "Box 1792, Dallas, Texas", so they drove to the Main Post Office in Dallas and looked at Post Office Box 1792. RUBY asked a man on duty at the post office for the name of the man who had Post Office Box 1792, but the man told him he could not give RUBY the name of the box holder. They left and went to the Southland Hotel

Coffee Shop, where RUBY talked for a few minutes with the owner, a man believed to be named WEBB. RUBY said as a patriotic American he was so upset and intense over the sign, and the advertisement critical of President KENNEDY, that he could not eat anything but drank some orange juice at the coffee shop. They left the coffee shop and dropped off LARRY at the Carousel Club at about 6:00 AM. As he got out of the car, LARRY told RUBY that he supposed RUBY was not going to bed, and RUBY told LARRY that he was not going to bed. RUBY and SENATOR drove on to their apartment and went to bed.

At about 8:30 AM on November 23, 1963, LARRY phoned RUBY and asked him what kind of dog food he wanted. RUBY said that before he realized that he had told LARRY he was not going to bed, he talked real ugly to LARRY. He found out later that LARRY left the keys to the Carousel Club next door and left town without telling RUBY he was leaving or where he was going. RUBY got up at about 11:00 or 11:30 AM and got dressed and drove downtown. He decided to stop and look at all the wreaths that had been placed on the side of the street near where President KENNEDY had been shot. He looked at the wreaths, then went over to talk to Police Officer CHANEY, who was on duty there, and talked with CHANEY for a few minutes, but choked up and left because he did not want CHANEY to see him crying. He went on up the street and met WES WISE, of KRLD television station, and talked to WISE for a few minutes. He drove on away and as he was leaving he noticed that Captain FRITZ and Chief of Police CURRY were walking around the scene of the assassination. He backed up and told WISE, "There goes FRITZ and CURRY". He then drove on home.

Later on in the afternoon he drove back downtown and went to Sol's Turf Bar and talked with a man named BELLOCHIO, or something like that, who was in the place, and also talked to his accountant, ABE KLEINMAN, who was in the place. He showed them photos that he had taken of the sign "Impeach EARL WARREN", and they talked about that. BELLOCHIO was talking about the bad publicity that Dallas would get because President KENNEDY had been killed in Dallas and said he would probably have to leave town. RUBY reminded him that he had made his money in Dallas and should not leave now. BELLOCHIO wanted one of the photos that RUBY had taken, but RUBY would not give him a photo. While in this bar RUBY called his attorney, STANLEY KAUFMAN, and he told STANLEY about the photos. RUBY was in Sol's Turf Bar about forty-five minutes, then left sometime between 3:00 and 4:00 PM on the afternoon of November 23, 1963.

He does not remember exactly where he went [illegible] when he left but may have gone by the Lacy Building to see his tailor, but he then went back to the Carousel Club and then on home. His employee ANDY at the Carousel Club called him about 6:00 PM and wanted to leave, but RUBY told ANDY to stay at the club to answer any incoming telephone calls. He stayed home until about 11:00 PM, when he went to the Pago Club. He sat down at a back table and ordered a Coke. BOB NORTON, the manager, came over and told RUBY that he was going to close the club but had been told to keep it open. RUBY told NORTON that was all right, he could do whatever he wanted to do, but he had closed his clubs. RUBY left there after he finished his Coke and drove to his Carousel Club. He stayed around there for a little while, then drove home because he was not interested in any gaiety. He did not go to the Cabana Motel and visit a club there.

RUBY said that on the morning of November 24, 1963, he got a call from one of his dancers called LITTLE LYNN, who has been a pain to him because of her actions, and she said she needed some money for her landlord. On Friday night, November 22, 1963, he had to give her $5.00 so she could get home. He did not want her to come by his apartment to get the money because her husband would come with her and RUBY did not like her husband. He told LYNN he would send her some money by Western Union to Fort Worth, Texas. He had a lot of money with him that he had for a deposit to pay his excise tax, so he got his revolver and put it in his right front trouser pocket. He said he never carried the gun in his coat pocket because it would get his coat out of shape.

He said he had no permit to carry a gun and had no card or badge as any kind of ~~law enforcement~~ officer. However, a number of officers of the Dallas Police Department knew he had a gun. He recalled that a couple of times the police officers had taken him out of jail and given his gun back to him. He did not recall the names of these officers. He said that being around clubs and carrying money--it was like a jungle with all the stickups--he carried his revolver when he had money on his person.

He left his apartment, got in his car and started to town to send the money to LITTLE LYNN. As he drove out of his driveway, he stopped and talked to a neighbor, name unknown but who is the father-in-law of Police Officer BUDDY MUENSTER. RUBY had his dog in the car with him. He drove toward town on the Thornton Expressway and turned off onto Industrial Street, then up Industrial to Main Street so he could see the wreaths at the spot where President KENNEDY was assassinated. ~~As he passed~~ the County Building he noticed a lot of people around so he assumed that OSWALD had already been moved to the County Jail. He drove on up Main Street and as he passed the City Hall he noticed a number of people around there. Just before he reached the next corner, he made an illegal left turn into a parking lot across the street from the Western Union Office and parked his car there. He left his dog in his car. He then walked across the street and sent a money order for $25.00 to LITTLE LYNN at Fort Worth.
